In what case Determination of the Commissioners shall.

XIX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Determination of the said Commissioners, touching such Claim or Claims of any Right of Common, or other Rights or Interests in, over upon the said Lands and Grounds hereby directed to be divided, allotted and inclosed, or any Part thereof, shall, in any such Determination shall not be objected to, or, being objected to, such Address or Addresses at Law shall not be brought and proceeded to within the time and manner herein for their Purposes mentioned, be final and conclusive upon all and every Person and Persons, Body and Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate.

Address may be made by Death of Person.

XX. And be it further enacted, That if either of the Parties, in any Address to be brought or Appeal had in pursuance of this Act, shall die pending the same, such Address or Appeal shall not abate by reason thereof, but still be proceeded on as if no such Event had happened.

Objections may be made by Death of Person.

XXI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no such Difference, Dispute or Proceeding, touching the Title to any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, shall impede or delay the said Commissioners in the Execution of this Act; but the Division or Inclosure hereby directed to be made shall be proceeded in notwithstanding any such Difference, Suit or Proceeding; and the said Commissioners shall, by proper Marks and Bounds, set out the Lands and Grounds which shall be allotted in lieu of such Inclosed Property, in that the same may be distinguished from any other Lands and Grounds, and may be had and taken by the Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, who, upon the Determination of such Difference, shall be entitled to the same.

In case of the Death of the Person who has brought the Address, the same to be carried on and defended by their Heirs.

XXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons in whose Favour any such Determination as aforesaid shall have been made, and against whom any Address or Addresses might have been brought if living, shall die before any such Address or Addresses shall have been brought, and before the Expiration of the time heretofore limited for bringing such Address or Addresses, it shall be lawful for the Person or Persons, Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, who might have brought such Address or Addresses against the Person or Persons so dying, to bring the same within the time so limited as aforesaid against such Person or Persons as if actually living, and so serve the Clerk to the said Commissioners with Process for summoning such Address or Addresses, in the last manner as the Party or Parties so dying might have been served therewith if living; and it shall thereupon be incumbent on the Heir or Heirs, or other Person or Persons who shall claim the Benefits of such Determinations as aforesaid, to appear and defend such Address or Addresses in the Name or Names of the Person or Persons so dead, and Proceedings shall be had therein in the same manner as if such Person or Persons had been actually living; and the Rights of all Parties shall be equally heard and concluded by the Exec^{ts} of such Affairs or Affairs.

XXIII. Provided also, and he is further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to enable the said Commissioners to determine any Right between any Parties, contrary to the Possession of any such Parties, excepting cases of Easement; but in case the said Commissioners shall be of Opinion against the Right of the Person or Persons in Possession, they shall further be enabled to determine thereupon until the Possession shall have been given up by or recovered from such Person or Persons by Ejectment or other due Course of Law.

XXIV. And he is further enacted, That if any Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, shall consider himself, herself or themselves prejudiced or aggrieved by the Determinations of the said Commissioners, respecting the Limits or Boundaries of the said Township of Edinburgh, upon the said Lands and Grounds hereby devised to be divided, allotted and inclosed, or of any Part^s, Manor, Townships, Hamlets, District or Places adjoining thereto, in the same shall be set out and determined by the said Commissioners pursuant to the said second Act of the Forty-fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and shall by Writing under his, her or their Hands or Hand give Notice to the said Commissioners, within Three Calendar Months next after such Determination, of his, her or their Desire to have the same determined by an Issue at Law, instead of an Appeal to the Quarter Sessions, under the Provisions of the said last-recited Act; then and in such case it shall be lawful for the Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, so dissatisfied with such Determination, to have the same ascertained by Trial of an Issue at Law, under the Provisions of this Act, in such and the like manner as in case of any disputed Right or Claim.

XXV. And he is further enacted, That for the Purpose of adjusting the Allotments of Land to be made to the several Persons entitled to any Rights of Common upon the said Haycs or Commonable Lands and Uncultivated Grounds hereby devised to be divided and inclosed, the said Commissioners shall and they are hereby authorised to adjudge and determine the Quantity and Value of all and every of the Lands in or upon whereof such Rights of Common is claimed and allowed, and to raise and allocate the same as to them shall seem just and reasonable, according to the real Value thereof, for the Purpose of Halfpenny, without regard to any artificial or extraordinary Value arising from local, temporary or other peculiar Advantages; and such their Judgments and Determination shall be binding and conclusive upon all Parties whatsoever. Provided, that nothing herein contained shall extend to authorize the said Commissioners, or any of them, to consider any ancient Messuage as Building, or House thereof, in respect whereof any Right of Common shall be allowed, at any more or greater Value than any other ancient Messuage or Building, or Scite thereof; but the said Commissioners shall rate and estimate all ancient Messuages and Buildings, and Scites thereof, as so equal Value one with another, and at such Value as they shall think most equitable.

XXVI. And he is further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall and they are hereby required to fit out such and so many private Roads and Ways as shall be necessary for going to His Majesty, His Heirs, Successors and Aliens, and to the Commissioners for the time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, and the Deputy Clerk and Servants of such Commissioners, convenient Access to the Allotments of His Majesty to be set out under the Authority of this Act.

XXVII. And he is further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall and may turn or close, and stop up, or order to be turned or closed and stopped up, any ancient Carriage Road or Way, Roads or Ways, except Turnpike Roads or ancient Footways or Paths, Footways or Paths, or, through, upon or over any of the said Haycs and Commonable Lands, and Open Uncultivated Grounds, hereby devised to be divided, allotted and inclosed, where they shall judge it expedient or expedient, giving such Notice of a Day to be appointed by them to receive Objections, as in the last recited Act of our Forty-fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty is directed or required in the case of setting out the Roads and Ways therein mentioned, and obtaining the Direction of the last recited Act as to the obtaining the Consensus and Order of Two Justices of the Peace previous thereto, and subject to an Appeal to the Quarter Sessions, as in the said recited Act is mentioned.

XXVIII. And he is further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby empowered to drain, order and amend all Systems of Water, Springs and Watercourses within the Lands and Grounds hereby devised to be divided, allotted and inclosed, to be carried and conveyed in such Courses, and through such of the said Lands and Grounds so hereby intended to be divided, allotted and inclosed, as they in their Discretion shall think necessary and proper for the Purposes aforesaid: Provided always, that no such Streams of Water, Springs or Watercourses shall be diverted or turned without the Consent in Writing of the Person or Persons from and upon whose Lands the same shall be carried or conveyed.

XXIX. And he is further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall, and they are hereby required, as soon as conveniently may be after fitting out Public Roads and Highways as by the said recited Act of the Forty-fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty is directed, to fit out and alter, vote and for the Surveyors of the Highways of the said Township of Edinburgh, to mow and such Part or Parts of the said Commonable Lands and Open Uncultivated Grounds to be divided, allotted and inclosed, not exceeding Three Acres, and in such Places, as the said Commissioners shall think proper, for getting Down, Grass or other Materials for the Repairs for Private Roads and Highways within the said Township; and any Grass and Herbage arising therefrom shall be used the same are hereby vested in the said respective Surveyors of the Highways for the time being, who shall let the same, and accords respecting the Rates and Pounds in the same manner as they are by Law liable to account for other Moneys collected and received by them as Surveyors as aforesaid.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That when the Survey of the said Lands and Grounds by this Act intended to be divided, allotted and inclosed, shall have been made and delivered to the said Commissioners for carrying this Act into Execution, and the Boundaries thereof shall have been duly settled, and when, pursuant to the Powers heretofore contained, the several Pieces of Ground for Roads, Highways and Places for getting Materials for the Repairs of the Roads shall have been set out, the said Commissioners shall, as soon as may be, proceed to value the whole of the said Hays of Stirlings and Stilghig, and other Commensable Lands and Open Uninclosed Grounds within the said Township of Edinburgh aforesaid; and when and so soon as such Valuations shall have been made, the said Commissioners shall set out and allot in Severalty unto The King's Most Excellent Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, one full Moiety or Half Part (Quantity, Quality and Value being considered) of the Lands and Grounds comprised within the said Hays of Stirlings and Stilghig, the Soil whereof is vested in His Majesty for and as a Compensation for such Right of Soil, and for all the Rights and Interests of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in and to the said Hays of Stirlings and Stilghig; and the said Commissioners shall in the same Place set out and allot in Severalty unto The King's Most Excellent Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, so much and such Part and Parts of the other Commensable Lands and Open Uninclosed Grounds within the said Township of Edinburgh, not comprised in the said Hays, as in the Judgment of the said Commissioners shall (Quantity and Quality and Situation considered) be equal in Value to One Third second Part of the whole of the said Commensable Lands and Open Uninclosed Grounds which shall remain after making such Allowments as aforesaid, the said last mentioned Allowment to be set out as near the former as conveniently may be, and to be deemed and taken to be as a Compensation and Satisfaction of His Majesty's Rights of Dowry, Game and other Profitful Rights, and so soon as the same shall be severed from the Lands adjoining thereto, the Allowments of One Moiety or Half Part of the said Hays, and One Third second Part of the other Commensable Lands and Open Uninclosed Grounds shall become and remain the full exclusive and absolute Property of The King's Most Excellent Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, their, executors and for ever discharged of and from all Right of Common of Pasture, Common of Estovers, and all other Rights of what Nature or Kind forever, and of all and singular the Customs and Concessions of Manors, Messuages, Cottages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, who at the time of passing this Act were entitled to any such Rights thereto, or of any other Person or Persons whomsoever.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That when and so soon as the said Commissioners shall have set out the Allowments heretofore directed to be set out to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, they shall prepare an Award, with a Map or Plan annexed thereto, and which Award shall be prepared and executed within Two Years after the passing of the Act, and whereof there shall be Three Originals, One to be enrolled in the Court of Exchequer at Westminster, another in the Office of the Auditor of the Land Revenue, there to remain on Record, and shall afterwards by Word and preferred amongst the Manuscripts of the Office of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenue for the time being; such Awards, or the Enrolment thereof, to be produced, read and received in Evidence on all Occasions where any Question, Doubt or Controversy shall or may arise relating to or affecting the Rights and Interests of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, in respect of any Allowment vested in The King's Most Excellent Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by virtue of this Act; and the Third of the said Awards shall be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace of the said County of Westminster.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall assign, set out and allot, unto and for the Lord or Lords of the several Manors of Edinburgh and Edinburgh Bishops, so much of the said Commensable Lands and Open Uninclosed Grounds within the said Township of Edinburgh as in the Judgment of the said Commissioners shall be equal in Value (Quality, Quantity and Situation considered) to One eighth part thereof; and such Allowments shall be a full Recompense and Compensation for the Right of such Lord or Lords in and for the Soil of the said Commensable Lands and Open Uninclosed Grounds, and shall be divided and apportioned between the said respective Lords, according to their respective Rights and Interests.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall and they are hereby required, after making such Allowments as are heretofore mentioned, to divide, set out and allot the other Moiety or Half Part of the said Hays of Stirlings and Stilghig, and all the Kells, Relds and Remainders of the said Commensable Lands and Open Uninclosed Grounds within the said Township of Edinburgh, unto and amongst all and every the Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, entitled to the Commonage in, over or upon the same, or any Part or Parts thereof respectively, according to their several and respective Estates, Rights and Interests therein, as they the said Commissioners shall adjudge and deem to be a fair and equal Compensation and Satisfaction for such their several and respective Estates, Rights and other Interests as aforesaid, due regard being had, in settling the Quantum of each Allowment, to the Quality and Situation of the Land to be comprised therein.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That all Timber Trees, Wood and Underwood, growing, standing and being on any Allowments of that Moiety or Half Part of the said Hays of Stirlings and Stilghig hereby intended to be divided and allotted unto and amongst the several Persons entitled to Rights of Common, at the time when such Division and Allowment shall take place, shall become and be the Property of the Person or Persons, Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, to whom such Allowment or Allowments shall be made or set out, such Person or Persons, Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, paying the Value of the same to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenue; and in case the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenue, and any Person to whom such Allowment shall be made, cannot agree on the Price or Value to be paid for any Timber Trees, Wood or Underwood growing and being on any such Allotment, the Value of such Timber Trees, Woods or Underwoods, shall be referred in, tried and ascertained by Two indifferent Persons to be named as Arbitrators, One of whom shall be chosen by the Commissioners for the time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, and the other by the Person or Persons, Body Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, disposing such Value; and the said Two Persons so to be appointed as Arbitrators shall, within Three Calendar Months after being appointed, sit and ascertain the Value in Dispute; and their Decision therein shall be binding and conclusive upon all Parties concerned; and each such Arbitrator shall dispose as to the Value of the said Timber Trees, Woods or Underwood, then the Value thereof shall be ascertained and determined by each other Person as the said Arbitrators shall determine as an Umpire, who shall sit and determine the same within Three Calendar Months after being appointed for that Purpose, and whose Decision therein shall be final and conclusive upon all Parties interested.

XXXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case any Person shall neglect, for the Space of Three Calendar Months after the Value of any such Timber shall be ascertained, to pay for the same, or shall be unwilling to purchase the same, and shall, within the same Space of time after the setting out of any such Allotment, refuse to treat with the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues for the time being, as to the Value of any such Timber Trees, Wood or Underwood, or to refer the Amount of such Value to Arbitration, in manner before mentioned, then and in every such case the Timber Trees, Wood and Underwood standing, growing and being on the Allotment or Allotments of the Person or Persons in neglecting or refusing as aforesaid, shall continue to be and shall be the Property of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors; and it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and His and their Agents, Servants and Workmen, at any time within Two Years after any such Allotment shall be set out to the Person or Persons in neglecting or refusing as aforesaid, to cut down, take and carry away all the Timber Trees, Wood and Underwood standing, growing and being thereon, and which were standing, growing and being thereon, at the time of setting out such Allotment or Allotments; and the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues are hereby authorized and empowered to receive all such Sums of Money as shall be paid for the Value of any such Timber Trees, Wood and Underwood, and to apply the same, in the first Place, to the Payment and Discharge of all such Costs and Expenses of the Aft as are hereafter directed to be defrayed and borne by His Majesty; and if any Surplus Monies shall remain after Payment of all such Costs and Charges, such Surplus shall be paid into the Bank of England, and placed to the Account directed by an Act passed in the Fifteenth Year of His present Majesty's Reigne, entitled An Act for setting the Office of Surveyor General of the Land Revenues of the Crown, and Surveyor General of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Parks and Chases, to be added in the Books of the Corporation and Company of the Bank of England, intitled 'The Account of the Public Monies of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, being the Woods and Forests Fund,' and shall be applied and disposed of in such and the like manner, and for such and the like Purpose, as the other Monies by such last mentioned Act directed or authorized to be paid so, carried over or placed in the same Account, are thereby authorized or directed to be paid, applied or disposed of.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That when and inasmuch as the said Commissioners shall have ascertained the respective Rights of the Persons interested in the said intended Inclosures, and also the respective Shares and Proportions by them proposed to be allotted to such Persons respectively in the same, then, they the said Commissioners shall give Notice in manner aforesaid of the Day or Days and Place where all Parties interested may peruse a Schedule of such intended Allotments, and inspect the Map or Plan whereon the same shall be delineated, and may have and receive a Copy of such Schedule, as far as the same relates to such Person respectively; and as some Persons may, upon Perusal of the said Schedule, and Inspection of such Map or Plan, be dissatisfied with their intended Allotments, the said Commissioners shall give Notice of One Meeting at least to be held by them for hearing Complaints and Objections against such intended Allotments, and for hearing and determining all such Objections; and their Determination in the Premises, as to Quality and Situation, shall be binding, final and conclusive to all Parties.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That all such Fences, or such Part or Parts thereof as the said Commissioners shall direct, shall for ever after the making thereof be kept in Repair by the Person or Persons who for the time being shall be entitled to such Allotment or Allotments, and all Fences in pursuance of this Act to be made for dividing and inclosing the Moors or Half Parts of the said Hays of Burdland and Shilbush, so allotted to His Majesty; and the Repair of the said Commonable Lands and Open Unclosed Grounds shall be made, and at all times for ever thereafter repaired and maintained, by and at the Expense of the Proprietors interested therein, in such Parts and Proportions, and within such time and in such manner, as the said Commissioners shall so and by their Award direct or appoint.

XXXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if, owing to the Situation or other Circumstances of any Allotment or Allotments, it shall happen that the Proprietors thereof shall not have a proportionable Share of Boundary Fencing thereto, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, where they shall judge reasonable, to ascertain and determine the Sum or Sums of Money to be contributed and paid by such Proprietor or Proprietors towards the Expense of the Boundary Fencing of such other or others of the said Proprietors who may happen to have too great a Proportion thereof, in order that the Expenses of the Boundary Fences may be brought as near as may be to a just and equal Proportion, Regard being had to the necessary Subsidizing Fences within the respective Allotments; and the Money to be so ascertained and applied shall be levied and recovered in the same manner as Duties are directed to be levied and recovered by the last mentioned Act of the Forty first Year of His Majesty's Reigne.

XXXIX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That all and every the Allotments to be made in pursuance of this Act for or in respect of any Freehold Estates, shall be deemed and taken to be held and enjoyed as the Value in Commissioners of Woods, Forests and Land Revenues to be settled by Agreement or Reference Commissioners of Woods are empowered to receive Money paid for Timber, where the Case applied.

Allotments to be delineated in a Map, and shown to the Proprietors.

Notice by Commissioners of Meeting for hearing Complaints.

Power of Allotments of Inclosures to be kept in Repair by Proprietors.

Inclosures to be made for unequal Shares of Boundary Fences.

Allotments to remain of the same Tenure.

Freehold Estates, and all and every the Alienments to be made for or in respect of any Copyhold or Customary Estates held of any Manor or Manors in which the Lands and Grounds to be included by virtue of this Act respectively for or are situate, shall be deemed or taken to be as Copyhold or Customary Estates, and shall be held of the respective Lords thereof under the same Rents and by the same Customs and Services as the Copyhold or Customary Lands and Hereditaments for which they were so allotted and so ought to have been held, and shall pass by the like Surrenders as the Copyhold or Customary Lands and Hereditaments in respect whereof such Alienments shall be made now pass.

XL. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any of the Persons interested in the said Division and Lotteries shall sell, or shall at any time hereafter, and before the Execution of the final Award of the said Commissioners, sell his, her or their Right, Interest or Property in, over and upon the said Lands and Grounds hereby directed to be divided, allotted and included, or any Part thereof, to any other Person or Persons, then it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby authorized and required, to make an Alienment of Land unto the Vendor or Purchaser in such Sale, or to his or her Heirs or Assigns, for or in respect of such Right, Interest and Property sold; and every such Vendor or Purchaser, and his and his Heirs and Assigns, shall and may, after the Completion of such Sale, hold the Land and Ground so to be allotted to him, her or them as aforesaid, in the same manner, pursuant to the Terms of such Sale, as all Estates and Purposes, as the Vendor in every such Sale might, could or ought to have held and enjoyed the same in such Sale had not been made.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby authorized and required, to let out, allot and award any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments within the said Township in which the said Lands and Grounds hereby directed to be divided and allotted here or are situate, or any Part thereof, in lieu of and in exchange for any other Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments whatsoever within the said Township, or within any adjoining Parish, Township or Place, provided that all such Exchanges be ascertained, specified and declared in the Award of the said Commissioners, and be made with the Consent of the Owner or Owners, Proprietor or Proprietors of the Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments which shall be so exchanged, whether such Owner or Owners, Proprietor or Proprietors, shall be a Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, or a Tenant or Tenants in Fee Simple or for Life, or in Fee Tail general or special, or by the Courtesy of England, or for Years determinable on any Life or Lives (by and with the Consent of the Lessor or Lessors thereof, and not otherwise), or with the Consent of the Guardians, Trustees, Executors for charitable or other Uses, Hospitals, Companies or Associates or of sitting for such Proprietors or Owners as aforesaid also at the time of making such Exchanges or Exchanges shall be respectively Infants, Persons Covert, Lunatics, or under other legal Incapacity, or who shall be beyond the Seas, or otherwise disabled to act for themselves, himself or herself; such Consent to be testified in Writing under the Common Seal of the Body Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, and under the Hands of the other Parties consenting respectively; and all and every such Exchange or Exchanges to be made shall be good, valid and effectual in the Law to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

XLIII. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That no Exchange shall be made of any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments held in Right of any Church, Chapel or other Ecclesiastical Benefice, without the Consent, testified as aforesaid, of the Patron thereof, and of the Bishop of the Diocese or other Ordinary of the Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction in which such Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments to be exchanged shall lie or be situate.

XLIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Costs, Charges and Expenses attending the making or completing of all Exchanges and Partitions under the Powers and Authorities in this Act and the said second Act of the Forty first Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, or either of them, shall be paid and borne by the several Persons, Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, making such Exchanges or Partitions, in such manner and in such Proportions as the said Commissioners shall order and direct, and to be recovered and recoverable in the same manner as any other Expenses ordered to be paid by the said Commissioners are recoverable.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That all Leases and Agreements for Leases in such Rent, now subsisting or affecting all or any of the Lands and Grounds which shall be divided and allotted by virtue of this Act, within the said Township of Edwinstowe, shall continue and be read at such time and times as the said Commissioners, by Writing under their Hands, to be affixed on the principal Doors of the Parish Church of Edwinstowe, shall direct, the respective Lessors or Landlords making such Substitutions in Money to their Lessors or Tenants, for the Leases they shall sell as by the Determination of their respective Leases or Agreements, as the said respective Parties shall agree upon, or as the said Commissioners, upon an Application made to them in Writing by either Party, shall order and direct; and if the Money to be paid as aforesaid shall not be paid, according to the Directions of the said Commissioners, within Twenty eight Days after Demand thereof in Writing under the Hand or Hands of the Parties or Parties to whom the same shall be payable, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby required, to make and levy the same, for the Use and Benefit of the Parties or Parties entitled thereto, by such Writs and Means as Penalties are directed to be levied and recovered under and by virtue of the said Act of the Forty first Year of His Majesty: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend so far as to oblige or might read any Leases or Leases from any Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, or Persons or Persons, for any Life or Lives, or for Twenty one Years, or for any longer Term, for the granting of which a Fine has been taken of any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments in the said Parish or Township or either of them, to any Parties or Parties whatsoever; but the Parties or Parties entitled to such beneficial

XLV. And be it further enacted, That immediately after all the Allowances to be made in pursuance of this A.D. shall by Order of the said Commissioners be marked or staked out, all the several Shares or Allotments to be let out as aforesaid shall be, and be deemed and taken to be, in lieu and in full Compensation, Satisfaction and Discharge of all Rights of Common whatsoever, which the Persons interested in the Allotment or Inclosures, or any of them, could or might have had or been entitled to, in, over and upon the said Haynes of Burfield and Allibagh, and Commonable Lands and Open Uncultivated Grounds hereby directed to be allotted and inclosed, or any Part or Parts thereof respectively, and from that time all Right of Common and other Rights whatsoever in or upon the said Haynes and Lands and Grounds shall cease and be for ever annulled, abolished and extinguished: Provided nevertheless, that it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, at any time before the Execution of the said Award, by Notice in Writing under their Hands to be affixed upon the principal outer Doors of the Parish Church of Edinburgh, to order and direct all or any Part of the Rights of Common in or over the said Haynes, and other Lands and Grounds, or any Part or Parts thereof, to be extinguished, or the Exercise thereof to be suspended for and during such time or times as shall be expressed in such Writing; and all such Rights of Common as the said Commissioners shall by such Writing order and direct to be extinguished, or the Exercise thereof to be suspended as aforesaid, shall, from the time mentioned in such Writing, cease, determine and be extinguished, or the Exercise thereof shall be suspended accordingly; any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall after the passing of this Act dig, cut or take away any of the Turf, Bolls, Underwood, Soil, Gravel, Sand, Stone or Drugg, in, upon or from any of the Lands or Grounds to be allotted and inclosed by virtue of this Act, for any Use or Purpose whatsoever, or under any Right, Privilege or Claim whatsoever, without the Licence of the said Commissioners first had and obtained for that Purpose, then and in every such case, on due Proof made before any Justice of the Peace for the said County on Oath (which Oath such Justice is hereby empowered to administer), it shall and may be lawful to and for such Justice, and he is hereby required, by Writings under his Hand and Seal, directed to any Person or Persons whomsoever, to cause any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding Five Pounds to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Person or Persons so offending in the Premises, rendering the Overplus (if any), on Demand, to the Person or Persons whose Goods and Chattels shall be so distrained and sold, after deducting the Costs and Charges attending such Distress and Sale; and the Money to be levied as aforesaid shall be applied towards the Payment of the Costs, Charges and Expenses of executing this Act.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That, in order to render straight and to shorten the Boundary Fences between the Lands and Grounds by this Act directed to be divided, allotted and inclosed in the said Township of Edinburgh, and any Parish, Township, Hamlet or Place adjoining thereto, or to make the same Boundary Fences regular, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the Consent in Writing under the Hand or Hands of the Lord or Lords of the Manor or Manors in which the Land is situate, and of the Owner or Owners of the Land upon which any Fence or Fences shall or may be intended to be made, to fix out the Boundary or Boundaries between the Lands by this Act directed to be divided, allotted and inclosed, and any adjoining Parish, Township, Hamlet or Place, in such manner as they shall think proper for the Purposes aforesaid; and after such Boundary or Boundaries shall be so fixt out as aforesaid, the same shall be fenced by such Person or Persons in such manner and at such time or times as the said Commissioners in and by their said Award shall order and direct; and the same shall for ever thereafter be deemed and taken to be the Boundary or Boundaries between the said Township of Edinburgh and such adjoining Parish, Township, Hamlet or Place; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That all Inclosures or Encroachments made on the said Lands and Grounds hereby directed to be divided and inclosed, and which have been made within the Space of Twenty Years last past, shall be deemed and considered Part and Parcel of the Lands and Grounds to be allotted or inclosed by virtue of this Act, as if the same were actually lying upon and inclosed.

XLIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all such Encroachments as have been made and occupied without Interruption for more than Twenty Years, shall become the Property of and are hereby vested in the Persons who shall be the Owners or Proprietors thereof at the time of passing this Act; but such Persons shall not, for or on account of any such Encroachments, be entitled to any Allotment for any Right of Common or other Right in or over the said Lands and Grounds hereby directed to be allotted and inclosed.

L. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed, adjudged, deemed or taken to revoke, annul or make void any Settlements, Deeds, Wills or Leases whatsoever, or to prejudice any Person or Persons having any Right or Claim of Dower, Jointure, Debt, Charge or Incumbance in, out of, upon or over, or affecting the said Lands and Grounds to be divided, allotted and inclosed, or exchanged by virtue of the said recited Act of the Forty first Year of the Reign of His present Majesty or of this Act, or of any Part or Parts thereof; but that the several Allotments to be allotted or given in exchange upon such Divisions or Inclosures directed to the several Proprietors respectively, shall, immediately after such Allowances or Exchanges shall be made and fixt out, be, remain and cease, and be held and enjoyed, and the several Persons to whom the same shall be so allotted or exchanged as aforesaid shall from the signing the said Award stand, be sealed, and be ratified thereto respectively, in such and the same Estates, and with such and the same Powers and Authorities for making Leases thereof or otherwise, and

An Act for altering, explaining and extending the several Acts of Parliament passed, relating to the St. Lawrence Canal Navigation; and for amending the said Canal Navigation. 11th March 1818

An A.B. for providing a convenient House, with suitable Accommodations, for His Majesty's Judges at the Assizes for the County of Leicester; and for making thereof a convenient Place for the holding of the Peace or Court and transacting any Public Business of the said County; and also for the safe Custody of the Public Records of the said County.

[10th March 1818.]

WHEREAS the Lodgings in the Borough of Leigh, in which His Majesty's Judges have heretofore resided during their Attendance at the Assizes for the County of Leigh, are very uncongenial, and do not afford proper and suitable Accommodation to them during their Residence in the said Borough; And Whereas from the Magnitude and Importance of the public Duties of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said County, owing to the increased Population of the County, it is become expedient and necessary, and it would be highly conducive to the Convenience of the Magistrates, and it would tend greatly to the Accommodation of the Public, if a convenient Place for the transacting the public Business of the County, and to deposit in safe Custody and Preservation the public Records of the said County, was established at Leigh: And Whereas the Justices of the Peace for the said County, assembled at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace holden at the Castle of Leigh, in and for the said County, on the Fifteenth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and five, and also the Grand Jury of the said County, at the Last Assize in the same Year, having duly considered the Propriety of procuring a better Accommodation for the Judges, were of Opinion that the same ought to be procured and made, and that there appear no Mode of procuring permanent suitable Accommodation for the said Judges but by purchasing, repairing or building of new House for that Purpose, and for which the Expensures of a considerable Sum of Money will be necessary: But as the same cannot be done without the Authority of Parliament, may it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be so enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That at the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden after the passing of this Act, at the Castle of Leigh, in and for the said County of Leigh, and afterwards at any subsequent General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden for the said County, in Hall and may be lawful for the Justices of the Peace for the said County then and there assembled, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to make from time to time such Order or Orders for the purchasing, building, repairing, providing and furnishing, in the Borough of Leigh or in the Suburbs thereof, any House or other private or public Building, or any Piece or Pieces of Land or Ground wherein a House may be built, with suitable Office and Accommodation for the Residence of His Majesty's Judges at the Assizes for the said County, or during any Special Commission or Oyer and Terminer, with their Officers and Attendants, and for transacting the Business usually transacted at the Lodgings of His Majesty's Judges during the Assizes; and also for the Reception and Convenience of the Justices of the Peace for the time being of the said County, at any Adjournment of their General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, when the same Sessions shall not happen during the Assizes of the said County, or during such Special Commission of Oyer and Terminer; and also for the making and providing in such House or Building suitable Offices for the Magistrates to meet and transact any of the public Business of the said County; and for the Deposit and safe Custody of the public Records of the said County; as to them the said Justices is afforded, or the major Part of them, shall from time to time appear expedient or necessary, and for paying, discharging and defraying all the Expences, Costs and Charges of and attending the purchasing, building, repairing, providing and furnishing of the same, and of electing and carrying into Execution the several Purposes of this Act, by and out of the public Stock or County Rates of the said County, subject to such Regulations and Conditions as are hereinafter contained.

Further certified, That it shall be lawful for the said Justices of the Peace to attend at any General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said County from time to time to order and direct such Justice or Justices to be paid out of the Monies to be raised by the said County, and out of the publick Stock or County Rate of the said County, to the Clerk of the Peace for the said County of Leicestershire for the time being, or his Deputy, for all such services, in the Execution of this Act, or for any other Services, Fees or Trouble required of him by the said Justices officiating in the public Business of the said County, or for executing any Writs, Orders or Regulations to be made or performed thereof, as shall be thought fit and reasonable by the said Justices.

III. And for the more speedy and effectually carrying into Execution the Powers of this Act, he is further moved, That it shall be lawful for the said Judges assembled at any General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, or the mayor Part of such Judges, to borrow and take up at legal Interest any Sum or Sums of Money.

X. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That when such Money be agreed to be paid as aforesaid as aforesaid shall not exceed Twenty Pounds then and in all such cases the same shall be applied to the Use of the Person or Persons who would for the time being have been entitled to the Revenues and Profits of the Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments so purchased, in such such Purchase or Settlement were made.

Buildings, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, be purchased for the Purposes of this Act, in such manner as the said Judges, or the major Part of them be assembled as aforesaid, shall think fit; or in case of Illness or Languor, then to his, her or their Guardian or Guardians, Committee or Committees, to and for the Use and Benefit of such Person or Persons as entitled respectively.

XI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where any Question shall arise touching the Title of any Person or Persons to any Money to be paid into the Bank of England in the Name and with the Privy of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, in pursuance of this Act, for the Purchase of any House, Buildings, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, or of any Estate, Right or Interest in any House, Buildings, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments to be purchased in pursuance thereof, or to any Bank Annuities to be purchased with any such Money, or to the Dividends or Interest of any such Bank Annuities, the Person or Persons who shall have been in Possession of such House, Buildings, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments at the time of such Purchase, and all Persons claiming under such Person or Persons, or under the Possession of such Person or Persons, shall be deemed and taken to be lawfully entitled to such House, Buildings, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, according to such Possession, and the contrary shall be taken to the Satisfaction of the said Court of Chancery; and the Dividends or Interest of the Bank Annuities to be purchased with such Money, and also the Capital of such Bank Annuities, shall be paid, applied and disposed of accordingly, unless it shall be made appear to the said Court that such Possession was a wrongful Possession, and that such other Person or Persons was or were lawfully entitled to such House, Buildings, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, or to some Estate or Interest therein.

XII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where by reason of any Disability or Incompetency of the Person or Persons or Corporation entitled to any House, Buildings, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments to be purchased under the Authority of this Act, the Purchase Money for the same shall be required to be paid into the said Court, and to be applied to the Purchase of other House, Buildings, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, to be letted to the like Use in pursuance thereof, it shall be lawful for the said Court to order the Expenses of all such last mentioned Purchases from time to time to be made in pursuance of this Act, or so much of such Expenses as the Court shall deem reasonable, together with the necessary Costs and Charges of obtaining such Orders, to be paid by the said Judges or the Peace out of the Money to be raised by virtue of this Act, who shall from time to time pay such Sums of Money for such Purposes as the said Court shall direct.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That as soon as such House, Buildings, Offices and Accommodations shall have been provided and furnished, and put into a proper State for the Reception of His Majesty's Judges as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Leicester for the time being, and he is hereby required, forthwith to give Notice thereof to the High Sheriff of the County of Leicester for the time being, and it shall be lawful for such Sheriff, or his Under Sheriff, within Eight Days previous to any Adjourn, or to any Special Commission of Oyer and Tenimus for the Trial of Offenders, to be holden for the said County, to enter upon and occupy the said House, Buildings and Offices so to be appropriated for the Accommodation of His Majesty's Judges as aforesaid, and also the Furniture and Utensils in the same, in order that he may prepare and make ready the same for the Reception of His Majesty's Judges as aforesaid, the Clerk of the Peace or his Deputy delivering to the said Sheriff or his Under Sheriff an Inventory or Schedule of all Furniture and Articles of Household Use appertaining to the said House and Premises, and the said Sheriff shall be accountable for the due Care and Re-delivery of the same (all reasonable Damages or Loss by Wear and Tear excepted); and the said High Sheriff and his Under Sheriff is and are hereby authorized and empowered to require of all every Person or Persons then and there found therein (except the Person to whose Care the said House and Furniture is intrusted under the Authority of the Judges as aforesaid), and in case of their not removing or quitting forthwith, taking to his and their Assistance a Constable or Peace Officer, to displace and remove the Person or Persons so not removing or quitting forthwith, without being liable or subject to any Action for Trespass, or any Indemnity for forcible Entry, or otherwise, for so doing.

XIV. And Whereas it may be necessary, for effecting the Purposes of this Act, to purchase more Land or Buildings than it may be absolutely necessary to retain for the Purposes of this Act? Be it therefore further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Judges to be assembled as aforesaid, or the major Part of them, and they are hereby empowered from time to time to make any such superfluous Land or Buildings to be sold or disposed of, together or in Parts, either by public Sale or private Contract, as they shall find most advantageous and convenient, and to order the same to be conveyed, by Indenture or Indentures under the Hand and Seal of the Clerk of the Peace for the said County for the time being, to such Person or Persons as shall be willing to consent to and purchase the same, and to apply the Money so arise by such Sale or Sales to and for the Purposes of this Act; but the Purchaser or Purchasers shall not be obliged to fit in the Application of such Purchase Money, nor be accountable for the Misapplication or Nonapplication thereof, or of any Part thereof; and the Receipts and Receipts of the Treasurer of the said County for the time being for all such Purchase Money shall be a sufficient Discharge and Discharges to any Person or Persons for his, her or their Purchase Money.

XV. And be it further enacted, That during such time as any House, Buildings and Offices to be provided by virtue of this Act shall be used for the Accommodation of His Majesty's Judges at the Assizes, or at any Special Commission as aforesaid, all and every Sum and Sums of Money allowed to the Sheriff of the said County for the time being out of His Majesty's Exchequer for such Lodgings and Accommodations, shall be paid over by the said Sheriff to the Treasurer of the said County for the time being, to be taken and applied as Part of the Public Stock of the said County collected under the Rates for the same County.

Act to amend the Statute in the County of Surrey: And Whereas an Act was passed in the Fifth third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for altering, enlarging and extending the Powers of an Act of His present Majesty, for building a Bridge over the River Thames, at the Precinct of the Strete, or near thereto, and making Roads and Arches to communicate therewith, in the Counties of Middlesex and Surrey: And Whereas an Act was passed in the Fifth sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for altering and enlarging the Powers of Two Acts of His present Majesty, for building a Bridge over the River Thames, from the Precinct of the Strete, or near thereto, in the County of Middlesex, to the opposite Shore, and for making convenient Roads and Arches to communicate therewith, in the County of Surrey: and also for making a new Road in lieu of Part of the Road or Street called Newnes Walk, in the said County of Surrey, and for making an Archway over Part of such new Road; and for discontinuing the said Bridge The Watkinson Bridge: And Whereas the Company of Proprietors of The Watkinson Bridge, incorporated by virtue of the Intestments recited Acts, or some or one of them, have proceeded in the Execution of the several Works authorized by the said recited Acts, and have completed the said Bridge, and Part of the Roads therein mentioned: And Whereas, for the more speedy and effectual Completion of the Remainder of the said Roads and Works, it will be expedient that the said Company should be authorized to raise a further Sum of Money: And Whereas it would tend to the Advantage or Convenience of the Public if the said Company were in altogether the Control, Superintendence and Management, and the repairing, lighting and watching of the several Roads already made or to be made by them in the County of Surrey, to the Trustees of the Surrey New Roads, acting under and by virtue of an Act passed in the Twenty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for making, widening and repairing to Repair certain Roads in the several Parishes of Lambeth, Newington, Saint George Southwark, Bermondsey, and Christchurch, in the County of Surrey, and for watching and lighting the said Roads; and also of an Act passed in the Forty seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for enlarging the Powers of an Act of the Twenty sixth Year of His present Majesty, for making and repairing to repair certain Roads in the Parishes of Lambeth, Newington, Saint George Southwark, Bermondsey and Christchurch, in the County of Surrey, and for watching and lighting the said Roads: And Whereas it will also be expedient that the said Company should be authorized to alter, increase and vary the Tolls authorized to be demanded on the said Bridge and Roads; and that some of the Powers and Provisions of the said Acts, or some of them, should be altered, enlarged and amended: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful to and for the said Company of Proprietors, in case they shall deem it meet and expedient, to raise any Sum not exceeding the Sum of Seventy five thousand Pounds in addition to the several Sums authorized to be raised by the said recited Acts of the Forty sixth, Fifty third and Fifty sixth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, by borrowing the same at any Rate of Interest not exceeding Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, and to offer to the several Persons who shall advance the same, or any Part thereof, a Bond or Bonds, Debenture or Debentures, for securing the same, with such Interest, under the Common Seal of the said Company; and by such Bond or Bonds, Debenture or Debentures, or mortgage and assign the Rates and Tolls to be received and taken upon the said Bridge; and all such Bonds and Debentures shall be registered with the Clerk of the said Company, and shall, so far as regards the Interest therein, have Priority over and precede all other Securities upon the said Tolls, and also all Dividends and Divines of Profit or Interest upon any Sums subscribed or contributed towards the said Undertaking: any thing contained in the said recited Acts of the Forty sixth, Fifty third and Fifty sixth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, or either of them, to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding: Provided always, that the Holders of such Bonds and Debentures shall stand upon the same Footing, the one with the others, in respect of their Right to the Payment of the Interest upon such Bonds and Debentures, without any Priority among themselves, notwithstanding the Sums of Money for which such Bonds and Debentures shall have been issued may have been advanced at different times.

II. And be it further enacted, That such Bonds and Debentures may be assigned and transferred in such and the like manner as Deeds of Mortgage of the Tolls of the said Bridge are by the said recited Act of the Forty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty authorized to be assigned and transferred: and every Assignment and Transfer of such Bonds and Debentures shall be registered with the Clerk of the said Company, in such or the like manner as Assignments and Transfers of such Mortgage Deeds are by the same Act directed to be registered; and the Clerk of the said Company shall be paid for registering every such Bond or Debenture, and every such Assignment or Transfer, such Sum, not exceeding Two Shillings and Sixpence, as the Committee of the said Company shall appoint.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful to and for the said Company to apply and dispose of the said Sum of Seventy five thousand Pounds, or such Part thereof as shall be raised, in making and completing the Roads by the said recited Acts of the Forty sixth, Fifty third and Fifty sixth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, and the said Act authorized to be made, and generally in carrying the said recited Acts and the said into Execution and Effect.

IV. And Whereas the said Company have raised a great Part of the Sums authorized to be raised by the said recited Acts of the Forty sixth, Fifty third and Fifty sixth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, by way of Annuity, and did agree with the several Parties advancing such Sums that the same should be advanced by certain Installments, in order that the Weight of such Annuities might not fall upon the said Company before the Sums advanced by way of Consideration for such Annuities should be wanted for the Execution of the several Writs authorized by the said recited Acts of the Forty sixth, Fifty third and Fifty sixth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty: And Whereas, in order to secure the Payment of the said Annuities to the several Persons advancing such Sums of Money, the said Company of Proprietors have offered to the said Parties certain Grants of Annuities under their Common Seal, specifying the Periods at which such Installments should be advanced, and the several Parts of such Annuities should commence: And Whereas some of the Persons advancing such Sums of Money having consented to apply to the said Company for their respective Grants of Annuity until after all or some of the Periods at which such Installments were advanced, the said Company have offered to such Persons respectively Grants of Annuity, bearing Date respectively the Days on which the same were so offered, whereas according to the Tenor and Intention thereof the same should have been dated on the Twenty third Day of February One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, the Day of Payment of the Part of the said Installments: And Whereas Doubts have arisen as to the Force of all such Grants: For Reasoning whereof it is further certified, That all such Grants of Annuities, being duly stamped according to the total Amount of such Installments, and all Assignments and Transfers of such Grants of Annuities, being duly stamped according to the Amount of Consideration Money payable to the Person or Persons assigning or transferring the same, shall be good, valid and Effectual to all Intents and Purposes, any Law, Statute, Usage or Custom to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding; and shall be binding in Law, not only upon the said Company, but also upon all Creditors, and their Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assigns; and that each of the said Grants as by Mistake were dated before aforesaid on the said Twenty third Day of February One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, shall be deemed and considered as bearing Date on, and shall take Effect from the said Twenty third Day of February One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and not from the actual Date thereof: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall in any manner prejudice or affect any Question at Law or in Equity, now pending between any Parties or Persons who are or may be entitled to such Grants of Annuities or any of them, or in any manner to prejudice or affect any Suit or Proceeding now pending between any Parties or Persons whatsoever and the said Company, touching or concerning any Account of Annuities or Dividend of Profits or Interest arising antecedent to the passing of this Act.

V. And Whereas it may be proper that the said Company should be authorized to raise Money from time to time for the Purpose of redeeming or purchasing the Annuities granted by the said Company, or any of them: Be it therefore further enacted, That it shall be lawful to and for the said Company, in addition to the several Sums by the said recited Acts of the Forty sixth, Fifty third and Fifty sixth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, and this Act, authorized to raise by all or any of the Modes mentioned and authorized in and by the said recited Acts of the Forty sixth, Fifty third and Fifty sixth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, and this Act, or any of them, for the raising of all or any of the Sums by the said recited Acts of the Forty sixth, Fifty third and Fifty sixth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, and this Act, and authorized to be raised, any Sum or Sums of Money which may from time to time be required, for the Purpose of redeeming or purchasing such Annuities, or any of them; and that the several Persons who shall advance the said Sums of Money or any Part thereof, and their respective Assigns, shall stand upon the same Footing as the Holders of the Annuities which shall be redeemed or purchased with the Moneys advanced by them respectively: Provided always, that such Sums of Money shall be applied solely to the Redemption or Purchase of such Annuities, and to and for no other Use, Trade, Interest or Purpose whatsoever: Provided also, that the borrowing or raising any Sum or Sums for the Redemption or Purchase of such Annuities shall not prejudice or in any manner affect the Rights and Securities of the Holders of the Bonds and Debentures hereby authorized to be issued.

VI. And Whereas it is desirable that the Road intended to be made from the Foot of the said Bridge to near the Obelisk in Stair George's Fields in the County of Surrey, should be altered, and also widened at the End thereof except the said Obelisk: And Whereas the said Company have deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Surrey a Map or Plan delineating and delineating the intended Line of the said Road, and the several Land, Buildings and Hereditaments which will be required to be taken and sold for completing the same, and which are described in the Schedule to the said recited Act of the Forty sixth, Fifty third and Fifty sixth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty and this Act enacted, or some of them, and have also deposited with the said Clerk of the Peace a Book of Reference containing Lists of the Names of the Owners or reputed Owners and Occupiers of the Lands, Buildings and Hereditaments to be taken and sold by virtue of this Act: Be it therefore further enacted, That the said Map or Plan and Book of Reference shall remain in the Custody of the said Clerk of the Peace, to the End that all Persons interested therein may in all reasonable cases have Liberty to inspect and peruse the same, and also Copies or Extracts thereof at their Will and Pleasure, paying to such Clerk of the Peace the Sum of One Shilling for every such Inspection, and after the Rate of Sixpence for every One hundred Words of such Copies or Extracts of the said Map or Plan and Book of Reference.

VII. And Whereas the said Company are authorized by the said recited Acts of the Forty sixth, Fifty third and Fifty sixth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, or any of them, to take and sell, for the Purpose of decree mentioned, each of the Lands, Buildings and Hereditaments mentioned in the said Map or Plan, and in the Schedule to this Act enacted, as are distinguished by Figures in the said Map or Plan and Schedule: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Company to enter and within the said Road leading from the Foot of the said Bridge to near the Obelisk in Stair George's Fields, in manner described and delineated in the said Map or Plan, and to take and purchase, for the Purpose of the said recited Acts of the Forty sixth, Fifty third and Fifty sixth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, and this Act, each of the Lands, Buildings and Hereditaments mentioned in the Schedule to this Act enacted, as are

 41 G. 3. c. 126. An Act for making Wet Docks, Basins, Cais and other Works, for the greater Accommodation and Security of Shipping, Commerce and Revenue, within the Port of London: And Whereas another Act was 42 G. 3. c. 126. passed in the Forty fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for raising a further Sum of Money for carrying into Execution as AB passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for making Wet Docks, Basins, Cais and other Works, for the greater Accommodation and Security of Shipping, Commerce and Revenue, within the Port of London: And Whereas another Act was passed
 43 G. 3. c. 126. in the Forty fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for wardenship Gentry within the Limits of certain Docks made under an Act passed in the Thirty sixth and Forty first Years of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for making Wet Docks, Basins, Cais and other Works, for the greater Accommodation and Security of Shipping, Commerce and Revenue, within the Port of London; and to make Regulations relating to the said Docks: And Whereas another Act was passed in the Forty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to alter and amend as AB passed in the Forty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for making Wet Docks, Basins, Cais and other Works, for the greater Accommodation and Security of Shipping, Commerce and Revenue, within the Port of London; and for extending the Powers and Privileges of the said AB: And Whereas another Act was passed in the Forty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to alter and amend several Acts passed in the Fourth, Forty fourth and Forty fifth Years of His present Majesty, for making Wet Docks, Basins, Cais and other Works, for the greater Accommodation and Security of Shipping, Commerce and Revenue, within the Port of London, and for other the Purposes in the said Acts contained; and for enlarging the Powers thereby granted to the London Dock Company: And Whereas another Act was passed in the Forty seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to enable the London Dock Company to purchase certain Waterworks in the Parishes of Strandford, Waltham, Boro, Broomby, Mile End and Stepney, and also Parishes adjacent, and to amend the several Acts for making Wet Docks and other Works, for the Accommodation of Shipping, Commerce and Revenue, within the Port of London: And Whereas another
 44 G. 3. c. 126. Act

- Act was passed in the Forty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled *An Act to alter and amend several Acts passed in the Parliamt, Forty fourth, Forty fifth, Forty sixth and Forty seventh Years of His present Majesty for making Wet Docks, Basins, Cuts and other Works, for the greater Accommodation and Security of Shipping, Commerce and Revenue, within the Port of London, and for other the Purposes therein contained relating thereto; and to enlarge the Powers and Authorities by the said Acts granted to the London Dock Company: And Whereas another Act was passed in the Fifty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled *An Act for raising a further Sum of Money for carrying into Execution the several Acts passed for making Wet Docks, Basins, Cuts and other Works, for the greater Accommodation and Security of Shipping, Commerce and Revenue, within the Port of London: And Whereas another Act was passed in the Fifty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled *An Act for regulating the Rates and Charges to be received by the London Dock Company upon Ships and Spirits landed and unloaded in the London Docks: And Whereas another Act was passed in the Fifty fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled *An Act for allowing further time for the Completion of the Docks, Entrances and other Works and Buildings belonging to the London Dock Company: And Whereas another Act was passed in the Forty fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled *An Act for enlarging and amending the Powers and Privileges of the several Acts for making the London Docks: And Whereas another Act was passed in the Fifty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled *An Act to amend the several Acts passed for making Wet Docks, Basins, Cuts and other Works, for the greater Accommodation and Security of Shipping, Commerce and the Revenue, within the Port of London, and for raising a further Sum of Money for the Completion of the said Works: And Whereas the time within which the said Company was empowered to make and execute Purchases of Houses, Lands, Tenements or Premises, for the Purposes of the said Acts, expired in the Year One thousand eight hundred and seven, and the time limited for the Completion of the Docks, Entrances and other Works and Buildings of the said London Dock Company, under and by virtue of the said Act passed in the Forty fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, will expire on the Twentieth Day of June in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and twenty: And Whereas it is found that the Entrance in the said Docks in the Harbours, and the Works belonging therein, cannot be completed unless the Powers in the said first recited Act contained for making Purchases, which have expired as aforesaid, be renewed and continued so much and to the Extent hereinafter mentioned: And Whereas it is also necessary that the said recited Acts, or some of them, or the Provisions thereof, should be amended, and that further and additional Powers should be granted to the said Company for the Completion of the said Docks and the Entrances therein, and for rendering the Establishment of the said Docks more effectual for the Purposes recited in the said Acts, and that further time should be given for completing the said Docks: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Period limited by the said last recited Act of the Forty fourth Year aforesaid, for the Completion of the said Docks, Basins, Entrances, Cuts, Quays and Wharfs, and other Works and Buildings authorized to be made, erected and built by the said London Dock Company, under the said several Acts, shall be and the same is hereby extended to the Twentieth Day of June in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and twenty three.***
- II. And be it further enacted, That all the Powers, Authorities, Privileges, Fees, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, matters and things in relation to the making, building and completing all or any of the Docks, Basins, Entrances, Cuts, Quays, Wharfs and other Works and Buildings aforesaid authorized to be made under the Provision of the said several Acts, or any or either of them now in force, relating to the Completion of the said Docks of the said London Dock Company, shall be and remain in full Force and Effect for the Purposes of the said several recited Acts and this Act, for the Completion of the Docks, Basins, Entrances, Cuts, Wharfs and other Works and Buildings of the said London Dock Company, during such further and extended Period as shall aforesaid, as fully in all respects, and to all Intents and Purposes, as if such further and extended Period had been given by the said recited Act of the Forty fourth Year aforesaid, and as if all such Powers, Authorities, Privileges, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, matters and things had been freely and (especially and particularly) remitted in and Part of this Act.
- III. And Whereas it is found that the several Powers or Parcels of Land or Ground, Messuages, Tenements or Dwelling Houses, and other Erections and Buildings, or the Ground and Soil whereon the same stand, and other the Hereditaments and Possessions hereinafter particularly mentioned and described, which be contiguous to the said Docks and Works, and are partly within and partly without and beyond the Limits to the said last recited Act mentioned, are necessary for the Purposes of completing and finishing the said Entrance at the Bowling Green Dock, and for the forming and making of such Brick or Stone Wall as by the said last recited Act is required and directed to be made and built, for forwarding and relating the said Basin and other Works at such Entrance, so far as the same shall or may be used for the extending of the same, and in order that such Wall may not be built within less than Thirty Feet of any neighbouring Buildings: Be it therefore further enacted, That at any time or times within the Term of Five Years from the time of the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Directors and Managers of the Concerns of the said Company, or any Thirteen or more of them, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to contract and agree, and to employ any Person or Persons to contract and agree with the Owner or Owners, Occupier or Occupiers of, or to purchase from them for the Purposes of the said recited Acts and of this Act, the several Powers or Parcels of Land or Ground, with the Messuages or Dwelling Houses, Workshops, Yards and other Hereditaments hereinafter described and more particularly mentioned; that it to say, a certain angular Piece of Land or Ground on the Western Side, and being Part of the Yard belonging to the Coopers of Millers Row and Tower on the Northern Side of Herne's Street, and containing on the South Eastern Side thereof Fifty two Feet of Afters, little more or less, and being in the Parish of Saint John Wapping; also a certain other angular Piece of Ground, together with Part of a Shed thereon, also constituting and forming Part of the said Yard, and containing on the South Eastern Side thereof Sixty two Feet of Afters, little more or less, and likewise situate on the Western Side of the said Yard; and also a certain Piece of Land or Ground now vacant and unoccupied, and a Messuage or Dwelling House, Workshop and Yard, with the Appurtenances thereto belonging, now also vacant and unoccupied, situate on the Southern Side of Railway Lane, and numbered Eighteen and Nineteen, the same being situate in the Parish of Saint George, Middlesex, commonly called Saint George in the Field and all the said Pieces or Parcels of Land, Messuages or Dwelling Houses, Workshops, Yards and Premises, being within the Limits in the last first recited Act mentioned and for forth; and also all their Free Messuages or Dwelling Houses, with their respective Appurtenances, situate on the Northern Side of Wapping High Street aforesaid, and numbered respectively Seven, Eight, Nine, Ten and Eleven; and also all their Free Messuages or Dwelling Houses, with their respective Appurtenances, situate in Half Moon Court, numbered respectively Eight, Nine, Ten, Eleven and Twelve, together with the Messuages or Tenements with the Appurtenances, in the said Court, numbered Thirteen, and extending Eastward from the said Court to the Rear or Back Part of the Messuages or Dwelling House numbered Ten, on the Western Side of Little Herne's Street; and also the Messuages or Dwelling House, with the Appurtenances, situate on the Western Side of Little Herne's Street aforesaid, now or late in the Occupation of George; all which said Twelve Messuages or Dwelling Houses, and Premises last mentioned, are in the Parish of Saint John Wapping aforesaid, and lie without and beyond the Limits in the last first recited Act mentioned, and together with the said Pieces or Parcels of Land or Ground, Messuages or Dwelling Houses, and Premises heretofore mentioned, are found requisite to be purchased, taken, pulled down and removed, and the Ground or Soil thereof made use of for the forming, making and completing of the Basin and Entrance to the said Docks at or near the Herne's Street aforesaid, and the surrounding Wall or Space, and other Works necessary thereon.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if the Owners or Owners, Lessees or Lessees, Occupiers or Occupiers of the Dwelling House, Counting House, Workshops, Coopers, Sheds, Gardens and Yard on the Northern Side of Great Herne's Street, known by the Name of Millers Row and Tower's Coopers, and now in their Occupation, should be unwilling to sell or dispose of the several Pieces or Parcels of Land or Ground heretofore defined as a certain angular Piece of Land or Ground on the Western Side, and being Part of the Yard belonging to the said Coopers, and as a certain other angular Piece of Land or Ground, together with Part of a Shed thereon, and constituting and forming other Part of the said Yard, or of their Rights or Interests therein, in full and may be lawful to and for the Directors and Managers of the Company of the London Dock Company, or any Three or more of them, and they are hereby authorized and required, as the Owners or Owners, Lessees or Lessees, Occupiers or Occupiers thereof, in particular the whole of such Ground, Messuages, Coopers, Buildings and Premises, and the Rights and Interests of any of such Persons therein respectively; and if such Owners or Owners, Lessees or Lessees, Occupiers or Occupiers, or any of them respectively, shall not or cannot agree with the said London Dock Company for the Price or Prices to be paid for the Purchase of the whole of such Ground, Messuages, Coopers, Buildings and Premises, Rights and Interests respectively as aforesaid, then the Value thereof respectively shall be fixed and ascertained by a Jury or Jurors, in such manner as the Price for any Land to be taken in pursuance of the last recited Act and this Act is directed to be fixed and ascertained by the last first recited Act and this Act; and all such other Proceedings shall take place respecting the said Ground, Messuages, Coopers, Buildings and Premises, Rights and Interests aforesaid respectively, and the Money to be paid for the Purchase thereof respectively, as is mentioned and directed in the last first recited Act and this Act with respect to the Premises the Value whereof shall be ascertained by a Jury or Jurors in manner aforesaid.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Directors and Managers of the Company of the said Company, or any Three or more of them, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, by themselves, their Agents, Surveyors, Agents and Workmen, and any other or others with whom they shall or may contract and agree in the Premises, to have, sit and execute, from henceforth and during the said further Period of Five Years, hereby granted, such and the same or the like Powers and Authorities for the Completion of the said Entrance in the Herne's Street aforesaid, and for the making, advancing and completing of such Purchase as aforesaid, and carrying into Execution the Purposes of the last Act and of this Act, and for the obtaining, taking Possession of, and using and employing the said Dock called Herne's Dock, and Bridge, with all its Rights and Boundaries in the last first recited Act mentioned, and also all and singular the said Pieces or Parcels of Land or Ground, Messuages or Dwelling Houses, Yard, Hereditaments and Premises hereby authorized to be purchased as aforesaid, as by the last Act recited were given to the said Directors during the Term of Years by the last Act limited as aforesaid; and all and singular the Powers, Authorities, Privileges, Possessions, Fortifications, Claims, matters and things in the last recited Act or any of them contained, shall be in full Force and Effect in relation to and for the Purposes of the last recited Act and of this Act, from henceforth and during the said further Period of Five Years hereby granted, as fully, beneficially and effectually, and in the like or the like manner as all Rights (except as far as the same is or are by this Act altered or varied), as if the same and every Part thereof had been included in the last first recited Act, and as if the said further Period of Five Years had been granted by the last first recited Act, and continued by the last subsequent Acts or any of them, and as if the same were severally and specially —enacted in and formed Part of this Act; any thing in the said recited Acts or any or either of them contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

VII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Jury or Juries to be summoned and sworn pursuant to the Duties and under the Authority of the said recited Acts and of this Act, shall give in and deliver a Verdict or Affirmation for more Money, as a Recompense and Satisfaction to any Person or Persons for his, her or their Rights, Interest or Property in any such Lands or Hereditaments as aforesaid, or for any Loss or Damage to be sustained by any such Person or Persons, than what shall have been agreed to and offered by or on behalf of the said London Dock Company, as a Recompense and Satisfaction for any such Rights, Interest and Property, or for any Loss or Damage as aforesaid, before the summoning and returning of such Jury, thereon in every such case of Difference the Costs and Expenses of summoning and returning the Jury and Witnesses, and all other Expenses attending the hearing and determining of such Difference, shall be borne and paid by the said London Dock Company, or their Treasurer for the time being; but if any Jury or Juries be to be summoned and sworn shall give in and deliver a Verdict or Affirmation for no more or for less Money than shall before the summoning and returning of such Jury or Juries have been agreed to and offered by or on behalf of the said London Dock Company, as a Recompense and Satisfaction for any such Rights, Interest or Property, or Loss or Damage as aforesaid, that then the Costs and Expenses of summoning and returning the Jury and Witnesses, and all other Expenses as aforesaid, shall be borne and paid by the Person or Persons with whom the said London Dock Company shall have such Difference, which Costs and Expenses having been ascertained and settled by four or five Justices of the Peace of the said County of Middlesex, not interested in the matter in question, who is hereby required to summon and settle the same at a time and Place to be by him appointed, after summoning the Parties intended to attend him for that Purpose; shall and may be deducted out of the Money so settled and adjudged, so much Money advanced to and for the Use of such Person or Persons, and the Payment or Tender of the Remunerator of such Money shall be deemed and taken, to all intents and Purposes, to be a Payment or Tender of the whole Sum or Sums so settled and adjudged; or otherwise such Costs and Expenses, in case the same be not paid upon Demand, after being so ascertained and settled as aforesaid, shall and may be recovered by the Treasurer of the said Company, by such Writs and Means as he used by the said recited Acts are provided for the Recovery of Penalties and Forfeitures incurred under the said recited Acts: Provided always, that in all cases where any Person or Persons shall by reason of Abolition have been prevented from treating, the whole of such Costs and Expenses shall be borne by the said London Dock Company, and paid by their Treasurer for the time being.

VIII. And Whereas it and by the said Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His Majesty, it was among other things enacted, that if the said Dock Company should at any time make a Cut across Wapping Street, or across the Highways, into a Bulwark or Balks within the same, they should be compelled to make, let up and maintain in perpetual Repair, a Bridge, Drawbridge or Swingbridge, in the Line of Wapping Street, across the said Highways, and also on the Wharf or Space between the said intended Bulwark or Balks, Dock or Docks, at or nearly adjoining the Line of Direction from Highways Street to the South End of Mylethorpe Lane, so as to perform the Ceremony of constantly passing to and through the Highways, by one of the Bridges being that at the time that the other might be open: And Whereas it is found that such Two Bridges as in the said Act mentioned will not be attended with any Benefit or Convenience to Commerce, or to the Inhabitants of the Parishes and Parts adjoining: Be it therefore further enacted, That so much of the said Act as directs the making of the said Two Bridges in the said Act mentioned, shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and that in lieu thereof the said Dock Company shall be compelled to make, and shall make, erect, let up and maintain in perpetual Repair, over and across the Entrance Lock now forming and making or about to be formed and made at the Highways Dock aforesaid, and as near as may be to the Crane of the said Lock, One Swing Carriage Bridge for Carts, Carriages, Horses and Persons, passing over and across the said Lock.

VIII. And Whereas by the making of the Bulwark and Entrance Lock at the Highways heretofore mentioned, the Aqueducts, Mains or Service Pipes belonging to the Company of Proprietors of the East London Waterworks, incorporated by an Act made in the Forty seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, entitled An Act for better supplying with Water the Inhabitants of the Parishes of Stamford Row, whereof St. Andrew's in Bow, Saint John Hackney, Saint Mary Magdalen, Saint Matthew Bethnal Green, and several other Parishes, Hamlets, Townships, and Places adjacent or near thereto in the County of Middlesex and Essex, and which now supply with Water the Inhabitants of that Part of the Parish of Saint John Wapping, in the County of Middlesex, which lies between the said Highways Bulwark and Entrance Lock, and the Entrance of the London Docks at Mill Dock, will be cut off, whereby the said Inhabitants would be deprived of the full Supply of Water, and the said Company of Proprietors of the East London Waterworks follow great Injury, unless Provision be made to prevent the same: Be it therefore enacted, That wherever the said Bulwark or Entrance Lock shall cross, intersect or cut through any of the Aqueducts, Mains or Service Pipes of the said Company of Proprietors of the East London Waterworks which shall have been sunk, laid or used for supplying any of the Inhabitants aforesaid with Water, the said London Dock Company shall and they are hereby required to provide, by down and carry through, under or across such Bulwark or Entrance Lock, and for the Space of Twenty Feet in the least on each Side thereof, a new Line or Lines of good and sufficient Aqueducts, Mains and Service Pipes, as lies and lieth of their which shall or may be so crossed, intersected, cut through or removed, and join and connect or cross the same so properly joined and connected with the Aqueducts, Mains and Service Pipes, from whence the said Aqueducts, Mains and Service Pipes so crossed, intersected or cut through shall be removed, all which over

Line or Lines of Aqueducts, Mains and Service Pipes shall be made of Cast Iron, of not less than Seven Inches Diameter in the Butt, and shall be laid down and carried in the same Line or Direction as the Aqueducts, Mains and Service Pipes which shall be so erected, intersected, cut through or removed, or as near thereto as shall be convenient; and the said London Dock Company shall and they are hereby also required to find and provide and cause to be connected with the said new or other Aqueducts, Mains and Service Pipes, at or near the Place or Places where the same shall cross or intersect the Balise or Entrance Lock aforesaid, such and so many fit and proper Cocks, Valves, Pumps or other Devices or Contrivances, as shall or may be necessary for the preventing of Stoppages or Obstructions, and for the more convenient and effectual Removal thereof from and out of the said Aqueducts, Mains and Service Pipes; and Fourteen Days' Notice in Writing shall be given to the Clerk of the said Company of Proprietors, previous to the Removal or Alteration of any Aqueducts, Mains or Service Pipes belonging to the said Company of Proprietors, or the laying down of any new or other Aqueducts, Mains or Service Pipes; and all such new and other Aqueducts, Mains and Service Pipes, Cocks, Flaps, Valves and other Works, Devices and Contrivances, shall from thenceforth become and be deemed and taken to be the Property of the said Company of Proprietors, and to which they the said Company of Proprietors, their Successors and Assigns, or their Engineers, Officers, Servants and Workmen, shall at all reasonable times have full, free and convenient Access for the Purpose of examining, cleaning, mending, restoring and repairing the same, as often as there may be Occasion, the said London Dock Company making reasonable Compensation and Satisfaction to the said Company of Proprietors for any extra Costs, Charges or Expenses which they the said Company of Proprietors, their Successors or Assigns, shall or may be put to in the repairing, cleaning, mending or restoring of such new or other Aqueducts, Mains or Service Pipes, and other Works as aforesaid; provided also, that whenever it may be necessary for the Repair or Alteration of any of the said Aqueducts, Mains or Service Pipes, that the Dock called the Northgate Dock should be emptied of the Water contained therein, and that Ships or Vessels should at that time be lying in the said Dock, of such a Bulk or Construction as to render it dangerous for such Ships or Vessels not to be afloat therein, when the said London Dock Company shall not be required to draw off the Water from the said Dock until after the Expiration of Three Weeks from the Delivery of Notice, to be given for that Purpose by the said Company of Proprietors to the East London Waterworks to the said London Dock Company, at the Superintendent's Office in the said Dock, or at the Mouth of the Dock Master of the said London Dock Company, and the said London Dock Company shall then cause the Water to be drawn off from the said Dock within the Period before mentioned.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in the said recited Acts or in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to authorize or empower the said London Dock Company or any Person acting under them, to cut off, break, alter, remove or take away any of the Aqueducts, Mains, Service Pipes or other Works of or belonging to the said Company of Proprietors of the East London Waterworks, or do any Act, matter or thing whatsoever, to impede the Passage or Supply of Water into or through such Aqueducts, Mains or Service Pipes, used as now are or Lines of good and sufficient Aqueducts, Mains and Service Pipes, with all such Cocks, Valves, Pumps or other Devices and Contrivances as aforesaid, shall be made and constructed, fixed, laid down and ready to be joined and connected with the Aqueducts, Mains and Service Pipes, from which the same shall be, or shall be intended to be cut off, broken or removed; and such Aqueducts, Mains or Service Pipes so cut off, broken or divided, shall be joined and connected with as much Expedition as the Nature of the Work will admit, so as in occasion of little Inconvenience as possible to the Inhabitants of the Places supplied with Water by Means of the said Aqueducts, Mains and Service Pipes.

X. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That the Works hereby directed to be done or performed by the said London Dock Company for the Protection and Security of the said Aqueducts, Mains, Service Pipes and other Works of the said Company of Proprietors of the East London Waterworks, shall be executed at the Expense of the said London Dock Company, to the mutual Satisfaction of Two Engineers, one to be appointed by the said London Dock Company, and the other by the said Company of Proprietors of the East London Waterworks; and in case such Two Engineers cannot agree in respect to all or any of the several matters aforesaid, then the same shall be determined by a Third and fourth Engineer, to be appointed by the Two first named Engineers, or Umpire, before they shall proceed to act in the Execution of the Powers hereby vested in them, otherwise than by the Appointment of such Umpire, who shall and be is hereby required to determine any matter in dispute that may be referred to him by the said Engineers, within Seven Days after such Reference, and his Determination therein shall be final and conclusive.

XI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed or taken to hinder or obstruct the Company of Proprietors of the East London Waterworks, their Successors or Assigns, from holding, using, exercising or enjoying all such Right, Title, Estate, Interest, Powers, Privileges and Advantages whatsoever, which the said Company of Proprietors now lawfully have or may claim, or which they, their Successors or Assigns at any time hereafter may, can or ought lawfully to have, hold, claim, use, exercise or enjoy by virtue of the said last recited Acts, made in the Forty seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and also by virtue of an Act made in the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, entitled An Act to enable the Company of Proprietors of the East London Waterworks to purchase certain other Waterworks, and to amend an Act of the Forty seventh Year of His present Majesty, relating to the said East London Waterworks, or either of them; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

XII. And

XII. And be it further enacted, That in all Actions, Suits at Law or in Equity, and in all Proceedings under the said A^{ct} or otherwise, for any Claim or Compensation against or for or on behalf of the said Company, and also in all Proceedings commenced or instituted by or on behalf of the said London Dock Company, and in all Arbitrations, References, or other Proceedings in or consequent upon or arising out of any of such Actions and Suits or Proceedings, it shall be lawful for the Treasurer for the time being of the said London Dock Company, in his own Name, for and on behalf of the said Company, to make, sign, seal, execute and deliver all and every such process or other Writs or Returns as may be or be deemed to be necessary for the Purpose of prosecuting, relaying and discharging all and every or any Person or Persons who shall or may be produced as a Witness or Witnesses in any such Actions, Suits, Proceedings, Arbitrations, References or other Proceedings as aforesaid, from all or any Claims or Demands, which may be necessary to be relayed by the said Company, to qualify such Person or Persons to give Evidence as a Witness or Witnesses in any such Actions, Suits, Proceedings, Arbitrations, References or other Proceedings aforesaid; and also in any such Actions, Suits, Proceedings, Arbitrations, References or other Proceedings, to do as, or other A^{ct}, matter or thing which any Plaintiff or Defendant might do in any Action, Suit, Proceeding, Arbitration, Reference or other Proceeding; and every such Writs, A^{ct}, matter and thing respectively, shall be as valid and effectual in all Respects, and to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this A^{ct}, if any Lighter, Boat or other Craft, either after having any Goods taken or unladen thereout, or which shall enter or be in the said Docks for the Purpose or under Pretence of taking or carrying Goods from or out of the said Docks, or for any other Purpose or under any other Pretence whatsoever, shall remain or continue empty in the said Docks for any longer Space or time than Twenty four Hours, it shall be lawful for the Dock Master or Dock Master of the said Company, or their or any of their Assistants or Servants, to give Notice in Writing to any Owner or Owners of such Lighter, Boat or other Craft, by Delivery of such Notice to him, her or them, or by leaving the same at his or their Dwelling House, Coaching House or Place of carrying on Trade, or by Delivery thereof to the Person or Persons in charge of such Lighter, Boat or other Craft, if any there shall be, to remove such Lighter, Boat or other Craft from and out of the said Docks; and if any such Lighter, Boat or other Craft shall not be removed from and out of the said Docks within Twelve Hours after such Notice shall be given, the Owner or Owners of every such Lighter, Boat or other Craft, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Forty Shillings for the first Twenty four Hours, and the Sum of Twenty Shillings for every further Period of Twenty four Hours, during which any such Lighter, Boat or other Craft shall remain and continue in the said Docks contrary to the Provisions herein contained, the Payment whereof shall and may be enforced and recoverable in such manner as any other Penalty or Forfeiture of the like Amount or Amounts is or are recoverable by or under the said recited A^{ct}.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That all Goods, Wares or Merchandise which, from and after the passing of this A^{ct}, shall be landed in the said Docks called The London Docks, shall, when so landed, continue and be subject or liable to such and the same Claims for Freight, in favour of the Master and Owner or Owners of the respective Ships or Vessels from or out of which such Goods, Wares or Merchandise shall be so landed, as such Goods, Wares or Merchandise respectively were subject and liable to whilst the same were on board such Ships or Vessels, and before the landing thereof; and the Directors of the said London Dock Company, or their Secretaries or Agents, shall and may and they are hereby authorized, empowered and required, upon due Notice in that behalf given to them by such Master or Masters, or Owner or Owners, to detain and keep such Goods, Wares and Merchandise in the Warehouse of the said London Dock Company, until the respective Freight to which the same shall be subject and liable as aforesaid shall be duly paid or satisfied, together with the Rates and Charges to which the same shall have become subject and liable.

XV. And Whereas under the Provisions contained in the Schedule (A.) annexed to the said recited A^{ct}, called the Fifty first Year of His Majesty's Kings, the Importers or Owners of Wines or Spirits in the said Docks have been subjected to pay for the taking of all such Wines: And Whereas great Inconvenience and Losses to the Proprietors of such Wines have accrued in consequence thereof: Be it therefore further enacted, That from and after the passing of this A^{ct}, every Person making Application at the said Docks to take Wines in Stores, under any written Order from the Proprietor thereof, shall, as or before the time of such taking, pay for every Cask of Wine to be so taken, the Charge by the said A^{ct} required to be paid in respect of such taking.

XVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case the Works intended to be carried into effect under the Authority of this A^{ct}, shall not be completed so as to answer the Objects of this A^{ct} within the time by this A^{ct} limited for the Completion thereof, all the Powers and Authorities given by this A^{ct} for purchasing Lands and Hereditaments, and executing the Works hereby authorized, shall thenceforth cease and determine, from only as to so much of such Land as shall have been purchased, or such Works as shall have been completed, within that time.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That this A^{ct} shall be deemed and taken to be a Public A^{ct}, and shall be judicially taken Notice of as such by all Judges, Justices and others, without being specially pleaded.

An Act to provide additional Salaries to the principal Clerks in the Report Office of the High Court of Chancery, and to provide additional Clerks for the said Office; and for making further Provision for the Clerks in the said Office. [28th June 1818.]

28 G. 3. c. 48.

WHEREAS by virtue of an Act passed in the Thirty second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to empower the High Court of Chancery to lay out a further Sum of the Sums Money upon proper Securities, and for applying the Interest towards discharging the Expenses of the Office of the Accountant General, and for building Offices for the Masters in Ordinary in Chancery, and a public Office for the Sutors of the said Court, and Offices for the Secretaries of Bankrupts and Liquidators, and for building Repositories for storing the Title Deeds of the Sutors of the said Court, and the Records and Proceedings of the Commissioners of Bankrupts and Liquidators; and of several Acts in the said Act mentioned, divers Sums of Money have been, by virtue of several Orders of the said Court of Chancery, taken out of the common and general Cask belonging to the Sutors of the High Court of Chancery, which by deed and conveyance to the Bank of England, and have been placed out in the Name of the Accountant General of the said Court, on Government or Parliamentary Securities, and such Government or Parliamentary Securities have been, in pursuance of the said Act passed in the Thirty second Year of His present Majesty's Reign, carried to an Account, intitled, 'Account of Monies placed out for the Benefit and better Security of the Sutors of the High Court of Chancery'; and out of the Dividends and Interest of the Securities purchased in pursuance of the said several Acts of Parliament, the several Annual Sums and Salaries, and the several other Payments directed to be made and to be paid, have been from time to time made and paid, and the Surplus Interest and annual Produce arising from the said Securities, beyond what was sufficient to answer the Expenses of the said several Acts, and also the Interest produced from the Securities purchased with such Surplus Interest and annual Produce, have been from time to time in pursuance of the said last mentioned Act, laid out to the Purchase of Government or Parliamentary Securities, in the name of the Accountant General of the said Court, and placed to the Credit of an Account, intitled, 'Account of Securities purchased with surplus Interest arising from Securities carried to an Account of Monies placed out for the Benefit and better Security of the Sutors of the High Court of Chancery'; And Whereas by another Act passed in the Fifth Year of His said Majesty's Reign, intitled *An Act for building certain Offices for the Examiners, Clerks, and Clerks of the Petty Bag of the High Court of Chancery, and for making certain Regulations in the Examiners' Office of the said Court, and for making Provision for such of the Examiners, Deputy Examiners and Clerks, as from length of Service, or from Age or Infirmary, are or shall be incapacitated from the due Execution of their Office, and for making Provision for other Officers of the said Court, and for making other Payments in respect of the said Officers, and also by another Act of Parliament passed in the Fifth third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act to facilitate the Administration of Justice; divers other Sums of Money have been, by virtue of several other Orders of the said Court of Chancery, taken out of the common and general Cask belonging to the said Sutors, which by deed and conveyance to the Bank of England, and have been placed out on the*

Name

• Name of the Accountant General of the said Court of Chancery, according to the General Rules and Orders of the said Court, on Government or Parliamentary Securities; and such Government or Parliamentary Securities have been, in pursuance of the said last mentioned Act, carried to an Account, intimated 'Account of Monies placed out for the Benefit and better Security of the Sutors of the High Court of Chancery;' and out of the Interest and Dividends of the Securities purchased in pursuance of the said last mentioned Act, the several annual Sums and Salaries, and the several other Payments directed to be made and to be paid, have been from time to time made and paid, and the surplus Interest and annual Profits arising from the said Securities, beyond what was sufficient to answer the Purposes of the said several last mentioned Acts, and also the Interest produced from the Securities purchased with such surplus Interest and annual Profits, have been from time to time, in pursuance of the said last mentioned Acts, laid out in the Purchase of Government or Parliamentary Securities, in the Name of the Accountant General of the said Court, and placed to the Credit of an Account, intimated 'Account of Securities purchased with surplus Interest arising from Securities, carried to an Account of Monies placed out for the Benefit and better Security of the Sutors of the High Court of Chancery;' And Whereas by an Act made and passed in the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intimated an Act for making Provision for such of the said Registers or Deputy Registers of the High Court of Chancery, as from Age or Infirmary shall be entitled with permanent Disability, and be incapacitated for the discharge of their Office; and for making further Provision for the Two Sutors of the said Registers for the Clerks in the Registers' Office, for the Master of the Report Office, and for providing additional Clerks in the Report Office of the said Court, and for making Payments and Regulations in respect of the said Office; it was amongst other things enacted, that out of the Interest and Dividends of the Government or Parliamentary Securities already carried to the said Account, intimated 'Account of Interest arising from Monies placed out for the Benefit and better Security of the Sutors of the High Court of Chancery;' and out of the Interest and Dividends of any Government or Parliamentary Securities thereafter to be purchased and placed to the said mentioned Account, there should be paid (but subject and without Prejudice to the Payment of all Salaries and Sums of Money by any Act or Acts of Parliament thereto before passed, directed or authorized to be paid thereout) by the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, by virtue of any Order or Orders of the High Court of Chancery, to be made for that Purpose, by Quarterly Payments on the Fifth Day of January, the Fifth Day of April, the Fifth Day of July, and the Tenth Day of October, in every Year, such yearly Sums as after mentioned to the several Purposes after mentioned, (that is to say,) amongst other Purposes to Four additional Clerks to be employed in the said Report Office for the Purposes therein mentioned, and to be appointed by the Filer and Keeper of the said Reports and Certificates, and Keeper of the said Books of Entries of the said Office for the time being, the several yearly Sums therein after mentioned, (that is to say,) to the First of the said Clerks the yearly Sum of Two hundred and thirty Pounds, to the Second of the said Clerks the yearly Sum of Two hundred and twenty Pounds, to the Third of the said Clerks the yearly Sum of One hundred and eighty eight Pounds, and to the Fourth of the said Clerks the yearly Sum of One hundred and thirty two Pounds, and also a proportionable Part of such Quarterly Payments as should accrue due between the last Quarterly Payment thereof and the Time of the Death or other Removal of such Clerks; and such Allowances and Payments in the said Clerks in the Report Office, to be a full Compensation and Satisfaction for their Labour and Attendance in the said Office: And Whereas the Money and Effects belonging to the Sutors of the High Court of Chancery, under the Care and Direction of the said Court, have very greatly increased, by reason whereof the necessary Accounts and Books of the Report Office have of late Years greatly increased and are still increasing, and the great Establishment of Clerks in the said Office is indispensable to transact the Business thereof, with great Accuracy and Dispatch as is necessary for the Public Service; and several of the Clerks in the said Office have been many Years employed therein, and their present Salaries, considering the great Increase in the necessary Expenses of Living, are not a sufficient Compensation for their Length of Service, having regard to the Merit and Importance of such Service, and the Attendance, Qualifications and Responsibility necessary to enable them to fulfil the Duties of their Employment with Advantage to the Public: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That out of the common and general Cask belonging to the Sutors of the Court of Chancery, which now lies or shall hereafter be dead and unemployed in the Bank of England, a Sum not exceeding Two hundred thousand Pounds, shall and may by virtue of any Order or Orders of the said Court be made for that Purpose, from time to time be placed out in One entire Sum, or in Parts, in the Name of the Accountant General of the said Court, according to the General Rules and Orders of the said Court, on such Government or Parliamentary Securities as by such Order or Orders shall be directed, and such Securities shall be carried to an Account raised in pursuance of former Acts of Parliament, and intimated 'Account of Monies placed out for the Benefit and better Security of the Sutors of the High Court of Chancery;' and shall be made Part of the same Account; and out of the Interest and Dividends of all or any of the Securities purchased out of the said common and general Cask in pursuance of former Acts, and to be purchased in pursuance of the Act, there shall be paid (but subject and without Prejudice to the Payment of all Salaries and Sums of Money by any former Act or Acts of Parliament thereto before passed, directed or authorized to be paid thereout) by the Governor and Company of the Bank of England,

For placing out in Interest a certain Part of the dead Cask belonging to the Sutors of the Court of Chancery.

And out of the treasury thereof
additional Salaries to be paid to the said Clerks in the said Office.
Additional Clerks to be appointed in the

by virtue of any Order or Orders of the High Court of Chancery to be made for that Purpose, by Quarterly Payments, on the Fifth Day of January, the Fifth Day of April, the Fifth Day of July, and the Tenth Day of October, in every Year : such additional yearly Sums or Salaries to be from time to time paid to the said Four Clerks in the Report Office for the time being, as hereinafter mentioned, (that is to say,) to the First of the said Four Clerks One hundred and forty Pounds, to the Second Clerk One hundred and eighty Pounds, to the Third Clerk One hundred and fifty two Pounds, and to the Fourth Clerk One hundred and fifty eight Pounds; the First Quarterly Payment thereof to commence on the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and eighteen; and also such several yearly Sums or Salaries as are hereinafter mentioned, to be from time to time paid Quarterly on the several Days herebefore mentioned, to Three additional Clerks for the time being, namely, a Fifth, Sixth, and Seventh Clerk to be appointed; that is to say, to the Fifth Clerk One hundred and fifty Pounds, to the Sixth Clerk One hundred and fifty Pounds, and to the Seventh Clerk One hundred and fifty Pounds; and also the yearly Sums or Salaries of One hundred and fifty Pounds each, to Three more additional Clerks in the said Office, in case it shall at any time hereafter appear necessary to the said Court of Chancery to appoint such Three additional Clerks, or any of them, in pursuance of the Clause for that Purpose hereafter contained; the First Quarterly Payment to such additional Clerks respectively to commence from the Day of the Date of their respective Appointments.

pointing Three more Additional Clerks in the
said Office.

II. And be it further enacted, That a Hall and may be lawful to and for the said Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, Lord Keeper or Lords Commissioners of the Great Seal of Great Britain for the time being, upon the Requisition of the Master of the Report Office of the said Court of Chancery for the time being for that Purpose, and upon as being made appear to the Court that additional Assistance is necessary to the said Office for transacting the said Business of the Suits of the said Court therein, to appoint not exceeding Three more Persons to be Clerks in the said Office, who shall have and be entitled to the yearly Salaries of One hundred and fifty Pounds each, hereby provided for the additional Clerks in the said Office; to be paid and payable out of the same Funds, and in the same manner as is directed and provided by the Clause herebefore contained.

of their being lawfully appointed time
Office, before they shall be entitled to the Payment hereby directed.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Clerks in the said Report Office, and each and every of them for the time being, shall from time to time, as and when so or they apply at the proper Office in the Bank of England for Payment of the several yearly Sums herebefore provided and directed to be paid to them respectively, produce a Certificate, signed by the Master of the Report Office for the time being, that such Clerk hath duly and lawfully in all things performed and fulfilled the Duty and Office of a Clerk to the said Master of the Report Office for the time being, up to the time specified in such Certificate; and by reason thereof is entitled to have and receive the yearly Sum or Payment hereby provided, up to the time mentioned in such Certificate; and to ask the said Master for the time being of the said Report Office shall decline or refuse to sign such Certificate, such Clerk shall be at Liberty to apply to the said Court of Chancery by Petition or otherwise, and the said Court shall have full Power and Authority to make such Order therein as to the said Court shall appear to be expedient or just.

displaced.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be deemed or taken to prevent or hinder any person or persons Clerk in the said Report Office from being removed or displaced at any time, in such manner and by such Authority as Clerks in the said Office are now be removed or displaced.

Clerks to be appointed in the Place of such as shall remove or disappear.

V. And be it further enacted, That in the Place of any Clerk who may be so removed or displaced, or to whom any Annuity or yearly Sum shall be ordered to be paid in pursuance of this Act, some other Person of sufficient Ability shall or may be appointed a Clerk in the said Office, in the manner and by the Authority in and by which the Clerks in the said Report Office have heretofore been appointed.

Expenses of this Act and of all
vided for.

VI. And be it further enacted, That out of the Interest and Dividends of the Government or Parliamentary Securities purchased and to be purchased as aforesaid, the Costs incurred in procuring and paying this Act, and the Costs, Charges and Expenses of all Proceedings to be had in Execution and in pursuance thereof, shall be paid by the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, by virtue of any Order or Orders of the High Court of Chancery to be made for that Purpose.

Monies to be
upon Security.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the surplus interest and annual Produce which shall arise from the Money placed out and to be placed out on Securities, pursuant to the several Acts of Parliament heretofore mentioned or referred to, or any of them, beyond what shall be sufficient to answer the Purposes of the said Acts, shall from time to time be placed out on Government or Parliamentary Securities, and shall be placed to the Credit of the said Account, raised in pursuance of the said Act of the Thirty second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, entitled 'Account of Monies placed out for the Benefit and better Security of the Suits of the High Court of Chancery' and which Fund shall be applied to answer the Demands of the said Suits of the said Court of Chancery, in case it shall at any time be necessary to call in any Money of the said Suits, which hath been or may be placed out on Securities.

be changed.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful to and for the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, or Lord Keeper or Lords Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Great Britain for the time being, by any Order or Orders of the said Court of Chancery, to change the Security or Securities or any Part of the Securities purchased or to be purchased pursuant to the several Acts of Parliament heretofore mentioned or referred to, or pursuant to this Act.

Monies to be placed out on Securities, and to be changed
at will.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted and declared, That for and notwithstanding any of the Provisions contained in this Act, if at any time hereafter the Whole or any Part of the Money placed out pursuant to the said several Acts of Parliament, or any of them, or to be placed out in pursuance of this Act, shall be wanted to answer any of the Demands of the Suits of the High Court of Chancery, then and in such sale the said Court may, and shall direct the Whole or any Part of such Money to be called in, and the Securities in which the same and the surplus Interest and Dividends heretofore mentioned shall be placed, to be sold and disposed of, in order that the Sums of the said Court may at all times be paid their respective Demands out of the common and general Cash belonging to such Sectors.

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall prejudice, delay, hinder or prevent any Reform or Abolition of all or any of the Offices herein mentioned, by any Parliam. or Persons having Authority to reform or abolish the same.

XL. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken Notice of as such, by all Judges, Justices and others, without being specially pleaded.

being already nominated and appointed by the Lord Chamberlain, or Lord Steward of His Majesty's Household, or the Master of His Majesty's Robes, respectively; and the First Gentleman of His Majesty's Bedchamber, commonly called The Gentleman of the Stole, appointed to attend upon His Majesty's Person, shall nominate and appoint to all such Vacancies as shall arise by Removal, Resignation, or Death of any such Officers, Attendants, or Servants aforesaid as have heretofore been nominated or appointed by the Lord Chamberlain or Lord Steward respectively of His Majesty's Household, or by The Master of the Robes to His Majesty; and such Gentlemen of the Stole shall have all such Jurisdiction, Power and Authority over such Officers, Attendants and Servants, as have heretofore been and are now usually exercised by the Lord Chamberlain and Lord Steward of His Majesty's Household respectively, and by The Master of the Robes to His Majesty.

Appointments
by Power of Letters of the
limited.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Officers of His Majesty's Household, who is by this Act put under the Direction of His said Royal Highness, to make any Appointment to any Office, to which such Officer may have the Power of Appointment, for any longer Period than during His Majesty's Pleasure.

Appointments
of Council to assist the Duke of York.

III. And Whereas the Execution of the weighty and arduous Trusts by this Act committed to His Royal Highness, may require the Assistance of a Council, with whom His Royal Highness may confer and advise; Be it therefore enacted, That in order to assist and advise His said Royal Highness in the several matters aforesaid, there shall be, during the Continuance of His Majesty's Illness, a Council consisting of all the Persons who were Members of the Council to Her late Majesty Queen Mary, under the last enacted Act, who may be living at the time of passing this Act, and also John Jeffreys Marquis Camille, in the Room and Place of Edward Lord Eldon heretofore deceased; which Council shall from time to time meet as His Royal Highness shall be pleased to direct, and shall sit in one Room to be named by this Act directed; and if it should happen that any of the Members of such Council should depart this Life, or by Instrument in Writing communicated to His said Royal Highness, signify their Intention to decline to sit, then and in such case it shall be lawful for His Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany, from time to time, by an Instrument in Writing signed and sealed by His said Royal Highness, renewable at His Will and Pleasure, to nominate and appoint some One Person, being or having been a Member of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, to be a Member of the said Council to His said Royal Highness, to advise and assist His said Royal Highness as aforesaid, in the Room and Place of each and every of the said Councilors so departing this Life, or declining to sit as aforesaid; which Nominations and Appointments shall be forthwith certified by an Instrument in Writing signed and sealed by His said Royal Highness, to the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and shall be entered in the Books of the said Privy Council.

Council to take
Oath.

IV. And be it further enacted, That each and every Member of His said Royal Highness's Council shall, within the Space of Ten Days after his Appointment by virtue of this Act, or by virtue of His Royal Highness's Nominations and Appointments as aforesaid, take an Oath before the Lord High Chancellor or Keeper of the Great Seal, or Commissioners for keeping the Great Seal of Great Britain, or the Lord President of His Majesty's Privy Council, or the Chief Justice of the Court of King's Bench for the time being, respectively, or either of them, who are lawfully sworn and respectively required and empowered to administer the Oath, when required so to do by any Person so appointed a Member of His said Royal Highness's Council as aforesaid, and the Person administering such Oath shall give to the Member of His Royal Highness's Council taking the same, a Certificate of the same being so taken, signed with his Hand, which Certificate shall be forthwith transmitted to His Majesty's Privy Council; and such Oath shall be in the Form following; [that is to say],

Oath.

I, A. B. do solemnly promise and swear, That I will truly and faithfully counsel and advise His Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany, according to the best of my Judgment, in all matters and things relating to the Trusts committed to His Royal Highness, touching the Care of His Majesty's Royal Person, and the Retention of the perfect Exercise of the Royal Authority by His Majesty.

Council, or any
Three of them, may examine the Physicians and others upon Oath.

V. And be it further enacted, That His said Royal Highness's Council, or any Three or more of them, shall have Power and Authority, at all times, when they shall judge it necessary, to meet and call before them, and to examine upon Oath, the Physicians, and all other Persons attending on His Majesty during the Continuance of His Majesty's Illness, touching the State of His Majesty's Health, and all matters relating thereto, (which Oath any Member of the said Council is lawfully authorized and empowered to administer,) and to determine the State of His Majesty's Health by all such other way, and means as shall appear to them to be necessary for that purpose.

Council may meet,
and to declare the State of His Majesty's Health; and transmit a Copy of each Declaration to President of Privy Council, &c.

VI. And be it further enacted, That Three or more of the Members of the Council appointed to assist His said Royal Highness in the Execution of the Trusts committed to His said Royal Highness by this Act, shall, in each such Trust shall then be in force, meet on some Day in the First Week of April next, and the first Day in the First Week of every Third Month hereafter; and shall, whilst the said Trusts shall continue in force, at every such Meeting declare the State of His Majesty's Health at the time of each of such Meetings respectively; and shall forthwith transmit a Copy of each Declaration to the President of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or in his Absence to One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, who shall thereupon cause the same to be entered in the Books of the Privy Council.

When it shall appear to the Duke and the Council, or any

VII. And Whereas it is necessary that effectual Provisions should be made that His Majesty may refuse the personal Exercise of His Royal Authority as soon as His Majesty is restored to such a State of Health as to be capable of returning the same; Be it therefore enacted, That when it shall appear to His Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany, and to any Four or more of the Council appointed by this Act to assist

His said Royal Highness in the Execution of the Trust committed to His said Royal Highness by this Act, assembled at any Meeting held in pursuance of His said Royal Highness's Will and Pleasure signified for that purpose, or assembled under the Direction of this Act, or in pursuance of His Majesty's Royal Will and Pleasure signified for that purpose, which Council of His said Royal Highness shall be deemed to be the Privy Council of His said Royal Highness, upon His Majesty's Royal Will and Pleasure being signified for that purpose, and shall be deemed to be the Privy Council of His said Royal Highness, by the Advice of any Four or more of His said Council, to signify the same by an Instrument under His said Royal Highness's Hand, and signed also by the said Four or more of His said Royal Highness's Council, and addressed by the Lord President of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council for the time being, or in his Absence to One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and the said Lord President or Secretary of State shall and is hereby required, on the Receipt thereof, to communicate the same to His said Royal Highness The Prince Regent, and to transmit forthwith a Privy Council and the Members of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council so hereby required to assemble in consequence of such Summons; and the said Lord President, or in his Absence the said Secretary of State, is required, in the Presence of any Four or more Privy Counsellors so assembled, to cause the said Instrument to be entered on the Books of the said Privy Council.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That if at any time after the said Instrument under the Hand of His said Royal Highness, and of Four or more of His said Council, shall have been received and entered as aforesaid, His Majesty shall think proper, by an Instrument under His Sign Manual, to require the Lord President of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council for the time being, or in his Absence One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to summon a Council to His Majesty's Presence, consisting of any Number of Persons not less than Nine whom His Majesty shall name, and who shall be, or who shall have been Members of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, not being Members of His said Royal Highness's Council, the said Lord President or Secretary of State shall and he is hereby required to summon such Persons accordingly; and as well the said Lord President or Secretary of State, as the other Persons so summoned, shall and they are hereby required to attend at the time and Place appointed by His Majesty; and such Persons so assembled shall be and be deemed to be a Privy Council for the purpose hereinafter mentioned.

IX. And be it further enacted, That if His Majesty, by the Advice of Six or more of such Privy Council so assembled, shall signify His Royal Pleasure to refuse the proposed Council of His Royal Authority, and to issue a Proclamation declaring the same, such Proclamation shall be signed accordingly, countersigned by the said Six or more of the said Privy Council; and all the Powers and Authorities given by this Act shall from thenceforth cease and determine; and the proposed Council of His Royal Authority by His Majesty shall, notwithstanding any thing in this Act, or in the said recited Acts, or any of them, contained or provided, by law be deemed to be refused by His Majesty, and shall be executed by His Majesty to all intents and purposes, as if this Act had never been made.

X. And be it further enacted, That in case of the Death of His said Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany, during the time that the Care of His Majesty's Person shall be committed to His said Royal Highness, according to the Provisions of this Act, the Care of His Majesty's Royal Person, and all and every the Powers and Authorities in and by this Act vested in His said Royal Highness, touching the Care of His Majesty's Royal Person, and the disposing, ordering and managing all matters and things relating thereto, shall become and continue vested in His said Royal Highness's Council until due Provision shall have been made in relation thereto by Parliament: Provided nevertheless, that in such case nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to empower His said Royal Highness The Prince Regent, or the said Council, to nominate, appoint or remove any of the Officers or Persons of His Majesty's Household, by this Act made subject to the Nomination, Appointment or Removal of His said Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany, until due Provision shall have been made by Parliament in that behalf.

XI. And be it further enacted, That if His said Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany should depart this Life during the time that the Care of His Majesty's Person shall be committed to His said Royal Highness, according to the Provisions of this Act, and the Parliament so being at the time shall then be separated, His said Royal Highness The Prince Regent shall forthwith cause to be issued and published a Proclamation, under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, declaring that such case hath happened, and requiring the said Parliament to meet and sit at Westminster at the Day to which such Parliament had been adjourned or prorogued, or upon some Day to be mentioned in such Proclamation, and being within Eighty Days, to be computed from the Date of such Proclamation; and the Parliament shall thereby be deemed and taken to be duly prorogued to such Day to be so mentioned in such Proclamation.

XII. And be it further enacted, That if such case as aforesaid shall happen, and there shall be no Parliament in being at the time, and the same shall happen before the Day appointed by any Writ of Summons then issued for calling and assembling a new Parliament, then and in such case His said Royal Highness The Prince Regent shall forthwith cause to be issued and published a Proclamation under the Great Seal aforesaid, declaring that such case hath happened, and requiring such new Parliament to convene and sit at Westminster, either upon the Day appointed by such Writ of Summons for assembling the new Parliament, or upon some Day to be mentioned in such Proclamation, and being within Eighty Days, to be computed from the Date of such Proclamation; and in such latter case, upon the Day appointed by the said Writ of Summons for assembling the new Parliament, the same shall in the due and accustomed manner be prorogued to such Day to be so mentioned in such Proclamation.

Four of them, say His Majesty's Council is intended, the same to be notified to the Privy Council and entered in their Books.

After such Entry, His Majesty may, by Sign Manual, require the Privy Council to consist of any Number of Persons, and may remove any Members of the Duke's Council.

Power of Act to meet on His Majesty declaring, by Proclamation, His Majesty's Person to be refused by His Royal Authority.

In case of Death of the Duke of York, the Care of His Majesty's Person is committed to the Duke's Council, until Provision made by Parliament for Continuance of Officers.

And in such case The Regent to issue a Proclamation for the Meeting of Parliament, to meet the Parliament in the next sitting.

Apr. 1871 to ascertain the Tonnage of Vessels propelled by Steam. [2nd March 1871.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled *An Act for the better adjusting the Tonnage and Burthen of Ships and Vessels importing and exporting Goods into and from this Kingdom, or belonging upon the English Shores, for amending a Statute in that behalf made in the fifth Session of Parliament, for lowering the Duty payable upon the Importation of Coal Barks, or vessels in the said Ship for the Powder and Fireworks therein intitled in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland; for appropriating the Duty on Coal Barks, granted by the said Act; and for amending Duties which have origin and relief in the said Statute the Drawback upon certain Commodities; and the Twenty sixth Statute exported to the Islands of Madaga, the Canary Islands, and the Azores or Western Islands; and by another Act, passed in the Twenty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for the further Increase and Encouragement of Shipping and Navigation, certain Rules are intitled and established for ascertaining the Tonnage of Ships or Vessels for the purposes therein mentioned: And Whereas Ships or Vessels have been built and continued to be propelled by Steam, and the Rules preferred by the before recited Act are not feasible to ascertain the true Tonnage of such Ships or Vessels: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Rule for ascertaining Ships or Vessels to be propelled by Steam shall be as follows; that is to say, the Length shall be taken as a straight Line along the Rabbet of the Keel of the Ship, from the Back of the Main Stern Post to a perpendicular Line from the Forepart of the Main Stern under the Bowprit, from which deducting the Length of the Engine Room and Superstrutting Three Fifths of the Breadth, the Remainder shall be esteemed the said Length of the Keel as used for the Tonnage; and the Breadth shall be taken from the Outside of the outside Plank in the broadest Place of the Ship or Vessel, be it above or below the Main Water, exclusive of all manner of Docking Planks that may be wrought upon the Sides of the Ship or Vessel; then multiplying the Length of the Keel by the Breadth is taken, and that Product by Half the Breadth, and dividing the Whole by Ninety four, the Quotient shall be deemed the true Content of the Tonnage, according to which Rule the Tonnage of all such Ships and Vessels shall be measured and ascertained; any thing in any Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that it shall not be lawful to load or place any Goods (Fuel for the Voyage excepted), in the said Engine Room; and if any Goods shall be so loaded or placed, such Ship or Vessel shall from thenceforth be deemed and taken to be a Ship or Vessel which has not been ascertained according to the Rules of this Act, and liable to all the Consequences thereof.*

XV. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted, That no Information shall be exhibited for any of the Offences aforesaid, unless within the Space of Six Calendar Months after the Commission of such Offences respectively.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That One Third Part of the pecuniary Penalties to be recovered as aforesaid shall be paid and payable to the Poor of the Parish, Township or Place where the Offence shall be committed, and the other Two Third Parts of such Penalties to the Parole or Persons who shall inform of any the Offences aforesaid.

XVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in all Informations, Complaints and other Proceedings, in pursuance of this Act, or in relation to any matter or thing herein contained, any Inhabitant of the Parish, Township or Place in which any Offence or Offences shall be committed, contrary to the true intent and meaning of this Act, shall be admitted to give Evidence, and shall be deemed competent Witnesses, notwithstanding his, her or their being an Inhabitant or Inhabitants of the Parish, Township or Place wherein any such Offence or Offences shall be supposed to have been committed.

XVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case any Person or Persons who shall be liable to any of the Penalties aforesaid, by means of any thing done by him, her or them, under the Order, Direction or Procurement of any other Person or Persons, shall, before any Information or Complaint shall be laid or made against him, her or them, discover to any Two or more Justices the Name or Names of the Person or Persons by whose Order, Direction or Procurement he, she or they shall have done such Act, which shall have made him, her or them liable to any of the Penalties, so that the Person or Persons by whose Order, Direction or Procurement he, she or they shall have done such Act, shall be prosecuted to Conviction for the same, then and in such case such Person or Persons who shall give such Information, or make such Complaint, shall not be liable to the Fines and Penalties aforesaid, but shall be entitled to Two Third Parts of the Penalty, as other Informers.

C. 8, 11, 13 C. A. P. VIII.

An Act to continue, until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty, an Act of the last Session of Parliament, for preventing Aliens from becoming naturalized, or being made or becoming Denizens, except in certain cases. [23d March 1819.]

§ 10. 3. c. 25.

As amended, in this Session.

WHEREAS an Act was made in the last Session of Parliament, intitled An Act to prevent Aliens, until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, from becoming naturalized, or being made or becoming Denizens, except in certain cases: And Whereas it is expedient that the last recited Act and the Provisions therein contained should be continued for a further Period: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said recited Act and the Provisions therein contained shall be and the same is and are hereby continued in force from the said Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and nineteen until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty: and that until the said Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty no Alien shall become a naturalized Subject, or be made or become a Denizen, or become entitled to the Privileges of a naturalized Subject or Denizen contrary to the Provisions of the last recited Act.

II. And be it further enacted, That the last recited Act and this Act may be altered, amended or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

C. A. P. IX.

An Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion; and for the better Payment of the Army, and their Quarters. [23d March 1819.]

(This Act is the same, and all the Schedule are with the same, as § 8. 3. c. 12. except in its Date, Number of Pages, &c. and the Schedules that are here inserted.)

Offences in army.

Orders to be taken by all Members of a General Court Martial.

XVIII. PROVIDED always, and be it further enacted, That in all Trials by General Courts Martial to be held by virtue of this Act, every Member sitting at such Trial, before any Proceedings be had thereupon, shall take the following Oath upon the Holy Evangelists, before the Judge Advocate or his Deputy (who are hereby authorized to administer the same): that is to say.

'YOU shall well and truly try and determine according to your Evidence, in the matter now before you, So help you GOD.'

I do swear, That I will duly administer Justice, according to the Rules and Articles for the better Government of His Majesty's Forces, and according to an Act of Parliament now in force for the Punishment of Mutiny and Desertion, and other Crimes therein mentioned, without Partiality, Favour or Affection; and if any Doubt shall arise, which is not explained by the said Articles or Act of Parliament, according to my Conscience, the best of my Understanding, and the Customs of War is the like rule: And I further swear, That I will not divulge the Secrets of this Court until it shall be approved by His Majesty, or by some Person duly authorized by Him; neither will I, upon any account, or any time whatsoever, disclose or discover the Vote or Opinion of any particular Member of the Court Martial, unless required to give Evidence thereof as a Witness, by a Court of Justice or a Court Martial, in a due Course of Law.

'So help me GOD.'

And

And it shall be the said Oath shall have been administered to the respective Members, the President of the Court is hereby authorized and required to administer to the Judge Advocate, or the Person officiating as such, an Oath in the following Words.

"I do swear, That I will not upon any account, at any time whatsoever, disclose or discover the Vote or Opinion of any particular Member of the Court Martial, unless required to give Evidence thereof as a Witness, by a Court of Justice or a Court Martial, in a due Course of Law.

"So help me GOD."

And no Sentence of Death shall be given against any Officer in such suits by any General Court Martial, unless Nine Officers present shall concur therein, (except such General Court Martial shall be holden in any Place beyond the Seas out of His Majesty's Dominions, or out of any of the Settlements belonging to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, or in Africa, or in New South Wales as aforesaid); and in all cases where a Court Martial shall consist of more Officers than Thirteen, and also in any Place beyond the Seas out of His Majesty's Dominions, except of any of the Settlements belonging to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, or in Africa and in New South Wales as aforesaid, when the same shall consist of a lesser Number of Officers, then each Judge and each Juror shall take by the Concurrence of Two Thirds at the least of the Officers present, (and no Proceeding or Trial shall be had upon any Offence but between the Hours of Eight of the Clock in the Morning and Four in the Afternoon, except in cases which require an immediate Example: Provided also, that all Witnesses duly summoned by the Judge Advocate, or the Person officiating as such, shall, during their necessary Attendance in such Courts, and in going to and returning from the same, be privileged from Arrest in like manner as Witnesses according any of His Majesty's Courts of Law are privileged; and that if any such Witness shall be unduly arrested, he shall be discharged from such Arrest: by the Court out of which the Writ or Process issued by which such Witness was arrested; or if the Court out of which the Writ or Process issued be not sitting, then by any Judge of the Court of King's Bench in London or in Dublin, or Court of Sessions in Scotland, or Courts of Law in the West Indies, according to the rule shall require, upon its being made appear to such Court or Judge by Affidavit in a summary Way, that such Witness was arrested in going to or returning from or attending upon such Court Martial; and that all Witnesses so duly summoned as aforesaid, who shall not attend on such Courts, shall be liable to be attached in the Court of King's Bench in London or Dublin, or Court of Session or Sheriff's Depute or Steward's Depute, or their respective Substitutes, within their several Shires and Counties, in Scotland, or Courts of Law in the West Indies respectively, upon Complaint made to the said Courts of King's Bench, or Court of Session in Scotland, or Courts of Law in the West Indies, in like manner as if such Witness had appeared to attend on a Trial in any Criminal Proceeding in that Court.

XXXIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That every Judge Advocate, or Person officiating as such at any General Court Martial, do and he is hereby required to transmit, with as much Expedition as the Opportunity of time and Distance of Place can admit, the original Proceedings and Sentence of such Court Martial to the Judge Advocate General in London, or if the Court Martial shall have been held in Ireland, to the Judge Advocate General in Dublin; and the said original Proceedings and Sentences are to be carefully kept and preserved in the respective Offices, to the end that the Persons entitled therein may be enabled, upon Application to such Office, to obtain Copies thereof, according to the true Letter and meaning of this Act.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That any Officer shall make any Regiment, Troop or Company within the City of Westminster, and Borough of Southwark and Liberties thereof, but in the Presence of Two or more Justices of the Peace, not bring Officers of the Army, under the Penalty of Fifty Pounds, and of being discharged from his Office, unless such Justices, upon Forty eight Hours' Notice being given to Six of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace residing within the City and Liberties aforesaid respectively, shall require to attend such Muster; and in case of such Neglect, such Officer may proceed to muster such Regiment, Troop or Company; provided that Oath be made before any of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace within Forty eight Hours after such Muster taken, that such Muster was given to Six Justices of the Peace as aforesaid, which Justices so attending are hereby empowered to sign the said Muster Rolls, and to take Receipts of such Muster, and to examine the Truth thereof, before they sign the same.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That every Officer that shall make any false or untrue Muster of Man or Horse, or shall wilfully or negligently allow or sign the Muster Roll wherein such false Muster is contained, or any Duplicate thereof; and also every Officer who shall directly or indirectly take or cause to be taken any Sum or Sum of Money, or any other Gratuity, or fee for the making any Regiment, Troop or Company, or as or for the signing of any Muster Roll, or any Duplicate thereof, upon Proof thereof upon Oath made by Two Witnesses before a General Court Martial, to be thereupon called (which is hereby authorized and required to administer such Oath), shall for such Offence be forthwith cashiered, and shall be thereby utterly disabled to have or hold any Civil or Military Office or Employment within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or in His Majesty's Service.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That if any Officer shall knowingly suffer any Person by a wrong Name, upon Conviction thereof before a General Court Martial, the said Officer shall be subject to such Penalties as are directed and inflicted by this Act upon those who shall make false Returns.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That an Officer of His Majesty's Forces residing in Barracks or elsewhere under Military Law, shall be deemed liable to have any Female Poor Child bound Apprentice to him; but that every such Officer shall be wholly exempt from taking or receiving, or from having bound to him any such Child as an Apprentice, any Law, Statute or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Continuance of Act.

CLX. And he is further enacted, That this Act shall be and continue in force within Great Britain from the Twenty fourth Day of March in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, until the Twenty fifth Day of March in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and twenty; and shall be and continue in force within Ireland, and in Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark and Isle of Man, and the Islands thereto belonging, from the First Day of April in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, until the First Day of April in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and twenty; and shall be and continue in force within the Garrisons of Gibraltar, and in Spain and Portugal, from the Twenty fifth Day of June in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, until the Twenty fifth Day of June in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and twenty; and shall be and continue in force in all other Parts of Europe where His Majesty's Forces may be serving, and in the West India and America, from the Twenty fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, to the Twenty fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty; and shall be and continue in force within the Cape of Good Hope, the Isle of France and Reunion, and Islands thereto belonging, Saint Helena and the Western Coast of Africa, from the Twenty fifth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, to the Twenty fifth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty; and shall be and continue in force in all other Places from the Twenty fifth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and twenty, to the Twenty fifth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and twenty one.

• FOR the better and more effectual Execution of the Laws for the Relief of the Poor, and for the Amendment thereof: May it please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the Inhabitants of any Parish, in Vestry assembled, and they are hereby empowered, so to elect a Select Vestry for the Concerns of the Poor of such Parish; and to that end so to convene and elect, in the same or in any subsequent Vestry, or any Adjournment thereof respectively, such and so many substantial Householdors or Occupiers within such Parish, not exceeding the Number of Twenty nor less than Five, as shall in any such Vestry be thought fit to be Members of the Select Vestry; and the Rector, Vicar or other Minister of the Parish, and in his Absence the Curate thereof (such Curate being resident in and charged to the Poor's Rates of such Parish), and the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor for the time being, together with the Inhabitants who shall be nominated and elected as aforesaid (such Inhabitants being first sworn appointed by Writing under the Hand and Seal of One of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, which Appointment be is hereby authorized and required to make), shall be and constitute a Select Vestry for the Care and Management of the Concerns of the Poor of such Parish, and any Three of them (Two of whom shall neither be Churchwardens nor Overseers of the Poor) shall be a Quorum; and when any Inhabitant elected and appointed to serve in any such Select Vestry shall, before the Expiration of his Office, die, or remove from the Parish, or shall become incapable of serving, or shall refuse or neglect to serve therein, the Vacancy which shall be thereby occasioned shall, as soon as conveniently may be, be filled up by the Election and Appointment, in manner aforesaid, of some other substantial Householders or Occupiers of such Parish, and in from time to time as often as any such Vacancy shall occur; and every such Select Vestry shall continue and be empowered to act from the time of the Appointment thereof until Fourteen Days after the next Annual Appointment of Overseers of the Poor of the Parish shall take place, and may be from Year to Year, and in any future Year, renewed in the manner herebefore directed; and every such Select Vestry shall meet once in every Fourteen Days, and where if it shall be found necessary, in the Parish Church, or in some other convenient Place within the Parish; and at every such Meeting a Chairman shall be appointed by the Majority

Composition of Select Vestries.

Members elected, being appointed by a Justice, to constitute a Select Vestry.

Vacancies how supplied.

Continuance of Select Vestries.

Power of Renewal. Meetings and Election of Select Vestries.

of the Members present, who shall preside therein; and in all cases of Equality of Votes upon any Question there arising, the Chairman shall have the casting Vote; and every such Select Vestry is hereby empowered and required to examine into the State and Condition of the Poor of the Parish, and to inquire into and determine upon the proper Objects of Relief, and the Nature and Amount of the Relief to be given; and in such case shall take into Consideration the Character and Conduct of the poor Persons to be relieved, and shall be at liberty so to distinguish, in the Relief to be granted between the deserving, and the idle, extravagant or profligate Poor; and such Select Vestry shall make Orders in Writing for such Relief as they shall think requisite, and shall require into and superintend the Collection and Administration of all Money to be raised by the Poor's Rates, and of all other Funds and Money raised or applied by the Parish to the Relief of the Poor; and where any such Select Vestry shall be established, the Overseers of the Poor are required, in the Execution of their Office, to conform to the Directions of the Select Vestry, and shall act (except in cases of sudden Emergency or urgent Necessity, and to the extent only of such temporary Relief in such case shall require, and except by Order of Justices, in the cases hereinafter provided for,) give any further or other Relief or Allowance to the Poor, than such as shall be ordered by the Select Vestry.

Overseers (who are) to give no other Relief than as ordered by Select Vestry.

Proceedings by Justices of Peace, upon Complaints of Wanting Relief

Overseers are required to superintend the Poor Justices.

II. And be it further enacted, That when any Complaint shall be made to any Justice of the Peace, of the Want of adequate Relief, by or on the behalf of any poor Inhabitant of any Parish for which a Select Vestry shall be established by virtue of this Act, or in which the Relief of the Poor is or shall be under the Management of Guardians, Governors or Directors appointed by virtue of Special or Local Acts, such Justice shall not proceed therein, or take Cognizance thereof, unless it shall be proved on Oath before him, that Application for such Relief hath been first made to and refused by the Select Vestry, or by such Guardians, Governors or Directors; and in such case, the Justice to whom the Complaint shall be made may summon the Overseers of the Poor, or any of them, to appear before any Two of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, to answer the Complaint; and if upon the hearing thereof it shall be proved on Oath, to the Satisfaction of the Justices who shall hear the same, that the Party complaining, or on whose behalf the Complaint shall be made, is in need of Relief, and that adequate Relief hath been refused by the Select Vestry, or by such Guardians, Governors or Directors, or that such Select Vestry shall not have attended as by this Act directed, it shall be lawful for such Justices to make an Order, under their Hands and Seals, for such Relief as they, in their just and proper Discretion, shall think necessary (Reference being also had by such Justices to the Character and Conduct of the Applicant); provided, that in every such Order the special Cause of granting the Relief thereby directed shall be expressly stated, and that on such Order shall be given for or against to any longer time than One Month from the Date thereof: Provided that it shall be lawful for any Justice to make an Order for Relief in any case of urgent Necessity, to be specified in such Order, as in such Order shall remain in force only until the assembling of the Select Vestry of the Parish, or of such Guardians, Governors or Directors, as aforesaid, to which such case shall relate.

One Justice may order temporary Relief, in cases of urgent Necessity.

Minutes kept of Proceedings of Select Vestries.

Minutes and Reports of Proceedings, shall be kept by Guardians in General Vestry.

Notice of holding by Vestries, Minutes of Meetings, &c.

Orders for Relief, where no Select Vestry, made by Two or more Justices.

III. And be it further enacted, That every Select Vestry, to be established by the Authority of this Act, shall cause Minutes to be fairly entered in Books, to be for that purpose provided, of all their Meetings, Proceedings, Resolutions, Orders and Transactions, and of all sums received, applied and expended, by their Direction; and such Minutes shall from time to time be signed by the Chairman; and shall, together with a Summary or Report of the Accounts and Transactions of the Select Vestry, be laid before the Inhabitants of the Parish at General Vestry assembled, Twice in every Year, that is to say, in the Month of March and the Month of October, and at such other times as the Select Vestry shall think fit; and the Minutes, Proceedings, Accounts and Reports of every Select Vestry, shall belong to the Parish, and be preserved with the other Books, Documents, Accounts and public Papers thereof.

IV. Provided, and be it further enacted, That the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor shall cause Ten Days' Notice, at the least, to be publicly given, in the usual manner, of every Vestry to be holden for the purpose of establishing any Select Vestry, or of acquiescing and clothing the Minutes, or any Member thereof, and of every Vestry to be holden for the purpose of receiving the Report of the Select Vestry; and every Notice of any such Vestry shall state the special purpose thereof.

V. And be it further enacted, That every Order to be made, after the First Day of May next, for the Relief of any poor Person by the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of any Parish not having a Select Vestry, under the Authority of this Act, shall be made by Two or more Justices, who shall, in making every such Order, take into their Consideration the Character and Conduct of the Person applying for Relief; provided that in every such Order the special Cause of granting the Relief thereby directed shall be expressly stated, and that no such Order shall be given for or against to any longer time than One Month from the Date thereof: Provided also, that in cases of Emergency and urgent Distress, it shall be lawful for One Justice to order such Relief as the case shall require, stating in his Order the Circumstances of the case; but no such last mentioned Order shall entitle any Person to claim Relief by virtue thereof more than Fourteen Days from the Date of the Order, nor shall the same have any Force or Effect after the next Petty Session to be holden within the Hundred or other Division or District in which the Parish to which the same shall apply shall be situate.

Power to Special Sessions to appoint, &c. Overseers.

VI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, in their respective Special Sessions for the Appointment of Overseers of the Poor, upon the Nomination, and at the Request of the Inhabitants of any Parish in Vestry assembled, to appoint any Person who shall be affixed to the Relief of the Poor thereof, and shall be a Householder resident within Two Miles from the Church or Chapel of such Parish, on whom there shall be no Church or Chapel, shall be resident within One Mile from the Boundary of such Parish, to be an Overseer of the Poor thereof, although the Person so to be appointed shall not be an Householder within the Parish of which he shall be so appointed as Overseer of the Poor; and it shall be sufficient, in every such Appointment, to describe the Person appointed by his Name and Residence; provided provided that no Person shall be appointed to, or be compellable to serve the Office of Overseer of the Poor of any Parish or Place in which he shall not be a Householder, unless he shall have continued in such Appointment.

VII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Inhabitants of any Parish in Vestry assembled, to nominate and elect any definite Person or Persons to be Assistant Overseer or Overseers of the Poor of such Parish, and to determine and fixify the Duties to be by or them executed and performed, and to fix such yearly Salary for the Execution of the said Office as shall by such Inhabitants in Vestry be thought fit; and it shall be lawful for any Two of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, and they are hereby empowered, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to appoint any Person or Persons who shall be so nominated and elected to be Assistant Overseer or Overseers of the Poor, for such purposes, and with such Salary, as shall have been fixed by the Inhabitants in Vestry; and such Salary shall be paid out of the Money raised for the Relief of the Poor, at such times and in such manner as shall have been agreed upon between the Inhabitants in Vestry and the respective Persons to be so appointed; and every Person to be so appointed Assistant Overseer shall be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to execute all such of the Duties of the Officer of Overseer of the Poor as shall in the Warrant for his Appointment be expressed in like manner and as fully, in all Intents and purposes, as the same may be executed by any ordinary Overseer of the Poor; and every Person or Persons so appointed shall continue to be an Assistant Overseer of the Poor until he or they shall resign such Office, or until his or their Appointment shall be revoked by the Inhabitants of the Parish in Vestry assembled, and no longer; and it shall be lawful for the Inhabitants of any Parish, upon the Nomination and Election by them of an Assistant Overseer or Overseers, to require and take Security for the faithful Execution of his or their Office, by Bond, with or without a Surety or Sureties, and in such Penalty as they shall think fit; and every such Bond shall be made to the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor, and may, on any Breach of the Conditions thereof, be put in Suit by and in the Names of the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor for the time being, by the Direction of the Vestry or Select Vestry, for the Benefit of the Parish, in the manner hereinafter provided.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That in any Parish not having a Workhouse for the Poor thereof, or where the Workhouse shall be found insufficient or inconvenient, it shall be lawful for the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor, by the Direction of the Inhabitants in Vestry assembled, to erect and build in such Parish a suitable Workhouse, or to alter and enlarge any Messuage or Tenement belonging to such Parish for that purpose, and to purchase or take on Lease any Ground within the Parish for the purpose of such Building, or for enlarging any such other Messuage or Tenement belonging to such Parish for that purpose; or such Churchwardens and Overseers may and they are hereby authorized to add to and enlarge any such insufficient Workhouse, as the Inhabitants of the Parish in Vestry shall think fit and decent.

IX. And Whereas it would be advisable to enable Parishes to sell and dispose of their present Workhouses, or any other Houses or Tenements belonging to such Parishes, in cases where the same are insufficient and incapable of being enlarged or used as Workhouses, and to apply the Produce thereof in aid of building new Workhouses: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of any Parish, and they are hereby authorized, by the Direction of the Inhabitants in Vestry assembled, and with the Consent of Two Justices, to be credited under their Hands, to sell and dispose of any Workhouse, or any other Houses or Tenements belonging to such Parish which shall be found to be sufficient or unfit for the purpose, with the Site thereof, and the Outbuildings, Offices, Yards and Gardens thereto belonging, for the best Price and upon such Terms as can be reasonably obtained, and to convey and assign the same to the Purchaser or Purchasers thereof, his, her or their Heirs and Assigns or as he, she or they shall direct, and to apply the Produce of such Sale, after deducting the reasonable Expenses thereof, towards the Purchase or Building of a new Workhouse, or in or towards the Payment of any Money to be borrowed under the Authority of this Act, as the Inhabitants in Vestry shall direct.

X. And Whereas there may be Parishes in which no sufficient Purchase or Workhouse can be procured for the Accommodation of the Poor thereof: Be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of every such Parish, by the Direction of the Inhabitants in Vestry assembled, to purchase or hire any suitable and convenient House or Houses, Building or Buildings, for that purpose, in any adjoining Parish, with the Consent of Two or more Justices, with Consent to be written upon or annexed to the Agreement for purchasing or hiring such House or Houses, Building or Buildings: Provided always, that no such House or Building shall be situate more than Three Miles from the Parish for which the same shall be purchased or hired.

XI. And be it further enacted, That every House and Building which shall be so purchased or hired, shall in all Questions relative to the Settlement of Persons born or lodged therein, be deemed and taken to be Part of the Parish on behalf of which the same shall be purchased or hired, and by which the same shall be used as a Purchase or Workhouse.

XII. And Whereas, by an Act passed in the Forty third Year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor are directed to let to work certain Persons therein described: And Whereas by the Laws now in force no such Powers are now given to the Churchwardens and Overseers, to enable them to keep such Persons fully and constantly employed: Be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of any Parish, with the Consent of the Inhabitants in Vestry assembled, to take into their Hands any Land or Ground which shall belong to such Parish, or to the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of such Parish, or to the Poor thereof, or to purchase or to hire and take on Lease for and on account of the Parish, any suitable Portion or Portions of Land within or near to such Parish, not exceeding Twenty Acres in the whole; and to employ and set to work in the Cultivation Inhabitants in Vestry may elect, and Two Justices may appoint Assistant Overseers with a Salary.

XIV. Provided, and be it further enacted, That all Sums exceeding the Amount of a Rate or Assessment at One Shilling in the Pound upon the Annual Value of the Property in any Parity affixible to the Rates for the Relief of the Poor, shall be raised, expended or applied in any One Year, in purchasing, building and repairing any Buildings or Land by this Act authorized to be purchased, taken, built or repaired, and in fitting up, preparing and furnishing such Buildings, and in stocking such Land, or for any One or more of such purposes or Objects, unless the major Part of the Inhabitants and Overseers assented to the Relief of the Poor, in Vestry assembled, shall consent thereto, nor shall Two Third Parts in Value of all the Inhabitants and Overseers be assented to aforesaid (whether persons in Vestry or not) shall have affix signed their Consent thereto in the Vestry or Parity Book.

Power to raise Further Loans, by Loans, or by
Annuities.

XV. And be it further enacted, That in every case where the Inhabitants of any Parity shall in manner aforesaid consent that a greater Sum than the Amount of a Rate or Assessment of One Shilling in the Pound shall be expended on One Year for all or any of such purposes and Objects, it shall be lawful for the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of such Parity, with the Consent of such Majority as aforesaid of the Inhabitants and Overseers thereof, to be given and signed in the manner herebefore directed (after the Rate or Rates or amounting to One Shilling in the Pound shall have been actually levied and applied for such purposes or some of them), to raise any additional Sum or Sums, by Loans, or by Sale of an Annuity or of Annuities or any Life or Lives, not being under the Age of Fifty Years respectively, or for any certain Term not exceeding Fifteen Years, so as the whole Sum to be raised for all or any of such purposes by Loans, and by the Sale of Annuities, or by either of such means, shall not be more than Five Shillings in the Pound of or upon the true Annual Value of the Property which shall in such Parity be affixed to the Poor's Rates (every Proposal for any such Annuity being first fixed to and approved by the Inhabitants and Overseers of such Parity in Vestry assembled); and the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor shall and they are hereby authorized, in the Names and on the behalf of the Inhabitants of the Parity, to sign and execute Securities for the Money which shall be so borrowed and for the Annuities to be so granted; and by every such Security to charge the Produce of the future Rates to be made for the Relief of the Poor of every such Parity with the Repayment of the principal Sum which shall have been so borrowed, and the interest thereof, or with the Payment of the Annuity thereby granted (as the case may be), and upon the Days and times, and in such manner and Proportions, as is and by the Security for every such Loan and Annuity respectively shall be appointed and specified for the Payment thereof; and the Money so be raised by such future Rates shall be subject and liable to the Payment of every such Loan and the interest thereof, and of every such Annuity accordingly.

Future Rates

and sending such Parity; and no Officer or Servant, Indentment or other Proceeding, shall resist, obstruct, or be discontented, quashed, defeated or impeded, by the Death of the Churchwardens and Overseers named in such Proceeding, or the Death or Death of any of them, or by their Removal or the Removal of any of them from, or the Expiration of, their respective Offices.

XVIII. And it is hereby further enacted, That the Clauses, Powers, Provisions and Directions contained in an Act passed in the Twenty second Year of His present Majesty's Kings, intitled An Act for the Relief and Employment of the Poor, for the Purpose of enabling Bodies Politic and Corporate, Trustees, Guardians and Incapacitated Persons, to contract for the Sale of and to convey and lease Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, for the Purpose in that Act expressed, and for and with regard to the Payment and Application of the Purchase Money to be paid for the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments to be purchased by virtue of the said Act, shall extend and be applied to all Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments to be purchased, hired or taken for the Purpose and under the Authority of this Act, and to the Payment and Application of the Purchase Money for the same, as fully and effectually in all Intents and Purposes as if such Clauses, Powers, Provisions and Directions were herein repeated and contained, and were hereby expressly enacted and applied to Lands and Buildings to be purchased and taken and to be sold for any of the Purposes of this Act.

XIX. And Whereas in many Parishes, and more especially in large and populous Towns, the Payment of the Poor's Rates is greatly evaded, by reason that great Numbers of Houses within such Parishes are let out in Lodgings, or in separate Apartments, or for short Terms, or are let to Tenants who quit their Residences, or become absent before the Rates charged on them can be collected; and it hath been found, that in many Instances the Persons having such Houses do actually charge and receive much higher Rents for the same, upon the Grounds and Expectations that the Occupiers thereof cannot be effectually assisted in the Poor's Rates, and will not be charged with or required to pay such Rates, and do thus obtain an undue Advantage to themselves, and by means of the Premises the other Inhabitants of such Parishes are unjustly compelled to pay much more than their fair and due Proportions of the Charges of relieving and maintaining the Poor; for Remedy thereof be it further enacted, That from and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty, it shall be lawful for the Inhabitants of any Parish, in Vestry assembled, and they are hereby empowered, to resolve and direct, that the Owner or Owners of all Houses, Apartments or Dwellings in such Parishes, being the immediate Lessor or Lessors of the actual Occupier or Occupiers, which shall respectively be let to the Occupiers thereof at any Rent or Rate not exceeding Twenty Pounds, nor less than Six Pence by the Year, for any less Term than One Year, or on any Agreement by which the Rent shall be reviewed or made payable at any shorter Period than Three Months, shall be assisted to the Rates for the Relief of the Poor, for or in respect of such Houses, Apartments or Dwellings, and the Outsheds and Carriages thereof, instead of the actual Occupiers; and the Inhabitants so assembled in Vestry may and they are hereby authorised from time to time to resolve, revise, vary and amend every such Resolution and Direction as they shall see Cause, in as to such Resolutions or Direction shall extend to assist or charge the Owner of any House, Apartment or Dwelling which shall with the Outsheds and Carriages thereof be let in a greater Sum than Twenty Pounds or less than Six Pence as aforesaid; and the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of every such Parish are hereby empowered and required to carry into effect all such Resolutions and Directions of the Inhabitants in Vestry assembled, and in pursuance and execution thereof, in all Cases to be by them made for the Relief of the Poor, to assist by a fair and equal Rated Rate the Owner or Owners, being the immediate Lessor or Lessors of the actual Occupier or Occupiers, of every House, Apartment or Dwelling to which such Resolutions and Direction shall extend, for or in respect of the same, according to the actual Rent at which every such House, Apartment or Dwelling shall be let, after making a reasonable Deduction from such Rent, not exceeding in any Case One Half of the same; and upon Nonpayment of the Same or Some Part to be assisted, the same may and shall be levied upon, and the Payment thereof be enforced against, such Owner and Owners, Lessor and Lessors, in as to be assisted, and his and their Goods and Chattels, in like manner as Rates for the Relief of the Poor may by Law be levied and recovered, and the Payment thereof enforced, upon and against any actual Occupier on whom the same are charged.

XX. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That the Goods and Chattels of every Occupier of any such House, Apartment or Dwelling, which shall be found in and about the same, shall be liable to be distrained and sold for raising so much of any such Rate or Assessment being in Arrear, as shall have become due during the Occupancy of the Person or Persons whose Goods and Chattels shall be so distrained (as is aforesaid in a summary Way by the Justices granting the Warrant of Distress), so that, in no case any greater Sum be raised by Distress of the Goods and Chattels of any such Occupier, than shall, at the time of making such Distress, be actually due from such Occupier for Rent of the Premises on which such Distress shall be made; Provided also, that every Occupier who shall pay any such Rate or Rates, or upon whose Goods or Chattels the same or any Part thereof shall be levied, shall and may deduct the Amount of the Same which shall be so paid or levied, out of the Rent by him or them payable; and such Payment shall be a sufficient Discharge to every such Occupier for so much of the Rent payable by him as he shall have paid, or as shall have been levied on his Goods and Chattels, of such Rate, and for the Costs of levying the same.

XXI. Provided, and be it further enacted, That every Person receiving or claiming the Rent of any such House, Apartment or Dwelling, for his or her own Use, or according to the tenor for the Use of any Corporate Aggregate, or of any Landlord or Lessor who shall be a Minor, under Coverture, or infirm, or for the Use of any Person who shall not be actually resident within Twenty Miles from the Parish in which any such House, Apartment or Dwelling shall be situated, shall for this Purpose be deemed and taken to be and shall be treatable as the Owner thereof.

XXII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That every Person to be rated as the Owner of any such House, Apartment or Dwelling, who shall think himself or herself aggrieved by any such Rate, shall have such and the like Remedy by Appeal against the same, as any other Person thereby rated; and every Person so and shall be entitled, as an Inhabitant of the Parish in and for which he shall be assessed, to be present and to vote in every Vestry or Meeting of the Inhabitants thereof, for the Execution of the Laws for the Relief of the Poor, or for the Consideration of any Matter or Question in relation thereto, in like manner as the Inhabitants of the said Parish.

XXIII. Provided, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to give any Power or Authority to assess (the Owner (not being the Occupier) of any House, Apartment or Dwelling, in any City, Borough or Town Corporate, in which the Right of voting for the Election of Members to serve in Parliament shall depend upon the Assiſsment of the Voter to the Poor's Rate, or to any act which may affect the manner of assessing and charging any of the Inhabitants or Occupiers of Houses, Lands or Tenements, within any such City, Borough or Town Corporate.

XXIV. And Whereas Difficulties having frequently arisen, and considerable Expenses have heretofore been incurred, by reason of the Refusal of Persons who have been permitted to occupy, or who have intended themselves into Parishes or Towns Houses, or other Tenements or Dwellings (such as provided for the Habitation of the Poor, or otherwise belonging to such Parishes, to deliver up the Possession of such Houses, Tenements or Dwellings, when thereto required; and it is expedient to provide a Remedy in the same: Be it further enacted, That if any Person who shall have been permitted to occupy any Parish or Town House, or any other Tenement or Dwelling belonging to or provided by or as the Charge of any Parish, for the Habitation of the Poor thereof, or who shall have voluntarily surrendered himself or herself into any such House, Tenement or Dwelling, or into any House, Tenement or Hereditament belonging to such Parish, shall at a time or times to be appointed by the Justices of the Peace for the County or Borough or Town in which the said House, Tenement or Dwelling is situate, deliver up the Possession thereof to the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of any such Parish, within One Month after Notice and Demand in Writing for that Purpose, signed by such Churchwardens and Overseers, or the major Part of them, shall have been delivered to the Person in Possession, or to his or her Attorney at Law or other Person acting for the said Person, it shall be lawful for any Two of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, upon Complaint to them made by One or more of the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the Parish in which any such House, Tenement or Dwelling shall be situated, to issue their Warrant to the Person against whom such Complaint shall be made, to appear before such Justices at a time and Place to be appointed by them, and to make such Surrender to be delivered to the Party against whom the Complaint shall be made, or to his or her Attorney to be assisted on the Petitioner, Seven Days at the least before the time appointed for hearing such Complaint; and such Justices are hereby empowered and required, upon the Appearance of the Defendant, or upon Proof on Oath that such Surrender hath been delivered or offered to as hereby directed, to proceed to hear and determine the Matter of such Complaint, and if they shall find and adjudge the same to be true, then by Warrant under their Seal and Seals to cause Possession of the Premises in question to be delivered to the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the Parish, or to some of them.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person to whom any Land appropriated, purchased or taken under the Authority of this Act, for the Employment of the Poor of any Parish, or to whom any other Lands belonging to such Parish, or to the Churchwardens and Overseers thereof, or to either of them, shall have been let, for his or her own Occupation, shall refuse to quit and to deliver up the Possession thereof to the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of such Parish, at the Expiration of the Term for which the same shall have been demised or let to him or her; or if any Person or Persons shall voluntarily enter upon, or take or hold Possession of any such Land, or any other Land or Hereditaments belonging to such Parish, or to the Churchwardens and Overseers, or to either of them, it shall be lawful for such Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor, or any of them, after such Notice and Demand of Possession as is by this Act directed in the Case of Parish Houses, to exhibit a Complaint against the Person or Persons in Possession of such Land, before Two of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, who are lawfully authorized and required to proceed thereon, and to hear and determine the Matter thereof, and if they shall find and adjudge the same to be true, to cause Possession of such Land to be delivered to the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor, or some of them, in such and the like Course and manner as may by this Act directed with regard to Parish Houses.

XXVI. And Whereas by the said Act passed in the Forty third Year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, for the Relief of the Poor, it was enacted, that the Father and Grandfather, and the Mother and Grandmother, and the Children of every poor, old, blind, lame and impotent Person, or other poor Person not able to work, being of sufficient Ability, shall at their own Charges educate and maintain every such poor Person, in that manner and according to that Rate as by the Justices of the Peace of that County where such sufficient Person dwell, or the greater Number of them, at their General Quarter Sessions, shall be assessed: And Whereas it is expedient to extend the Power which by the said Act given to Justices in their General Quarter Sessions, to Justices in Petty Sessions: Be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Two or more of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, for the County or other Jurisdiction in which any such sufficient Person shall dwell, and they are hereby empowered, in any Petty Session, to make such Assiſsment and Order for the Relief of every poor, old, blind, lame, impotent, or other poor Person not able to work, upon and by the Father, Grandfather, Mother, Grandmother or Child (being of sufficient Ability) of every such poor Person, as may by virtue of the said Act be made by the Justices in their General Quarter Sessions; and that every such Assiſsment and Order of Two or more Justices in any Petty Sessions shall have the like Force and Effect as if the same were made by the Justices in their General Quarter Sessions; and the Disobedience thereof shall be punishable in like manner.

XXVII. And

* XXVII. And Where, by the said Act passed in the Twenty second Year of His present Majesty's Reign, is for the better Relief and Employment of the Poor, it is enacted, with regard to Parishes which have adopted the Provisions thereof, and for which a Visitor shall have been appointed, that no Guardian of the Poor shall be summoned to appear before any Justice of the Peace, upon Complaint or Application to such Justice for the Relief of any poor Person, unless Application shall have been first made by the Person complaining to the Guardians, and upon his Refusal of Refusal, to the Visitor: And Whereas in many Cases, by reason of the Absence of the Visitor, or the Distance of his Residence, it may not be in the Power of the Complainant to make the Application by the said Act required: For Remedy thereof be it further enacted, That if it shall be made to appear to any Justice to whom any such Complaint or Application for Relief shall be made, that the Visitor of the Parish or United Parishes from which Relief shall be sought is absent from Home, or is resident more than Six Miles from the Place of Abode of the Complainant, and that Application for Relief hath been made to the Guardians, and hath been refused, it shall be lawful for such Justice to summon the Guardians to appear before him to answer such Complaint, and to proceed thereon, and make such Order thereon, as the Case shall require, in like manner as in Cases where Application hath been made to the Visitor, in the manner by the said Act directed.

Whereas where One Justice may summon Guardians and proceed and make Order without Petition.

* XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace to take in Writing the Examination on Oath of any Person having a Wife or Child, who shall be a Prisoner in any Goal or House of Correction, or in the Custody of the Keeper of any such Goal or House of Correction, or who shall be in the Custody of any Constable or other Peace Officer, by virtue of any Warrant of Commitment, touching the Place of his or her last legal Settlement; and such Examination shall be signed by such Justice taking the same, and shall be received and admitted in Evidence as to such Settlement before any Justices, for the purpose of any Order of Removal, as long only as the Person is examined shall continue a Prisoner.

Examination of Prisoners to their Settlements made Evidence.

* XXIX. And Whereas it is expedient to discourage this Reliance upon the Poor's Rates which frequently induces Artificers, Labourers and others, to squander away Earnings which would with suitable Care have afforded sufficient means for the Support of their Families: Be it further enacted, That whenever it shall appear to the Justices, or to the General or Select Vestry, or to such Guardians, Governors or Directors as shall sit, or to the Overseers of the Poor, to whom Application shall be made for Relief for any poor Person, that he might, but for his Extravagance, Neglect or wilful Misconduct, have been able to maintain himself, or to support his Family (as the case may be), it shall be lawful for the Overseers of the Poor (by the Direction of the Justices, or of the General or Select Vestry, or of such Guardians, Governors or Directors, where Application shall have been made to them respectively) to advance Money weekly or otherwise, as may be requisite, to the Person so applying, by way of Loan only, and to take his Receipt for, and Engagement to repay every Sum to be so advanced (for which Stamp Duty shall be required); and it shall be lawful for any Two Justices, upon the Application (within One Year after any such Loan or Loans) of One or more of the Overseers of the Poor for the time being of the Parish, to summon the Person in whom any Money shall have been so advanced; and if upon Examination by such Justices into the Circumstances, it shall appear to them that such Person is able, by weekly Installments or otherwise, to repay the Whole or any Part of the Money so advanced to him, and for which he shall have given any such Receipt and Engagement, it shall be lawful for such Justices to make an Order under their Hands and Seals for the Repayment of the Whole or of any Part of such Money, at such time and times, and in such Proportions and manner as they shall see fit; and upon every Default of Payment, by their Warrant to commit such Person to the Common Goal or House of Correction for any term not exceeding Three Calendar Months, unless the Same and Sums which shall be due and payable by virtue of such Order shall be sooner paid.

Overseers empowered to advance Loans, to repay Relief by way of Loan only.

Proceedings for Repayment of Loans.

* XXX. And be it further enacted, That when any Person entitled to or in Receipt of any Pension, Superannuation or other Allowance, in respect of his Service in the Navy, Royal Marines, Army or Ordnance, shall apply to any Parish for Relief, for himself, or for his Wife or Family, it shall be lawful for the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor to require the Pensioner or other Person applying for Relief, before the same shall be granted, or assign to them the next Quarterly or other Payment or Allowance which shall become payable to him, to the intent that they may receive the same, and retain for the Use of the Parish so much thereof as shall have been by them advanced for the Relief of such Pensioner, or other Person, or of his Wife or Family residing with him in such Parish; and it shall also be lawful for the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of any Parish, at the Request of any Person who shall be entitled to or in Receipt of any such Pension, Superannuation, or other Allowance, to advance for his Support, or the Support of his Family, any weekly Sum not exceeding the Rate of his Pension or Allowance, to be repaid by and out of the next Quarterly or other Payment of such Pension or Allowance, and to take an Assignment thereof by way of Security for the Money so to be advanced, any thing in any Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding; and every Assignment to be made of any such Pension, Superannuation or Allowance, for the Purpose of this Act, shall be exempt from Stamp Duty, and shall be in the Form, or to the Effect following; that is to say, Pensioner, his Assignee, or the Navy, Army, &c. may be assigned to certain Uses for the Redemtion of Indebtedness.

And Churchwardens, &c. may advance weekly Allowance.

And every such Assignment, attested by One of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, of any Quarterly or other Payment payable by the Churchwardens for the Affairs of the Royal Hospitals at Chelsea or Greenwich, or by the Paymaster of the Royal Marines, or the Treasurer of the Board of Ordnance respectively, and made as aforesaid to the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of any Parish, shall be transmitted by such Churchwardens or Overseers, at least One Month before such Payment shall become due, under Cover, addressed to the Paymaster General of His Majesty's Forces, with the Words "Chelsea Pensioner" written thereon, or to the Paymaster of Penalties at Greenwich Hospital, with the Words "Greenwich Pensioner" written thereon, or to the Paymaster of the Royal Marines, with the Words "Royal Marines Pensioner" written thereon, or to the Secretary to the Board of Ordnance, with the Words "Ordnance Pensioner" with a certificate, who shall thereupon respectively cause the said Payment to be made to the Churchwardens or Overseers of the Poor of the Parish for which Security the Assignment shall have been made, in the same manner as the said Payment would have been made to the Person obliging the same if no such Assignment had been made; and such Churchwardens and Overseers, or any One or more of them, are and is hereby authorised to enforce the same, and to retain thereof for the Use of the Parish in which as shall have been advanced and paid on Security thereof, and forthwith to pay the said Use (if any there shall be) to the Pensioner or Person to whom such Assignment shall have been made; and if any Question shall arise between the Pensioner or Person making any such Assignment and the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of any Parish, touching the Amount which shall be due and payable to them by virtue of any such Assignment, the same shall be determined in a summary Way by One of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, and his Order and Determination therein shall be final and conclusive: Provided that no such Assignment shall entitle the Churchwardens and Overseers to whom the same shall be made, to receive the Pension or Allowance purporting to be thereby assigned, if the Party obliging the same shall die before the time when such Pension or other Allowance would have become payable to him if no such Assignment thereof had been made.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That when any Pensioner, or other Person entitled to or in Receipt of any such Pension or other Allowance as aforesaid, shall leave his Wife or Family chargeable, or suffer them to become chargeable to any Parish, it shall be lawful for Two or more Justices, upon Complaint thereof to them made by any one or more of the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of such Parish, and verified on Oath, by Order under their Hands and Seals to direct that the next Payment which shall become due of such Pension or other Allowance shall be made to the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the Parish to which such Wife or Family shall have become chargeable; and any One or more of such Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor shall transmit such Order to the aforesaid Commissioners for the Affairs of the Royal Hospitals at Chelsea or Greenwich, or the Secretary of the Board of Ordnance respectively, in like manner as such Assignment is heretofore directed to be transmitted to the Paymaster General of His Majesty's Forces, and the Paymaster of Penalties at Greenwich, the Paymaster of the Royal Marines, and the Secretary of the Board of Ordnance, in the case may be; which said Paymaster General, or Paymaster of Penalties at Greenwich, or the Treasurer of the Board of Ordnance, shall thereupon, had upon sufficient Proof being given that the Person whose Pension or other Allowance shall be directed to be paid shall have been living when the same shall become payable, and would have been entitled to receive the same if no such Order had been made, cause the said Payment to be made to the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the Parish for which Security such Order shall have been made; and the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor receiving any such Pension or other Allowance by virtue of any such Order, shall retain and apply the same, or so much thereof as shall have been actually expended for the purposes aforesaid, for the Use and Indemnity of the Parish, and shall pay the Surplus (if any there shall be) to the Pensioner or Person entitled thereto; and upon the Receipt of any such Order as aforesaid, by which the Pension, or other Allowance to be mentioned therein, shall be directed to be paid to such Churchwardens and Overseers as aforesaid, the Payment thereof shall be suspended, until sufficient Proof shall have been given to entitle the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the Parish, in such Order named, to receive the Money thereby directed to be paid to them.

XXXII. And Whereas in many Instances the Wives and Families of Seamen employed in the Merchant's Service become chargeable to Parishes, while their Husbands and Fathers are absent on such Service, and it is expedient to provide for the Indemnity of such Parishes by and out of the Wages of such Seamen; Be it therefore further enacted, That where the Wife or Family of any Seaman employed in any Vessel or Trip (not being His Majesty's Service) shall, during his Absence on such Employment, become chargeable to any Parish, it shall be lawful for two Justices, upon Complaint thereof to them made by any One or more of the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of such Parish, and verified on Oath, by Order under their Hands and Seals, to direct the acting Owner or Owners, Ship's Husband or Agent of the Ship or Vessel in which such Seaman shall be employed, to pay out of the Wages which shall become due to such Seaman, unto the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the Parish to which his Wife or Family shall have become chargeable, so much as shall have been by such Parish necessarily expended for their Maintenance or Relief, (the Amount, in case of any Dispute, to be ascertained by Two Justices, whose Determination therein shall be he find]; and upon the Production of any such Order, the Owner, Ship's Husband or Agent, by whom the Wages of the Seaman therein to be named shall be payable, shall pay to such One or more of the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the Parish to whose Indemnity such Order shall have been made, as they demand the same, the Sum and Sums to be therein specified and directed to be paid, or so much thereof as the Wages then due shall amount unto; and the Payment and Receipt of any such Churchwardens or Overseers, shall be a good Discharge for so much of such Wages as shall be paid to them or him by virtue of any such Order; and if any such Owner, Ship's Husband or Agent, shall refuse or neglect to pay to the Churchwardens or Overseers according to any such Order, the Money thereby directed to be paid, or so much thereof as shall be actually due for the Wages of the Seaman to be therein named, the same may be levied and recovered, and the Payment thereof enforced, against the Owner or Owner, Ship's Husband or Agent, by whom the same shall be payable, in such and the like manner as Poor's Rates in Arrear may be levied and recovered, and the Payment thereof enforced, against the Parson and Parson churchwarden and charged therewith: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall authorize or compel the Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money by such acting Owner or Owners, Ship's Husband or Agent, and the Voyage in which the Vessel shall be so engaged shall be completed, nor be owed the Sum that shall be so thereby due to such Seaman, by such acting Owner or Owners, Ship's Husband or Agent, as Wages or otherwise.

XXIII. And Whereas poor Persons, born in Switzerland and Ireland, and in the Isles of Man, Jersey and Guernsey, frequently become chargeable to Parishes in England, and so Provision is made for the Removal of any such poor Person, unless he or she shall have received some Act of Vagabondy, and shall be adjudged to be a Rogue and Vagabond; and as Persons so adjudged can be lawfully removed without having been first publicly whipped or imprisoned in the House of Correction: And Whereas it is expedient to authorize the Removal of such poor Persons, although they may not have committed any Act of Vagabondy, and to authorize the Justice of the Peace to cause such of them as may be adjudged to be Rogues and Vagabonds, to be conveyed by a Pail, without having been first whipped or imprisoned: Be it therefore further enacted, That it shall be lawful for Two Justices of the Peace, and they are hereby required, upon the Complaint of the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of any Parish, that any Person born in Switzerland or Ireland, or in either of the Isles of Man, Jersey and Guernsey, hath become chargeable to such Parish, by himself or herself, or his or her Family, to cause such Person to be brought before them, and to examine such Person, and any other Writors or Witnesses, on Oath, touching the Place of the Birth or last legal Settlement of every such Person, and to inquire whether he or she, or any of his or her Children, hath or have gained any Settlement in that Part of the United Kingdom called England, and if it shall be found by such Justices, that the Person so brought before them was born in Switzerland or Ireland, or in either of the Isles of Man, Jersey and Guernsey, and hath not gained any Settlement in England, and that he or she hath actually become chargeable to the complaining Parish, by himself or herself, or his or her Family, then such Justices shall and they are hereby empowered, by a Pail under their Hand and Seal, in the Form or to the Effect prescribed by the Act passed in the Seventeenth Year of the Reign of the late Majesty King George the Second, to amend the Laws relating to Rogues and Vagabonds (namely manifestly), to cause such poor Person, his Wife, and each of his or her Children is chargeable as aforesaid, or have gained a Settlement in England, to be removed to the Place of his or her Birth or last legal Settlement, in the manner by the said Act directed for the Removal of Rogues and Vagabonds to Switzerland and Ireland, and the Isles of Man, Jersey and Guernsey; and all Constables and other Officers, and all Masters of Vessels, are hereby required to convey every Person so to be pailed in the manner by the said Act directed for the Conveyance of Rogues and Vagabonds.

XXXIV. And it is hereby further enacted, That a Thief be lawful for any Justice of the Peace, who shall advertise any Person here in Scotland or in Ireland, or in any of the Isles of Man, Jersey and Guernsey, (and not having gained a Settlement in England,) to be a Rogue and Vagabond, in his Discretion and according to the Circumstances of the Case, either to order him to be whipped, or him or her to be imprisoned on the House of Correction, as by the Laws in being are directed, before he or she shall be removed, or to cause such Rogue and Vagabond to be removed without having been so whipped or imprisoned.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That all Powers and Authorities by the Aft given to and vested in Justices of the Peace, shall be exercised and executed by such Justices within the Limits of their respective Counties and Jurisdictions, and not elsewhere; and that all Justices, Clerks, Auditors and Directors in the Aft contained, in relation to Parishes, shall extend and be confined to extend to all Townships, Villages and Places having separate Overseers of the Poor, and maintaining their Poor separately; and that all Afts and Duties required or authorized by this Aft to be done and executed by Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor, may in every Parish be performed, executed and executed by the major Part of the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor thereof; and that in Townships, Villages and Places which have no Churchwardens, the same may be performed, executed and executed by the Overseers of the Poor thereof, or the major Part of them; and that all the Powers, Privileges and Claims in the Aft contained, which relate to Vestries, or to the Inhabitants of any Parish in Vestry assembled, shall be confined to extend to all Meetings of the Inhabitants of any Township, Village or Place, having separate Overseers of the Poor, and maintaining its Poor separately, to be held after due and legal Notice for carrying into Execution the Laws for the Relief of the Poor, as fully as if in every such Parish and Place they were formally and adjutively named and assembled.

XXXVI. Provided, and he is further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be con- sidered to extend to take away, abridge, alter, prejudice or affect, further than is hereby expressly enacted, any of the Powers, Privileges, Professions or Regulations contained in the said Act passed in the Twenty- second Year of His present Majesty's Reigne, for the better Relief and Employment of the Poor, or any other

C A P. XIII.

An Act to continue Two Acts of the Fifty Sixth and Fifty Eighth Years of His present Majesty, for reducing the Duties payable on Horses used for the Purposes therein mentioned, to the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty one : and to reduce the Duties chargeable under certain Acts of the Forty Eighth and Fifty Second Years of His present Majesty, in respect of certain Horses, Mares, Geldings and Mules. [31st March 1819.]

24 G. 3. c. 66

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, entitled *An Act for reducing the Duties payable on Horses used for the Purposes therein mentioned for Two Years, and for repealing the Acts granting Allowances in respect of Children, certain Duties of Afflicted Taxes were discontinued and superseded, and other Duties substituted in lieu thereof, for the Term of Two Years next after the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and sixteen; and which Rates of substituted Duties were continued by another Act passed in the Fifty eighth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty, intimated *An Act to continue until the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, and amend, as Act of the Fifty sixth Year of His present Majesty, for reducing the Duties payable on Horses used for the purposes therein mentioned, and extended to other Cases therein mentioned, for the Term of One Year, from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and eighteen until the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and nineteen: And Whereas it is expedient to continue the same Rates of Duty in the said several Acts mentioned for a further time: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the several Statutes, and the Regulations and Provisions for afflicting, charging, raising, levying, collecting, applying and accounting for the same, in the said several Acts mentioned, shall be and the same are hereby severally continued from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and nineteen said and upon the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty one.

II. And Whereas it is expedient that the Duties of Afflicted Taxes now chargeable under certain Acts, passed in the Forty eighth and Fifty second Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, in respect of Horses, Mares and Geldings hereinafter described, should be reduced as hereafter is provided: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, the progressive Duties chargeable on Horses, Mares or Geldings, shall, in the Cases hereinafter mentioned, be discontinued; and that from and after the said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, there shall be charged and paid for every Horse, Mare or Gelding which shall be actually used by any Butcher or his Servant or Servants in his Trade, the annual Sum of Two Pounds Seven Shillings and Sixpence; provided that where such Butcher shall be six Two Horses, Mares or Geldings, or no more, there shall be charged for each Sixpence Horse, Mare or Gelding, the annual Sum of One Pound One Shilling.

III. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, the Duties chargeable on Horses, Mares or Geldings not exceeding the Height of Thirteen Hands, and used for the Purposes of riding or drawing Carriages, shall cease and determine; and that from and after the said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, there shall be charged and paid for every Horse, Mare or Gelding, not exceeding the Height of Thirteen Hands, and used for the Purposes of riding or drawing any Carriage, the annual Sum of Two Pounds Two Shillings: Provided nevertheless, that nothing in this Act contained shall take away the Exemption or Relief to which any Person keeping and using any such Horse, Mare or Gelding is now by Law entitled.

IV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, all Mares which shall be kept for the sole purpose of breeding, shall whilst so kept be wholly exempt from Duty; and that all Persons shall and may sell any Horse which shall have been bred by them or kept by them as Breeding Stock upon Lands in their Occupation, for the Space of Three Months at the least, without being liable to be affected to the Duties payable by Horse Dealers; any thing in any Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

V. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, the Duties payable under the said several Acts, in respect of One Horse, Mare or Gelding, and six kept for and actually employed by any Bailiff upon the Concerns of any Farm or Farms with which he may be intrusted, shall cease during the Continuance of this Act; and that from and after the said said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, there shall be charged for any such Horse, Mare or Gelding kept and sold, the usual Sum of Two Pounds Ten Shillings.

VI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, the Duties payable under the said several Acts, in respect of Horses kept by every Person keeping him or her Livestock by the Carriage or Conveyance of Ore, Slate or Stone, or Coal or Calne, or from the Mine or Pit, shall cease during the Continuance of this Act; and that from and after the said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, every Person keeping any Male or Mare for the Purpose of carrying Ore, Slate or Stone, or Coal or Calne, or from the Mine or Pit, or for the Purpose of carrying any Lime, Sea Sand, Sea Weed, or other Manure, shall be charged for each such Male the usual Sum of Three Shillings; provided that each Ore, Slate or Stone, Coal or Calne, Lime, Sea Sand, Sea Weed, or other Manure, be loaded on the Backs of such Horses, and not otherwise.

VII. And Whereas Persons occupying Farms in the Cases specified in the said Acts are deprived of the benefit of the reduced Duties if any Horses, Mares or Geldings shall be lost or let by them for Hire; Be it therefore enacted, That nothing in the said several Acts contained shall extend or be construed to extend so as to deprive any Occupier of Land therein benefited from the benefit of the reduced Affirmances therein mentioned, by reason of his, her or their having or letting any Horses or Horses, Mares or Mares, Geldings or Geldings, in respect of which such reduced Affirmance shall be made, to be employed solely and for and for no other Purpose whatsoever except for the Purpose of Agriculture, or for the making or repairing of Roads, or for driving any Coal, Wood, Peat or Turf for Consumption in Fuel in any Private House or Houses, and not for the Purpose of Sale.

VIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That any Tenant coming into the Occupation of his or her Farm or other Affirmance in any Year, may appeal to the Commissioners for assessing this Act, and on Proof to their Satisfaction that he or she shall not have kept or sold any Horses, Mares or Geldings, by him or her used in the Cultivation of the said Farm, prior to his or her coming into the Occupation of such Farm, shall be entitled to be released and discharged from One Month of the Annual Affirmance payable in respect of the said Horses, Mares or Geldings.

Trade in Slaves, His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, referring to the Eighth Article of the Convention entered into with His Britannic Majesty, on the Thirtieth of August One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, engages, in pursuance thereof, and within Eight Months from the Ratification of the said Treaty, or sooner if possible, to prohibit all his Subjects in the most effectual manner, and especially by penal Laws the most formal, to take any Part whatever in the Trade of Slaves; and in the Event of the Measures already taken by the British Government, and to be taken by that of the Netherlands, being found insufficient or ineffective, His Majesty and His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, mutually engage to adopt such further Measures, whether by legal Process or otherwise, as may from time to time appear to be best calculated in the most effectual manner to prevent all their respective Subjects from taking any Share whatever in the said offensive Traffic: And Whereas by the Seventh Article of the said Treaty, for the more complete Attainment of the Object of preventing all Traffic in Slaves on the Part of their respective Subjects, His Majesty and His Majesty the King of the Netherlands mutually consent that the Ships of their Royal Navies, which shall be provided with special Instructions for that Purpose, or, thereafter mentioned, may visit such Merchant Vessels of the Two Nations as may be suspected upon reasonable grounds of having Slaves on board detained for in their Traffic; and in the Event only of their finding such Slaves on board, may detain and bring away such Vessels, in order that they may be brought to Trial before the Tribunal established for this Purpose, in the manner specified: And Whereas by the Third Article of the said Treaty, for the expediting the Mode of Execution of the preceding Article, it is agreed, That, That each respective Right of Visit and Detention shall not be exercised within the Mediterranean Sea, or within the Sea in Europe (begun without the Straits of Gibraltar, and which lie to the Northwest of the Thirty fourth Parallel of North Latitude, and also within and to the Eastward of the Meridian of Longitude Twenty Degrees West of Greenwich: Secondly, That the Names of the several Vessels furnished with such Instructions, the Range of each, and the Names of their several Commanders, shall be from time to time, successively upon their Office, communicated by the Power issuing the same to the other of the said Powers: Thirdly, That the Number of Ships of each of the Royal Navies, authorized to make such Visit as aforesaid, shall not exceed the Number of Twelve, belonging to either of them, His said Majesty or His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, without the special Consent of the other of them being first had and obtained: Fourthly, That if at any time it should be deemed expedient that any Ship of the Royal Navy of either of them, His said Majesty or His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, authorized to make such Visit as aforesaid, should proceed to visit any Merchant Ship or Ships under the Flag and proceeding under the Convoy of any Vessel or Vessels of the Royal Navy of the other of them, His said Majesty or His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, then the Commanding Officer of the Ship duly authorized and instructed to make such Visit, shall proceed to effect the same in communication with the Commanding Officer of the Convoy, who it is thereby agreed, shall give every Facility to such Visit, and to the eventual Detention of the Merchant Ship or Ships so visited, and in all things with to the use of his Power in the due Execution of the said Convention, according to the sense hereof and meaning thereof: Fifthly, it is further mutually agreed, That the Commanders of the Ships of the Two Royal Navies who shall be employed on this Service, shall adhere strictly to the exact Tenor of the Instructions which they shall receive for that Purpose: And Whereas by the Fourth Article of the said Treaty, His Majesty and His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, engage mutually to make good any Losses which their respective Subjects may incur simply by the arbitrary and illegal Detention of their Vessels, it being understood that this Indemnity shall necessarily be borne by the Government whose Cruiser shall have been guilty of the arbitrary Detention; and that the Visit and Detention of Ships specified in the said Article shall only be effected by their British or Netherlands Vessels which may form Part of the Two Royal Navies, and by their only of such Vessels which are provided with the special Instructions annexed to the said Treaty, in pursuance of the Provision thereof: And Whereas by the Fifth Article of the said Treaty it is agreed, That no British or Netherlands Cruiser shall detain any Ship whatever, not having Slaves actually on board; and in order to render lawful the Detention of any Ship, whether British or Netherlands, the Slaves found on board such Vessel must have been brought there for the express Purpose of the Traffic: And Whereas by the Sixth Article of the said Treaty it is agreed, That all Ships of the Royal Navies of the Two Nations, which shall hereafter be detached to prevent the Traffic in Slaves, shall be furnished by their respective Governments with a Copy of the Instructions annexed to the said Treaty, and which shall be considered as an integral Part thereof, with a Passafe nevertheless in the said Treaty, that His Majesty and His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, with mutual Consent, may alter the said Instructions in Whole or in Part, according to Circumstances: And Whereas, in order to bring to Adjudication, with the least Delay and Inconvenience, the Vessels which may be detained for having been engaged in a Traffic of Slaves, according to the Tenor of the Fifth Article of the said Treaty, it is by the Seventh Article of the said Treaty agreed, That there shall be established, within the Space of a Year at farthest from the Exchange of the Ratification of the said Treaty, Two mixed Courts of Justice, formed of an equal Number of Individuals of the Two Nations, named for this Purpose by their respective Sovereigns; that these Courts shall sit, One in a Possession belonging to His Britannic Majesty, the other within the Territories of His Majesty the King of the Netherlands; and that the Two Governments, at the Period of the Exchange of the Ratifications of the said Treaty, shall declare each for its own Dominions in what Place the Courts shall respectively sit, each referring to itself the Right of changing at its Pleasure the Place of Residence of the Court held within its own Dominions: Provided however, That One of the Two Courts shall always be held upon the Coast of Africa, and the other in One of the Colonial Possessions of His Majesty the King of the Netherlands; and that these Courts shall judge the Cases submitted to them, according to the Terms of the said Treaty, without Appeal, and according to the Regulations and Instructions annexed to the said Treaty, of which they shall be considered as an

• integral Part: And Whereas by the Eighth Article of the said Treaty it is agreed, That in case the • Commanding Officer of any of the Ships of the Royal Navy of Great Britain and of the Netherlands, com• missioned under the Second Article of the said Treaty, shall deviate in any Respect from the Dispositions of
 • the said Treaty, and shall not be enabled to justify himself, either by the Tenor of the said Treaty, or of the
 • Instructions annexed to it, the Government which shall suppose itself to be wronged by such Conduct, shall
 • be entitled to demand Reparation; and in such Case the Government to which the Captain may belong, binds
 • itself to satisfy Inquiry to be made into the Subject of the Complaint, and to satisfy upon the Captain, if he be • found to have deviated in, a Punishment proportioned to the Transgression which may have been committed:
 • And Whereas by the Ninth Article of the said Treaty it is declared, That certain Acts or Instruments
 • annexed to the said Treaty shall form an integral Part thereof, and which are as follows, that is to say,
 • Instructions for the Ships of the Royal Navies of both Nations, directed to prevent the Traffic in Slaves, and • Regulations for the mixed Courts of Justice which are to hold their Sitzings on the Coast of Africa, and in
 • One of the Colonial Possessions of His Majesty the King of the Netherlands: And Whereas by the Tenth
 • Article of the said Instructions before referred to, and made an integral Part of the said Treaty, it is • provided, That every Ship of the Royal Navy or Netherlands Navy, which, furnished with the said Instructions, • shall, in conformity with the Second Article of the said Treaty, have a Right to visit the Merchant Ships of • either of the Two Powers actually engaged, or suspected to be engaged, in the Slave Trade, may (except in
 • the Case excepted by the Third Article of the said Treaty) proceed to such Visit, and board any Slaves
 • be found on board for the express Purpose of being made a Traffic of, the Commander of the said Ship of the • Royal Navy may detain them, and having detained them, he is to bring them as soon as possible for Judgment
 • before that of the Two mixed Courts of Justice, appointed by the Seventh Article of the said Treaty, which • shall be the nearest, or which the Commander of the capturing Ship shall, upon his own Responsibility, think
 • he can reach from the Spot where the Ship shall have been detained; and that Ships on board of
 • which as Slaves shall be found intended for Purposes of Traffic, shall not be detained on any Account as
 • Prizes:—however; and that if any Servants or Sailors that may be found on board the said Vessels, consist
 • in any Case be secured a sufficient Cause for Detention: And Whereas by the Second Article of the said
 • Instructions it is provided, That whenever a Ship of the Royal Navy is commissioned shall meet a Merchant-
 • man liable to be searched, it shall be done in the mildest Manner, and with every Attention which is due
 • between allied and friendly Nations; and in no case shall the Search be made by an Officer holding a Rank
 • inferior to that of Lieutenant in the Navies of Great Britain and of the Netherlands: And Whereas by the • Third Article of the said Instructions it is provided, That the Ships of the Royal Navies so commissioned
 • which may detain any Merchant Ship, in pursuance of the Tenor of the said Instructions, shall have on • board all the Cargo, as well as the Master, and a Part at least of the Crew of the said Ship; and that
 • the Captain shall draw up in Writing an authentic Declaration, which shall certify the State in which he found
 • the detained Ship, and the Changes which may have taken place in it; and that he shall deliver to the Master
 • of the detained Ship, a signed Certificate of the Papers found on board the said Vessel, as well as the Number
 • of Slaves found on board at the Moment of Detention; and that the Negroes shall not be disembarked till
 • after the Vessels which contain them shall be arrived at the Place where the Legality of the Capture is to be • tried, by One of the Two mixed Courts, in order that in the Event of their not being adjudged legal
 • Prizes, the Loss of the Proprietors may be more easily repaired; but that if urgent Motives, deduced from
 • the Length of the Voyage, the State of Health of the Negroes, or other Causes, require that they should be
 • disembarked, entirely or in part, before the Vessel can arrive at the Place of Residence of One of the said
 • Courts, the Commander of the capturing Ship may take on himself the Responsibility of such Dis-
 • embarkation, provided that the Necessity be stated in a Certificate in proper Form: And Whereas by the
 • First Article of the Regulations for the mixed Courts of Justice, which are to reside on the Coast of Africa,
 • and in a Colonial Possession of His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, and which are annexed to the said
 • Treaty in Part thereof, it is provided, That the said mixed Courts of Justice is to be established by the
 • said Treaty, shall decide upon the Legality of the Detention of such Vessels as the Commanders of both Nations
 • shall detain in pursuance of the said Treaty, and that the said Courts shall judge definitively and without
 • Appeal, according to the said Treaty, and that the Prosecuting Judge may place a temporary as possible;
 • and the said Courts shall decide (so far as they shall find it practicable) within the Space of Twenty Days,
 • to be dated from that on which every detained Vessel shall have been brought into the Port where they shall
 • reside; first, upon the Legality of the Capture; secondly, in the Cases in which the captured Vessel shall
 • have been liberated, as to the Indemnifications which the said Vessel is to receive; and it is by the said
 • Article of the said Regulations provided, that in all Cases the said Sentence shall not be delayed on account
 • of the Absence of Witnesses, or for want of other Proofs, beyond the Period of Two Months, except upon
 • the Application of any of the Parties concerned, when, upon their giving satisfactory Security to charge
 • themselves with the Expense and Risk of the Delay, the Courts may, at their Discretion grant an additional
 • Delay, not exceeding Four Months: And by the Second Article of the said Regulations it is provided,
 • That each of the above mentioned mixed Courts, which are to reside on the Coast of Africa, and in a colonial
 • Possession of His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, shall be composed in the following manner, that is to • say, that His Majesty, and His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, shall each of them name a Judge and
 • an Advocate, who shall be authorized to hear and to decide without Appeal all Cases of Capture of Vessels,
 • which in pursuance of the Stipulations of the said Treaty shall be brought before them; and that all the
 • essential Parts of the Proceedings carried on before their mixed Courts, shall be written down in the legal • Language of the Country in which the Court may reside; and that the Judges and the Advocates shall make Oath before the principal Magistrate of this Place in which the Courts may sit, to judge fairly and impartially, to have no Preference either for the Claimants or Captors, and to act in all their Decisions in pursuance of the Regulations of the said Treaty; and that there shall be attached to each Court a Secretary or Registrar, appointed by the Sovereign of the Country in which the Court may sit, who shall register all its Acts, and who, previous to his taking Charge of his Post, shall make Oath before the Court, to conduct himself with Respect for their Authority, and to act with Fidelity in all the Affairs which may belong to his Charge: And by the Third Article of the said Regulations it is provided, That the Form of the Process shall be as follows, [that is to say,] the Judges of the Two Nations shall in the first Place proceed to the Examination of the Papers of the Vessel, and to receive the Depositions of the Captain, and of Two or Three at least of the principal Individuals on board of the detained Vessel, as well as the Declaration on Oath of the Captain, should it appear necessary in order to be able to judge and to pronounce, whether the said Vessel has been justly detained or not, according to the Stipulations of the said Treaty, and in order that, according to such Judgment, it may be condemned or liberated; and in the Event of the Two Judges not agreeing in the Sentence they ought to pronounce, either as to the Legality of the Detention, or the Indemnification to be allowed, or any other Question which might result from the Stipulations of the said Treaty, they shall draw by Lot the Name of One of the Two Arbitrators, who, after having considered the Documents of the Process, shall consult with the said Judges on the Case in Question, and the said Sentence shall be pronounced conformably to the Opinion of the Majority of the said Judges and of the said Arbitrator: And by the Fourth Article of the said Regulations it is provided, That in the authorized Declaration which the Captor shall make before the Court, as well as in the Certificate of the Papers found, which shall be delivered to the Captain of the captured Vessel at the time of the Detention, the Captor shall be bound to declare his Name, and the Name of his Vessel, as well as the Latitude and Longitude of the Place where the Detention shall have taken place, and the Number of Slaves found on board of the Ship at the time of the Detention: And by the Fifth Article of the said Regulations it is provided, That as soon as Sentence shall have been pronounced, the detained Vessel, if liberated, and the Cargo, in the State in which it shall then be found, shall be returned to the Master or the Person who represents him, who may, before the same Court, claim a Valuation of the Damages which he may have a Right to demand; and the Captor himself, and in his Default his Government, shall remain responsible for the above-mentioned Damages; and the said Government respectively bind themselves to pay, within the Term of a Year from the Date of the Sentence, the Costs and Damages which may be granted by the above named Court, it being understood that those Costs and Damages shall be in the Expense of the Power of which the Captor shall be a Subject: And by the Sixth Article of the said Regulations it is provided, That in case of the Condemnation of a Vessel she shall be declared lawful Prize, as well as her Cargo, of whatever Description it may be, with the Exception of the Slaves who may be on board as Objects of Commerce; and the said Vessel, as well as her Cargo, shall be sold by public Sale for the Profit of the Two Governments; and as to the Slaves, they shall receive from the mixed Court a Certificate of Emancipation, and shall be delivered over to the Government on whose Territory the Court which shall have so judged them, shall be established, to be employed as Servants or free Labourers; and each of the Two Governments binds itself to guarantee the Liberty of such Portion of these Individuals as shall be respectively assigned to it: And by the Seventh Article of the said Regulations it is provided, That the said mixed Courts shall also take Cognizance and decide, according to the Third Article of the said Regulations, on all Claims for Compensation on account of Losses occasioned to Vessels detained under Suspicion of having been engaged in the Slave Trade, but which shall not have been condemned as legal Prize by the said Courts; and in all Cases wherein Restitution shall be deemed, the Court shall award to the Claimant or Claimants, on his or their lawful Attorney or Attorneys, for his or their Use, a just and complete Indemnification for all Costs of Suit, and for all Losses and Damages which the Claimant or Claimants may have actually sustained by such Capture and Detention; that is to say, first, in case of total Loss, the Claimant or Claimants shall be indemnified, (A) for the Ship, her Tackle, Apparel and Stores; (B) for all Freight due and payable; (C) for the Value of the Cargo of Merchandise, if any, deducting for all Charges and Expenses payable upon the Sale of such Cargo, including Commission of Sale; (D) for all other regular Charges in such Cases of total Loss; and, secondly, in all other Cases, not of total Loss, the Claimant or Claimants shall be indemnified, (A) for all Special Damages and Expenses occasioned to the Ship by the Detention, and for the Loss of Freight when due or payable; (B) a Despatchage, when due, according to the Schedule annexed to the said Article; (C) for any Detention of Cargo; (D) an Allowance of Five per Centum on the Amount of the Capital employed in the Purchase of Cargo, for the Period of the Delay occasioned by the Detention; and (E) for all Premium of Insurance on additional Risk; and the Claimant or Claimants shall in all Cases be entitled to Interest at the Rate of Five per Centum per Annum on the Sum awarded, until paid by the Government to which the capturing Ship belongs; the whole Amount of such Indemnifications being calculated in the Money of the Country to which the captured Ship belongs, and to be liquidated at the Exchange Current at the time of the Award; and to avoid, as much as possible, every Species of Fraud in the Execution of the said Treaty, it is also by the said Seventh Article of the said Regulations agreed, That if it should be proved in a manner evident to the Conviction of the Judges of the Two Nations, and without having recourse to the Decision of an Arbitrator, that the Captor has been led into Error by a voluntary and reprehensible Fraud on the Part of the Captain of the detained Ship, in that Case only, the detained Ship shall not have the Right of receiving, during the Days of her Detention, the Despatchage stipulated by the said

And to be in proportion: And it is by the Eighth Article of the said Regulations provided, that either the Judges, nor the Arbitrators, nor the Secretary of the mixed Court, shall be permitted to demand or receive from any of the Parties concerned in the Sentence which they shall pronounce, any Emolument under any Pretence whatsoever, for the Performance of the Duties which are imposed upon them by the said Regulations: And lastly, it is by the Ninth Article of the said Regulations agreed, That in the Event of the Death or legal Impediment of One or more of the Judges or Arbitrators compelling the above mentioned mixed Courts, their Acts shall be supplied as herein in the following manner: that is to say, on the Part of the British Government the Vacancies shall be filled successively in the Court which shall sit within the Possession of His Britannic Majesty, by the Governor or Lieutenant Governor resident in that Colony, by the principal Magistrate of the same, and by the Secretary; and so that which shall sit within the Possession of His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, it is agreed, that in case of the Death of the British Judge or Arbitrator there, the surviving Individuals of the said Court shall proceed equally to the Judgment of such Cases as may be brought before them, and to the Execution of their Sentence; and that on the Part of the Netherlands, the Vacancies shall be supplied in the Possession of His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, successively by the Governor or Lieutenant Governor, the principal Magistrate and Secretary of Government; and upon the Coast of Africa, in case of the Death of any Netherlands Judge or Arbitrator, the surviving Members of the Court shall proceed to Judgment in the same manner as above specified for the Court resident in the Possession of His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, in the Event of the Death of the British Judge or Arbitrator: And it is by the said Article further agreed, That the Governor or Lieutenant Governor of any Settlement of either Power, where either of the said mixed Courts shall sit, in the Event of a Vacancy arising, either of the Judge or Arbitrator of the other Power, shall forthwith give Notice of the same to the Governor or Lieutenant Governor of the several Settlement of such Power, in order that the Loss may be supplied at the earliest possible Period; and that the Vacancies which may arise in the above mentioned Courts, from Death or any other Cause whatsoever, shall be supplied definitely as soon as possible: And Whereas it is expedient and necessary that efficient Provision should be made for carrying into Execution the Provisions of the said Treaty? Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for any Officers commanding any Ship of War of His Majesty, duly authorised in that behalf, and provided with Instructions according to the Provisions of the said Treaty, to visit and detain in any Port (except in the Seas excepted in the Third Article of the said Treaty) all Ships and Vessels belonging wholly or in part to Subjects of His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, which shall be suspected upon reasonable grounds of having Slaves on board for the Purpose of Traffic, contrary to the Articles of the said Treaty, and to detain and bring to Adjudication all Ships, Vessels and Cargoes, by the said Treaty made subject to Detention and Confiscation, according to the Provisions of the said Treaty, and the Instructions and Regulations annexed thereto.

II. And be it further enacted, That all Ships and Vessels, belonging wholly or in part to His Majesty's Subjects, which shall be suspected upon reasonable grounds of having Slaves on board for the Purpose of illicit Traffic, shall be and are hereby declared and made, according to the said Treaty, Instructions and Regulations annexed thereto, subject to the Violations of British or Netherlands Vessels of War, duly authorised for that Purpose according to the Provisions before recited, and that all Ships and Vessels belonging wholly or in part to His Majesty's Subjects, which shall be found having Slaves on board for the Purpose of illicit Traffic, contrary to the Treaty, Instructions and Regulations so recited as aforesaid, and all Barks, Apparels, Furniture and Stores belonging to such Ships and Vessels, and all Slaves and Cargoes thereon, shall be and are hereby declared to be and made subject to the Visit and Detention of British or Netherlands Vessels of War duly authorised for that Purpose, according to the Stipulations of the said Treaty, and to Forfeiture according to the Provisions of the said Treaty, and the Instructions and Regulations thereto annexed, and for that purpose shall be and are hereby made subject to the Adjudication of, and to Confiscation or other Judgment by the Judges and Arbitrators to be appointed according to the Provisions of the said Treaty, and to the Instructions and Regulations annexed thereto, recited as aforesaid.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That such Right of Visit and Detention shall not be exercised within the Africanus Seas, nor within the Seas in Europe lying without the Straits of Gibraltar, and which be to the Northward of the Thirty seventh Parallel of North Latitude, and also within and to the Eastward of the Meridian of Longitude Twenty Degrees West of Greenwich; and that Ships on board which no Slaves shall be found intended for the Purpose of Traffic, shall not be detained under the Authority of this Act, on any Account or Pretence whatever; and that Negro Servants or Sailors who may be found on board any Vessels, shall not in any case be deemed a sufficient Cause for Detention.

And he is further enacted, That if at any time it shall be deemed expedient that any Ship of His Majesty's Navy, authorised to make such Visit as aforesaid, should proceed to visit any Merchant Ship or Ships under the Flag and proceeding under the Cover of any Vessel or Vessels of the Royal Navy of His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, the Commanding Officer of His Britannic Majesty's Ship, duly authorised and intrusted to make such Visit, shall in all Cases proceed to effect the same in communication with the Commanding Officer of such Cover; and in case at any time it shall be deemed expedient that any Ship of the Royal Navy of His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, authorised to make such Visit as aforesaid, should proceed to visit any Merchant Ship or Ships under the Flag and proceeding under the Cover of any Vessel or Vessels of His Britannic Majesty's Navy, the Commanding Officer of such Cover (in communication with whom the Commanding Officer of the Ship of His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, duly authorised and intrusted to make such Visit, shall proceed to effect the same) shall give every Facility to such Visit, and in the eventual Detention, according to the said Treaty, of the Merchant Ship or Ships so visited, and shall in all things abide to the effect of His Power in the due Execution of the said Treaty, according to the true Intent and Meaning thereof.

V. And he is further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Warrant under His Royal Sign Manual, countersigned by One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to appoint such Judges and Arbitrators as are, in and by the said Treaty and the Regulations therein enacted, mentioned to be appointed by His Majesty, and from time to time to supply any Vacancies which may occur in such Offices, by appointing other Persons therein; and to grant Salaries to such Judges and Arbitrators as aforesaid, not exceeding such annual Sums as the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland shall from time to time direct; and such Judges and Arbitrators are hereby authorised and empowered to examine and decide all such Cases of Detention, Capture and Seizure of Vessels and their Carriages as aforesaid, detained, seized, taken or captured under the said Treaty, Instructions and Regulations, as are by the said Treaty, Instructions and Regulations, and by this Act, made subject to their Jurisdiction; and to proceed therein, and give such Judgments, and make such Orders therein, and to do all other Acts, Matters and Things appertaining thereto, agreeable to the Provisions of the said Treaty, and the Instructions and Regulations enacted therein, and recited as aforesaid, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if special Powers and Authorities for that purpose were specifically referred and given in relation thereto in this Act.

VI. And he is further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Warrant under His Royal Sign Manual, countersigned by One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, to nominate and appoint a Secretary or Registrar to the Court which shall be established in His Majesty's Dominions, and from time to time to supply, by other Appointments, any Vacancy which may thereafter occur in such Office, and to grant a Salary to such Secretary or Registrar, not exceeding such annual Sum as the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall from time to time direct; and such Secretary or Registrar is hereby respectively authorised and empowered to do, perform and execute all the Duties of such Office, as set forth and detailed in the said Treaty, Instructions and Regulations respectively heretofore recited as aforesaid, and to do, perform and execute all such Acts, Matters and Things as may be necessary for the due Discharge of the Duties of his Office, according to the Provisions of the said Treaty and Instructions and Regulations as aforesaid.

VII. And he is further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Governor or Lieutenant Governor, or principal Magistrate of the Colony or Settlement in which such Court shall sit, under the Fellection of His Britannic Majesty, to fill up every Vacancy which shall arise in such Court, either of Judge, Arbitrator, or any Officer thereof appointed by His Majesty as aforesaid, according to the Provisions contained in the before recited Regulations, enacted in the said Treaty as aforesaid, as interim, until such Vacancy or Vacancies shall be thereafter filled by some Person or Persons appointed by His Majesty for that purpose.

VIII. And he is further enacted, That every Judge and Arbitrator appointed by His Majesty, or otherwise as aforesaid, shall, before he shall enter upon the Execution of any of the Duties of such his Office, take an Oath, in the Presence of the principal Magistrate then residing and sitting in the Colony, Settlement or Place in which the Court shall be appointed to sit; which Oath every such Magistrate in any Colony, Settlement or Place belonging to His Majesty, as which such Court shall be appointed, is hereby authorised to administer in the Form following: (that is to say.)

I A. B. do solemnly swear, That I will, according to the best of my Skill and Knowledge, act in the Execution of my Office as faithfully, impartially, fairly, and without Preference or Favour, either for Clergymen or Captains, or any other Persons; and that I will, to the best of my Judgments and Power, act in pursuance of and according to the Regulations, Ordinances and Instructions contained in the Treaty between His Majesty and His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, signed at the Hague, on the Fourth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and eighteen. So help me GOD.

And every Secretary or Registrar appointed by His Majesty, or otherwise as aforesaid, under the Provisions of the said Treaty, Instructions and Regulations, and of this Act, shall, before he enters upon the Duties of his said Office, take an Oath before the said Judge as aforesaid who is hereby empowered to administer the same, in the Form following: (that is to say.)

I A. B. do solemnly swear, That I will, according to the best of my Skill and Knowledge, act in the Execution of my Office; and that I will conduct myself with due Respect to the Authority of the Judges and Arbitrators of the Commission to which I am attached, and will act with Fidelity in all the Affairs which may

* may belong to my Charge, and without Preference or Favour, either for Claimants or Captors, or any other Person.
So help me GOD.*

IX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Judges or either of them, or for any such Secretary or Registrar, and they are hereby respectively empowered, to administer Oaths to and take the Depositions of all Parties, Witnesses, and other Persons who may come or be brought before them to be examined, or for the Purpose of deposing in the Courts of any Proceeding before the said Judges, or before the said Judges and Arbitrators, in the Cases in which such Arbitrators shall sit with the said Judges under the said Treaty, Instructions and Regulations, or this Act; and it shall also be lawful for the said Judges, or for the said Judges and Arbitrators, in the Cases aforesaid, to examine before them all Persons whom they may deem it necessary or proper to examine in relation to any Suit, Proceeding, or Matter or Thing under their Cognizance, and to send for and take Receipts for the producing of all such Papers as may relate to the Matters in question before them, and to enforce all such Summons, Orders and Process, by such and the like Means, Powers and Authorities as any Court of Your Admiralty may do.

X. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall wilfully and corruptly give false Evidence in any Examination, or Deposition, or Affidavit laid or taken upon or in any Proceeding before the said Judges, or Judges and Arbitrators, under the said Treaty, Instructions and Regulations, or this Act, shall be deemed guilty of Perjury, and being thereof convicted, shall be subject and liable to all the Punishments, Fines and Penalties to which Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury are liable; and every such Person may be tried for any such Perjury, either in the Place where the Oath was administered, or in any Colony or Settlement of His Majesty near thereto, in which there is a Court of competent Jurisdiction to try any such Offence, or in His Majesty's Court of King's Bench in England; and that in case of any Prosecution for such Offence in His Majesty's said Court of King's Bench, the Venue may be laid in the County of Middlesex.

XI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall not be lawful for any Person to commence, prosecute or proceed in any Claim, Action or Suit whatever, in the High Court of Admiralty, or in any other Court, or before any Judge or Persons whatsoever, other than the several mixed Courts of Justice appointed under and by virtue of the said Treaty and this Act, for the Condemnation or Restitution of any Ship, or Cargo, or Slaves, or for any Compensation or Indemnification for any Loss or Damage, or for any Injury sustained by such Ship, Cargo or Slaves, or by any Persons on board any such Ship, in consequence of any Capture, Violence or Detention, under the Authority or in pursuance of the Provisions of the said Treaty, or of the Instructions and Regulations therein annexed, or of this Act; and that the Presidency of any Claim, Suit or Proceeding instituted or which may be instituted before any of the said mixed Courts is to be appointed under the Authority of the said Treaty and this Act, for the Condemnation or Restitution of any Ship, or Cargo, or Slaves, taken, forced or detained by virtue of the said Treaty, or of the Instructions and Regulations therein annexed; or for any Compensation or Indemnification for any Loss or Damage in consequence of the taking, seizing or detaining any such Ship; or the final Adjudication, Condemnation, Judgment or Determination of any such mixed Court, as the said Treaty requires, may be pleaded in Bar or given in Evidence under the General Issue; or in case no such Claim, Suit or Proceeding shall have been instituted before any such mixed Court, then the said Treaty, Instructions and Regulations, and this Act, may in like manner be pleaded in Bar or given in Evidence under the General Issue; and every such Plea in Bar, or Evidence to be given under the General Issue, shall be deemed and adjudged to be a good and complete Bar to any such Claim, Action, Suit or Proceeding in the said High Court of Admiralty, or in any Court or Place other than such mixed Courts; any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament, or Law or Laws to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

XII. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be deemed or construed in anywise to alter, suspend, affect, relax or repeal any of the Clauses, Provisions, Forfeitures or Punishments contained and enacted in any Act or Acts of Parliament made for the Suppression or Prevention of the Slave Trade: but that all such Acts of Parliament, and all Clauses, Regulations, Provisions, Forfeitures and Punishments therein respectively contained, shall remain in full Force and Virtue, any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit shall be commenced, either in Great Britain or elsewhere, against any Person or Persons for any thing done in pursuance of the said Treaty, or the Instructions or Regulations therein annexed, or of this Act, the Defendant or Defendants in such Action or Suit may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the Issue was done in pursuance and by the Authority of the said Treaty, Instructions or Regulations, or of this Act; and if a Trial shall be so lawfully done, the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants; and if the Plaintiff shall be convicted, as aforesaid, his Action after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared, or if Judgment shall be given upon any Verdict or Demurrer against the Plaintiff, the Defendant or Defendants shall recover Treble Costs, and have the like Remedy for the same as Defendants have in other Cases by Law.

• execution, and that for that Purpose certain Provisions in the said recited Act should be repealed, and certain
• other Provisions enacted in lieu thereof / Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, to touch and such Parts of the said recited Act as relate to Proceedings of the Lords Commissioners of Appeal in Prize Causes, or of the High Court of Admiralty, in Cases and Questions arising out of Captures in the said Act contained that may be depending before them, and to their hearing and determining any Cause of Right or Interest therein to which His Majesty or the Captors or Seizors of Ships, Vessels or Carriages may be entitled by reason of the Capture or Seizure thereof, and the Laws relating thereto, and also in such and such Part of the said recited Act as relate to the Power of the said Courts in Cases therein defined, to order and adjudge Ships, Vessels or Carriages, or the Proceeds thereof, to be delivered or paid for the Use of His Majesty, shall be and the same is and are hereby repealed.

• II. And Whereas by the Ninth Article of the Convention of the Twenty eighth Day of July One thou• sand eight hundred and fourteen, between His Majesty and His Most Faithful Majesty the King of Portugal,
• in the said recited Act of the Fifty eighth Year aforesaid, mentioned and recited, His Britannic Majesty
• engaged to grant, in the manner thereinafter explained, sufficient Indemnification to all the Proprietors of cer• tain Portuguese Vessels and Carriages captured by British Cruisers, between the First Day of June One thousand • eight hundred and fourteen, and the Period at which the Two Commissions pointed out in the Eighth Article
• of the said Convention should assemble at their respective Parts on the Coast of Africa and in the Straits; and
• His Majesty and His Most Faithful Majesty did agree, that all Claims of the Nature before mentioned should
• be received and liquidated by a mixed Commission, to be held at London, and which should consist of an equal
• Number of the Individuals of the Two Nations, named by their respective Sovereigns, and upon the same
• Principles stipulated by the Eighth Article of the said Convention, and by the several Instruments which form
• an integral Part of the said Convention: And Whereas by the Tenth Article of the Regulations annexed as
• and made Part of the said Convention, it was provided, that the said mixed Commission established in Lon• don by the said Ninth Article of the said Convention therein and herein before recited, should hear and deter• mine all Claims for Portuguese Ships and Carriages captured by British Cruisers on account of the unlawful
• Trading in Slaves between the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, until the Period
• when the Commission should be in complete execution, according to them, consistently to the Ninth Article
• of the said Convention, a full and complete Compensation upon the Basis laid down in a preceding Article
• of the said Regulations, either for total Loss or for Losses and Damages sustained by the Owners and Pro• prietors of the said Ships and Carriages; and it was also provided, that the said Commission established in • London should be composed and proceed exactly upon the same Basis determined in the Articles One, Two
• and Three, of the said Regulations for the Commissions established on the Coast of Africa and in the Straits; /
• Be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Warrant under His Royal Sign Manual, con-
• testified by One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, to appoint Two Persons
• to be such Members of the said mixed Commission to be held in London, one of such Persons to be a Con-
• sultary Judge, and the other to be a Commissioner of Arbitration, as are in and by the said Ninth Article of
• the said Convention, and by the Instructions annexed to the said Convention mentioned to be appointed by His • Majesty, and from time to time to supply any Vacancies which may arise in such Offices, by appointing other • Persons therein, and to grant Salaries to such Consultary Judge and Commissioner of Arbitration, not exceed-
• ing such annual Sums as the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great • Britain and Ireland shall from time to time direct; and such Consultary Judge and Commissioner of Arbitra-
• tion so to be appointed by His Majesty, are hereby authorized and empowered to examine and decide all such
• Cases of Detention, Capture and Seizure of Vessels and their Carriages as aforesaid, detained, seized, taken
• or captured, between the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and the Period at which
• the Two Commissions mentioned in the Eighth Article of the said Convention shall assemble at their respective
• Parts on the Coast of Africa and in the Straits, as are, by the said Ninth Article of the said Convention and
• by this Act made subject to their Jurisdiction, and to proceed in all such Cases, and to give such Judgments,
• and to make such Orders therein, and to do all other Acts, Matters, and Things appertaining thereto, agree-
• ably to the Provisions of the said Convention, and the Instructions and Regulations annexed thereto, as fully
• and effectually to all Purposes and Purposes as if Special Powers and Authorities for that Purpose were specially
• and particularly referred and given in relation thereto in this Act.

• III. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Warrant under His Royal • Sign Manual, counter-signed by One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, to • nominate and appoint a Secretary or Registrator to the said Commission to be held in London, and from time
• to time to supply by other Appointments any Vacancies which may hereafter occur in such Office, and to grant a
• Salary to such Secretary or Registrator, not exceeding such annual Sum as the said Commissioners of His Ma• jesty's Treasury shall from time to time direct; and such Secretary or Registrator is hereby respectively autho• rized and empowered to do, perform and execute all the Duties of such Office, in and about and in relation to the
• said Convention, and the Instructions and Regulations therein annexed, and to do, perform and execute all such
• Acts, Matters and Things as may be necessary for the due Discharge of the Duties of his Office, according
• to the Provisions of the said Convention, Instructions and Regulations.

• IV. And be it further enacted, That every such Consultary Judge, and Commissioner of Arbitration, • appointed by His Majesty for the purposes of this Act, shall, before he shall enter upon the Execution of any
• of the Duties of such Office, take an Oath before the Lord Chief Justice, or One of His Majesty's Jus• tices of the Court of King's Bench, or before the Lord Chief Baron, or One of the Barons of His Majesty's
• Court

Court of Exchequer at Windsor, for the time being; which Oath every such Lord Chief Justice, or Lord Chief Baron, or Justice or Baron for the time being, is hereby authorized to administer, in the Form following; (that is to say,)

I, A. B. do solemnly swear, That I will, according to the best of my Skill and Knowledge, act in the Execution of my Office as Justly, Impartially, fairly, and without Prejudice or Fear, either for Claimants or Captives, or any other Person; and that I will, to the best of my Judgment and Power, act in performance of and according to the Regulations of the Treaty, of the Twenty second Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and the additional Convention thereto, between His Majesty and His Most Faithful Majesty, signed at London, on the Twenty eighth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and seventeen.

So help me GOD.

And the Secretary or Registrar to the said Commission shall, before he enters on the Duties of his said Office, take an Oath before the Swiss Commissary Judge as aforesaid, who is hereby empowered to administer the same, in the Form following; (that is to say,)

I, A. B. do solemnly swear, That I will, according to the best of my Skill and Knowledge, act in the Execution of my Office, and that I will consult myself with due Respect to the Authority of the Commissioners of Arbitration or Arbitrators of the Commission to which I am attached, and will act with Fidelity in all the Affairs which may belong to my Charge, and without preference of or favour either for Claimants or Captives or any other Person.

So help me GOD.

And the like Oaths respectively, in any of the Oaths set forth and prescribed by the said recited Act of the Fifty eighth Year aforesaid, shall in all Cases be administered to and taken by every Commissary Judge and Commissioner of Arbitration, appointed by His Majesty, or acting ad interim under the said recited Act, in the Presence of the Magistrate authorized by the said Act to administer the Oath in the said Act enacted, and by every Secretary or Registrar appointed by His Majesty, or acting ad interim, in the Presence of the Swiss Commissary Judge.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any such Commissary Judge, or for any such Secretary or Registrar appointed under this Act, and they are hereby respectively empowered, to administer Oaths to and take the Depositions of all Persons Witnesses and other Persons who may come or be brought before them to be examined, or for the purpose of depositing in the records of any Proceeding before the Commissary Judges of the said Commission to be held in London, or before the said Commissary Judges and a Commissioner of Arbitration, in the Cases in which such Commissioners of Arbitration shall act with the said Commissary Judges under the said Convention and the Instructions and Regulations therein enacted, or under this Act; and it shall also be lawful for the said Commissary Judges, or for the said Commissary Judges and Commissioner of Arbitration, in the Cases aforesaid, to summon before them all Persons whom they may deem it necessary or proper to examine in relation to any Suit, Proceeding, Matter or Thing under their Cognizance, and to send for and take Receipt for the producing of all such Papers as may relate to the Matters in question before them, and to enforce all such Summons, Orders and Processes, by such and the like Means, Powers and Authorities as are vested in the Commissioners under the said recited Act.

VI. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall wilfully and corruptly give false Evidence in any Examination or Deposition, or Affidavit had or taken upon or in any Proceeding before the said Commissary Judges or Commissioners aforesaid, under the said Convention, Instructions and Regulations, or under this Act, shall be deemed guilty of Perjury, and being thereof convicted, shall be subject and liable to all the Punishments, Fines and Penalties to which Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury are liable.

VII. And Whereas by the Eleventh Article of the said Convention of the Twenty eighth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and seventeen, His Majesty engaged to pay the Sum of Three hundred thousand Pounds Sterling, of Indemnification regulated by a certain Convention of the Twenty first Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, in favour of the Proprietors of Footings Vessels captured by British Cruisers, up to the Period of the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, with Interest, in the manner and at the times on the said Convention of the Twenty eighth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and seventeen mentioned; the Payment of the said Sum to be made in London to the Minister of His Most Faithful Majesty, at the Court of His Majesty, or to the Persons whom His Most Faithful Majesty should think proper to authorize for that Purpose; And Whereas the said Sum of Three hundred thousand Pounds and Interest hath been duly paid by His Majesty to His Most Faithful Majesty, for the Purposes in the said Convention mentioned; Be it enacted, That the said Sum of Three hundred thousand Pounds and Interest, disbursed to be paid by the said Two Conventions, and paid and accepted accordingly, as a full Compensation for all Losses sustained by the Subjects of His Most Faithful Majesty, on account of Vessels captured up to the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, shall be considered and taken to be a full Compensation for all such Captures as aforesaid; and that the said Regulation contained in the said Convention of the Twenty first Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and recited in the Eleventh Article of the said Convention of the Twenty eighth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and seventeen, and in the said Act of the last Session and in this present Act, may be pleaded in Bar or given in Evidence upon the General Issue, and shall be and be deemed and adjudged in every Court wherever, to be a good and complete Bar in any and every Action, Suit or Proceeding, brought or substituted, or to be brought or substituted for Reformation or any other Matter or Thing in relation to any such Capture, or for any Damages or Injury sustained thereby or in relation thereto, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

Art. 12. & 13. of Convention of 18th July 1819.

Art. 14. & 15. of Convention of 18th July 1819.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, a Suit may be lawfully for any Person to commence, prosecute or proceed in any Court, Adm. or Court whatever, or the High Court of Admiralty, or in any other Court, or before any Judge or Person whatsoever, other than the several Commissioners appointed under and by virtue of the said Convention of the Twenty eighth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and seventeen, and the said recited Act and this Act, for the Confirmation or Refutation of any Ship or Cargo or Slaves, or for any Compensation or Indemnification for any Loss or Damage, or for any Injury sustained by such Ship, Cargo or Slaves, or by any Person on board any such Ship, as consequence of any such Capture, Seizure or Detention which shall have been or shall be made under the Authority or in pursuance of the Provisions of the said Convention, or of the Instructions or Regulations therein issued, or of the said recited Act or this Act, or which may be or become the Subject of Application or Compensation by, or be brought before the Commission to be held at London under the Authority of the said Convention and this Act; that the Presidency of any Claim, Suit or Proceeding instituted before any of the Commissioners to be appointed under the Authority of the said Convention and the said recited Act and this Act, for the Confirmation or Refutation of any Ship or Cargo, or Slaves taken, seized or detained by virtue of the said Convention, or of the Instructions or Regulations therein issued, or subject to the Jurisdiction and Adjudication of the said Commission in London, or for any Compensation or Indemnification for any Loss or Damage, or consequence of the taking, seizing or detaining any such Ship, or the said Adjudication, Confirmation, Judgment or Determination of any such Commission, in the Case shall require, may be pleaded in Bar or given in Evidence under the General Issue; or in case on such Claim, Suit or Proceeding shall have been instituted before any such Commission, then the said Convention and the said recited Act and this Act may in like manner be pleaded in Bar or given in Evidence under the General Issue; and every such Plea in Bar or Evidence so given under the General Issue, shall be deemed and adjudged to be a good and complete Plea and Satisfaction in any such Claim, Action, Suit or Proceeding, in any Court or Place, other than before such Commission; any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament or Law or Laws to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

IX. And Whereas by the Ninth Article of the said Convention of the Twenty eighth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and seventeen, and hence before recited, His Majesty engaged to grant in the manner therein expressed, sufficient Indemnification to all the Proprietors of Privateer Vessels and Carbons captured by British Cruisers between the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and the Period at which the Two Commissions passed out in the Eighth Article of the said Convention should assemble at their respective Places; and by the Eleventh Article of the said Convention before recited in this Act, His Majesty engaged to pay the said Sum of Three hundred thousand Pounds for the Purposes herein before mentioned, and it is therefore just that such Ships, Vessels and Carbons, or the Proceeds thereof, for and in respect of which His Majesty shall in aforesaid pay or be liable to pay any Indemnity or Compensation, and to which the Captors or Seizers shall not establish any Right or Interest, should be delivered or paid to the Use or Disposal of His Majesty; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of Appeal in Prize Causes, and for the High Court of Admiralty, in all Cases and Questions arising out of the Capture of any such Ships, Vessels or Carbons, or any Subjects of His Most Excellent Majesty, as well before the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, as between the said First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fourteen and the Period above described, which shall be depending before them, or which may be brought before them, on Appeal from any Vice Admiralty Court, according to their respective Jurisdiction; to proceed thereto, and to hear and determine all Questions respecting any Right or Interest in or to any such Ships, Vessels or Carbons so captured, to which His Majesty or the Captors or Seizers of such Ships, Vessels or Carbons, may claim to be entitled by reason of the Capture or Seizure thereof, and to enforce their Judgments and Orders thereon, by the usual Process of the said Courts, any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding: And that in all such Cases as aforesaid, in which the Captors or Seizers shall not establish any Right or Interest on their behalf, by reason of any such Capture of any Ship, Vessel or Cargo, it shall be lawful for the said Courts respectively to order and adjudge the Ships, Vessels and Carbons, or the Proceeds thereof, and all and every Part thereof, to which the Captors shall not establish any Right or Interest as aforesaid, to be delivered or paid to the Use or Disposal of His Majesty, to such Person or Persons as the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being shall appoint to receive the same, and to enforce the Delivery or the Payment thereof, by the usual Process of the said Courts respectively; any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

X. And be it further enacted, That the said recited Act of the Fifty eighth Year aforesaid, in so far as the same is not expressly altered or repealed by this Act, shall remain in force; and that the said recited Act and this Act shall be construed together as one Act, in so far as the same are compatible and consistent with each other, and as if the Claims and Provisions in this Act contained had been inserted in the said recited Act of the Fifty eighth Year aforesaid, and had made Part thereof.

XI. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be amended, altered or repealed, by any Act to be passed in the present Session of Parliament.

CAP. XVIII.

An Act to make perpetual an Act of the Forty fourth Year of His present Majesty, for permitting the Exportation of Salt from the Port of Nagaw to the Island of New Providence, the Port of Havana and the Port of Cienfuegos in the Bahama Woods, in American Ships, coming in Ballast.

[31st March 1819.]

WHEREAS an Act was made in the Forty fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, 44 G. 3. c. 100. entitled An Act for permitting, until the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and seven, the Exportation of Salt from the Port of Nagaw to the Island of New Providence, the Port of Havana and the Port of Cienfuegos in the Bahama Woods, in Ships belonging to the Inhabitants of the United States of America, and coming in Ballast; which said Act was by Three Acts of the Forty five, Fifty sixth and Fifty seventh Years of the Reign of His present Majesty renewed and continued until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and nineteen: And Whereas it is expedient to make perpetual the said Act of the Forty fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act of the Forty fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be made perpetual.

CAP. XIX.

An Act to amend, until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty, the growing Produce of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom, arising in Great Britain, available for the Public Service.

[31st March 1819.]

WHEREAS the Payments from time to time made into the Exchequer in Warrants, of the growing Produce of the Revenues and Duties arising in Great Britain, which form Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, accumulate in the said Exchequer until the End of the several Quarters in which such Payments are made, ending on the Fifth Day of April, the Fifth Day of July, the Tenth Day of October, and the Fifth Day of January, in every Year; and no Part of such growing Produce can now by Law be stored or applied at any time during the Course of any such Quarter, towards the making good any of the Aids or Supplies granted by Parliament; and it would be very advantageous to the Public if Part of such growing Produce could be made applicable to such purposes from time to time, in manner hereinafter mentioned: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or any Three or more of them for the time being, from time to time, by Warrants under their Hands, to order and direct the Auditor of the Exchequer to make out any Number of Exchequer Bills, authorised by any Act or Acts of Parliament to be issued towards any Aids or Supplies, for such Sums or Sums of Money, as the said Commissioners shall think fit, and to deposit such Exchequer Bills in the respective Offices of the Four Tellers of the Receipt of the said Exchequer; and so issued shall accrue or be paid upon or for any Exchequer Bill or Bills so deposited under the Authority of this Act, during the time that any such Bill or Bills so deposited shall remain in the Hands or in the Office of any of the Tellers of the said Receipt of Exchequer, any thing in any Act or Acts to the contrary in any way notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted, That such Exchequer Bills shall be made out in the same or like Manner, Form and Order, and according to the same or like Rules and Directions, as are prescribed in an Act passed in the Forty eighth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for regulating the issuing and paying off of Exchequer Bills; and that all and every the Clauses, Provisions, Powers, Privileges and Advantages, Penalties, Forfeitures and Disabilities, contained in the said Act, shall be applied and extended to the Exchequer Bills to be made out in pursuance of this Act, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if the said several Clauses and Provisions had been particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this present Act, except as is otherwise specially provided in this Act.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Auditors of the said Exchequer to issue from time to time, out of the growing Produce of the said Consolidated Fund, being or remaining in the Receipt of the said Exchequer, any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding the Amount of such Exchequer Bills as shall have been so deposited under the Authority of this Act, subsequent to the First Day of any Quarter ending as aforesaid, in which such Bills shall be made; and the Issue of every such Sum shall be recorded by the Clerk of the Pells in the said Receipt of Exchequer; and such Sum and Sums of Money shall and may be applied for or towards the defraying or supplying any Aids or Supplies granted by Parliament, towards which the Exchequer Bills be deposited under the Authority of this Act shall have been made applicable by Parliament; and the Exchequer Bills so deposited under the Authority of this Act shall remain so deposited with the Tellers of the said Exchequer, as a Security for the Sums of Money to be issued out of the said growing Produce of the said Consolidated Fund, until such time as such Exchequer Bills shall be paid off or exchanged in manner hereinafter mentioned.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty, any Sum or Sums of Money which may be issued under the Authority of this Act, shall be applied for or towards the Payment to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, of any Sum or Sums of Money which shall or may have been advanced by the said Governor and Company, at any time previous to the issuing of any such Sum or Sums of Money, upon the Credit of any such Exchequer Bills chargeable upon any Aids or Supplies granted by Parliament, and to and for no other Purpose whatsoever.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That any such Exchequer Bills shall have been made out and placed as Cash in the Office of any of the Tellers of the said Exchequer, under the Authority of an Act made in the Fifth seventh Year of His present Majesty's reign, intitled an Act to make further Provision for the Discharge of the Accounts of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom, and for making good any deficiency of Money which may arise in the said Fund in the British or Ireland respectively; and in respect the Application of Money by the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt; and shall in the Commencement of any Quarter ending as aforesaid even in undischarged, it shall not be lawful for the said Commissioners of the Treasury to direct the Deposit of Exchequer Bills under the Authority of this Act for any greater Sum or Sums than shall, together with the Exchequer Bills to before made out and issued, and in remaining undischarged, amount to the Sum of Six Millions in the Whole or any one such Quarter of a Year ending as aforesaid; and that in case the Exchequer Bills to before made out and issued, and in remaining undischarged, shall amount to or shall exceed the Sum of Six Millions in the Whole or any one such Quarter, it shall not be lawful for the said Commissioners of the Treasury, when the said Quarter, to direct the Deposit of any Exchequer Bills whatever under the Act; and that no Sum or Sums of Money shall at any time be issued under the Authority of this Act, out of the growing Produce of the said Consolidated Fund, or any Quarter, on account of any Exchequer Bills deposited under the Authority of this Act, until the whole of the Principal and Interest on all Exchequer Bills (if any) which shall have been so before made out and placed in the said Exchequer under the said second Act of the Fifth seventh Year, shall have been fully paid and discharged out of such growing Produce; and that if at the Close of any Quarter it shall appear that the Amount of Money remaining in the said Receipt of Exchequer, applicable to the Consolidated Fund, is not sufficient to defray the Charges on the said Fund payable for such Quarter, then, in case of such Deficiency, whether arising as consequence of Issues made under the Authority of this Act or from any other Cause, shall be made good by Exchequer Bills to be made out under the Authority of the said second Act of the Fifth seventh Year.

VI. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Exchequer Bills shall be in the Course of Payment, which shall have been granted by Parliament towards the Aids or Supplies of the last Year, or any Exchequer Bills which shall be deposited with the Teller of the said Exchequer under the Direction of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of the said Majesty's Treasury, or any Three of them, to direct that such Exchequer Bills be deposited under the Authority of this Act shall be paid off and discharged out of any Monies applicable to that Purpose; and that, in any case deposited, shall be paid off and discharged, shall be carried to and may be applied as the growing Produce of the Consolidated Fund of the Quarter in which such Exchequer Bills shall have been so paid off and discharged; or otherwise it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners to direct, that in two of such Exchequer Bills is deposited, and as Course of Payment, any other Exchequer Bills may be deposited which shall have been granted towards the Aids or Supplies of the Year upon which the Exchequer Bills to be so deposited shall have been charged; and the Exchequer Bills so deposited shall be withdrawn from the said Teller, and shall be considered as paid off, discharged and cancelled.

VII. And be it further enacted, That in all Advances to be preferred to Parliament, of Exchequer Bills issued under the Authority of Parliament, all such Exchequer Bills as shall be from time to time deposited with the Teller of the said Exchequer, in pursuance and under the Authority of this Act, shall be considered and rated as Exchequer Bills actually issued and not discharged.

VIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, from time to time, in two Quarter of a Year ending on the Fifth Day of April, Fifth Day of July, Tenth Day of October, or Fifth Day of January, in any Year (after all the Exchequer Bills made out under the said second Act of the Fifth seventh Year shall have been paid off and discharged, and after all such Sum or Sums of Money shall have been issued under the Authority of this Act as shall be equal to the Amount of Exchequer Bills deposited under this Act), to deposit in the said Receipt of Exchequer, Exchequer Bills the Property of the said Governor and Company, and to take and withdraw from the said Exchequer, out of any Sum or Sums of Money which shall remain in the Receipt of the said Exchequer in any such Quarter, above and beyond the Amount of all Exchequer Bills made out and deposited under the Authority of the said second Act or this Act, any Sum or Sums not exceeding the Amount of the Exchequer Bills which shall be to be deposited by the said Governor and Company, according to the Practice heretofore used; and though shall be lawful for the said Governor and Company to receive Interest on the said Exchequer Bills to be deposited by them, in like manner as hath been heretofore usual in the Case of such Deposits by the said Governor and Company; nothing herebefore contained to the contrary in any Act or Statute notwithstanding.

IX. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue in force until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty, and no longer.

X. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

[1818 March 1819.]

WHEREAS it may be necessary for the Public Service, that Exchequer Bills should be issued on the Credit of such Aids or Supplies as have been or shall be granted by Parliament, for the service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and nineteen: May it therefore please Your Majesty that a may be enacted: and be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, at any time or times, to cause or direct any Number of Exchequer Bills to be made out at the Receipt of the Exchequer of Great Britain, for any Sum or Sums of Money, in the Name or like Manner, Form and Order, and according to the tenor of the said Aids and Supplies, as shall be directed in and by an Act passed in the Forty eighth Year of His present Majesty, entitled An Act for regulating the issue and payment of Exchequer Bills; which said Exchequer Bills are hereby charged, and chargeable upon, and shall be paid and discharged at any time, out of all or any of the Aids or Supplies which have been or shall be granted by Parliament for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, on Payment Due: Notice being given by Public Advertisement in the London Gazette, and in Three or more of the London Newspapers, of the Day of Payment thereof.

II. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Clauses, Provisions, Powers, Privileges, Advantages, Privileges, Perquisites and Dispositions, contained in the said named Act, shall be applied and extended to the Exchequer Bills to be made out in pursuance of the said Act as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes as of the said several Clauses and Provisions had been particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to authorize the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury to issue any Exchequer Bills on the Credit of any Taxes or Taxes granted by an Act of this Session of Parliament, entitled An Act for continuing and Professed Affairs in England, for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, in any other manner than they are authorized by the said Act, or to issue any Exchequer Bills on the Credit of any Aids or Supplies which may be granted in the next Session of Parliament.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Exchequer Bills to be made out in pursuance of the said Act shall bear Date on the Days on which the same shall be respectively issued, and shall and may bear an Interest not exceeding the rate of Three pence Halfpenny per Centum per Annum, upon or in respect of the Whole of the Money respectively contained therein, payable out of any Aids or Supplies in the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer.

V. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Exchequer Bills to be made forth by virtue of this Act, or in pursuance of it, as shall from time to time remain undischarged and unsatisfied, shall and may, at any time after the Expiration of Four Months from the Date of any such Bills respectively, be received and taken, and shall and may be current to all and every the Receivers and Collectors in Great Britain of the Customs, Excise, or any Revenue, Supply, Aid or Tax, whatsoever already granted, due or payable, or which shall or may hereafter be granted, due or payable to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and also at the Receipt of the Exchequer from the said Receivers or Collectors, or from any other Parties or Persons, Bodies Politic, or Corporate whether it, making any Payment due to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, for or upon any Account, Credit or Occasion whatsoever, according to the Purport and true meaning of this Act; and that each of the said Bills as shall be received at the Exchequer shall and may be kept up and secured as Cash, according to the Course of the Exchequer Bill and established by Law for keeping up and securing Money received in Specie there.

VI. And be it declared and further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Governor and Company of the Bank of England to advance, or lend to His Majesty in like manner, at the Receipt of the Exchequer upon the Credit of all or any of the Aids or Supplies which have been or shall be granted by Parliament for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the Whole the Sum of Three Millions, any thing in an Act made in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary, entitled An Act for granting to His Majesty several Rates and Duties upon Tonnage of Ships and Profits, and upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, and for financing certain Rents and Advantages in the said Act contained in full Payment as shall and may be advanced the Sum of One million five hundred thousand Pounds towards carrying on the War against France, or in any subsequent Act, to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Equities to His Majesty, appointed to be in Attendance upon His Royal Person, shall however receive any Salaries, Wages or Profits in respect of such Offices.

And be it further shewed, That as Account of the Application of the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, is directed to be offered to and appropriated by the Crown of the State of Antwerp upon His Majesty's Petition, Ball from time to time, as the same shall be required, and if not repaired within such time as the Council of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, for the time being, when, or any Three or more of them shall think fit the Application of any Surplus, if any shall remain, so as that the Surplus Ball go and be applied to the said Last Revenue for the purposes of His Majesty's said Establishment.

14. And Whereas it is proper that the Annual Sum of Ten thousand Pounds, granted to Her late Majesty Elizabeth Magdalen, in consequence of Her Majesty having in the Care of the Persons of Her Majesty, should be now granted to His Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany: Be it therefore enacted, That there shall be paid to His said Royal Highness, during the Continuance of His Majesty's Indisposition, out of the Revenues or Parts of Money from time to time in the Exchequer, applicable to the Purposes of His Majesty's Civil Establishment, an Annual Sum or Yearly Rent of Ten thousand Pounds, to commence from the Twelfth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, and to be paid in Quarterly Payments; the First Payment to be made on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, for the proportionate Part of the Quarter between the said Twelfth Day of February and the said Fifth Day of April; and that the same shall be charged and chargeable upon, and payable and paid out of any Sums of Money in the Exchequer applicable to the Purposes of His Majesty's Civil Establishment, next after the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, and free and clear of and from all Taxes, Rates, Allowances, or any Charges, Fines or other Deductions whatsoever; and the Acquittance or Receipts of His said Royal Highness shall be a good and sufficient Discharge for the Payment thereof, and a sufficient Authority to the several and respective Officers of the Exchequer for the Discharge for the Payment of the said Sum.

W. And Whereas it is convenient to make His Majesty's order (some Provision for the Ladies of the Bed-chamber and the Maids of Honour, and for certain of the Officers and Attendants on His late Most Excellent Majesty, and for certain other Persons to whom His late Most Excellent Majesty had granted certain Pensions and Allowances,) by a therefore further command, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty to grant such Pension or Allowance to such Person as he may think fit, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Fifteen thousand two hundred and forty Six Pounds Six Shillings and six pence, and to charge the same upon the Confiscated Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and which Persons to be so granted such command from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, and the said said pension quarterly, by the Receiver of the Exchequer at Westminster, and of the said Confiscated Part, five and eleven of and from all Taxes, Charges or other Deductions whatsoever.

VI. And to be further noted, That all the Powers and Authorities vested in Her late Most Excellent Majesty, by the last recited Act of the Fifth second Year aforesaid, in relation to the Application of His Majesty's Privy Seal and His Signet Ring of the Duke, of Lancaster, shall from and after the Twelfth Day of February next thereafter, be used, during the Continuance of His Majesty's Indisposition, and until the Resumption of the personal Exercise of the Royal Authority by His Majesty, be vested in His Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany, who shall also have full Power and Authority to grant and sign Warrants for the Arrest and Payment out of the said Privy Seal and Revenues aforesaid, of any Sums which may have become due for Medical Advice and Attendance, or any accidental or other Charges or Expenses, since the Death of Her late Most Excellent Majesty, and to grant and sign also other Warrants, and to make all Orders which might have been granted, signed or given by Her late Most Excellent Majesty, under the Provisions of the last recited Act of the Fifth second Year aforesaid, in like manner as every Ruler might do if all the Powers, Authorities, Privileges, Customs and Regulations in the last recited Act contained, were formally and expressly recorded and enounced, as to His late Royal Highness, in this Act.

Limitation of the Account.

VII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Royal Highness the Duke of Portland, upon the Resolution of His Majesty's Household at Windsor, to order and direct, and give Authority under His Royal Highness's Hand, for the Payment of any such Presents or Allowances, to be payable out of the Money issued to the Keeper of His Majesty's Privy Purse, to any Gentlemen of His Majesty, whose Services may be discontinued upon such Resolution, and who may be desired by His Royal Highness at Objects of His Majesty's Bounty, in so far that such Presents and Allowances shall not, in addition to the Sums which shall continue to be applied under the Authority of His Royal Highness in each Quarter under the Provision of the said second Act of the Fifty fourth Year last enacted, and this Act, amount in the Whole, together with the present Amount of the Charges upon and allowed to be paid out of the said Privy Purse under the said second Act of the Fifty fourth Year last enacted, the aggregate Amount of Fifteen thousand four hundred and fifty one Pounds, and Four thousand one hundred and twenty Pounds, Quarterly, charged upon and allowed to be paid out of the said Privy Purse, under the Provision of the said second Act of the Fifty fourth Year last enacted; provided, that no such new Pension or allowance shall exceed in the Whole the Sum of Three hundred Pounds per Annum.

VIII. And Whereas in consequence of the Death of Her late Most Excellent Majesty, the Annuity or Income of Fifty eight thousand Pounds per Annum, which was issued and paid to Her Majesty out of the Civil List Revenue, in performance of One of the Wishes of His Majesty, will be a longer payable; and in consequence of the Resolution of the same heretofore entered in the Privy Council of the Bedchamber or Groom of the Stool, for defraying the Charges and Expenses of His Majesty, and such Portion of His Household as shall be an Attendance upon His Majesty's Royal Person, a further Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds have been ordered and payable out of the Civil List Revenue, as well as to be charged thereon; He it therefore enacted, That in each of an Act of the First fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for the better Support of His Majesty's Household, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown of the United Kingdom, and for providing Annuities to the Payment of the Civil List Revenue, is granted to His Majesty a further Revenue as Yearly Rate of Twenty thousand Pounds, shall be and the same is hereby repealed, from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and seven, from which Period the said Revenue or yearly Rent shall no longer be payable; and that in each of an Act passed in the Fifth sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for the better Regulation of the Civil List, is directed that there should be applied to the Civil List Revenue, out of the Surplus of Fines and Gratuities received at the Exchequer, the Sum of Forty eight thousand Pounds per Annum, by vote and equal Quarterly Payments, shall also be and the same is hereby repealed, from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and sixteen; from which time all the Surplus of the said Fines and Gratuities shall go and be carried to the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

IX. And Whereas by the said second Act of the Fifth sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, are required, at the Commencement of every Quarter, to direct what Sums should be respectively set apart and appropriated in the Receipt of the Exchequer, out of the Quarterly Revenue of the Civil List, for the Purpose of defraying the Charges of the respective Clauses thereof, but so as that the Sum to be appropriated to the Sixth Clause do not exceed One fourth Part of the estimated Amount of that Clause, as specified in the Schedule annexed to the said Act; and so that the Sum to be appropriated to the other Clauses be paid to One fourth Part of the estimated Amount of each Clause: And Whereas the estimated Amount of the Sixth Clause, according to the Schedule annexed to the said Act, is Two hundred and twenty eight thousand Pounds, but by reason of the Death of Her late Most Excellent Majesty, and of the Reduction of the Sum to be issued as the Gross of the Scale of His Majesty, the future Charge of the said Clause will be reduced to One hundred and seventy thousand Pounds per Annum; Be it therefore further enacted, That the Sum heretofore to be appropriated in pursuance of the said Act of the Fifth sixth Year of His present Majesty, for defraying the Charge of the Sixth Clause of the Civil List, shall be equal only to One fourth Part of the Sum of One hundred and twenty thousand Pounds, being the estimated Amount of the future Charge of the said Clause.

X. And Whereas it is expedient that in each of the said Act of the Fifth sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, as provided that who-ever the total Charge of the Civil List, from the Fifth Day of January in any one Year to the Fifth Day of January in the following Year, shall amount to more than One million one hundred thousand Pounds, as Accrued, during the Particulars of such exceeding, and the Excess thereof, should be submitted to Parliament, should be provided; Be it therefore further enacted, That the said Account shall be submitted to Parliament in the manner directed by the said Act, when ever the total Charge upon the Civil List, from the Fifth Day of January in any one Year to the Fifth Day of January in the following Year, shall exceed the Sum of Nine hundred and sixty two thousand Pounds.

An Act to restrain, until the End of the present Session of Parliament, the Governor and Company of the Bank of England from making Payments in Cash under certain Notices given by them for their Purposes.

[5th April 1819.]

WHEREAS an Act was made in the Thirty seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for confirming and continuing, for a limited time, the Restriction contained in the Statute in that behalf made, of the Twenty sixth Day of February One thousand seven hundred and thirty seven in Payment of Cash by the Bank: And Whereas an Act was also made in the Thirty seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, further to continue the said Act until One Month after the Commencement of the then next Session of Parliament,

• Parliament, under certain Regulations and Restrictions: And Whereas another Act was made in the Thirty eighth Year of the said present Majesty, to amend and continue the last Act mentioned, And said One Month after the Conclusion of the then present War: And Whereas it was provided in the last Act revised Act that it should and might be lawful for the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, during the Continuance of the said Act, to issue Cash out of any Cash which should be at their Disposal in Payment of any Debt or Demand whatsoever, or of any Part or Proportion of any Debt or Demand whatsoever, upon their giving Five Days' Notice in Writing to the Speaker of the House of Commons of their Intention
 • to do so, specifying the Description of such Debt or Demand, which Notice the Speaker of the House of Commons is thereby required to cause forthwith to be inserted in the London Gazette: And Whereas the said Acts have been continued by several subsequent Acts until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen: And Whereas, in pursuance of the said Authority, vested in the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, a Notice was given on the Third Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, by the said Governor and Company to the Speaker of the House of Commons, that on and after the Fourteenth Instant the Bank would pay in Cash all Fractional Notes under Five Pounds, and that on and after the Fifth Day of February next the Bank will pay Cash for all Notes of One and Two Pounds Value that are dated prior to the First Day of July One thousand seven hundred and twenty eight, or exchange them for new Notes of the same Value, at the Option of the Holders; and One other Notice was in like manner given by the said Governor and Company, on the Seventeenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, that on and after the Second Day of May then next ensuing the Bank will pay Cash for all Notes of One and Two Pounds Value that are dated prior to the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, or exchange them for new Notes of the same Value, at the Option of the Holders; and One other Notice was in like manner given by the said Governor and Company, on the Eighteenth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, that on and after the First Day of October then next ensuing the Bank will be ready to pay Cash for their Notes of every Description dated prior to the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and nineteen; and the said respective Notices have been published in the London Gazette in the manner provided by the said Act: And Whereas a Continuance of the Partial Payments so advertised might materially obstruct the Measures to be adopted for the final and complete Removal, at such time or times and in such Manner as Parliament may deem most advisable, of the Restrictions which have been of late Years imposed on the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England in respect to Cash Payments; and it is therefore expedient that the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England should be reauthorized for a limited time from making any Issue of Cash in which they become liable under any or either of the said Notices, in so far as relates to any Payment within Gold Coins of the Realm, demandable under the Authority of the said Notices and of the last recited Act: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, and until the End of the present Session of Parliament, it shall not be lawful for the Governor and Company of the Bank of England to make any Payment in the Gold Coins of the Realm, either of Fractional Sums under Five Pounds, or for any of their Notes dated prior to the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, any thing in the three recited Acts or Notices to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

C. A. P. XXIV.

As an Act to restrain, until the End of the present Session of Parliament, the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland from making Payments in the Gold Coins of this Realm, under certain Notices given by them. [Ed. April 1819.]

• WHEREAS by an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Thirty seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for confirming and continuing for a limited time the Restrictions contained in the Minutes of Council of the Second Day of March One thousand seven hundred and twenty five, on Payments in Cash by the Bank, it was enacted, that it should and might be lawful for the said Governor and Company to issue any Cash in Payment of any Debt or Demand whatsoever, except according to the Provisions in the said Act contained, and that the said Act should be in force and should have Continuance, so far as the same restrained the Governor and Company of the said Bank from issuing Cash in Payments, until Three Months after the Restrictions imposed by an Act of the Parliament of Great Britain on the Governor and Company of the Bank of England from issuing Cash in Payments should cease, unless the Lord Lieutenant and Privy Council of Ireland should by an Order of Council direct that the said Restriction on the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland should longer exist; and it was by the said recited Act provided, that nothing in the said Act contained should extend to restrain the said Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland from issuing any Sum of Money less than Twenty Shillings in Cash in Payment of any Debt or Demand not amounting in Twenty Shillings, or in Payment of so much of any larger Debt or Demand as should be a Fractional Part of Twenty Shillings over and above the Residue of such Debt or Demand: And Whereas the said recited Act of the Thirty seventh Year has by several subsequent Acts been continued until the Expiration of Three Calendar Months next after any Restriction imposed by any Act on the Governor and Company of the Bank of England from issuing Cash in Payments

Edw. Act. 27 G. 3.

Decree of His Majesty by which of Ireland of
Cash.

Should cease, unless the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors and the Privy Council of Ireland should by an Order in Council direct that the said Restrictions on the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland should former exist: And Whereas, under and by the Authority of an Order of the Lord Lieutenant and Privy Council of Ireland, a Notice was given by a Court of Directors of the Governor and Company of the said Bank of Ireland on the Twentieth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and seventeen, that on and after the Third Day of January then next, the said Bank would pay in Cash all their Notes under the Value of Five Pounds which were dated prior to the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, or would exchange them for new Notes, at the Option of the Holders: And Whereas, under and by the Authority of another Order of the Lord Lieutenant and Privy Council of Ireland, a Notice was also given by the said Court of Directors of the said Bank Governor and Company on the Eleventh Day of July One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, that on and after the Second Day of August then next, the said Bank would pay in Cash all their Notes under the Value of Five Pounds which were dated prior to the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, or would exchange them for new Notes, at the Option of the Holders: And Whereas, under and by the Authority of another Order of the Lord Lieutenant and Privy Council of Ireland, a Notice was also given by the said Court of Directors of the said Bank Governor and Company on the Twenty seventh Day of December One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, that on and after the First Day of January then next the said Bank would pay in Cash all their Notes which were dated prior to the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and seventeen, or would exchange them for new Notes, at the Option of the Holders: And Whereas a Continuance of the partial Payment of which such Notices have been given might materially obstruct the Measures to be adopted for the relief and complete Removal, at such time or times and in such Manner as Parliament may deem most advisable, of the Restrictions which have been of late Years imposed on the said Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland in respect of Cash Payments; and it is therefore expedient that the said Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland should be authorized for a limited time from making any Issue of Cash to which they become liable under any or either of the said Notices, in far as relates to any Payment in the Gold Coin of this Realm, demandable under the Authority of the said Notices and of the said recited Acts: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, and until the End of the present Session of Parliament, it shall not be lawful for the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland to make any Payment in the Gold Coin of this Realm, either of fractional Sums under Twenty Shillings, or for any of their Notes dated prior to the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and seventeen; any thing in the above recited Acts or Notices to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

C. A. P. XXV.

An Act to enable His Majesty to fix the Rate and direct the Disposal of Freight Money, for the Convenience of Spain and Jamaica on board His Majesty's Ships and Offices. [Sess. April 1819.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that His Majesty should be authorized to fix the Rate and direct the Disposal and Distribution of Freight Money for the Convenience of Spain and Jamaica on board His Majesty's Ships and Offices: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act all Freight Money to be paid for the Convenience in any of the Ships and Vessels of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, of Gold, Silver and Jewels, or of any other Article which may be by special Order reserved on board the said Ships and Vessels, and for which Freight shall be payable, shall be paid at such Rate, and distributed and applied to such Purposes, and divided to and amongst such Persons in such Proportions and after such manner as His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, shall from time to time think fit to order and direct, by any Proclamation or Proclamations to be issued for that Purpose; and that no Freight Money or Revenue shall hereafter be demanded, paid, received or retained, by, to or for the Use or on account of any Person or Persons, for the Convenience on board of any of the Ships or Vessels of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, of any Gold, Silver or Jewels, or any other Article, which may be by special Order reserved on board the said Ship or Vessel, and for which Freight shall be payable, other than for the Purposes and by the Person or Persons, in the Proportions, at the Rate, and in the manner to be paid and allowed by Proclamation or Proclamations; and that all Bargains, Contracts, Agreements, made or entered into, or hereafter to be made or entered into, for the Payment of any Freight Money for or in the name or on the account of Freight for the Convenience of Gold, Silver or Jewels, or other Articles as aforesaid, on board of any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, at any other Rate, or for any other Purpose, or by or to any other Person or Persons, or in any other manner or Proportions than as aforesaid, shall be void, and the same are hereby declared to be utterly void.

All Freight to be paid for Convenience on board His Majesty's Ships and Vessels, of Gold, Silver or other valuable Articles, to be directed in the manner directed by Proclamations.

CAP. XXVI.

An Act for fixing the Rates of Subsidage to be paid to Lookers on and others on quartering Soldiers.

[This Act is the same as 35 G. 3. c. 22. except as is Enam.]

CAP. XXVII.

An Act to facilitate the Trial of Felonies committed on board Vessels employed on Canals, Navigable Rivers and Inland Navigations.

[19th May 1819.]

WHEREAS Felonies are frequently committed on board Vessels employed in carrying and conveying Goods, Wares and Merchandise in or upon Canals, Navigable Rivers and Inland Navigations, in various Parts of the United Kingdom, as well by breaking open the Casks and Packages containing such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, as in various other Ways: And Whereas such Felonies frequently remain undetected until the Arrival of such Vessels at the Places of their Destination; and in consequence of such Canals and Navigations passing through several Counties forming the Boundaries of Counties on each Side or Bank, it can seldom be known within what County such Felonies may have been actually committed, and Offenders frequently escape unpunished from defect of Proof that the Felony was which they are charged was actually committed within the County in which such Offenders may be indicted: For Remedy thereof be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, in any Indictment for any Felony committed on board any Barge, Boat, Truss or other Vessel whatsoever, employed or used in carrying or conveying Goods, Wares and Merchandise, or in which any such Goods, Wares or Merchandise shall be, or upon any Canal, Navigable River or Inland Navigation, in any Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, it shall be sufficient to allege that such Felony was committed within any County or City through any Part whereof such Boat, Barge, Truss or other Vessel shall have passed in the Course of the Voyage or Journey during which such Felony shall have been committed; and in Cases wherein the Sides or Banks of any Navigable River, Canal or Inland Navigation, or the Course thereof, shall constitute the Boundary of any Two Counties or Cities, it shall be sufficient to allege that such Felony was committed in either of the said Counties or Cities through which, or any Part thereof, such Boat, Barge, Truss or other Vessel shall have passed in the Course of the Voyage or Journey during which such Felony shall have been committed; and every such Felony shall and may be inquired of, tried and determined in the County or City within which the same Felony shall be so alleged to have been committed: and all and every Person and Persons who shall be convicted of any such Felony to be inquired of, tried and determined as aforesaid, shall be subject and liable to all such Fines of Death, and other Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures, as such Person or Persons convicted of such Felony would have been subject and liable to in case such Felony had been inquired of, tried and determined in the County in which the same Felony was actually committed; any Law, Statute or Usage to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to affect the Jurisdiction of the High Court of Admiralty, or of any Commission for the Trial of Offences under an Act passed in the Twenty eighth Year of the Reign of King Henry the Eighth, intitled Per Periculum.

Felonies on Navigations may be prosecuted in any County through which the Navigation passes.

Felonies so tried and convicted to be subject to like Fines and Penalties as if tried in the County where the same were committed.

CAP. XXVIII.

An Act to empower Magistrates to divide the Court of Quarter Sessions.

[19th May 1819.]

WHEREAS the Courts of Quarter Sessions, by reason of the great Increase of Business therein, have of late been occupied during many Days, to the great Injury of Subjects, to the Inconvenience of Witnesses and Jurors, and to the Injustice of the Cause; and such Inconvenience is likely to continue unless some Remedy be provided for the same: And Whereas it would tend seasonably to remedy this Inconvenience, if Two or more of the Justices attending the Quarter Sessions should be enabled to sit and proceed, when Occasion should require, while other Justices should proceed in the Discharge of the other Business of the same Court: Be it therefore declared and enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That whenever and as often as any Court of Quarter Sessions or General Session of the Peace shall be assembled for the Discharge of Business thereto belonging, the Justices then present may, on the First Day of their being so assembled, take into their Consideration the State of the Business likely to be brought before them at such Quarter Sessions or General Session; and if it shall appear to them that such Business, if heard and determined by the whole Court, is likely to occupy more than Three Days, including the Day of their being so assembled, it shall and may be lawful for the said Justices to appoint Two or more Justices, One of whom shall be of the Quorum, to sit apart from themselves in some Place in or near the Court, there to hear and determine such Business as shall be referred to them, while others of the Justices are at the same time proceeding in the Discharge of the other Business of the same Court; and that the Proceedings to had by and before such Two or more Justices so sitting apart shall be as good and effectual in the Law to all Intents and Purposes as if the same were had before the Court assembled and sitting as usual in its ordinary Place of sitting, and shall be enrolled and recorded accordingly.

Courts of Quarter Sessions or General Sessions of the Peace may appoint Two or more Justices (one to be of the Quorum) to sit apart from them.

Regulations made for the Appointment of Justices shall not be altered at such succeeding Sessions.

Clerk of the Peace to appoint a Justice to record the Proceedings of such separate County.

Quarter Sessions may order County Treasurer to remove Justice Clerk of the Peace.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where Two or more Justices shall have sat apart in manner before directed by this Act, and Orders, Rules and Regulations shall have been made for the Appointment of Justices, such Orders, Rules and Regulations shall remain and continue in force as long as shall be thought expedient, without the Necessity of renewing such Orders, Rules and Regulations at each succeeding Session, to the extent that the same may become obsolete and better known to all professional and other Persons engaged in or in any manner connected with the Business of such Quarter Session.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Clerk of the Peace or his Deputy (wherever Two or more Justices shall sit apart at any Quarter Session) shall be authorized and required to appoint a fit and sufficient Person to record the Proceedings to be had before the Justices sitting apart; and such Proceedings shall be delivered over to the Clerk of the Peace or his Deputy, and shall be equally deemed to be a Part of the Records of such Session, as if the same Proceedings had been recorded by the Clerk of the Peace himself; and it shall be lawful for the Justices assembled in the Quarter Session to make an Order upon the Treasurer of the County to pay to the Clerk of the Peace such Sum or Sums of Money as they shall deem a fit and reasonable Remuneration to the Clerk of the Peace for such Payoffs as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for such Justices to appoint an additional Clerk, and to grant him such Remuneration for his Care and Pains as they shall deem reasonable, which shall in like manner be paid by the Treasurer of the County.

C. A. P. XXX.

An Act to repeal the Duties on Mineral Alkali, and on Articles containing Mineral Alkali and other Articles, and to impose other Duties in lieu thereof. [19th May 1819.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that the Duties of Customs payable on the Importation into that Part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain on Mineral Alkali, and on Articles containing Mineral Alkali, whereof Mineral Alkali is the most valuable Part, and also on Barilla, Kelp and Noreen, should be repealed, and that other Duties of Customs should be imposed in lieu thereof on Mineral Alkali, and on Articles containing Mineral Alkali, imported into that Part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Twenty-ninth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, the Duties of Customs payable by Law upon Mineral Alkali, and on Articles containing Mineral Alkali, whereof Mineral Alkali is the most valuable Part, and also on Barilla, Kelp and Noreen, imported into that Part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, do cease and determine, save and except in all Cases relating to the recovering or paying Arrears thereof which may remain unpaid, or to any Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture relating thereto, which shall have been incurred at any time before or on the Twenty-ninth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and nineteen; and that from and after the said Twenty-ninth Day of March, in lieu and instead of the Duties hereby repealed, there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid unto His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, a Duty of Customs on Alkali, and on Articles containing Alkali, imported into that Part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, according to a Table annexed to this Act marked [A.]: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to compel the Importers, Proprietors or Consignors of any of the aforesaid Articles to pay the Duties upon the Importation and landing thereof, or such such Importers, Proprietors or Consignors shall lodge and secure the same under the joint Locks of the Crown and the Merchant, under the Regulations required by an Act passed in the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for permitting certain Goods imported into Great Britain to be stored in Warehouses without Payment of Duty.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said Duties, and so other, shall be charged and payable on any of the said Articles, which having been warehoused or otherwise secured under the Authority of the aforesaid Act of Parliament without Payment of Duty, shall be taken out of any such Warehouse or Place wherein the same shall have been lodged or secured, for the purpose of being sold or consumed in this Kingdom, after the said Twenty-ninth Day of March, notwithstanding the same may have been imported into this Kingdom as or before the said Twenty-ninth Day of March.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Duty of Customs granted by this Act shall and may be managed, ascertained, raised, levied, collected, enforced, paid and recovered, in such and the like manner as the Duties on the said Articles hereby repealed were or might be managed, ascertained, raised, levied, collected, enforced, paid and recovered, and the Goods shall be subject and liable to all and every the Conditions, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Licences and Forfeitures, in such Goods were subject and liable to by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the said Twenty-ninth Day of March.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all Monies arising from the Duties imposed by this Act, the several Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted, shall from time to time be paid into the Receipts of His Majesty's Exchequer at Westminster, and shall be appropriated and applied in the same manner as the Duties of Customs imposed on the like Goods, under the Head of Permanent Duties, were directed to be appropriated and applied.

V. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament.

Duties on Mineral Alkali, do cease, and instead thereof, the Duties described in Table [A.] to be paid.

Importers not compelled to pay Duties of Goods warehoused or secured 49 G. 3. c. 128 above-mentioned Articles, have the same force and effect as if the same were inserted Word for Word therein: And Whereas by a Convention concluded in conformity to the said Ninth Article of the principal Treaty between His Majesty and His Most Christian Majesty, relative to the Examination and Liquidation of the Claims of the Subjects of His Majesty against the Government of France, and signed at Paris on the same Day, it was stipulated, 'That a Capital producing an interest of Three millions five hundred thousand Francs, commencing from the Twenty second Day of March One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, should be inscribed as a Fund of Guarantee in the Great Book of the Public Debt of France, in the Names of Two or Four Commissioners, the One Half English and the other Half French, chosen by their respective Governments; and by the Twelfth Article of the said Convention, certain Periods were appointed for bringing forward their respective Claims by His Majesty's Subjects, after the Expiration of which Period they were no longer to have the benefit of the Liquidation provided by the said Convention: And Whereas by an additional Article annexed to the said Convention, it was stipulated, that the Commission inscribed by the said Convention should proceed to the Liquidation of the Claims of the Subjects of His Britannic Majesty, founded on a Decision of His Most Christian Majesty, relative to the British Merchandise introduced into Bourdeaux, in conformity to the Tenth of Customs published in the above mentioned City by His Royal Highness the Duke of Angoulême, on the Twenty fourth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and sixteen: And Whereas by another Convention concluded at Paris on the said Twentieth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and fifteen (in conformity to the Ninth Article of the said principal Treaty), relative to the Examination and Liquidation of the Claims upon the French Government by Subjects of the Allied Sovereign Powers of Great Britain, Austria, Prussia and Saxony, it was agreed, that His Most Christian Majesty should cause to be liquidated, in the manner thereafter specified, all Sums which France should be bound to owe in Countries out of her Territory; and by the Fifth Article of the last mentioned Convention it was agreed, that a Commission of Liquidation should be appointed for the Examination of such Claims; and by the Twentieth Article of the said last mentioned Convention it was stipulated, that on the First Day of January then next following, there should be inscribed as a Guarantee Fund in the Great Book of the Public Debt of France, a Capital producing Three millions five hundred thousand Francs yearly Revenue, with Pollages, from the Twenty second Day of March One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, in the Name of Two, Four or Six Commissioners, One half the Subjects of His Most Christian Majesty, and the other half of the Allied Sovereign Powers; which said Commissioners were to be chosen and appointed, namely, One, Two or Three by the French Government, and One, Two or Three by the Allied Powers; and by the nineteenth Article of the said Convention a certain Period was appointed for the Presentation of the Claims of the Subjects of the Allied Powers, after the Expiration of which Period they were to forfeit all Right to Claim and Recovery: And Whereas His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the Name and on the behalf of His Majesty, was pleased, by a Commission under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, bearing date the Twenty seventh Day of December One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, to appoint Cole Alexander Mackenzie Esquire, George Lewis Newcomb Esquire, George Hammond Esquire, David Richard Marier Esquire, and James Drummond Esquire, to be His Commissioners of Liquidation, Arbitration and Depots, for the purpose of carrying into Effect, on the Part of His Majesty, the Provisions contained in the said last mentioned Convention of the Twentieth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and the additional Article thereto annexed: And Whereas the said Commissioners have caused to be inscribed in a Register, the Names of all the Claimants who presented themselves within the Period prescribed by the said Convention, and have liquidated and caused to be paid out of the said Fund of Guarantee, producing Three millions five hundred thousand Francs yearly Revenue, certain Sums, producing as the whole Two millions nine hundred and forty five thousand eight hundred and ninety five Francs yearly Revenue, to various Parties as inscribed in the said Register, deducting therefrom the Sum of Two per Cent. on the Amount of all the Claims so liquidated, for the purpose of answering to His Majesty's Government the Expenses of the said Commission; so that a Sum producing Five hundred and fifty four thousand one hundred and five Francs yearly Revenue, still remains of the said original Fund of Guarantee: And Whereas the said Commissioners did also liquidate divers Claims of the British Merchants trading to Bourdeaux: And Whereas by another Commission under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, bearing date the Thirtieth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the Name and on the behalf of His Majesty, was pleased to nominate and appoint George Hammond Esquire, George Lewis Newcomb Esquire, Cole Alexander Mackenzie Esquire, David Richard Marier Esquire, and James Drummond Esquire, to be His Commissioners of Liquidation, Arbitration and Depots, for the purpose of carrying into Effect, on the Part of His Majesty, the Provisions of the said Convention formerly mentioned, relative to the Claims upon the French Government by the Subjects of the several Allied Sovereign Powers: And Whereas the said Commissioners, under the said last mentioned Commission, have caused to be inscribed in a Register, the Names of all the Claimants who presented themselves within the Period prescribed by the said Convention: And Whereas a Convention between His Majesty and His Most Christian Majesty, was signed at Paris, on the Twenty fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and eighteen, for the final Arrangement of the Claims of His Majesty's Subjects upon the Government of France; by the First Article of which said last mentioned Convention it was agreed, that in order to effect the Payment and entire Extinction, as well of the Capital as of the Interest due to the Subjects of His Britannic Majesty, and of which the Payment had been claimed in virtue of the additional Article to the Treaty of the Thirtieth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, and also in virtue of the herebefore said last mentioned Convention of the Twentieth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and sixteen,

* there

• these should be inscribed in the Great Book of the Public Debt of France, a perpetual Annuity of Three Millions of France, representing a Capital of Sixty millions of France, and which Three millions should bear Interest from the Twenty second Day of March One thousand eight hundred and eighteen; and by the Second Article of the said last mentioned Convention it was stipulated, that each Part of the Annuity as was then disposable out of the Fund created in virtue of the Ninth Article of the same before first mentioned Convention of the Twentieth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, together with all the Interest accumulated thence from the Twenty second Day of March One thousand eight hundred and eighteen, should be equally applicable to the Payment of the said Claims, and in consequence that the Inscriptions of the above mentioned Annuity should be delivered over to the Commissioners of His Britannic Majesty, immediately after the Exchange of the Ratification of the said Convention of the Twenty fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and eighteen; and by the Third Article of the said Convention of the Twenty fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and eighteen, it was stipulated, that the Annuity of Three millions of France, which should be created in conformity to the above recited First Article of the said Convention, should be divided into Twelve Inscriptions of equal Value, all of which should bear Interest from the Twenty second Day of March One thousand eight hundred and eighteen, and should be inscribed in the Name of the Commissioners of His Britannic Majesty, or of such whom they shall appoint, and should be made over to them at the Rate of One of each of such Inscriptions in each successive Month, to begin from the Day of the Exchange of Ratification of the said Convention: And Whereas a certain other Convention was concluded on the said Twenty fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and eighteen, between His Britannic Majesty and His Most Christian Majesty, to which Convention the Emperors of Austria and of Russia, and King of Prussia, are all signing Parties; and by the First Article of the said last mentioned Convention, for the purpose of effecting the total Discharge of Debts contracted by France in Countries which do not form a Part of her proper Territory, with any Individuals, Corporations or Establishments whatever, Payment of which Debts is claimed in virtue of the Treaty of the Twentieth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, the French Government engages to make to be inscribed upon the Great Book of its Public Debt, with Interest from the Twenty second Day of March One thousand eight hundred and eighteen, a Sum of Twelve millions and forty thousand France, representing a Capital of Two hundred and forty millions eight hundred and forty thousand France; and by the Seventh Article of the said last mentioned Convention of the Twenty fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and eighteen, it was agreed, that the Sum, which shall be created in virtue of the Tenth Article thereof, shall be distributed among such certain Powers thereafter named as in the said Article is the Sainto Glorioso, the Re of France and other Countries under the Dominion of His Britannic Majesty, in One hundred and fifty thousand France: And Whereas certain additional Articles to the heretofore mentioned Convention, between His Majesty and His Most Christian Majesty, of the Twenty fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and eighteen, were signed at Paris in the Fourth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and eighteen; and by the First of the said additional Articles, the total Amount of the Payments to be made by France for the Discharge of certain Excesses of the same due to His Britannic Majesty, resulting from the Decision of His Most Christian Majesty relative to the Royal Merchandise introduced into Switzerland, in consequence of the Treaty of Commerce published the Fourteenth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, was fixed at the Sum of Four hundred and fifty thousand France; and by the Second of the said additional Articles it was agreed, that the said Sum of Four hundred and fifty thousand France should be paid into the Hands of the Commissioners appointed for the purpose by His Britannic Majesty, by certain Persons, so that the whole should be paid by the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and nineteen: And Whereas the whole of the said Sum of Four hundred and fifty thousand France has accordingly been paid into the Hands of the Commissioners appointed by the heretofore recited Convention, dated the Twenty seventh Day of November One thousand eight hundred and fifteen: And Whereas His Royal Highness The Prince Regent, acting in the Name and on the behalf of His Majesty, was pleased by His Commission under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, dated the Twentieth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and eighteen, to nominate and appoint Caleb Alexander Mackintosh Esquire, George Lewis Newcomb Esquire, and George Hammond Esquire, to be His Commissioners of Liquidation, Arbitration and Award, for the purpose of seeing on behalf of His Majesty in England, according to the Provisions of all the said heretofore recited several Conventions, and to take into Consideration all the Claims of His Majesty's Subjects, and of the Inhabitants of the Sainto Glorioso, which may have been at any time and in proper Form presented to them; and to award the Payment of such Sums as may appear to be justly due to His Majesty's said Subjects, and to the Inhabitants of the Sainto Glorioso: And Whereas His Royal Highness The Prince Regent, acting in the Name and on the behalf of His Majesty, was pleased, by His Commission under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, dated the first Fifteenth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and eighteen, to nominate and appoint Daniel Richard Mawer Esquire, and James Drummond Esquire, to be His Commissioners of Deposit, to receive from the Government of His Most Christian Majesty at Paris the Inscriptions to be delivered over to Royal Commissioners in and by the said several Conventions heretofore mentioned: And Whereas it is expedient to provide for the Execution of the Powers vested in the said several Commissioners: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, in order to enable the said Commissioners of Liquidation, Arbitration and Award, to complete the Examination and

Commissioners
of Liquidation
appointed to Articles of the Treaty signed by the several Conventions.

Liquidation of the Claims of such Parties who shall have caused their Names and Claims to be duly entered in the heretofore mentioned Registers, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, according to the Mode and Form which has hitherto been observed, and adapted to such and the like Deductions of Two per Cent. as have heretofore been made in the Liquidations already effected, in manner aforesaid, to apportion, divide and distribute the said several Sums of Money regulated by the said several Conventions to be provided by France, and to order the same to be paid to and among the several Claimants whose Names are duly entered in the said Registers; and where such Claimants shall have been or shall be adjudged to be entitled to Payment in the whole or in part of their Demands, to pay the Sums adjudged to be due to them in full, if the Sums entered and left to be received for that Purpose from the French Government shall be found sufficient for the Payment in full of all the Claims which shall be adjudged to be within the true Intent and Meaning of the said several Conventions, or any of them, or in part Payment thereof, in variable Proportions, if the said Sums shall be insufficient for the Payment of such Claims in full; and that such Payment in full or in part, and any Regulation of any such Claims as shall be by the said Commissioners, or on Appeal to His Majesty in Council in manner heretofore mentioned, be adjudged not to be within the true Meaning and Intent of the said Conventions or any of them, shall be respectively final and conclusive, and shall be held to be a full and entire Discharge of the French Government, and of His Majesty's Government, from any Demands in respect of any Claims falling within the Object and true Intent, Effect and Meaning of the said Conventions or any of them, and which have been entered in the said Registers during any Period allotted for that Purpose by the said several Conventions.

to be sworn.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners of Liquidation, Arbitration and Award, before they shall enter upon the Execution of this Act, shall take an Oath before the Mayor of the City for the time being, or One of His Majesty's Justices of the Court of King's Bench, Common Pleas, or Sessions of the Exchequer for the time being, and also the said Commissioners of Deposits, during their Residence in France, before His Majesty's Ambassador at the Court of France, which they or either of them are hereby respectively authorized and required to administer, in the Form following; that is to say,

Oath.

"I, A. B. One of the Commissioners of Liquidation, Arbitration and Award, for Deposits, at the city of Paris, appointed to carry into effect the Provisions of several Conventions concluded between His Majesty and His Most Christian Majesty The King of France, do swear, that according to the best of my Judgment and Knowledge, I will faithfully, impartially and truly execute the several Powers and Trusts vested in me by an Act of the Fifty sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intitled an Act (here insert the Title of the Act) according to the Tenor and Purport of the said Act, and according to the true Intent and Meaning of the said several Conventions. So help me GOD."

Commissioners
of Liquidation
to administer all Things in Oath;

who are to swear.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Liquidation, Arbitration and Award, or any Two of them, and they are hereby authorized and required, to continue upon Oath (which Oath the said Commissioners, or any Two of them, are hereby authorized to administer), all Persons, whether Parties or Witnesses, whom the said Commissioners, or any Two of them, shall think fit to examine touching all such Matters and Things as shall appear to them to be necessary for the Execution of the Powers vested in the said Commissioners by their Commission and this Act; and all such Persons are hereby desired and required punctually to attend the said Commissioners, at such time and place as they, or any Two of them, shall appoint.

False Evidence.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in case any Parties or Persons upon Examination upon Oath before the said Commissioners of Liquidation, Arbitration and Award, or any Two of them respectively, shall wilfully and corruptly give false Evidence, every such Person so offending and being thereof duly convicted, shall be and is and are hereby declared to be subject and liable in such Penes and Forfeitures as by any Law now in force in Great Britain Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury are subject and liable to.

Perjury.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of Liquidation, Arbitration and Award, and they, or any Two of them, are hereby authorized, as soon and in as soon may be time at such Place or Places, or any Two of them, shall think proper, with or without Adjournment, and to send their Process or Precepts under their Hands and Seals, or the Hands and Seals of any Two of them, for any Parties or Persons, whatsoever, and for such Books, Papers, Writings or Records, as they shall judge necessary for their Information, in the Execution of the Powers vested in the said Commissioners by their said Commissions, or by this Act.

His Majesty to fill up Vacancies in the Commission,
&c.

VI. And be it further enacted, That in case of any Vacancy or Vacancies, by Death or Resignation, or otherwise, of any One or more of the said Commissioners of Liquidation, Arbitration and Award, or of the said Commissioners of Deposits, it shall be lawful for His Majesty to nominate and appoint such Person or Persons as His Majesty may think proper, to supply such Vacancy or Vacancies; and that every Person so nominated and appointed to be a Commissioner of Liquidation, Arbitration and Award, shall take the Oath heretofore directed; and every Person so appointed under this Act to be any Commissioner upon any such Vacancy, shall be held and considered to be, and shall be credited with all such Powers as Commissioners of the like Nature have and possess under the Authority of the said heretofore recited Commissions and this Act.

Commissioners
of Liquidation
to make Order in Commission of Deposits for
Claims.

VII. And be it further enacted, That when and so often as the said Commissioners of Liquidation, Arbitration and Award, or any Two of them, shall at any time after the passing of this Act adjudge or approve of the Claims of any Parties or Persons under the said Commissions, or either of them, to be good and valid, in the Whole or in Part, and shall have authorized the Sum of Money to which any such Parties or Persons in or out thereof respectively entitled, the said Commissioners, or any Two of them, shall make out or cause to be made out, in such Form as they shall think fit, an Order or Orders for the Payment or Liquidation of such Claims, either either in Whole or in Part, either by authorizing the said Commissioners of Deposits to transfer to each Claimant or Claimants such Part of the Sum or Sums remaining undebited in the Great Book of the Public Debt of France, in the Name of the said Commissioners of Deposits, as shall be specified in such Order or Orders, or by authorizing the Claimant or Claimants to receive any Sum or Sums of Money, in the same way require; and the said Commissioners of Liquidation, Arbitration and Award, shall assign their Hands and Seals, or the Hands and Seals of any Two of them, to such Order or Orders, and shall send the same to be delivered to the Parties or Parties respectively entitled thereto, or to the Agent or Agents of such Parties or Parties; and such Parties or Parties, or their respective Agent or Agents, shall give to the said Commissioners their Receipts or Acquittances for the same, as the said Commissioners, or any Two of them, shall from time to time think or require.

Orders to be under Hands and Seals of Two Commissioners at least.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That any Order or Orders of the said Commissioners of Liquidation, Arbitration and Award, or any Two of them, shall at any time be sufficient Authority for the Transfer or Payment of any Sum or Sums mentioned in such Order or Orders, to the Parties declared to be entitled to the same by such Order or Orders; subject nevertheless to such Appeal to His Majesty in Council as is hereinafter mentioned and provided for.

Orders of Commissioners to be a sufficient Authority.

IX. And be it further enacted, That every Order made by the said Commissioners of Liquidation, Arbitration and Award, or any Two of them, under this Act, shall be transferable by the Indorsement thereon and Signature of the Parties or Parties to whom the same shall be made and given by the said Commissioners, or of any Parties or Parties holding the same, under any such Indorsement thereof as aforesaid, attested by Two credible Witnesses to such Indorsement respectively; and no such Order or Indorsement thereon shall be lawful for any Stamp Duty.

Orders of Commissioners of Liquidation made transferable by Indorsement and signed by Two credible Witnesses.

X. And Whereas Questions may arise on the Construction of the said several Conventions, or otherwise, for which it may be expedient to provide that there shall, in special Cases, be a Liberty of Appeal allowed from any Award, Judgment, Determination or Order of the said Commissioners of Liquidation, Arbitration and Award, to His Majesty in Council, subject to the Conditions and Restrictions hereinafter mentioned; Be it therefore enacted, That if any Claimant or Claimants shall be dissatisfied with any Award, Judgment, Determination or Order of the said Commissioners as his, her or their Claim, or any Part or Parts which, according to the Regulations in this Act contained, shall be deemed a fit Subject of such Appeal, it shall be lawful for such Claimant or Claimants, or for him, her or their Agent or Agents duly appointed respectively, within Three Calendar Months from the Day on which such Award, Judgment, Determination or Order shall be made and notified to him, her or them, to appeal thereunto to His Majesty in Council, upon giving Security by Bond to His Majesty in One hundred Pounds, to prosecute the said Appeal, and to satisfy such Costs as shall be awarded against such Appellant or Appellants thereon; and then it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council to hear and finally determine such Appeal, and to confirm, alter or reverse such Award, Judgment, Determination or Order of the said Commissioners, in the Whole or in Part, and to certify the Judgment or final Decision on such Appeal to the said Commissioners, and further to award such Costs as His Majesty in Council shall deem fit and proper to be paid by such Appellant or Appellants respectively, which Costs shall be applied towards defraying the Expenses incurred in defending such Appeal or Appeals, as hereinafter directed.

Costs.

XI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or any Three or more of them, to authorize and empower any Parties or Parties to defend such Appeal on the part of the said Commissioners of Liquidation, Arbitration and Award; and that the Expenses of defending the same shall be borne and paid in the same manner, and out of the same Fund, as the Law Expenses of the Causes are paid; and that the said Commissioners of Liquidation, Arbitration and Award, shall not be put to or be held liable to any Costs or Expenses relative to any such Appeal.

Power of defending such Appeal to be provided for by Treasury.

Commissioners not liable to Costs, but to give Security.

XII. And be it further enacted, That no new or additional Evidence shall be produced or received on any such Appeal, than the said Appeal shall be heard and finally determined upon the Evidence produced, taken or proceeded upon in the case before the Commissioners of Liquidation, Arbitration or Award, and none other.

No new Evidence admitted.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council to make such Orders as His Majesty shall think fit, respecting the Manner and Description of such special Cases in which it shall be deemed proper that such Liberty of Appeal as aforesaid shall be allowed, and further from time to time to make such Rules and Regulations respecting the Form and Manner of proceeding on such Appeals, as shall be deemed necessary or expedient.

Orders may be made for regulating Appeals.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That the Powers by this Act given to the said Commissioners of Liquidation, Arbitration and Award, or to the said Commissioners of Deposits, or any other Parties or Parties, for carrying into effect any Award, Judgment, Determination or Order of the said Commissioners of Liquidation, Arbitration and Award, shall from the time, when Notice of Appeal on any such Award, Judgment, Determination or Order shall be duly given to them, be suspended on such Claim or Claims in which any such Appeal or Appeals shall be interposed, and the Judgment or Decision of His Majesty in Council shall be had thereon and carried to the said Commissioners, and that such Judgment or Decision of His Majesty in Council shall be finally binding and conclusive as the said Commissioners respectively, and on all Parties; and that the said Commissioners respectively, and all other Parties, shall, so far as the said Judgment or Decision of His Majesty in Council shall be certified to them, on any such Award, Judgment, Determination or Order is appealed from, proceed therein, and do and execute all such Acts, Matters and Things as shall be necessary to be done and executed for carrying the said Judgment or Decision of His Majesty in Council into effect, and in the same manner as the said Commissioners respectively or other Parties are empowered to act for carrying into effect any Award, Judgment, Determination or Order made by the said Commissioners of Liquidation, Arbitration and Award, under the Provisions of this Act.

Commissioners to execute Judgment on Appeal.

In case of Dispute between Parties, Commissioners of Deposits to sell French Securities, and transfer to the Proceeds to Commissioners of Liquidation, who may order the same to be loaned to the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery in the Bank of England.

The Court may order Order thereon upon Motion, or Petition and Mandate.

Application of Remittances of Capital in the Great Book of Public Debt of France in the Hands of Commissioners of Deposit.

Commissioners not to be deemed Public Accountants; but their Accounts to be subject to Examination of Treasury. Commissioners to publish List of Claims investigated.

XV. And be it further enacted, That in case any Dispute shall arise between any Parties interested in any such Claims, and the Commissioners of Liquidation, Arbitration and Award, or any Three of them, to sell or dispose of the same, or the Competency of any such Parties or Persons to give a valid and effectual Receipt and Discharge for the same, then and in every such Case as aforesaid, it shall be lawful and for the said Commissioners of Deposits, under the Authority of His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or any Three of them, to sell and dispose of any such Part of any Capital subscribed in the said Great Book of the Public Debt of France, in pursuance and for the purpose of the several Conventions heretofore entered into, not appropriated to any other Claimants, as well be equal to the Amount of any such disputed Claims, and to transfer the Proceeds of such Sale to England, to the said Commissioners of Liquidation, Arbitration and Award, for the purpose of being applied to the Satisfaction of any such disputed Claims; and it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of Liquidation, Arbitration and Award, under the Authority aforesaid, to order any Part of any of the Proceeds of any Part of the said Capital which may have been previously invested in Exchange Bills or other Public Securities, under the Provisions in this Act contained, as may be equal to the Amount of any such disputed Claims, to be sold; and in either Case it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Liquidation, Arbitration and Award, to direct that the Sum or Sums of Money arising from any such Sale shall be paid into the Bank of England, in the Name and with the Privilege of the Accountant General of the High Court of Chancery, to be placed to his Account to the Credit of the Parties claiming to be entitled thereto, subject to the Order, Control and Disposition of the said Court of Chancery, which said Court of Chancery, on the Application by Motion or Petition of any Parties or Persons making Claim to such Sum or Sums of Money, or any Part thereof, shall be and is hereby empowered, as a summary Way of Proceeding or otherwise, as to the said Court shall seem, to order the same to be laid out and invested in the Public Funds, or other Public Securities bearing Interest, and to direct the Distribution thereof, and Payment of the Dividends or Interest thereof, according to the respective Interests of the Parties or Persons making Claim thereunto, and to make such other Order in the Premises as to the said Court shall seem just and reasonable; and the Cashier or Cashiers of the Bank of England, who shall receive such Sum or Sums of Money, as and are hereby required to give a Receipt or Receipts for such Sum or Sums, mentioning and specifying for what and for what Use the same is or are received, to such Parties or Persons as shall pay any such Sum or Sums of Money into the said Bank as aforesaid.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That during the time that any Capital subscribed in the Great Book of the Public Debt of France, in pursuance and for the purpose of the several Conventions heretofore entered into, or any Part of such Capital, shall remain in the Name of the said Commissioners of Deposits, and shall not have been appropriated to the Liquidation of any Claims of His Majesty's Subjects, under the said Conventions, or any of them, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Deposits, on receiving Directions to such effect from His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or any Three of them, to sell and dispose of any such Part of such Capital as aforesaid in the said Great Book of the Public Debt of France, and its unappropriated, and to transfer the Proceeds of such Sale to England, in the Commission of Liquidation, Arbitration and Award, under this Act, to be by them invested in Exchange Bills or other Public Securities bearing Interest, for the purpose of being applied to the Payment of Liquidation of any such Claims, or in case all such Claims shall be paid or liquidated, for such other Purposes as the said Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, or any Three of them, shall direct the said Commissioners of Liquidation, Arbitration and Award, to apply the same; and all such Exchange Bills, or other Public Securities bearing Interest, shall be deposited in the Hands of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, to the Account of and in the Name of the said Commissioners of Liquidation, Arbitration and Award, under this Act, and shall be and remain in the Name of such Commissioners for the time being, to be sold, and the Proceeds thereof paid and applied for the Purposes above specified.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners of Liquidation, Arbitration and Award, or the said Commissioners of Deposits, shall not, nor shall any of such Commissioners be deemed Public Accountants, in respect of any such Sums as aforesaid; but all the Accounts of the said Commissioners, either as to the Deposits or Receipt or Distribution of the said Sums, and all Matters and Things relating to the Execution of the said Commissions, shall be subject to the Examination and Audit of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or any Three or more of them, for the time being.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall cause to be published in The London Gazette, within Fourteen Days after the Fifth Day of July and Fifth Day of January in each Year, until the Periods of this Act are completed, a List of all the Claims which shall have been investigated and decided, either by the Admissions thereof in the Whole or in Part, or by the Rejection thereof.

C. A. P. XXXII.

An Act to continue until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, and amended to reach of an Act made in the Fifty fifth Year of His present Majesty, for granting, until the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, additional Duties of Excise in Great Britain, as relates to Tobacco and Snuff and certain Excise Licences. [19th May 1819.]

WHEREAS an Act made in the Fifty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for granting to His Majesty until the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, additional Duties of Excise in Great Britain, on Spirits, Tobacco, Snuff and English Liqueurs: And Whereas it is expedient that the same should be further continued, so far as relates to Tobacco and Snuff, and to the several annual additional Sums for and upon Licences to be taken out by every Assessor, Common Brewer, Maker of Wax or Sperm-corn Candles, Dealer upon Seller thereof not being a Maker, Candler or Maker of Candles other than Wax or Sperm-corn Candles, Trader or Vendor or Seller of Coffee, Tea, Cocoa Nuts or Chocolate, Glass Maker, Tinsmith, Tower, Dyer of Hides and Skins in Oil, Carver, Maker of Yellows or Parchments, Mulber, Maker of Mangles or Mould, Maker of Paper or Pulpboard, Paper Strainer, Trader in and Vendor or Seller of Gold or Silver Plate, and Peweebaker, and Refiner of Gold or Silver, Colour Printer, and Printer, Painter or Stainer of Silks, Laces, Cottons or Stuffs, Maker of Soap, Distiller or Maker of Low Wine or Spirit, Rectifier of Spirits, Dealer in Brandy or other Spirituous Liquors, not being a Retailer in Great Britain, or a Wholesale Seller of or Dealer in plain Aqua Vine only as distilled, Wholesale Seller of or Dealer in Aqua Vine only as distilled, not being a licensed Distiller, Rectifier, Compounder or Retailer of Spirits, and not being a licensed Dealer in Brandy or other Spirituous Liquors, Starch Maker, Maker of Soaps or Made Wines other than Mead, Retailer of Bragg Made Wines or Brews, Manufacturer of Tobacco or Snuff, Dealer in or Seller of Tobacco and Snuff, Maker of Yungus, Retailer of Foreign Wine, and Wine Drainer respectively, enumerated and defined in the Schedule of the said Act: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act, so far as aforesaid, shall from and after the said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, be and the same is hereby further continued until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty two.

II. And Whereas by the said Act made in the Fifty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, the Sum of Two Pounds ten Shillings is granted and imposed for and upon every Licence to be taken out, according to the Laws in such Case made and provided, by every Person trading in, vending or selling any Gold or Silver Plate, or any Goods or Wares in which any Quantity of Gold exceeding Two Pennyweights and under Two Ounces in Weight, or any Quantity of Silver exceeding Five Pennyweights and under Thirty Ounces in Weight, in any One separate or distinct Ware or Piece of Goods, is or are or shall be manufactured: And Whereas it is expedient that such Sum of Two Pounds ten Shillings should not extend to or be paid by any Person who shall trade in, vend or sell Silver or Gold Watches, but shall not fall any other Gold or Silver Plate, or any other Goods or Wares in which any Quantity of Gold exceeding Two Pennyweights and under Two Ounces in Weight, or any Quantity of Silver exceeding Five Pennyweights and under Thirty Ounces in Weight, in any One separate or distinct Ware or Piece of Goods, is or are or shall be manufactured: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, no Person trading in, vending or selling Silver or Gold Watches, and who shall not trade in, vend or sell, or offer or expose to Sale, any other Gold or Silver Plate, or any other Goods or Wares in which any Quantity of Gold exceeding Two Pennyweights and under Two Ounces in Weight, or any Quantity of Silver exceeding Five Pennyweights and under Thirty Ounces in Weight, in any One separate or distinct Ware or Piece of Goods, is or are or shall be manufactured, shall be required or liable to pay for or upon any such Licence as aforesaid, the said Sum of Two Pounds ten Shillings by the said recited Act granted and imposed, any thing to the said recited Act or this Act to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

III. And for abating all Differences touching the Quantity or Weight of Gold or Silver respectively manufactured or contained in any Ware or Piece of Goods, Be it declared and enacted, That all Goods, Wares and Merchandise, which shall be sold or offered for Sale, or taken to pawn, or delivered out as well for Gold or Silver respectively, shall be decreed and taken to be Gold or Silver respectively within the Interest and Meaning of the said recited Act of the Fifty fifth Year aforesaid, and of the Acts, and also of an Act made in the Fourth third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for repaying the Duties of Excise payable in Great Britain, and granting other Duties in lieu thereof, and of all other Acts now or which shall hereafter be in force relating to His Majesty's Revenue of Excise.

IV. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

CAP. XXXIV.

An Act to amend and render more effectual several Acts for enabling the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt to grant Life Annuities, and to empower the said Commissioners to grant Annuities for Lives or Years, for promoting the beneficial Purposes of the Fund commonly called The National Subscriptions. [19th May 1819.]

48 G. 3. c. 142.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for enabling the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt to grant Life Annuities; and which has been amended and rendered more effectual by several Acts passed for that Purpose in the Forty ninth, Fifty second, Fifty fifth, and Fifty seventh Years of the Reign of His present Majesty; (a); And Whereas it is expedient that the said Acts should be amended, and further Provisions made for rendering the same more effectual: And Whereas by the said several Acts, passed in the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, it is among other things enacted, that upon the Death of any single Nominee, or the Survivor of any Two joint Nominees, a Sum equal to One Fourth Part of the Annuity depending upon his or her Life (over and above all Arrears thereof respectively) shall be payable to the Person or Persons entitled to the said Annuity, or to his or her Executors, Administrators or Assigns, (as the case may be) on the Half yearly Day of Payment next succeeding the Death of such Nominee; and Doubts have arisen as to the time of paying the Arrears of such expiring Annuities, and also the Fourth Part thereof: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That upon the Provisions, by the Parties entitled to claim the Arrears of such expiring Annuity, to the proper Officer appointed by the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt under the said recited Act of the Forty eighth Year aforesaid, of a Certificate of the Death or Burial of such Nominee, together with an Affidavit in proof of the Identity of such Nominee, according to the Direction of the said recited Acts, or any of them, within Twenty one Days immediately preceding the Fifth Day of January, Fifth Day of April, Fifth Day of July, or Twelfth Day of October respectively in any Year, it shall and may be lawful for such Officer, and he is hereby authorized and required, at the Period of making the Half yearly Payment of the said Life Annuities next succeeding the Production of such Certificate and Affidavit (whether such expiring Annuity shall or shall not have been payable in such Half yearly Period), to grant to the Parties producing such Certificate of Death or Burial, and such Affidavit of Identity as aforesaid, a Certificate in the Form specified in the Schedule to the said recited Act of the Forty eighth Year aforesaid, marked (G.); and upon the same being lodged with the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, the said Governor and Company shall and they are hereby authorized and required to pay the Arrears which shall be due upon all or any Annuity or Annuities which shall have depended upon the Life of such single or surviving Nominee, and also the Fourth Part of every such expiring Annuity, in such each Fourth Part shall be claimed within Two Years after the Death of the Nominee, according to the Provision of the said Act of the Forty eighth Year aforesaid, to the Person or Persons entitled thereto, whether such expiring Annuity shall or shall not have been payable in such Half yearly Period, any thing in any Act or Acts now in force to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding. (a) [49 G. 3. c. 64. 50 G. 3. c. 112. 55 G. 3. c. 23. 57 G. 3. c. 26.]

II. And Whereas the Forms of Certificates in the Schedule to the said recited Act of the Forty eighth Year aforesaid, marked (A.) and (B.), have not been found effectual: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, the said Forms of Certificates shall be and the same are hereby repealed; and that in all Cases where, by the said recited Act, the said Forms are required to be used and applied, the General Forms marked (A.) and (B.) in the Schedule to this Act inserted shall be used and applied instead thereof: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed so as to prevent the Use of the said Forms marked (A.) and (B.) in the Schedule to the said recited Act of the Fifty seventh Year aforesaid, for the several purposes to which they are now applicable, notwithstanding the Repeal of the same, until the Adoption in law thereof of the Forms marked (A.) and (B.) contained in the Schedule to this Act inserted.

III. And Whereas certain Sums in Annuities (commonly called Long Annuities) are now standing in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, in the Names of certain Persons acting as Trustees of a Subscription denominated The National Subscriptions, under the Appointment of the Chairman and Managers of the said Subscriptions; and for the more effectually carrying into effect the beneficial Pur-

On Production of a Certificate of the Death of a Nominee, with Affidavit of Identity within the Periods therein mentioned, Officers to grant a Certificate, upon which the Bank shall pay the Arrears and the Fourth Part of the expiring Annuity, &c. claimed within Two Years after Death of Nominee.

Instead of the Certificates required by 49 G. 3. c. 64. marked (A.) and (B.) the Forms (A.) and (B.) inserted in this Act to be used.

The Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt may reof the said Subscription, it may be expedient to assign Part of the said Long Annuities to be assigned to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, as the Consideration for Annuities to be granted by the said Commissioners on the Lives of Persons intended to be benefited by the said Subscription, and to be converted for that Purpose and also to allow Part of the said Long Annuities to be transferred to the said Commissioners as the Consideration for other Annuities to be granted for a limited Term or Number of Years, for the Advantage of Persons intended to be benefited by such Subscription: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, at any time after the passing of this Act, from time to time to accept and receive from the Persons acting as Trustees of the said Waterloo Subscription for the time being, the Transfer of any Long Annuities standing in the Names of such Trustees as the Consideration for the Purchase of Life Annuities upon the Continuance of single Lives of Persons of the Age of Twenty one Years or upwards, to be charged upon and payable out of the Funds created for the Redemption of the National Debt, commonly called the Sinking Fund, to be paid to the said Trustees during the single Lives of any Persons whose such Charters and any Two Managers for the time being shall nominate and appoint for that Purpose, in manner hereinafter mentioned; such Annuities to be calculated according to the Rates specified and contained in the last revised Act of the Forty eighth and Fifty second Years of His present Majesty's Regency, and also that it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, from time to time, to accept and receive from such Trustees for the time being the Transfer of any Long Annuities standing in the Names of such Trustees, as the Consideration for the Purchase of Annuities for any limited Term or Number of Years, to be charged upon and payable out of the said Sinking Fund, and to be paid to the said Trustees according to such Rates and upon such Terms and Conditions as shall be from time to time agreed upon between the said Commissioners and the said Chairman and any Two Managers; and it shall and may be lawful for such Trustees for the time being, and they are hereby respectively authorised and empowered, from time to time, to transfer the said Long Annuities into the Names of the said Commissioners in the Books of the said Governor and Company, for such Purposes accordingly, under the Regulations in the Act contained.

IV. And be it further enacted, That previous to the granting any Life Annuities under this Act, the Chairman and Managers for the time being of the said Waterloo Subscription shall produce, or shall cause to be produced, to the proper Officers of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, a List of the several Persons proposed to be succeeded as the Persons during the Continuance of whose respective single Lives such Life Annuities shall respectively depend, which List shall contain the Christian and Surname of each and every such Person, together with his or her Residence or usual Place of Abode and Occupation, and also his or her Age, and the Amount of the Annuity or Annuities proposed to be purchased on the Continuance of his or her Life respectively, filled according to such Terms, as the said Commissioners shall direct or approve; and the said List shall be attested by and under the Hands of the Chairman and Two Managers of the said Waterloo Subscription for the time being, and also by three Jurors; and who shall also sign and declare therein the Amount of the Long Annuities proposed to be so transferred as the Consideration for the said Life Annuities; and such List, so attested as aforesaid, with the Statement and Declaration therein as aforesaid, shall be produced to the Officer of the said Commissioners, and shall be kept and preserved, and shall remain in the Office of the said Commissioners as a perpetual Record (and upon such Production of such List, Statement and Declaration to the said Officer, it shall and may be lawful for the said Officer, and he is hereby authorised and empowered to grant (without further Evidence) a Certificate to the said Chairman and Managers, or to any Person or Persons applying on their behalf (a Duplicate of which Certificate shall be transmitted by the said Officer to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England,) to authorise the Transfer to the said Commissioners of such Sum or Sums of the said Long Annuities as shall be so fixed and delivered to be the Consideration for the Purchase of the Life Annuities therein fixed; and the Amount of the said Life Annuities shall be computed by the said Officer according to the Tables of the Rates of Annuities granted upon the Continuance of single Lives, inserted in the said revised Act of the Forty eighth and Fifty second Years aforesaid.

V. And be it further enacted, That previous to the granting of any Annuity or Annuities for a limited Term or Number of Years, in pursuance of this Act, the Trustees of the said Waterloo Subscription for the time being shall produce, or cause to be produced, to the said Officer of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, a Declaration attested by and under the Hands of the Chairman and Two Managers for the time being of the said Subscription, and their Secretary, setting out the Amount of the Long Annuities proposed to be transferred into the Names of the said Commissioners, as the Consideration for the Purchase of any such Annuity or Annuities for a limited Term or Number of Years, and the Amount of the Annuity or Annuities for such limited Term or Number of Years, which the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt shall have agreed to grant in consideration of the Long Annuities so proposed to be transferred; and the said Officer shall thereupon grant a Certificate to the said Chairman and Managers, or to the Person or Persons applying on their behalf, to authorise the Transfer to the said Commissioners of such Sum or Sums of the said Long Annuities as shall be specified in such Certificate, and a Duplicate of such Certificate shall be transmitted by the said Officer to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England.

VI. And be it further enacted, That upon the Production and Delivery at the Bank of England of the several Certificates to be granted by the Officer of the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, in manner directed by this Act, and upon the Transfer to the said Commissioners of the said Long Annuities to be transferred as the Consideration for the Purchase of the said Life Life Annuities, or for the Purchase of the said Annuities for Years (as the case may be), the Person producing such Certificate shall be entitled to have a Certificate or Receipt from One of the Cashiers of the said Governor and Company, acknowledging

And be it further enacted, That upon the Completion of the Transfer of any such Long Annuities, as the Consideration for the Purchase of Life Annuities or of Annuities for Years, in pursuance of this Act, the Trustees of the said Wearside Subscription shall be entitled to receive, during the Life of the Person or Persons to be annuitized as aforesaid, or during the Term of Years for which such Annuities shall be granted (as the case may be), the Annual Amount of such Life Annuities or Annuities for Years as shall be specified in the Certificate to be granted as aforesaid, by the Officer of the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt; and all such Annuities, whether for Life or Years, shall be payable Half yearly to the said Trustees or to any of them, at the Bank of England, on the Fifth Day of January and the Fifth Day of July in every Year, or on the Fifth Day of April and the Tenth Day of October in every Year, as the case may require; and the First Half yearly Payment of all such Annuities shall commence and be ascertained as follows; that is to say, in all Cases where such Transfer shall be completed between the Fifth Day of January and the Fourth Day of April, both inclusive, the First Half yearly Payment of such Annuities respectively shall be due and payable on the Fifth Day of July next following such Transfer; and in all Cases where such Transfer shall be completed between the Fifth Day of April and the Fourth Day of July, both inclusive, the First Half yearly Payment of the said Annuities respectively shall be due and payable on the Tenth Day of October next following such Transfer; and in all Cases where such Transfer shall be completed between the Fifth Day of July and the Ninth Day of October, both inclusive, the First Half yearly Payment of the said Annuities respectively shall be due and payable on the Fifth Day of January next following such Transfer; and in all Cases where such Transfer shall be completed between the Tenth Day of October and the Fourth Day of January, both inclusive, the First Half yearly Payment of such Annuities respectively shall be due and payable on the Fifth Day of April next following such Transfer; and after the Death of any Annuitant, upon the Continuance of whose Life any Annuity shall have been granted in pursuance of this Act, all Arrears of the said Annuity shall be paid to the said Trustees up to and upon the Half yearly Day of Payment of such Annuity next following the Day of the Deaths of such Annuitant.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all such Long Annuities as shall be transferred into the Names of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt for the purposes of this Act, shall from time to time, as the same shall arise and become due, be received by the Governor or Deputy Governor of the Bank of England, and shall be placed to the Account of the said Commissioners in the Books of the said Governor and Company; and all sums so received shall form and constitute Part of the Fund for the Redemption of the National Debt, commonly called the Sinking Fund, and shall be applied from time to time by the said Commissioners in the same Manner and to such Purposes as the several Acts compelling the said Fund are made applicable by any Act or Acts in force at the time of the passing of this Act.

IX. And be it further enacted, That all Annuities, whether for Lives or Years, which shall be granted in pursuance of this Act, shall be charged and chargeable on the Sinking Fund, and they are hereby respectively made chargeable thereon, and shall be carried to distinct and separate Accounts in the Books of the Bank of England, and in the Books of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, under the Titles of "The Account of the Wearside Subscription Life Annuities," and "The Account of the Wearside Subscription Annuities for Years;" and it shall be lawful for the Governor and Company of the said Bank of England, and they, are hereby authorized and required, to set apart and retain from time to time out of the Monies commonly called the Sinking Fund, standing upon the Account of the said Commissioners in the Books of the said Governor and Company, a Sum sufficient to satisfy and pay all such Annuities, whether for Life or Years, to be granted in pursuance of this Act, from time to time as the same shall become due and payable, according to the Directions of this Act.

X. And be it further enacted, That previous to every Half yearly Payment of any Life Annuities granted under this Act, there shall be produced to the Officer of the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, by or on behalf of the Trustees of the said Wearside Subscription for the time being, a List made up to the Fifteenth Day of the Month immediately preceding the Day upon which such Half yearly Payment shall fall due, containing the Names of all such Numbers as, according to the fact of the Information and Belief of the said Trustees, shall have died within the Half Year ending upon the Day to which such List shall be made up, which List shall be certified by and under the Hands of the Clerks for the time being, and of any Two Managers for the time, of the said Subscription (such Chairman and Managers not being the Persons in whose Names such Life Annuities shall then be standing in the Books of the Bank), and such List shall be attested by the Secretary to the said Chairman and Managers; and upon the Production of the said List so attested and certified to the said Officer, the said Officer shall and he is hereby required, at the usual times of paying the said Annuities, to grant, without further Evidence, to such Trustees for the time being, or to One of them, a Certificate to enable the Trustees to receive the Life Annuities which shall appear to be remaining due and payable, deducting from time to time, according to the Provisions of this Act, the Amount of such of the said Life Annuities as shall appear to be expired and no longer payable, in consequence of the Deaths of any of the Numbers; and upon the Production of such Certificate, and the same being lodged with the Governor and Company of the said Bank, it shall and may be lawful for the said Governor and Company, and they are hereby authorized and required, to pay in One Sum to such Trustees, or to any One of them, out of the Monies to be retained and set apart for that Purpose as heretofore directed, the Amount of all such Life Annuities as shall appear to be then due: Provided always, that the said Officer shall from time to time, previsibly to the date of setting apart the said Monies, certify to the said Governor and Company the Half yearly Account of the said Life Annuities which shall be payable either or by virtue of this Act.

XI. And be it further enacted, That the Receipt of the Trustee or Trustees, who shall receive any such Life Annuity or Annuities for Years, shall at all times be a full, sufficient, and valid Discharge to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England for the paying of such Annuities; and also to the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, for all the Sums so paid; and neither the said Governor and Company nor the said Commissioners shall in any manner whatsoever be responsible or accountable for the Application, Misapplication or Non Application of the Sums so paid; any thing in any Act or Acts, or any other Decree, Matter or Writing whatsoever to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

XII. And be it further enacted, That no Life Annuity or Annuities for Years which shall be granted in pursuance of this Act, shall be transferrable or assignable, except only in Cases where any new Trustee or Trustees shall be appointed by the Chairman and Commissioners of Manages for the time being of the said Waterloo Subscription, according to the usual Forms and Rules for appointing any new Trustee or Trustees under which the said Subscription shall be regulated, in the Room of any former Trustee or Trustees; in which Case only it shall and may be lawful for the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and they are hereby authorized and required, to permit any existing Trustee or Trustees to transfer the Whole of such Life Annuity or Annuities for Years (but not any Part or Parts thereof) into the Names of new Trustees, or of the existing Trustee or Trustees and such new Trustee, as the Case may require: Provided always, that upon every such Change of Trustee or Trustees, a Certificate shall be produced at the Bank of England, by the Person or Persons applying to make such Transfer, attested by and under the Hands of the Chairman and Two Managers for the time being of the said Waterloo Subscription, and their Secretary, bearing the Appointment of such new Trustee or Trustees: Provided also, that Notice of every such Transfer shall be given to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, within Six Days after any such Transfer shall have been made by or on behalf of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, from time to time, whenever the same shall take place as aforesaid.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That an Account shall be made up to the Fifteenth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, and to the Fifteenth Day of December in every Year following, and shall be certified by and under the Hands of the Chairman and Two Managers for the time being of the said Waterloo Subscription, and their Secretary, stating the respective Amounts of all such Life Annuities granted under this Act, as shall have remained unclaimed from the said Trustee, for the Space of Three Years or upwards, and such Accounts shall be produced to the proper Officer of the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt; and the said Officer shall at the time of ascertaining the Amount of the Life Annuities payable under this Act, on the Fifth Day of January then next following, deduct from such Account the Amount of all such Annuities as shall have been retained unclaimed and unpaid: Provided always, that nothing in this Act shall extend, or be construed to extend, to defeat or prejudice the Right of the said Trustee in any such Annuity, or to claim the Arrears and future Payments thereof, upon the Production to the said Officer of the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, of a Certificate attested by and under the Hands of the Chairman and Two Managers for the time being of the said Waterloo Subscription (such Chairman and Managers not being Persons in whose Names any Annuities to be granted under the Provisions of this Act shall be granted,) and their Secretary, stating that the Person or Persons upon whose Life or Lives any such unclaimed Life Annuity shall have been originally granted, appears, from satisfactory Evidence produced to them, to be then living; and upon the Production of such Certificate to the said Officer, the said Officer shall within Six Days after the Receipt thereof, certify to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England the total Amount of the several Life Annuities which shall be so retained; and in every such Case it shall and may be lawful for the said Governor and Company, out of any Monies whatsoever which shall have been paid to them and carried in their Books to the Account of the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, to fitly apportion and return from time to time in such thereof as may be necessary for paying such unclaimed Life Annuities and all Arrears thereof.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That all Annuities for Lives or Years purchased under the Provisions of this Act, shall, upon the ceasing thereof, revert to and become Part of the said Sinking Fund, and shall from time to time be applicable to the Reduction of the National Debt, and shall from thenceforth be applied in the same manner as by the Laws now in force the said Fund is made applicable.

XV. And be it further enacted, That all Annuities for Lives or Years, purchased under the Provisions of this Act, shall be free from all Taxes, Charges and Impediments whatsoever, except such as Dividends or any of the Public Funds, or Annuities payable at the Bank of England, are or may be subject and liable to; and that no Certificate required in any Case to be produced to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or to the Officer of the said Commissioners for Reduction of the National Debt, or any Receipt for the Payment of any such Annuity, or any Part thereof, at the Bank of England, in virtue of this Act, shall be liable to any Stamp Duty whatever.

XVI. And in order to facilitate the Purpose of this Act, be it further enacted, That in every Case in which it shall and may be required to ask any Certificate or other Document for the purpose of any Transfer of Long Annuities, or for the Purchase or Payment of any Annuities for Lives or Years, granted under the Provisions of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the proper Officer of the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, to ask such Forms for the said Purposes respectively, as the said Commissioners shall deem most expedient to direct or adopt; any thing in this Act or in any other Acts to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Questions of Law reserved to the Court of Session.

Lord Ordinary to decide in the Questions of Law or Relevance, and may reserve Questions of Law for the Court of Session.

II. And be it enacted, That if it shall appear to the Purvis, or either of them, that there is a Question of Law or Relevance which ought to be decided previous to the Remit of the Cause to the Jury Court, it shall be competent for them to raise the same orally to the Lord Ordinary; who, if he thinks fit, may give Judgment: or else, or order Productions on the alleged Questions of Law or Relevance; and if he orders Productions, then the Cause is to be proceeded in according to the Course of the Court of Session; and in so far as such Questions of Law or Relevance shall be disposed of, if Matters of Fact remain to be proved, the whole Pleas and Productions in the Cause shall be forthwith sent to the Jury Court for the Purposes aforesaid.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall be competent for the Lord Ordinary, if it shall appear to him that there is a Question of Law or Relevance which ought to be decided previous to the Remit of the Cause to the Jury Court, forthwith to order such Cause to be remitted to the said Court, for the purposes aforesaid: Provided always, that it shall also be competent for the Lord Ordinary, if he sees cause, to reserve the alleged Questions of Law for the Consideration of the Court of Session, after the Matters of Fact shall have been found by a Jury; and in all such Cases, the Intepositor of the Lord Ordinary, ordering the Cause to be

be remitted to the Jury Court, whether with or without a Reformation of the alleged Question of Law, shall not be subject to Review by Representation, Petition, Appeal to the House of Lords or otherwise.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lords Ordinary, in all Cases other than the Actions for Damages heretofore enumerated, when Matters of Fact are to be proved, to order the whole Pleadings and Productions in the Cause to be remitted to the Jury Court, without reporting to the Inner House; and the said Jury Court is hereby authorized and required to settle an Issue or Issues, and try the same by a Jury, in manner aforesaid; and if it shall appear to the said Lords Ordinary to be expedient for the due Administration of Justice, they may pronounce an Interlocutor pointing out the Matters of Fact which they require to be determined by a Jury; and the said Jury Court is hereby authorized and required to settle an Issue or Issues, in Terms of such Interlocutor, and such other Issue or Issues as may arise out of the Examination of the Case by the said Court, and to try the same by a Jury, in manner aforesaid.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful for the Lords Ordinary, in all Cases other than the Actions for Damages heretofore enumerated, when Matters of Fact are to be proved, to prepare and settle an Issue or Issues without reporting to the Inner House; and to remit the same when settled to the Jury Court, to be there tried by a Jury; but nothing herein contained shall take away from the Lords Ordinary, in such Cases, the Power of reporting an Issue or Issues to the Inner House, in the Manner and Form now in Use.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful and competent for the Court of Session in either of its Divisions, in all Cases depending in the Inner House, in which Matters of Fact are to be proved, if it shall appear to them expedient for the due Administration of Justice, to order and direct, by Special Interlocutor, the whole Pleadings and Productions to be remitted to the Jury Court, for the said Court to settle an Issue or Issues, and to try the same by a Jury, as aforesaid; and if it shall appear to the said Divisions to be expedient for the due Administration of Justice, they may pronounce an Interlocutor, pointing out the Matters of Fact which they require to be determined by a Jury, and the said Jury Court is hereby authorized and required to settle Issues, in Terms of such Interlocutor; and the said Court may likewise settle such other Issues as may arise out of the Examination of the Case by the said Court, and try all such Issues by a Jury in manner aforesaid.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be competent and lawful for either Division of the Court of Session, in all Processes other than the Actions of Damages heretofore enumerated, when it shall appear to them expedient for the due Administration of Justice, to prepare and settle an Issue or Issues, and to send the same to the Jury Court, to be there tried by a Jury, in manner aforesaid.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the said Divisions, or the Lords Ordinary, in all Processes which come before them for Judgment after Verdict, may direct such further Issue or Issues as they may see necessary, to enable them to pronounce Judgment in the Cause.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be competent to the Judges of the Jury Court to order and direct any Facts not falling under the Issues, but which shall appear evidential, and which they shall deem material to the Merits of the Case, or important to the Decision of the Law, to be heard by the Jury, and to be subscribed on the Issue or Issues, or on a Paper or Parchment to be attached to the Issue or Issues, and certified under the Hand of the Judge who tries the Cause, and returned with the Verdict and Issues to the Division of the Court of Session, or the Lords Ordinary, by whom the Case was first to the Jury Court.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful and competent for the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, in all Processes relating to the running down of or under Injury to Ships, and relating to Policies of Insurances and Charter Parties, and in all Maritime and Mercantile Causes, competent to his Jurisdiction as a Civil Judge, wherein Matters of Fact are to be proved, to order, by Special Interlocutor, the whole Pleadings and Productions, without reporting to the Court of Session, to be remitted to the Jury Court; which Court is hereby authorized and required finally to settle the Issue or Issues in the Cause as remitted, and to try the same by a Jury in manner aforesaid; Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the Judge Admiral, in all Cases which come before him for Judgment after Verdict, from directing such further Issue or Issues as he may see necessary, to enable him to pronounce Judgment thereon. And it shall likewise be competent to the Judges of the Jury Court to order and direct any Facts not falling under the Issues, but which shall appear evidential, and which they shall deem material to the Merits of the Cause, or important to the Decision of the Law, to be heard by the Jury, and to be subscribed on the Issues, or on a Paper or Parchment to be attached to the Issue or Issues, and certified under the Hand of the Judge who tries the Cause, and returned with the Verdict and Issues to the Judge of the Admiralty Court.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be competent to either of the Parties in any such Action in the Court of Admiralty, if the Judge Admiral shall wish, to order a Remit to be made to the Jury Court, as heretofore authorized and allowed, for the purpose aforesaid, to apply for a Review of the Deliberance to that effect to the Court of Session, in either of its Divisions, by Petition, to be intimated Three Days before the same is heard; which Court, if it shall see cause, is hereby authorized to pronounce an Interlocutor referring the Judge Admiral to make such Return.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be competent and lawful for the Jury Court, when it appears to the said Court in the course of settling an Issue or Issues, or at any time before Trial, in the Cause remitted to them as aforesaid, that there is a Question or Questions of Law or of Relevancy which ought to be previously decided, to send back the whole Pleadings and Productions to the Division Division of the Court of Session, the Lord Ordinary or Judge, Admiral, who remained the same to the Jury Court, that the Questions or Questions of Law or Relevancy may be considered and determined there: Provided always, that it shall be lawful to the said Division, Lord Ordinary or Judge Admiral, when Matters of Fact shall after such Consideration or Determination remain to be proved, again to commit the whole Process and all the Productions to the Jury Court, in order that an Issue or Issues may be prepared and tried as aforesaid: Provided further, that it shall be competent to the said Division and Lords Ordinary to prepare and frame an Issue or Issues in manner aforesaid, for the purpose aforesaid, and it shall be competent for the Jury Court, when it appears to the said Court in the course of trying an Issue or Issues, that a Case (such upon Matters of complicated Accounts, or other Matter to which Trial by Jury is not beneficially applicable, to remit back the whole Process and Productions as aforesaid, with their Report thereon, in order that the Division, Lord Ordinary or Judge Admiral, may proceed with the Issue in such manner as shall appear to be most expedient for the Administration of Justice.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to prevent the Court of Session, in either of its Divisions, or the Lords Ordinary, (save and except in the Cases concluding for Damages heretofore accustomed), or the Judges, Admirals, unless otherwise intimated as aforesaid by the Court of Session, to take Proof on Commission, by Return, or in private, and thereafter disposing of the Cause in the manner now provided in such Cases.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases brought from an inferior Court to the Court of Session, where Proof by Witnesses has been taken by Order of the inferior Court, the Court of Session, in either of its Divisions, or the Lords Ordinary, if they deem further Proof to be expedient to be taken, shall direct the same to be taken, and the Investigation of the Facts to be completed according to the Forms of the said Cause, unless the Parties consent to waive the Depositions of such Witnesses as are alive and within Scotland: in which case it shall be competent for the Court of Session, or Lords Ordinary respectively, to direct the Cause to be first to the Jury Court, in manner provided by this and the aforesaid Act of the Fifty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall restrain the Court of Session, in either of its Divisions, or the Lords Ordinary, from directing Issues in the Cases brought before them from an inferior Court, notwithstanding, on any Point or Points not connected with the Proof already taken before such Court.

XV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall not be competent by Representation, including Petition, Bill of Advocates, Appeal to the House of Lords, or otherwise, to bring under Review any Interlocutor by the said Division, Lords Ordinary or Judge of the Admiralty, ordering a Trial by Jury.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases in which General Verdicts are found by a Jury, all Motions for setting aside the Verdict, and granting a new Trial, shall hereafter be made in the Jury Court, and not in the Court of Session; and the Order for granting or refusing a new Trial by the Jury Court shall be final, and not subject to Review, by Petition, Representation, Appeal to the House of Lords, or otherwise, and there shall be at least Two Judges in Court when a Motion is made for a new Trial, or an Order is pronounced granting or refusing the same.

XVII. And be it hereby enacted, That if any Motion for setting aside the Verdict be founded on the Misdirection of the Judge at the Trial in Matter of Law, or on the undue Admission or Rejection of Evidence, it shall be competent to the Party against whom Judgment is given by the Jury Court, to tender a Bill of Exceptions to such Judgment in the same manner as in a Trial; and the Proceedings on such Bills of Exceptions shall be conformable in all respects to the Provisions of the Act of the Fifty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, heretofore recited, regarding Bills of Exceptions: Provided always, that in all Cases remitted by the Court of Admiralty to the Jury Court, the Bills of Exception shall be presented by the Judge of the Jury Court to the Divisions of the Court of Session aforesaid, beginning with the First Division: provided further, that Motions for new Trials on a Special Verdict, or Special Findings, shall be made in the Division of the Court of Session from which the Proceedings were sent to the Jury Court, or against directed by the said remitted Act of the Fifty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty: Provided nevertheless, that the Interlocutor to be pronounced on such Motions shall be final, and shall not be subject to review by Petition, Representation, Appeal to the House of Lords, or otherwise.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases of new Trial in which a Bill of Exceptions to a Division in the Jury Court is presented to the Court of Session, the Process and Productions shall remain in the Jury Court, in order to enable that Court to proceed in the new Trial, if the Judgment shall be reversed; or to proceed to pronounce Judgment upon a General Verdict, or case it shall be affirmed: Provided always, that it shall be competent to the Divisions of the Court of Session to order the said Process and Productions to be brought into the said Division, when it shall deem the same to be necessary; and after an Interlocutor shall be pronounced upon the Bill of Exceptions, the said Process and Productions shall be returned to the Jury Court, for the purpose aforesaid; and that in all Cases of Special Verdicts or Special Findings, in all Cases where the Judgment of the Jury Court on a Bill of Exceptions, either that new Trials, is affirmed, the whole Process and Productions shall be forthwith remitted to the Court of Session, that the said Court may proceed to discuss the Law of the Case, and pronounce Judgment thereon.

XIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases where the Verdict of the Jury exhausts the Consideration of the Action, (except certain cases as hereafter provided,) it shall and may be lawful, after the Elapse of the time allowed for moving for a new Trial, or after a new Trial shall have been finally refused, for the Judge or Judges of the Jury Court, by a Judgment or Deliverance on the Verdict to be affirmed and to be subscribed by the presiding Judge, without the Necessity of any Motion to that effect, to certify that all manner of legal Execution shall pass upon the same in common Form; and it shall and may be lawful for the Judge or Judges of the Jury Court to award not only the Expenses incurred in the said Court, but also the previous Expenses incurred in the Court of Session, Court of Admiralty or Inferior Court, and to require the Assister of the Court of Session to use the same; and the said Judgments shall specify the Expenses, in the said Courts, and in the Jury Court; and a Copy of the Verdict and Judgement, certified under the Hand of One or other of the Clerks of the Jury Court, shall be a sufficient Warrant for all legal Diligence and Execution, and equally effectual to all Intents and Purposes as if the same were an extracted Decree of the Court of Session, and shall be observed as such by the Lords Ordinary on the Bills, Clerks of the Bills, Keepers of the Signet and all others; and that the Letters under the Signet shall in each Case bear, that they proceed on the Judgment of the Commissioners of the Jury Court, in those Instances in which, according to the present Practice, they bear that they proceed on the Decree of the Lords of Council and Session; and the original Verdict and Judgement thereon, together with the whole Steps of Process, and such Productions as may not have been taken up by the Parties certified thereon, shall in all such Cases be transmitted for Preservation to the Keeper of the Records of the Court of Session, and in other respects dealt with in the same Way and Manner as the extracted Process in the Court of Session are or may be transmitted and dealt with.

XX. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in Special Verdicts, and in all Cases where the Verdict contains any Special Findings, which may require the Judgment of the Court of Session as the Law, and also in all Processes of Reduction or Declarator, and in all Processes wherein the Decree to be pronounced will form a Part of the Title, or will affect or qualify the Title to any Heritable Estate, the Verdict, with the whole Process and Productions, shall be returned to the Court of Session, in order that the said Court may pronounce Decree in the said Cause: Provided always, in Cases assigned by the Admiralty Court, when the Return by the Jury is in the Form of a Special Verdict or Special Findings, which may require the Judgment of the Judge Admiral on the Law, the Verdict, with the whole Process and Productions, shall be returned into the Admiralty Court, that the Judge Admiral may pronounce Judgment in the Cause; and that in Cases certified by the Court of Admiralty, the Bills of Exception shall be returned to the Divisions of the Court of Session alternately, beginning with the First, unless the Case was first to the Jury Court in consequence of a Petition to the Court of Session immediately entered, in which Case the Bill of Exception shall be returned to the Division to which the previous Petition was preferred.

XXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be certain distinct Periods of the Year for the Meeting of the Jury Court, to be called The Terms, allowed for such Matters as do not require the Intervention of a Jury; and that there shall be certain other distinct Periods, to be called The Settings, allotted for Trials by Jury; and the Jury Court shall, for the Purposes first aforesaid, keep and observe Four Terms in every Year, whereof One, to be called the January Term, shall commence yearly on the Twelfth of January, and shall end on the Twelfth Day of February; another, to be called the May Term, shall commence yearly on the Twelfth Day of May, and shall end on the Fifth Day of June; another, to be called the June Term, shall commence yearly on the Sixteenth Day of June, and end the Tenth Day of July; and the Fourth, to be called the November Term, shall commence yearly on the Twelfth Day of November, and shall end on the Tenth Day of December; and if any of the said Days on which the said Terms shall begin or end shall happen to be a Sunday, then each Term respectively shall begin or end on the next Day following.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That the said Court shall, for the Purposes first aforesaid, keep and observe Three Settings in every Year, One to commence on the Day immediately after the January Term, another to commence the Day immediately after the June Term, the other to commence the Day immediately after the November Term; and if any of the said Days on which the said Settings shall begin shall happen to be a Sunday, the said Settings respectively shall begin on the Day next following; and all such Settings shall be held, if necessary, from day to day, on every lawful Day, and shall be concise and rapid, according to Economy of Subjects; and it shall likewise be competent to the said Court to appoint Cases to be tried by Jury at other times than the regular Settings, when in their Judgment it shall appear to be necessary; and the Judges of the said Court shall hold Courts in the Spring and Autumn Vacations, as is better provided.

XXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Proceedings for preparing and setting off, for hearing and determining all Matters necessary for forwarding Cases to be tried by Jury, the Hearing of all Motions respecting Judgments, new Trials, Expenses of Process; all Applications for Remits to the Court of Session, and all other Matters and Things falling within the Jurisdiction of the Jury Court, and not requiring the Intervention of a Jury, may and shall be heard and determined during the Term only: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prevent One or more Judge or Judges of the Jury Court from making Orders out of Terms, on the Application of Parties by the Council, respecting Commission for the Examination of Witnesses, respecting the Production of certain Evidence previous to a Trial by Jury; and in all other Matters and Things relative to furthering the Trial of Causes at the Settings or on the Vacations, in such Case Application could not have been made during the preceding Term; such Judge or Judges being furnished, by Affidavit or otherwise, that the Application to make could not have been made in the preceding Term; and nothing herein contained shall prevent the Judge or Judges presiding at the Trial of any Cause from putting off the same on account of the Absence of material Witnesses or Witnesses, or for any other Cause in which Justice requires that a Trial should be put off; provided it is ascertained, by Affidavit to the Satisfaction of the Judge or Judges, that there is good Cause for so doing, and that such Cause could not have been removed in time to have moved the same in the preceding Term.

XXIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, in all Processes in which the Jury Court is to decide the Issues, That Rules and Regulations shall be and are hereby directed to be framed for ordering Contumacials.

defenceless and Answer, by virtue of the Authority given in this Act for making Rules and Regulations, in that the Considerations and Answers may either be in the Court of Session or in the Jury Court, as may be found most expedient; and in all Cases in which Considerations and Answers shall be ordered in the Jury Court, the Clerk of the said Court shall collect the Fees on such Proceedings payable in the Court of Session, and shall account to the Officer in the Court of Session entitled to receive the same, for all Fees which shall be so collected.

Provision as to the Sum to be paid to Jurors.

XXV. And he is further enabled by the Authority aforesaid, That the Amount of the Sum to be paid to each Juror for sitting on a Jury shall be regulated by the Order of the Judge or Judges presiding at the Trial; provided that the said Judge or Judges shall not order more to be paid to any Jurymen than Twenty Shillings for any One Trial, unless in Cases of Adjournment to a Second Day, when the Sum to be paid to him may, in the Discretion of the Judge or Judges, be extended to Forty Shillings; every such Sum to be paid by the Parties in manner now provided and to be kept.

Jury Court to proceed upon absent Jurors.

XXVI. And he is further enabled by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall no longer be necessary for the Officer of any Sheriff or Stewart, Depute or Substitute to attend in the Jury Court for the purpose of procuring the Service of a Summons served on any Juror, for enabling the said Court to proceed to impose a Fine on such Juror for not obeying their Summons, but it shall hereafter be lawful for the Jury Court, at its Stages or Chambers, so provided in respect to absent Jurors according to the Course which prevails in the Court of Justiciary.

Attendance of Officers on the Judges.

XXVII. And he is further enabled by the Authority aforesaid, That the Sheriff's Depute and Substitute of Counties, and the Magistrates of Burghs, at the Place where the Judges of the Jury Court hold their Circuit, shall furnish the same Attendance of Officers on the Judges of the said Court on such Occasions, as is in use to be provided for the Lords of Justiciary on their Circuits, and the Expenses thereof shall be reimbursed to the said Sheriff's and Magistrates in the same Manner as is now done in the Case of the Justiciary Circuit.

Jury Court may compel the Attendance of Witnesses, &c.

XXVIII. And he is further enabled, That it shall be competent to the Jury Court to issue their Order or Orders, Diligence or Diligences, for summoning Witnesses, and for Production of Writings, and for all other Matters and Things which the said Court may judge proper and necessary, in Manner and Form as is provided by the Court of Session; and that the said Jury Court shall have the same Power and Authority in granting the Protection to Witnesses, committing for Perjury and Contempt, in every respect, in Cases depending before them, as is competent to the Court of Session, without any Exception or Limitation whatever; and that the Orders of the said Court shall be executed by all Public Officers in the same Way as the Orders of the Court of Session; which the said Public Officers and Magistrates are hereby exposed and authorized to execute accordingly.

Power to Lords Commissioners of Jury Courts to make Rules and Regulations for the Proceedings of the Court.

XXIX. And he is further enabled by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of the Jury Court, or any Two of them, to absolve from time to time, and as often as there shall be occasion, for the purpose of framing such Rules and Regulations as may be necessary for sitting on like or unlike, and for ordering the Forms of Process, and regulating the Proceedings in the said Court, in all Matters and Things falling within the Jurisdiction of the said Court; and that the said Rules and Regulations shall be reported to the Court of Session, aforesaid for the purpose by the Authority of the Lord President, together with the Lords Commissioners of the Jury Court, who shall take the same into consideration; and upon such Report being approved, the same shall be entered in the Books of Orders of the Court of Session, and in the Session Book of the Jury Court: Provided always, that such Regulations as are applicable, not only to the Jury Court but also to the Court of Session, shall be framed in the Manner provided by the said Act of the Fifty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty.

Regulation of Jury Court and Clerk of Session to be according to Act G. 3. c. 44.

XXX. And Whereas great Inconvenience has arisen in the Administration of Justice in the Jury Court, in consequence of the Regulations now in force respecting the procuring of Witnesses by the Agents of Parties, also respecting the Cross Examination of Witnesses, and in other Matters of Regulation as to Evidence: Be it enabled by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful for the Judges of the Court of Session, and of the Jury Court, being assembled for the purpose of passing Acts of Endorsement, as provided by the said Act of the Fifty fifth Year of His present Majesty, to make Acts of Endorsement, establishing such Regulations and Rules of Court for the Preparation of Evidence and the Examination of Witnesses, as shall be expedient for the due Administration of Justice in the Jury Court.

and to both Courts for the Cross Examination of Witnesses.

An additional Clerk to the Jury Court to be appointed.

XXXI. And he is further enabled by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the First Day of December One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to appoint a Fourth Clerk to the said Jury Court, in the Manner in which the present Clerks of the said Jury Court were directed to be appointed by the said recited Act passed in the Fifty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, with a Salary not exceeding the Sum of Six hundred Pounds per Annum, payable in the same Manner and at the same Periods as the Salaries authorized to be granted to the present Clerks of the said Jury Court are directed to be paid and are payable by virtue of the said recited Act; and the said Salary of such Clerk, as well as the Salaries of the other Clerks of the Jury Court shall be subject to such and the like Taxes and Deductions and more other, as which the Salaries granted to the Clerks of the Court of Session are subject and liable.

Three additional Clerks to be appointed.

XXXII. And he is further enabled by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said First Day of December One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to appoint Three Assistant Clerks, or Clerk's Clerks, to the said Jury Court, with Salaries not exceeding the Sum of Three hundred Pounds per Annum to each, payable in the same Manner and at the same Periods Periods as the Salaries entailed to be granted to the Clerks of the said Jury Court are directed to be paid by the said recited Act and this Act.

XXXIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases in which the Jury Court is authorised to reward and allow Expenses, the Accounts of such Expenses shall be certified, taxed and reported upon, by the Person according the Office of the Auditor of the Court of Session in either of its Divisions, who shall be and is hereby declared to be Auditor of the said Court; and such and the like Fees shall be paid to such Auditor as in the Case of Accounts of Expenses audited, taxed and reported upon in the Court of Session, under the Authority of an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, entitled An Act for abridging the Form of auditing Debts of the Court of Session, and for the Regulation of certain Parts of the Proceedings of that Court; and such Auditor shall become entitled to the said Fees from and after the First Day of December and the Twelfth Day of January next, according as Expenses in the Court of Session or other Courts, or to the Jury Court, may arise and are awarded by the Jury Court.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case of the Absence from Their ordinary sufficient Clerk of the Clerk or Clerks of the Jury Court, either at Edinburgh or on the Circuit, it shall be lawful for the presiding Judge to appoint, by Writing, signed by the said Judge, and afterwards to be entered in the Serjeant Book of the Court, a proper Person to act as Clerk for the Occasion, to whom the Oaths appointed to be taken by the Clerks of the Jury Court shall be administered previous to his sitting.

XXXV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in Cases where an Order for a View has been obtained, and that the Place to be viewed lies in the Counties of Edinburgh, Glasgow and Ayr, which Counties are not required to find Jurors to Foremen, the Sheriffs Deputes or Substitutes of the said Counties respectively shall return Three Persons of the County in which the Action lies, to be the Viewers; and that the said Viewers shall be bound to attend at the Trial, and be first called to serve on the Jury; the Master of proceeding to take the View and the Qualification of the Jurors being subject always to the Regulations now in force respecting Views, and respecting the Qualification of Jurors; and if from any Cause it shall be expedient that Viewers should be first from a neighbouring County, the Jury Court shall issue an Order for a certain Number of Jurors of the nearest County from which it may be expedient that Viewers should be taken, and they shall be bound to attend the View, and shall be first called to serve on the Jury, as at present practised.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Jury Court in Civil Causes, created under the Authority of the aforesaid Act of the Fifty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, with all the Officers belonging thereto, and to the Lord Chief Commissioner thereof, shall remain in all time coming a Part of the Judicial Establishment of Scotland, and of the College of Justice therein, subject to such Regulations, for the better Administration of Justice, as may hereafter be made by Parliament.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall take effect in directing the Proceedings of the Court of Session from and after the First Day of December next, and in directing the Proceedings of the Jury Court from and after the Twelfth Day of January next, except as in the framing and passing Rules and Regulations, which, as heretofore enacted, may be framed and passed at any time from and after passing of this Act; ~~nothing always, when it shall be necessary for the aforesaid Courts, respectively, granted in Manus and Time now presently, until the First Day of December next~~
~~Twelfth Day of January aforesaid.~~

XXXVIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That so much of the said recited Act of the Fifty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, as requires that the Chief Commissioner of the Jury Court be a Senator of the College of Justice, or a Baron of Exchequer in Scotland, be and the same is hereby repealed; but that no Person shall be appointed to be Chief Commissioner of the said Court, unless he be qualified to be appointed a Senator of the College of Justice; and when at any time the Person holding the said Office shall not hold any other judicial Office than that of Chief Commissioner, every such Person, during the time he shall hold the said Office of Chief Commissioner and no other judicial Office, shall be entitled to such Salary as shall be equal to the Salary of the Person holding the Office of Lord Justice Clerk in Scotland; and such Salary to such Chief Commissioner shall be directed to be paid, and shall be payable, in the Manner and at the same Periods as the Salary granted to the Person holding the Office of Chief Commissioner of the Jury Court is now, by virtue of the said recited Act passed in the Fifty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, directed to be paid.

XXXIX. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, entitled An Act for enabling His Majesty to grant Salaries to the Judges of the Courts of Session, Admiralty and Exchequer in Scotland, upon the Requisition of their Office; it was enacted, that it should and might be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by His Majesty's Sign Manual, to give and grant unto any Person who should have requested the Office of Lord President of the Court of Session, or of the Lord Justice Clerk, or of the Lord Chief Baron of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, and who should have respectively signed any such Office, an Annuity or yearly Sum of Money, not exceeding Three fourth Parts of the Salary appertaining to each such Office at the Period of the Requisition thereof, to commence and to be paid in the Manner and Subject to the Conditions contained in the said recited Act; And Whereas it is resolutely understood that Annuities should in like manner be granted to the Lord Chief Commissioner, and the other Commissioners of the Jury Court, upon the Requisition of their respective Offices; and also, that the Successor of every such Commissioner should in like manner be entitled to have and receive such Allowance or Pensions as may arise and become due from the Death or Resignation of his Predecessor; He be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Succession, by His Majesty's Sign Manual, to give and grant unto any Person who shall have executed the Office of Lord Chief Commissioner, or of a Commissioner of the Jury Courts, as well before as after the passing of this Act, and who shall have respectively resigned any such Office, an Annuity or yearly Sum of Money, not exceeding Three fourth Parts of the Salary appertaining to such each Office at the Period of the Resignation thereof, to commence and be payable in all respects in the same Manner and subject to the same Conditions as any Annuity is authorised and directed to be granted under and by virtue of the said recited Act, passed in the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty; and also that the Successor of every such Person, who shall have executed the Office of Lord Chief Commissioner, or of a Commissioner of the Jury Courts, shall be entitled to have and receive such Salary as shall have arisen and shall have become due from the Death or Resignation of his Predecessor, in like manner as if his Latter Predecessor or Commissioner had borne date the Day next subsequent to the Day of the Death or Resignation of his Predecessor.

XL. And Whereas permanent Accommodation is required for carrying on the Business of the said Court with proper Convenience for the Judges, and for the Clerks and Officers thereof, and the Buildings necessary and proper for the Purposes may be erected in or to be connected with the Buildings now used for the Courts of Session, Justiciary and Exchequer in Scotland; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority of His Majesty's Majesty, who shall have executed the Office of Lord Chief Justice, and the Barons of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, with the Advice and Consent of the Lord High Treasurer and Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, to order and direct such necessary and proper Buildings to be erected for the Accommodation of the Jury Courts, and to order the Expense thereof to be defrayed out of the Moneys that shall arise from any of the Duties and Revenues in Scotland, which by several Acts made in the Seventh and Tenth Years of the Reign of His Majesty Queen Anne, were charged and made chargeable for keeping up the Courts of Session, Justiciary and Exchequer in Scotland, and to order such Sums to be paid out of such Duties and Revenues as shall be from time to time required for such Expense, to the Treasurers acting in the Execution of an Act passed in the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for reging the Court of the Court of Session in England for the erecting Buildings for the better Accommodation of the College of Justice and adjacent Ground in the City of Edinburgh; and for other Purposes therein mentioned; and such Powers and Authorities are hereby given and granted to such Treasurers, for the purpose of erecting the Buildings hereby directed, as are given to the said Treasurers for erecting the Buildings directed by the said last recited Act.

XLII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Treasurers to acquire, and for all Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, Heirs of Estate, Guardians, Trustees and all other Persons and Trustees whatsoever, not only for and on behalf of those having the beneficial Interest, whether Parties under Age, Iller unborn, Lunatics, Idiots or Intoxic Persons, or other Person or Persons, and for every other Person as Person whatsoever who shall be tested, possessed of or interested in any Lands, Grounds and Heritages, which shall be required for the Purposes of this Act, to contract for, sell and convey the same and every Part thereof unto the said Treasurers for the Purposes of this Act; and all such Contracts, Agreements, Sales, Conveyances and Assurances shall be valid and effectual in the Law to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, any Law, Statute, Usage or Custom to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding; and all Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, and all Persons whomsoever to conveying is aforesaid, are hereby authorised for as in respect of any such Sale which he, she or they or any of them, shall respectively make by Virtue or in pursuance of this Act.

XLIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Conveyances and Assurances which shall be made of any Lands or Heritages to the said Treasurers for the Purposes of this Act, shall be made according to the following Form, or as near thereto as the Circumstances of the Case will admit:

I [or We] of _____ in consideration of the Sum of _____ to me [or us] paid, do hereby grant, dispose and convey to _____ all [beginning the Premises to be conveyed] and all my Right, Title and Interest to and in the same and every Part thereof, to hold to the said _____ for the Purposes specified in _____ as Act passed in the Fifty sixth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intitled [here to finish the Title of the Act.] In witness whereof I have set my Hand to these Petitions, written by [insert Name and Description of the Witness] this _____ Day of _____ in the Year of our Lord _____ before their Witnesses [insert Names and Descriptions of Witnesses, who will also subscribe as Witnesses.]

And all such Conveyances and Assurances shall be registered within Sixty Days of the Date thereof, in the general Register of Sales, or in the particular Register of Sales of the County of Edinburgh, and shall thereupon be valid and effectual in the Law to all Intents and Purposes, and shall be a complete Bar to all other Rights, Titles, Trusts and Interests and Incumbrances, in or upon the same whatsoever.

XLIV. Provided always and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Body Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, Trustees or other Persons herein before authorised to sell and convey any Lands, Tenements and other Heritages, or any Owner or Owners, and the Occupier or Occupiers of any Lands, Tenements or other Heritages required to be taken for the Purposes of this Act, may accept and receive Satisfaction for the Value of such Lands, Tenements and Heritages, or of any such Interests as aforesaid; and from and immediately after the time of making and executing such Sale and Conveyance, or any Contract or Contracts for the same, the said Treasurers purchasing the same for the Purposes of this Act, may and shall be at liberty to enter upon, and from throughout for ever to have, take and use the said Lands, Tenements acres and other Heritages, for the Purpose of this Act) and in case the Parties interested in such Lands, Tenements or Heritages, cannot or do not agree as to the Amount or Value of such Satisfaction, the same shall be ascertained and settled by the Verdict of a Jury as is hereinafter directed.

XI.IV. And for settling all Differences which may arise between the said Trustees and the several Owners of or Persons interested in any Lands, Tenements or other Heritages which shall or may be taken or sold for the Purposes of this Act: Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Body Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, or any other Person or Persons be interested, for and on his, her or their Part or Parts, as for or on the Part of any Person or Persons for whom they may hold the same, or Persons as aforesaid, shall refuse to accept such Purchase Money or other Compensation as shall be offered by them the said Trustees, or their Agents by or on their behalf, shall give notice thereof in Writing to any Three of the said Trustees within Seven Days after such Offer shall have been made, and the Party or Parties giving such Notice as aforesaid shall therein request that the Matter or Matters in dispute may be submitted to the Determination of a Jury; or if any Body Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, or any other Person or Persons failed or neglected or so interdicted in any such Lands, Tenements or Heritages, as aforesaid, shall refuse to treat or agree, or shall not agree, or by reason of Absence or Disability cannot agree with the said Trustees, or with any Person or Persons authorised by them, for the Sale and Conveyance of their respective Estates and Interests therein, or cannot be found or known, or shall not produce or evince a clear Title to the Premises they may be in possession of, or to the Interest they shall claim therein, to the Satisfaction of the said Trustees, or of the Person or Persons authorised by them, then and in every such Case the said Trustees shall and they are hereby empowered and required from time to time to direct the Sheriff Deputy or Substitutes of the County of Edinburgh, to summon, assemble and choose a Jury, in such Way and Manner as Judges are accustomed, assembled and chosen in Counties in Scotland; and the said Sheriff may order and authorise the said Jury when chosen, or any Three or more of them, to view the Place or Places or Manors or Things in controversy; and such Jury shall upon their Oaths (which Oaths, as well as the Oaths of such Witnesses, the said Sheriff is hereby empowered and required to administer) inquire of, sift and ascertain, and give a Verdict for the Sum or Sums of Money which shall be paid for the Purchase of such Lands, Tenements or Heritages, or Compensation for any Interest therein as aforesaid; and the said Sheriff shall give Judgment for such Purchase Money or Compensation as offered by such Jury; which said Verdict and the Judgment thereupon shall be binding and conclusive to all Intents and Purposes upon all Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, and upon all Persons whatsoever, and shall not be subject to any Review, or any Stay or Bill of Execution whatsoever: Provided that Fourteen Days' Notice in Writing at the hall of the House and Place at which such Jury are so required to be returned, be given to the Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, or to the Person or Persons interested, or claiming to be so, before the time of the Meeting of the said Sheriff and Jury as aforesaid, by leaving such Notice at the Dwelling House of such Person or Persons, or of the Head Officer of such Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, or with some Tenant or Occupier of the Premises respectively intended to be seized; and in such and every Case where a Verdict shall be given for more Money, as a Compensation or Satisfaction for the absolute Sale of any Lands, Tenements or Heritages, or as a Compensation for any Interest therein as aforesaid, than shall have been previously offered by or on behalf of the said Trustees before the summoning of such Jury, and where no Compensation shall have been previously offered in respect thereof by or on behalf of the said Trustees, or where by reason of Absence, or other Impediment or Disability, there shall not be found any Person or Persons at hand who may be legally empowered to consent with and make Conveyances to or receive Compensation from the said Trustees as hereinafter mentioned, then and in all such Cases all the reasonable Expenses of causing such Value or Compensation to be offered and awarded as aforesaid shall be settled by the said Sheriff, and be defrayed by the said Trustees; but if any Verdict shall be given for the less Sum than shall have been previously offered by or on behalf of the said Trustees, or for a less Sum than shall have been so previously offered, or so much of such Refusal to treat with or make Conveyances to the Trustees by any Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, or by any Person or Persons whatsoever who in or as by the Provisions of this Act is otherwise legally empowered to treat and convey or receive such Compensation as aforesaid, then and in all such Cases (except where, by reason of Absence or otherwise, any Person shall have been prevented from treating and agreeing as aforesaid, in which Case all such Costs and Expenses shall be borne and paid by the said Trustees) the reasonable Costs and Expenses of causing such Value or Compensation to be offered and awarded as aforesaid shall be settled in like manner to the said Sheriff, and be borne and paid by the Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, or by the Person or Persons with whom the said Trustees shall have such Conveyances or Disputes; which said Costs and Expenses shall and may be deducted out of the Money so offered and awarded; and the Payment or Tender of the Remainder of such Sum or Sums of Money shall be deemed and taken to be Payment or Tender of the whole Sum or Sums so offered and awarded as aforesaid.

XI.V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the said Judgments and Verdicts shall be deemed to be and shall become Records of the said Sheriff to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; and the same or true Copies thereof shall be allowed to be produced Evidence; and all Person shall have Liberty to inspect the same, paying for such Inspection the Sum of One Shilling, and to take Copies thereof, paying for every Copy the Sum of Sixpence for every One hundred Words, and so in proportion for any less Number of Words.

XI.VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon Payment or legal Tender of such Sum or Sums of Money as shall have been contracted or agreed for between the Parties, or determined or adjudged by any Jury or Jurors in manner aforesaid, for the Purchase of any such Lands, Tenements or Heritages, to the Proprietor or Proprietors of such Lands and other Heritages and Premises, or such other Person or Persons

L. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case the Person or Persons to whom such Sum or Sums of Money shall be so ordered to be paid as aforesaid shall not be able to make a good Title to the Premises, to the Satisfaction of the said Trustees, or any Three of them, or shall refuse to execute such Conveyance or Conveyances; or in case such Person or Persons to whom such Sum or Sums of Money shall be so ordered to be paid as aforesaid cannot be found; or if the Person or Persons entitled to such Land, Tenements or Heritages, be not known or discovered; then and in every such Case it shall be lawful for the said Trustees, or any Three or more of them, to order the said Sum or Sums to be paid into the Bank of Scotland, the Royal Bank of Scotland, or the Bank of London, or to the Credit of the Parties interested in the said Land, Tenements or Heritages (distinguishing them). Subject to the Order, Control and Disposition of the Court of Session; which said Court, on the Application of any Person or Persons making Claim to such Sum or Sums of Money, or any Part thereof, shall be and is hereby empowered, in a summary Way of Proceeding, or otherwise, as to the said Court shall seem meet, to order the same to remain in the Hands of the said Bank, or One of them, or to order the same to be laid out and invested in the Public Funds, or in order Disbursement thereof, or Payment of the Interest or Dividends thereof, according to the respective Rights or Estates, Debt or Interest of the Person or Persons making claim thereto, and in make such other Order in the Premises as to the said Court shall seem just and available; and the Clerk or Clerks of the said Bank respectively, who shall receive such Sum or Sums of Money, it and is hereby required to give a Receipt or Receipts for such Sum or Sums, mentioning and specifying for what and for whose Use the same is or are received to such Person or Persons as shall pay any Sum or Sums of Money into the Bank as aforesaid.

LII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where any Question shall arise touching the Title of any Person to any Money to be paid into such Banks in pursuance of this Act, for the Purchase of any Land, Tenements or Heritages, or of any Estate, Right or Interest in any Land, Tenements or Heritages to be purchased in pursuance thereof, or to any Bank Association to be purchased with any such Money, or to the Dividends or Interest of any such Bank Association, the Person or Persons who shall have been in Possession of such Land, Tenements or Heritages at the time of such Purchase, and all Persons claiming under such Person or Persons, or under the Possession of such Person or Persons, shall be deemed and taken to have been lawfully entitled to such Land, Tenements or Heritages, according to such Possession, until the contrary shall be shown to the Satisfaction of the said Court of Session; and the Dividends or Interest of the Bank Association to be purchased with such Money, and also the Capital of such Bank Association, or the Capital yielding such Interest, remaining in the Hands of any of the said Banks, shall be paid and applied and disposed of accordingly, until it shall be made appear to the said Court, that such Possession was a wrongful Possession, and that some other Person or Persons was or were lawfully entitled to such Land, Tenements or Heritages, or to have Estate or Interest therein.

LIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where by reason of any Disability or Incapacity of the Person or Persons, or Corporation entitled to any Land, Tenements or Heritages, to be purchased under the Authority of this Act, and the Purchase Money for the same shall be required to be paid into the said Banks, or One of them, by the Order of the said Court, and to be applied in the Purchase of other Land, Tenements or Heritages, to be bought as the like Use in pursuance thereof respectively, it shall be lawful for the said Court to order the Expenses of all such Purchases from time to time to be made in pursuance of this Act, or in such of such Expenses as the Court shall deem reasonable, together with the necessary Costs and Charges of obtaining such Order, to be paid by the said Commissioners, who shall from time to time pay such Sum of Money for such Purposes as the said Court shall direct.

LIIII. And Whereas the said Trustees may purchase Land to be made use of for the Purposes of this Act, and it may happen that the whole thereof may not be required for the Purposes of this Act, and it may in such Case become necessary to sell the same: Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful for the said Trustees, by Deed under the Hands of any Three or more of them, to grant and convey by way of absolute Sale, for a Consideration in Money, such Land, Tenements or Heritages, or any such Part or Parts thereof, as shall not be wanted for the Purposes of this Act; and all such Conveyances from the said Trustees shall be valid and effectual, any thing in this Act contained, or any other Law, Statute or Custom to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding; and upon Payment of the Money which shall arise by Sale or Sales of such Land, Tenements or Heritages, it shall and may be lawful for the said Trustees to sign and give Receipts for the Money for which the same shall be sold, which Receipts shall be sufficient Discharges to any Person or Persons for the Purchase Money for which such Land or Buildings shall be so sold, or for so much thereof as in such Receipts shall be acknowledged or expressed to be received; and such Person or Persons shall not afterwards be answerable or accountable for any Loss, Misapplication or Non Application of such Purchase Money, or any Part thereof: Provided always, that the said Trustees, before they shall sell and dispose of such Land, Tenements or Heritages, shall first offer to sell the same to the Person or Persons from whom they shall have purchased the same, or would have been then entitled to in case the same had not been purchased by the said Trustees, the Price at which the same shall be so sold being, at the Option of the said Persons, either the Price paid by the said Trustees, or a Price for the same offered and settled by a Jury in like manner as the Price for any Land to be taken in pursuance of this Act, as herein-before directed to be settled in case of Difference or Dispute as to the Value thereof; and if such Person or Persons shall not agree, or shall refuse to repurchase the same, it shall and may be lawful so and for any Person or Persons, not interested in the Premises, to make an Affidavit, to be sworn before One of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County where such Land shall be situate, stating that such Offer was made by or on behalf of the said Trustees, and that such Person or Persons did not agree, or refused to purchase the same.

Persons to whom Money ordered to be paid according to Statute, may cause Money to be paid from the Bank of Scotland, &c. subject to the Order of the Court of Session, upon Application thereon.

Clerks of the Bank to give Receipts.

Where any Question shall arise touching the Title to Purchase Money, to be paid in, the Person in possession of the Bank, &c. at the time of the Purchase deemed entitled thereto.

In case of Disability, &c. of Persons entitled, the Court may order reasonable Expenses of Purchases, together with the Costs of the Order, to be paid by the Commissioners.

XI. And he it further enacted, That every Baker or Seller of Bread out of the City of London and the Liberties thereof, and beyond the Weekly Bills of Mortality and Ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, who shall sell and deliver any Bread, Half Peck, Quarter of a Peck, or Half Quarter of a Peck, loaf or Loaves of Bread, which, on an Average of the whole Weight of Bread sold there, in the same time as at a Court Leet, shall be deficient in the due Weight according to the Weights in the House of Commons used or to be used, directed respectively to weigh, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding the Shillings for every Ounce deficient in Weight, and to be proportioned for any Quantity deficient One Ounce, as the Deficiency shall be, where such Offender shall be convicted that he, she, or they so offend. Provided always, that no Baker or Seller of Bread shall be liable for any Deficiency in the Weight of any Bread, within the time, shall be weighed in the Presence of the Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices, before whom such Offender shall be summoned, and of the Offender, or each of them, if the Magistrate or Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices, in pursuance of a Summons, and the Delivery of Weights, directed aforesaid, within Twenty four Hours next following the time of the same being legally issued; and unless Evidence be given before such Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justice, as to his or their Handwriting, by One or more disinterested Witnesses, that the said Bread was so weighed, or that the same was when produced to be weighed before such Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices, as when the same was taken from such Baker or Seller of Bread, reasonable and due Allowance being made for such Bread being necessarily become dryer during the time intervening between the weighing and selling, weighing the same before such Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justice as aforesaid; and that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to extend or to include such Bread as is usually made and sold under the Description of French or Fancy Bread, or Rolls or Cakes.

XII. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That no Master, Milner, Journeyman, or other Person respectively, acting as or employed in the Trade or Calling of a Baker out of the City of London and the Liberties thereof, and beyond the Weekly Bills of Mortality and Ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, shall, on the Lord's Day, commonly called Sunday, or any Part thereof, make or bake any Household or other Bread, Rolls or Cakes of any Sort or Kind, or shall on any Part of the said Day sell or expose to Sale, or permit or suffer to be sold or exposed to Sale, any Bread, Rolls or Cakes of any Sort or Kind, except to Travellers, or to the Cases of any a Necessity, or bake or deliver, or permit or suffer to be baked or delivered, any Meat, Pudding, Pie, Tart or Whisket, at any time after half past One of the Clock in the Afternoon of that Day, or in any other manner contrary the Trade or Calling of a Baker, or be engaged or employed in the Baking or Occupation thereof; save and except as aforesaid, and also save and except so far as may be necessary in setting and superintending the Spongers to prepare the Bread or Dough for the following Day's Baking; and that no Meat, Pudding, Pie, Tart or Whisket shall be brought to or taken from any Household during the time of Divine Service in the Church, Parish, Hamlet, or Place where the same is done, nor within One Quarter of an Hour of the time of Commencement thereof; and every Person offending against the foregoing Regulations, or any One or more of them, and being thereof convicted before any Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justice of the Peace of the County, City, or Place where the Offence shall be committed, within Two Days from the Conviction thereof, either upon the View of such Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justice of the Peace, or on Conviction by the Jury, or Proof by One or more Witnesses upon Oath or Affidavits as aforesaid, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay, and undergo the Forfeiture, Penalty and Punishment hereafter mentioned; (that is to say,) for the First Offence the Penalty of Five Shillings, for the Second Offence the Penalty of Ten Shillings, and for every Third and subsequent Offence respectively, the Penalty of Twenty Shillings; and shall moreover on every such Conviction hear and pay the Costs and Expenses of the Prosecution, such Costs and Expenses to be assessed, taxed and ascertained by the Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justice of the Peace convicting; and the Amount thereof, together with such Part of the Penalty as such Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justice of the Peace shall think proper, to the Prosecutor or Prosecutors for Loss of time in instituting and following up the Prosecution, at a Rate not exceeding Three Shillings per Diem, and be paid to the Prosecutor or Prosecutors for his and their own Use and Benefit; and the Balance of such Penalty to be paid to such Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justice of the Peace, and within Seven Days after his or their Receipt thereof, to be transmitted by him or them to the Churchwardens or Overseers of the Parish or Parishes where the Offence shall be committed, to be applied for the Benefit of the Poor thereof; and in case the whole Amount of the Penalty and of the Costs and Expenses as aforesaid, be not paid within Three Days after the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders, such Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justice of the Peace shall and may, by Warrant under their respective Hands and Seals or Hand and Seal, direct the same to be levied and raised by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offender or Offenders; or in default or Insolvency of such Default, to commit the Offender or Offenders to the House of Correction, on a First Offence for any time not exceeding

Fourteen

Miller, Milkman or Baker, acting as a Justice of Peace in the Execution of this Act; Twenty.

Fourteen Days, and on the Second or any Subsequent Offence, for any time not exceeding Twenty one Days, unless the Whole of the Penalty, Costs and Expenses be sooner paid and discharged.

XIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Person who shall follow or be concerned in the Business of a Miller, Milkman or Baker, shall be capable of sitting or shall be allowed to act as a Magistrate or Justice of the Peace under this Act, or in putting in execution any of the Powers in or by this Act granted; and if any Miller, Milkman or Baker shall presume to do so, he or they be offending in the Premises, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Fifty Pounds to any Person or Persons who shall inform or sue for the same, to be recovered in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plea or Information, whereas no Essoign, Wager of Law, or more than One Imparison shall be allowed.

Offences against the Act may be found in a summary Way by Magistrates within their respective Jurisdictions. Offender not appearing on Summons, Proceedings.

XIV. And for the better and more easy Recovery of the several Penalties and Forfeitures to be incurred under this Act, and the Powers herein contained; be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Mayor or any Alderman of any City, and to and for any other of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace or any of them, within their respective Counties, Divisions, Calves, Towns Corporate, Liberties or Jurisdictions beyond the City of London and the Liberties thereof, and beyond the Weekly Bills of Mortality and Ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, to hear and determine in a summary Way all Offences committed against the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, and for that Purpose to summon before them or any of them, within their respective Jurisdictions, any Party or Parties accused of being an Offender or Offenders against the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; and in case the Party accused shall not appear on such Summons, or after some reasonable Excuse for his Default, then upon Oath or Affirmation as aforesaid, by any credible Witness or Witnesses, of any Offence committed contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, any such Magistrate or Justice shall issue his Warrant or Warrants for apprehending the Offender or Offenders within the Jurisdiction of any such Magistrate or Justice; and upon the Appearance of the Party or Parties accused, or in case he, she or they shall not appear on Notice being given to or left for him, her or them, as he, she or they shall think fit, or if he, she or they cannot be apprehended on a Warrant granted against him, her or them, as is hereinbefore directed, then and in every such Case any such Magistrate or Justice is and are hereby authorized and required to proceed to make Inquiry touching the Matters complained of, and to examine any Witness or Witnesses who shall be offered on either Side, on Oath or Affirmation as aforesaid, and which Oath and Affirmation every such Magistrate or Justice is and are hereby authorized, empowered and required to administer, and after hearing the Parties who shall appear, and the Witnesses who shall be offered on either Side, such Magistrate or Justice shall convict or acquit the Party or Parties accused; and if the Penalty or Money forfeited on any such Conviction, shall not be paid within the Space of Twenty four Hours after any such Conviction, every such Magistrate or Justice shall thereupon issue a Warrant or Warrants under his Hand and Seal, directed to any Peace Officer or Officers within their respective Jurisdictions, and thereby require him or them to make Distress of the Goods or Chattels of the Offender or Offenders within such their respective Jurisdictions, to satisfy such Penalty or Money forfeited, and the Costs of the Prosecution and Defence; and if any Offender should convey away his Goods out of the Jurisdiction of any such Magistrate or Justice before whom he or she was convicted, or so much thereof that the Penalty or Money forfeited cannot be levied, then such Magistrate or Justice within whose Jurisdiction the Offender shall have removed his Goods, shall back the Warrant granted by any such Magistrate or Justice as aforesaid, and thereupon the Penalty forfeited shall be levied on the Offender's Goods and Chattels by Distress and Sale; and if within Five Days from the Distress being taken, the Penalty or Money forfeited and Costs shall not be paid, the Goods found shall be appraised and sold, rendering the Overplus, (if any,) after deducting the Penalty or Forfeiture, and the Costs and Charges of the Prosecution, Distress and Sale, to the Owner or Owners thereof, which Charges shall be ascertained by the Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices before whom any such Offender or Offenders shall have been so convicted, or by the Magistrate or Justice who backed the Warrant, if then alive, and if not, by some other Magistrate or Justice of the City, County, Division or Place in which the Offender shall have been convicted, on Application for that Purpose to be made to any such Magistrate or Justice; and for want of such Distress, then every such Magistrate or Justice within whose respective Jurisdiction any such Offender or Offenders shall reside or be, shall, on the Application of any Prosecutor or Prosecutors, and Proof on Oath or Affirmation as aforesaid, made of the Conviction and Nonpayment of the Penalty and Charges, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal command every such Offender or Offenders to the Common Goal or House of Correction of the City, County, Division or Place, where such Offender or Offenders shall be found, there to remain for the Space of One Calendar Month from the time of such Commencement, unless after such Commencement Payment shall be made of the said Penalty or Forfeiture, and Costs and Charges, before the Expiration of the said One Calendar Month; and all such Penalties and Forfeitures when recovered, shall be paid, One Half to the Informer, and the other Half shall be paid to the Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices of the Peace, and within Seven Days after his or their Receipt thereof, to be transmitted by him or them to the Churchwardens or Overseers of the Parish or Parishes where the Offence shall be committed, to be applied for the Benefit of the Poor thereof.

Penalties may be levied by Distress and Sale.

If no Distress, Imprisonment.

XV. And be it further enacted, That if it shall be made out by the Oath (or Affirmation as aforesaid) of any credible Person or Persons, to the Satisfaction of any Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices, that any Person or Persons within the Jurisdiction of any such Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices, is or are likely to give or aff material Evidence on behalf of the Prosecutor or of Offender or Offenders against the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, or on behalf of the Person or Persons accused, and will not voluntarily appear before such Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices, to be examined and give his, her or their Evidence upon Oath or Affirmation as aforesaid concerning the Premises, every such Power to examine and compel the Attendance of Witnesses.

Magistrate

Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices, is and are hereby authorized and required to issue his or their Summons to examine every such Witness and Witnesses before any such Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices, at such reasonable time or times as in such Summons shall be fixed; and if any Person or Persons so summoned shall neglect or refuse to appear, after having been paid or tendered a reasonable Sum for his, her or their Costs, Charges and Expenses, at the time by such Summons appointed, and as full Excuse shall be offered for such Neglect or Refusal, then after Plead upon Oath or Affirmation as aforesaid, of such Summons having been duly served upon the Party or Parties in summonsed, every such Magistrate and Magistrates, Justice and Justices, is and are hereby authorized and required to issue his or their Warrant or Warrants, under his Hand and Seal or their Hands and Seals, to bring every such Person or Persons before any such Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices; and on the Appearance of any such Person or Persons before such Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices, every such Magistrate or Justice is and are hereby authorized and empowered to examine upon Oath (or Affirmation) every such Witness; and if any such Person or Persons, as he, her or their Appearance, or on being brought before any such Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices, shall refuse to be examined upon Oath (or Affirmation) concerning the Premises, without offering any full Excuse for such Refusal, any such Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices, within the Limits of his or their Jurisdiction, may by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, or their Hands and Seals, commit any Person or Persons so refusing to be examined to the Public Prison of the City, County, Division, Liberty or Place, in which the Person or Persons so refusing to be examined shall be, there to remain for any time not exceeding Fourteen Days, as any such Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices, shall order and direct.

XVI. And he is further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall take any Oath (or Affirmation) by this Act directed to be taken, or be examined on Oath (or Affirmation) by virtue or in the execution of the Act, shall wilfully foreswear or shall falsify affirm himself, himself or themselves, every such Person or Persons shall be subject and be liable to be prosecuted for Perjury by Indictment or Information, according to due Course of Law; and if convicted thereof, shall be subject and liable to the like Pains and Penalties which Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury are subject and liable to.

XVII. And he is further enacted, That the Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices, before whom any Person or Persons shall be convicted in manner prescribed by this Act, shall cause every such Conviction to be drawn up in the Form or in the Words following, (that is to say),

"to wit. } BE it remembered, That on this Day of in the Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, A. D. is convicted before Majesty's Justice of the Peace for the said County of or, for the Division of the said County of or for the City, Liberty or Town, [as the case may be] and do adjudge him, her or them [as the case may be] to forfeit and pay for the said Hand and Seal the Day and Year aforesaid."

XVIII. And he is further enacted, That no Coroner, Letters of Abatement or of Suspension, shall be granted to remove any Conviction or other Proceedings had therein in pursuance of this Act.

XIX. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted, That if any Person or Persons convicted of any Offence punishable by this Act, shall think him, her or themselves aggrieved by the Judgment of the Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices, before whom he, she or they shall have been convicted, such Person or Persons shall have Power from time to time to appeal to the Justice at the next General or General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, which shall be held for the City, County, Division, Liberty, Town or Place, where such Judgment shall have been given, and that the Execution of such Judgment shall in such case be suspended, the Person so convicted entering into a Recognizance at the time of such Conviction, or within Twenty four Hours after the same shall be made, with Two sufficient Sureties, in double the Sum which such Person shall have been adjudged to pay, or farther, upon condition to prosecute such Appeal with effect, and to be forthcoming to abide the Judgment and Determination of the Justice at their said next General or General Quarter Sessions; where Recognizance the Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices, before whom such Conviction shall be made, or is and are hereby empowered and required to take; and the Justice in the said General or General Quarter Sessions are hereby authorized and required to hear and finally determine the Matter of every such Appeal, and to award such Costs as to them shall appear just and reasonable to be paid by either Party; and if upon hearing the said Appeal, the Judgment of the Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices, before whom the Appellant or Appellants shall have been convicted, shall be confirmed, such Appellant or Appellants shall immediately, or within Twenty four Hours afterwards, pay down the Sum he, she or they shall have been adjudged to have forfeited, together with such Costs as the said Justice, in their said General or General Quarter Sessions, shall award to be paid to the Prosecutor or Informers, for defraying the Expenses sustained by reason of any such Appeal; and in default of the Appellants paying the same, any Two Justices, or any One Magistrate or Justice of the Peace, having Jurisdiction in the Place into which any such Appellant or Appellants shall escape, or where he, she or they shall reside, shall and may, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, or his Hand and Seal, commit every such Appellant or Appellants to the Common Goal of the City, County, Division or Place where he, she or they shall be apprehended, until he, she or they shall make payment of such Forfeiture, and of the Costs and Charges which shall be adjudged on the Conviction; but if the Appellant or Appellants in any such Appeal shall make good his, her or their Appeal, and be discharged of the said Conviction, reasonable Costs shall be awarded to the Appellant or Appellants against such Informers or Informers, who would (in the case of such Conviction) have been entitled to a Mastery of the Peace so have been recovered as aforesaid, and which Costs shall and may be recovered by the Appellant or Appellants against any such Informers or Informers, in like

XX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any such Conviction shall happen to be made within Six Days before any General or General Quarter Sessions of the Peace shall be held for the City, County, Division, Town Corporate, Borough or Place where such Conviction shall have been made, then the Party or Parties who shall think fit, her or themselves approved by any such Conviction, shall and may, on entering into Recognizance in manner and for the Purposes before described, be at liberty to appeal either to the three next or next following General or General Quarter Sessions of the Peace which shall be held for any such County, Division, City, Town Corporate, Borough, Liberty or Place, where any such Conviction shall have been made.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That every Action or Suit which shall be brought or commenced against any Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice, or Justices, or any Peace Officer or Officers, for any Matter or Thing done or committed by virtue of or under this Act, shall be commenced within Six Calendar Months after the Fact committed, and not afterwards, and shall be laid or brought in the City, County or Place where the Matter is done or committed, and not elsewhere; and that the Statute made in the Twentieth Year of the Reign of King George the Second, intitled An Act for rendering Judgments of the Peace more safe in the Execution of their Office, and for indemnifying Constables and other acting in obedience to their Warrants, so far as the Act of Parliament relating to the rendering the Justices more safe in the Execution of their Office, shall extend and be confined to extend to the Magistrates and Magistrates, Justices and Justices of the Peace, sitting under the Act, thereby or in pursuance of that Act; and that no Action or Suit shall be laid or commenced against, nor shall any Writ be issued out, or Copy of any Writ be served upon any Peace Officer or Officers, for any thing done in the Execution of this Act, until Seven Days after Notice in Writing shall have been given to or left for him or them, at his or their usual Place of Abode, by the Attorney for the Party intended to commence such Action, which Notice in Writing shall contain the Name and Place of Abode of the Parties intending to bring such Action, and also of his Attorney, and likewise the Cause of Action or Complaint; and any Peace Officer or Officers shall be at liberty and may, by virtue of this Act, at any time within Seven Days after any such Notice shall have been given to or left for him, tender or cause to be tendered any Sum or Sums of Money, as Amounts for the Expence complained of, to the Party complaining, or to the Attorney named in such Notice; and if the same is not accepted of, the Defendant or Defendants in any such Action or Actions may plead such Tender in bar of such Action or Actions, together with the General Issue or any other Plea, with Leave of the Court in which the Action shall be commenced; and upon Issue joined on such Tender, the Jury shall find Amounts tendered to have been sufficient, they shall find a Verdict for the Defendant or Defendants; and in every such Case, or if the Plaintiff shall become nonsuit, or discontinue his Action, or if Judgment shall be given for the Defendant or Defendants upon Demurrer, or if any Action or Suit shall be brought after the time limited by this Act for bringing the same, or shall be brought in any other County or Place than as aforesaid, then and in every such Case the Jury shall find a Verdict for the Defendant or Defendants, and the Defendant or Defendants shall be entitled to his or their Costs here if the Jury shall find that no such Tender was made, or that the Amounts tendered were not sufficient, or shall find against the Defendant or Defendants on any Plea or Pleas by him or them pleaded, they shall then give a Verdict for the Plaintiff, and such Damages as they shall think proper, and the Plaintiff shall thereupon recover his Costs against every such Defendant or Defendants.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit shall be commenced against any other Person as Parties than a Justice or other Peace Officer, for any thing done in pursuance of this Act, the Defendant or Defendants in every such Action or Suit may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the time was done in pursuance and by the Authority of this Act; and if it shall appear to have been so done, or if a Verdict shall be awarded for the Defendant or Defendants, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall be nonsuit, or discontinue his, her or their Action after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared, or if a Judgment shall be given upon a Verdict or Demurrer against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants in every such Action shall and may recover Treble Costs, and have the like Remedy for the same as any Defendant or Defendants shall or have in other Cases by Law for the Recovery of his, her or their Costs.

XXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Person shall be convicted of any Offence under this Act, until the Information, in order for such Conviction, shall be exhibited within Fourteen Days after the Offence committed (except in Cases of Perjury); and that no Person who shall be prosecuted in Conviction for any Offence done or committed against this Act, shall be liable to be prosecuted for the same Offence under any other Law.

XXIV. And be it also enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures by this Act inflicted, the Application of which is not heretofore directed, shall, when recovered or paid, go and be disposed of in manner following, (that is to say), One Moiety thereof, where any Offender or Offenders shall be convicted either by his, her or their Confession, or by the Oath (or Affidavits) of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, shall go and be paid to the Person or Persons who shall inform against and prosecute in Conviction any such Offender or Offenders; and the other Moiety thereof, or in case there be no such Person informing, then the whole thereof, shall go and be paid to the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the Parish or Parishes, for the Use of the Poor of the Parish or Parishes such Offence shall be committed, in such manner as the said Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor shall in his or their Discretion think fit.

C. A. P. XXXVII.

An Act for further regulating the Qualification of Members to serve in the United Parliament of Great Britain and Ireland.

[14th June 1819.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of Her late Majesty Queen Anne, intituled An Act for securing the Freedom of Parliament, by the further qualifying the Members to sit in the House of Commons, it was amongst other Things enacted, that no Person should be capable to sit or vote as a Member of the House of Commons, for any County, City, Borough or Place, within that Part of Great Britain called England, the Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, who should not have an Estate, Freehold or Copyhold, or his own Land, or for some greater Estate either in Law or Equity, to and for his own Use and Benefit, of or in Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, over and above what would satisfy and clear all Incumbrances that might affect the same, lying or being within that Part of Great Britain called England, the Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, of the respective annual Value therein limited: And Whereas by an Act passed in the Thirty third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled An Act to reform and amend several Acts relating to the Qualification of Members to sit in the House of Commons, it was enacted, that every Person (except as in the said Act is excepted) who should be elected a Member of the House of Commons should, at the time and in the manner therein directed, produce and deliver to the Clerk of the said House, at the Table of the said House, a Paper or Account, signed by such Member, containing the Names of the Parishes, Townships, Precincts and Counties, in which the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments lay, whereby such Member should make out his Qualification; and should also take and subscribe the Oath in the said last recited Act mentioned and contained: And Whereas an Act was made in the Forty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for regulating, until the Fifth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and nine, the Trial of Unsworned Witnesses or Returns of Members to serve in the United Parliament of Great Britain and Ireland, for that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, and for regulating the Qualification of Members to serve in the said United Parliament: And Whereas it is just and expedient that the Provisions of the last recited Act, so far as relates to the Possession of Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments within Ireland, as a Qualification for Members to serve in Parliament for Places within England and Wales, should be extended to Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments within Scotland: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be sufficient that such Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, whereby any Person who from and after the passing of this Act shall be elected a Member of the House of Commons of the Parliament of the said United Kingdom, for any County, City, Borough, Cinque Port, Town or Place within that Part of the said United Kingdom called England, or the Dominion of Wales, or the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or within that Part of the said United Kingdom called Ireland, shall make out his Qualifications in manner by the said Acts of the Ninth Year of the Reign of Her late Majesty Queen Anne, and the Thirty third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, directed, shall be or be either within that Part of the said United Kingdom called England, or the Dominion of Wales, or the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or within that Part of the said United Kingdom called Scotland, or within that Part of the said United Kingdom called Ireland; any Thing in the said Acts passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of Her late Majesty Queen Anne, or in the said Act passed in the Thirty third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, to the contrary notwithstanding.

An Act to enable His Majesty to make Regulations with respect to the taking and curing Fish on certain Parts of the Coasts of Newfoundland, Labrador, and His Majesty's other Possessions in North America, according to a Convention made between His Majesty and the United States of America.

Convention
dated 27th
Oct. 1818.

WHEREAS a Convention between His Majesty and the United States of America was made and signed at London, on the Twentieth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and eighteen; and by the First Article of the said Convention, reciting that Differences had arisen respecting the Liberty claimed by the United States for the Inhabitants thereof to take, dry and cure Fish in certain Coasts, Bays, Harbours and Creeks of His Britannic Majesty's Dominions in America, it is agreed, that the Inhabitants of the said United States shall have for ever, in common with the Subjects of His Britannic Majesty, the Liberty to take Fish of every Kind on that Part of the Southern Coast of Newfoundland which extends from Cape Ray to the Ramen Islands, on the Western and Northern Coasts of Newfoundland, from the said Cape Ray to the George Islands, on the Shores of the Magdalen Islands, and also on the Coasts, Bays, Harbours and Creeks from above July on the Southern Coasts of Labrador, to and through the Straits of Bellefleur, and thence northwardly indefinitely along the Coast, without Prejudice however to any of the exclusive Rights of the Russian's Bay Company; and it was also by the said Article of the said Convention agreed, that the American Fishermen should have Liberty for ever to dry and cure Fish in any of the unfenced Bays, Harbours and Creeks of the Southern Part of the Coast of Newfoundland above described, and of the Coast of Labrador, but that so soon as the same, or any Portion thereof, should be fenced, it should not be lawful for the said Fishermen to dry or cure Fish at such Portion if fenced, without previous Agreement for such Purpose with the Inhabitants, Proprietors or Possessors of the Ground; and Whereas it is expedient that His Majesty should be enabled to carry into execution so much of the said Convention as is above recited, and to make Regulations for that Purpose: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, by any Order or Orders in Council, to be from time to time made for that Purpose, to make such Regulations, and to give such Directions, Orders and Instructions to the Governor of Newfoundland, or to any Officer or Officers of that Station, or to any other Person or Persons whatsoever, as shall or may be from time to time deemed proper and necessary for the carrying into Effect the Purposes of the said Convention, with relation to the taking, drying, and curing of Fish by Inhabitants of the United States of America, in common with British Subjects, within the Limits set forth in the said Article of the said Convention, and heretofore recited; any Act or Acts of Parliament, or any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

Be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in every Case which has occurred before the passing of this Act, where a Spiritual Person has obtained a Dispensation to hold a Benefice to which he had been nominated, preferred, or was to be inducted or collated, with a Rescript which he had held with another Benefice by virtue of a former Dispensation, without having in due time before aforesaid or otherwise vacated the other Benefice included in the former Dispensation, and where, for want of such previous Resignation or Vacancy, the Benefice held by such Spiritual Person by the former Dispensation, and intended to be inducted to him by the subsequent Dispensation, may have been rendered void, it shall not be lawful for The King's Most Excellent Majesty, or any other Person or Persons, or for His said Majesty, or any Archbishop or Bishop, having the Right of Nomination, Presentation, Licence or Collation, by means of Letters or otherwise, to any Benefice which may have been so rendered void, to nominate, prefer, induct or collate to any such Benefice by virtue of the same having been rendered void in the manner before mentioned.

II. And be it further enacted, That every Spiritual Person now holding a Benefice, which may have been rendered void at any time before the passing of this Act, in the manner before mentioned, shall and may, notwithstanding such Avoidance thereof, continue lawfully to hold and enjoy the same, and the Profits, Advowsons, Emoluments and Profits thereof, and shall be and be taken to be, in all Intents and Purposes in the Law whatsoever, the lawful Incumbent thereof, in the same manner as if the Resignation or other Vacancy of the other Benefice held therewith by virtue of the former Dispensation had been duly made prior to the subsequent Dispensation, and such subsequent Dispensation had been good and valid in Law; and that every Spiritual Person now holding a Benefice, which may have been so rendered void, shall, notwithstanding such Avoidance, be taken to have been the lawful Incumbent thereof since such Avoidance happened, in all Intents and Purposes in the Law whatsoever; and that all Acts and Deeds whatsoever, which have been done, performed, and executed by the Spiritual Person or Persons now holding, or who shall have held any such Benefice since the Avoidance thereof, in the manner before mentioned, shall be as valid and effectual, in all Intents and Purposes in the Law whatsoever, as if such Avoidance had not taken place; any Laws, Statutes, Canons, Usage or Customs to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding; it being the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, to place the aforesaid Spiritual Persons, whose Benefices have or may have become void in the manner before mentioned, precisely in the same Situation, in all Intents and Purposes in the Law whatsoever, as if no such Avoidance had taken place.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained, or to be construed or extended, to prevent the Patron or Patrons of any Benefice, which may have been rendered void in the manner before mentioned, from nominating, preferring, inducting or collating to such Benefice, on the Death, Resignation or Cession, or other lawful Cause of Avoidance of or by the Spiritual Person now holding any such Benefice, in the same manner as if this Act had not passed; save and except as to the Avoidance made before the passing of this Act, in the Manner and under the Circumstances particularly mentioned and set forth herein.

An Act to establish Regulations for preventing Contagious Diseases in Ireland. [14th June 1819.]

'WHEREAS it has become highly expedient to provide for and secure constant Attention to the Health and Comforts of the Inhabitants of Ireland, and for the Prevention of Contagious Diseases, more especially in the Cities and great Towns thereof; and that for that Purpose Officers of Health should be annually appointed in all Cities and large Towns, and that such Officers should also be appointed in such Towns, Parishes and Villages in the Country, as shall think it proper or necessary to adopt such a Measure; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That within One Calendar Month next after the passing of this Act, and within One Calendar Month after the Twenty fifth Day of March in the Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty, and in every subsequent Year, in every City and Town in Ireland, which shall contain One thousand Inhabitants, or upwards; and in every City and large Town where the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Commanders of Ireland shall think fit so direct that this Act shall be carried into effect, the Inhabitant Householdholders of each and every Parish in such City or Town, aforesaid in Vestry, shall and they are hereby required to elect and appoint any Number of Persons not less than Two, and not more than Five, to be Officers of Health for such Parish, for the Year ending on the Twenty fifth Day of March next after such Election, and such new Officers of Health shall be in like manner appointed for such Parish for the Year ensuing.

II. And be it further enacted, That such Officers of Health, so to be elected and appointed, shall act in the Execution of this Act without any Salary, Fee or Reward whatsoever; and that the Expenses to be incurred by such Officers in the Execution of their Duties under this Act, not exceeding such Sum as shall be specified and determined on, and limited and ascertained as the Vestry to be assembled for the Choice of such Officers, or at any subsequent Vestry to be called by the said Officers, shall be raised and levied on the Inhabitants of such Parish, in such Manner and Form as other parochial Assessments are raised and levied, and shall by the said Officers of Health be applied to the Purposes of this Act; and the Expenditure thereof shall be accounted for by the said Officers in such manner as other parochial Assessments are accounted for, and either at such times as other Assessments are accounted for according to Law, or at such other times as

Periods of the Year, and at other times to time as shall be directed in the Velly to be assembled for the Appointment of such Officers, or at any other Velly to be called by Two Inhabitants of such Parish; and that Copies of all such Accounts shall once in every Year, before the Twenty fifth Day of April in each Year, be transmitted by such Officers of Health to such Public Officer, or Office or Place in Dublin, as shall be from time to time directed by the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, or his or their Chief Secretary.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Inhabitant Householdholders of any Parish, Town or Place whatever, in Velly assembled, in any Part of Ireland, to appoint such Officers of Health for such Parish, in case they shall think fit and expedient so to do; and to raise such Sum and Sums of Money to be levied and accounted to as directed by this Act, in like manner as by this Act is required to be done in Cities and large Towns as aforesaid.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Person shall be compelled or compellable to act or serve as such Officer of Health, in any Parish or Place, for any longer Term than One Year, nor to act or serve as such Officer for any Year continuing within Three Years after the End of any Year for which he shall have been so appointed.

V. Provided also, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Inhabitant Householdholders of any Parish in any County, City, Town or Place or Ireland, to elect the Churchwardens of such Parish for the time being to be Officers of Health under this Act, in case they shall think fit so to do; and it shall be lawful for such Churchwardens, and they are hereby authorized and required, to act as such Officers of Health accordingly, under the several Provisions of this Act.

VI. Provided also, and be it enacted, That where any City or Town as aforesaid, containing One hundred Inhabitants, or where the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland shall direct this Act to be carried into execution, in case the Inhabitant Householdholders in any Parish or Parishes in such City or Town shall neglect or refuse to elect and appoint such Officers of Health, within such time as is required by this Act, or as shall be required by any Order of such Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors, it shall and may be lawful for the Justices of the Peace assembled at the Quarter Sessions, or any Adjournment thereof, for the County, City or Town within which such Parish shall be situate, and the said Justices are hereby authorized and required, to appoint such Officers of Health in and for such Parish, and also at the same time to appoint and limit what Fees shall be called by Assessors as such Parish for the Purposes of this Act, and such Sum shall and may be raised and levied accordingly, in like manner as any other Parish Assessments, and as if the same had been authorized by the Vellours of such Parishes, and shall be applied and accounted for in manner heretofore directed.

VII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any One or more of the Parishes to be appointed Officers of Health, and he and they in and are hereby authorized, empowered and required, to make and direct all Streets and Lanes, and all Yards and Courts adjoining thereto, and all Heaths let in several Tenements to Rotten Kitchens, and the Yards, Gardens or Places belonging to such Heaths, to be cleaned and purified, and all Nuisances prejudicial to Health to be removed therefrom; and all Public Sewers to be cleaned, and where necessary, to be covered over, and all Lodgments of standing Water to be filled up or drained off; and also to make and direct all other Matters and Things to be done for the Ventilation, Fumigation and cleansing of any House whatsoever, in which Fever or other Contagious Distemper shall have occurred, and for the washing and purifying the Persons and Clothes of the Inhabitants of every such House, as shall appear to any such Officer of Health to be indispensably necessary for the Preservation and Security of the Inhabitants of such Parish against the Danger of Contagion, which due Provisions shall have previously been taken for such Purposes by the Inhabitants of such House; and it shall be lawful for all Constables and Peace Officers, and they are hereby authorized, empowered and required, to be aiding and assisting to such Officers of Health in the doing all Matters and Things whatsoever in the Execution of this Act.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That in any Parish or Parishes in any City or Town where any such Officers of Health shall be appointed as aforesaid, and where no Power or Authority is or shall be vested in or given to Magistrates or Corporation of such City or Town, to regulate the sweeping and cleansing of the Streets therein, and the collecting and disposing of the Dirt, Dung and Filth of the said Streets, and also in any City or Town whatsoever, where the Corporation or other Persons who shall be entrusted with or contracted for the cleansing and sweeping of the Streets, under the Direction of the Magistrates or Corporation or not, shall neglect or omit to cleanse and sweep the Streets and Lanes of such City or Town, twice at least in every Week, it shall and may be lawful for such Officers of Health to make and direct such Streets to be swept and cleaned, and the Dirt, Dung and Filth collected from the time to be filed and disposed of, and the Produce thereof to be applied for the Purposes of this Act, and in disposition of the Charge on the Parish for which such Officers shall be appointed: Provided always, that in all cases where the Magistrates or Corporation of any City or Town have or shall have Power and Authority to regulate the sweeping or cleansing of the Streets, or where any Stewager or other Person shall be appointed or shall have contracted for that Purpose, the said Officers of Health shall give Twenty four Hours' Notice to the Chief Magistrate of such City or Town, and to the Stewager or other Person contracting for the cleansing of such Streets, of the Neglect or Omission to sweep and cleanse the same; and that at the Expiration of such Twenty four Hours, in case the said Streets shall not be duly swept and cleaned, it shall be lawful for the said Officers of Health to make the same to be swept and cleaned, and the Produce thereof to be disposed of as aforesaid, any Act, Charter, Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

IX. And for the preventing the Danger of Contagion and other Evils, from the unbridled Intercourse of Striding Beggars, Vagabonds and idle poor Persons seeking Relief, to be enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for any One Justice of Peace within his Jurisdiction, or for any Churchwarden of any Parish in any City, Town or Place in Ireland, or for any Officer of Health appointed in any Parish in pursuance of this Act, and they are hereby respectively empowered and required, to apprehend all idle poor Persons, Men, Women or Children, and all Persons who may be found begging or seeking Relief, or Striding or wandering as Vagabonds within any Parish or Place, and to direct and cause all such idle Persons, Beggars and Vagabonds to be removed and conveyed out of and from such Parish and Place, in such manner and to such Place as the Nature of the Case may require; and a Hall and may be lawful for any such Justice of the Peace, upon his own View, or upon the Complaint of any Churchwarden or Officer of Health, to commit any such Striding Beggar or Vagabond, or idle poor Person, to any Bridewell or House of Correction, or other public Place of Confinement, for any time not exceeding Twenty four Hours previous to their Removal or Departure out of such Parish; and a Hall and may be lawful for any Churchwarden or Officer of Health in such Parish, during such Period of Twenty four Hours, to cause the Persons and Clothes of such idle poor Persons, Beggars or Vagabonds to be washed and cleaned; and it shall be lawful for the Justices of any County, City or Town assembled, at any Quarter Sessions or Adjournment thereof, to designate and appoint any suitable unoccupied Building to be a Bridewell or Place of Confinement for such idle Persons, Beggars and Vagabonds, with the Consent and Approbation of the Owner of such House or Building, and to apply to and agree with such Owner for such Purposes accordingly; and every Bench, Constable and Peace Officer within their respective Districts or Jurisdictions, shall be and are hereby required to be obedient to the said Justices of Peace, Churchwardens and Officers of Health, in such Apprehensions, and Confinement and Treatment of such idle poor Persons, Beggars and Vagabonds, pursuant to the Provisions of this Act.

X. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall resist or oppose any Justice of Peace, Churchwarden or Officer of Health, in the Execution of the Powers of this Act, or in the doing or performing of any Matter or Thing in the Execution of this Act, every such Person or Persons in guilty of wilful or opposing shall, on Conviction thereof before any Two Justices of Peace or Magistrates within their Jurisdiction, or on the Oath or Affirmation of any One or more credible Witnesses, or on the Confession of the Party to offending, incur such Penalty, not less than Ten Shillings nor more than Ten Pounds, as such Justices of Peace or Magistrates shall in their Discretion think proper to adjudge and inflict; or in failure of making payment of such Fine, such Offenders shall and may be committed to the Common Goal or House of Correction for any time not exceeding Three Calendar Months; and no such Convictions shall be quashed for Inadequacy, nor shall be removed or reversible by Certiorari or otherwise, nor subject to any Appeal whatever.

XI. And be it further enacted, That if any Action shall be brought against any Person or Persons for any thing done in the Execution of any of the Powers or Duties by this Act given or required, the Defendant or Defendants may in every such Suit plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Defence; and in every Case where the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in such Suit shall fail, the Court to which such Suit shall be carried on shall award Costs to the Defendant or Defendants.

C. A. P. XLII.

An Act for raising the Sum of Twelve Millions by way of Annuities.

[11th June 1819.]

[This Act is similar to former Acts.]

C. A. P. XLIII.

An Act to authorize the Receipt and Appropriation of certain Sums voluntarily contributed by the Most Noble John Jeffreys Marquis Camden, in aid of the Public Service.

[11th June 1819.]

WHEREAS the Most Noble John Jeffreys Marquis Camden did, on the Eighth of February in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, propose to the then Chancellor of the Exchequer, as the then deferred State of the Country, to pay, in aid of the Public Revenue for the Expenses of the State, from the Fifth Day of April then next ensuing, whatever Fines, Penalties or Emoluments he might receive in right of his Patent Office of One of the Four Tellers of His Majesty's Exchequer, beyond the Sum which was entitled to be paid to each of the Four Tellers of the Exchequer by an Act passed in the Twenty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for establishing certain Regulations in the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer, and beyond the Charge of the Exchequer of the said Office: And Whereas the said Marquis Camden then stated, that it was not his intention to acquire or retain to his own Use, out of the Fines, Penalties or Emoluments of his said Office, during the Period he might continue to hold the same, any larger or greater Sum than the Amount to be specified in the said recited Act: And Whereas the Sum of Eight thousand two hundred twenty five Pounds Eleven Shillings, being the Surplus of such Fines, Penalties and Emoluments over and above such Amount as aforesaid, for the Year ending on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and eighteen, was paid by the said Marquis Camden in aid of the Public Service of the said Year, under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Fifty seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for amending in His Majesty certain Duties on Salt, Sugar, Tobacco and Snuff in Great Britain, and in Portugal, Africa and

* and Profound Spirit in England; and for wanting the Contributions of Persons receiving Pay, and holding Office, for the Service of the Year the thousand eight hundred and nineteen; which Act has been expired;
 * And Whereas it is highly expedient that a Memorial should remain, recording the just Satisfaction by Parliament of the Public Spirit and disinterested Conduct of the said Marquis Camden, in making during his late the large Sacrifice of Private Fortune to the Service and Goodwill of his Country; and it is also necessary that Provision should be made for carrying into effect the Intention of the said Marquis Camden's Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or any Three or more of them for the Lord High Treasurer of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the time being, to give such Directions as may be necessary for carrying into effect the said Intention of the said Marquis Camden, and from time to time for receiving and giving full and sufficient Discharge for all such Surplus Fees, Perquisites and Emoluments afforded, as shall accrue by virtue of the Patent to the said Fellowship of Marquis Camden, for the Period which has elapsed since the Expiration of the said Act of the Fifty seventh Year of His present Majesty, from Year to Year, during the time the said Fellowship shall continue to be held by him; and further to direct that all and every such Sum so contributed shall from time to time be paid into the Office of One of the Year officers of the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer in Great Britain, and shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

Treasury to give Directions to the Exchequer, the giving effect to the Marquis Camden's Intention.

C. A. P. XLIV.

An Act to amend an Act passed in the Fifty seventh Year of His present Majesty, for the more effectual Punishment of Murders, Manslaughters, Rapes, Robberies and Burglaries committed in Places not within His Majesty's Dominions, as relates to the Trial of Murders, Manslaughters, Rapes, Robberies and Burglaries committed in Hospitios. [20th Janr 1819.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifty seventh Year of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for the more effectual Punishment of Murders and Manslaughters committed in Places not within His Majesty's Dominions, it was among other things provided and enacted, that from and after the passing of that Act, all Murders and Manslaughters committed, or that shall be committed on Land in the Settlement in the Bay of Honduras, by any Person or Persons relating or being against the said Settlement, shall and may be tried, adjudged and punished in any of His Majesty's Islands, Plantations, Colonies, Dominions, Ports or Fisheries, under or by virtue of The King's Commission or Commissions which shall have been, or shall hereafter be, issued under and by virtue of an Act passed in the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for the more speedy Trial of Offences committed in distant Parts upon the Sea: And Whereas Doubts have arisen whether in the said Settlements in the Bay of Honduras, there be a Port or Harbour to which a Commission may issue for the Trial of Offences under the said last mentioned Act: And Whereas by reason of such Doubts, and the great Delay and Difficulty of removing Officers in Honduras for Trial to England, or to any of His Majesty's Islands, Plantations, Colonies, Dominions, Ports or Fisheries, such Cases do sometimes escape unpunished: For Remedy thereof, be it enacted, by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, all Murders, Manslaughters, Rapes, Robberies and Burglaries committed, or that shall be committed on Land, at the said Settlement in the Bay of Honduras, may be required of, tried, heard, determined and adjudged, within the said Settlement in the Bay of Honduras, under or by virtue of The King's Commission or Commissions, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to be directed to any such Four or more different Persons, as the Lord Chancellor of Great Britain, Lord Keeper or Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Great Britain, for the time being, shall from time to time think fit to appoint, in the same manner as is provided and enacted with respect to any Crimes directed to be required of, heard, determined or adjudged, under and by virtue of any Commission issued under and by virtue of the aforesaid Act of the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty, in any of His Majesty's Islands, Plantations, Colonies, Dominions, Ports or Fisheries.

§ 1. G. 3. c. 43. § 1.

20 G. 3. c. 28.

Comms. Officers may, under an Order in the Bay of Honduras, be tried there under a Commission under the Great Seal.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners to be appointed, or any Three of them, shall have such and the like Powers and Authorities for the Trial of all such Murders, Manslaughters, Rapes, Robberies and Burglaries, committed within such Settlement in the Bay of Honduras, as any Commissioners appointed or to be appointed under the said Act of the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty have, or would have, for the Trial of any Offences committed upon the Sea: And all Persons convicted of either of the said Offences in to be tried by virtue of any Commission to be issued according to the Directions of this Act shall be subject and liable to, and shall suffer all such and the same Fines, Penalties or Forfeitures, as by any Law or Laws now in force Persons convicted of the same respectively would be subject and liable to in case the same were respectively required of, tried, heard, determined and adjudged, within any of His Majesty's Islands, Plantations, Colonies or Dominions, by virtue of any Commission made according to the Directions of the aforesaid Acts of the Forty sixth and Forty seventh Years of His present Majesty, or either of them; any Statute, Law or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Persons of the Commission appointed under such Commission.

Fines, &c. in which Persons are bound liable.

III. Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall repeal or affect the Provisions of an Act passed in the Thirty third Year of the Reign of King Henry the Eighth, intitled An Act to provide for Commission of Oyer

Provis for Sect. 31 H. 8. c. 13.

Open and Terminate against such Persons as shall commit Treason, or others, without remanding the same to be tried in the Place where the Offence was committed.

As altered, &c.
this Session.

IV. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Twenty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act concerning the Administration of Justice in Scotland, and Appeals to the House of Lords, it was enacted, that the Judges or Lords of Session should usually sit in Two Divisions, and the Lord President of the whole Court, and Seven of the Ordinary Lords of Session should form One and the First of the said Divisions, and the Lord Justice Clerk for the time being and Six of the Ordinary Lords of Session should form the other and the Second of the said Divisions: And Whereas by another Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for abridging the Form of recording Decrees of the Court of Session in Scotland, and for the Regulation of certain Parts of the Proceedings of that Court, it was enacted, that the Three Junior Ordinary Judges of the First Division of the Court of Session, and the Two Junior Ordinary Judges of the Second Division, should be relieved from Attendance in the Inner House, and should, even after the passing of the said Act, not sit therein, but should sit in Lords Ordinary in the Outer House: And Whereas by another Act passed in the Tenth third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for the better Regulation of the Court of Session in Scotland, it was enacted, that the Three Junior Ordinary Judges of the First Division of the Court of Session, and the Two Junior Ordinary Judges of the Second Division of the Court of Session for the time being, should officiate as permanent Lords Ordinary, in the manner therein directed: And Whereas a Vacancy has arisen in the Second Division of the Court of Session by the Death of One of the Two Ordinary Judges officiating as permanent Lords Ordinary therein, and Vacancies may arise in either of the said Divisions by the Death or Resignation of one or more of the Judges sitting in the Inner House, as well as by the Death or Resignation of one or more of the Ordinary Judges officiating as permanent Lords Ordinary therein; and Circumstances may arise which may make it desirable that a Judge sitting in the Inner House of One of the said Divisions should sit in the Inner House of the other of the said Divisions; and it is expedient that the Power of His Majesty should be declared in such Cases: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted and declared, and be it enacted and declared by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, upon a Vacancy arising by the Death or Resignation of any of the Judges sitting in the Inner House of either of the said Divisions of the Court of Session, to order and direct, by a Warrant under His Majesty's Royal Sign Manual, that any One of the Judges sitting in the Inner House of the Division where the Vacancy shall not have arisen (if such Judge shall desire it), shall sit in the Division where the Vacancy shall have arisen; and that the Vacancy then created in the said Division, from which the said Judge shall have been removed, shall be supplied by the Senior Ordinary Judge officiating as a permanent Lord Ordinary in the Outer House, who shall thereafter be enabled to sit in the Inner House of the said Division, although such Junior Judge shall not have been appointed to sit in the said Division; or if no Judge sitting in the Inner House of the Division where the Vacancy shall not have arisen, shall desire to sit in the Division where the Vacancy shall have arisen, that the Senior Ordinary Judge officiating as a permanent Lord Ordinary in either of the said Divisions shall be enabled thereafter to sit in the Inner House of that Division in which the said Vacancy shall have arisen, although such Junior Judge shall not have been originally appointed to sit in the Division where such Vacancy shall happen.

II. And be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That where a Vacancy shall arise in either Division among the Ordinary Judges officiating as permanent Lords Ordinary therein, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by a Warrant under His Majesty's Royal Sign Manual, to order and direct that the Senior of the Ordinary Judges officiating as a permanent Lord Ordinary in the Division where the Vacancy shall not have arisen, if he shall desire so, and if he shall not desire it, then that the next Ordinary Judge officiating as a permanent Lord Ordinary in the Division where the Vacancy shall not have arisen, if such Judge shall desire it, shall sit in the Division where the Vacancy shall have arisen; and where a Vacancy shall arise among the Ordinary Judges officiating as permanent Lords Ordinary in the Second Division, then the Junior or last appointed Judge for the time being, of the Three Junior Ordinary Judges of the First Division, shall be appointed in manner directed by this Act to sit in the Second Division, and so long as he shall continue One of the Two Junior Ordinary Judges therein, shall officiate as One of the permanent Lords Ordinary therein, in the manner directed by the said last-mentioned Act.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in the Case of the Removal of any of the said Judges from the One of the said Divisions to the other of the said Divisions, such Judge shall have Rank and Precedence in the Division to which he shall be removed according to and from the Date of his original Appointment to sit in the Division from which he shall be removed.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in the Case of the Junior or last appointed Judge of the First of the said Divisions being removed to the Second Division pursuant to this Act, it shall be competent to the whole Court, or a Quorum thereof, to appoint the other Judges officiating as permanent Lords Ordinary to officiate each Week by rotation as Ordinaries in the Bill Chamber divided in Tabled Proceedings, and other Matters mentioned in the said last recited Act, in the manner therein directed in the Case of the Death, Resignation, Sickleave or necessary Absence of such Justice or last appointed Judge.

*Judge of the First Division
being permanent*

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all other Cases where an Ordinary Judge officiating as a permanent Lord Ordinary shall be removed from the One of the said Divisions to the other of the said Divisions, it shall and may be lawful for the whole Court, or a Quorum thereof, to commit the Proceedings then depending before such permanent Lord Ordinary in the manner directed by the said last recited Act, in the Event of the Death, Resignation or Removal into the lower House, of any of the said permanent Lords Ordinary.

*Proviso in the other Cases of
this Act.*

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act and the said Three several Acts shall be read together in the same manner as if this Act had made Part of the said last recited Act.

*This Act and several Acts enacted toge-

C A P. XLVI.

An Act to abolish Appeals of Murder, Treason, Felony or other Offences, and Wager of Battle, or joining Issue and Trial by Battle, in Writs of Right. [12th Year 1819.]

WHEREAS Appeals of Murder, Treason, Felony and other Offences, and the Manner of proceeding thereon, have been found to be oppressive; and the Trial by Battle in any Suit, is a Mode of Trial unfit to be used; and it is expedient that the same should be wholly abolished: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, all Appeals of Treason, Murder, Felony or other Offences, shall cease, determine and become void; and that it shall not be lawful for any Person or Persons, at any time after the passing of this Act, to commence, take or set on Foot an Appeal of Treason, Murder, Felony or other Offences, against any other Person or Persons whatsoever, but that all such Appeals shall, from henceforth, be utterly abolished; any Law, Statute or Usage to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

Murder or other Offences, to cease.*

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, in any Writ of Right now depending, or which may hereafter be brought, returned or commenced, the Trial shall not be removed to wage Battle, nor shall Issue be joined nor Trial be had by Battle in any Writ of Right; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

*No Trial to be removed to wage Battle, nor Trial had by Battle in Writ

C A P. XLVII.

An Act to indemnify Persons who shall give Evidence before the Lords Spiritual and Temporal on the Bill for preventing Bribery and Corruption in the Election of Members to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Burgesshe, in the County of Devon. [12th Year 1819.]

WHEREAS the Commons of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled have passed a Bill intituled An Act for the preventing of Bribery and Corruption in the Election of Members to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Burgesshe, in the County of Devon: And Whereas it is alleged that there hath been notorious Bribery and Corruption at Elections of Burgesshe, or to procure the Election of Burgesshe, to serve in Parliament for the said Borough of Burgesshe: And Whereas it is necessary to examine as Witnesses at the Bar of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in respect of such alleged Bribery and Corruption, several Persons not having been Candidates or a Candidate for the said Borough: And Whereas the Testimony of such Persons may lead to Discoveries tending to expose them to penal Consequences: And Whereas it is expedient to indemnify such Persons, as they are hereafter indemnified, upon their truly and faithfully making such Discoveries and Discovery as hereafter mentioned: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That for the more effectually prosecuting the said Enquiry, that all and every Person and Persons, not having been Candidates or a Candidate for the said Borough, who may or hath been or may have been implicated or engaged in such alleged Bribery and Corruption, at or connected with any Election of Members to serve in Parliament for the said Borough of Burgesshe, and who shall be examined as Witnesses or a Witness at the Bar of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal respecting such alleged Bribery and Corruption, and who shall upon such Examination make a true and faithful Discovery and Discoveries, to the best of his, her or their Knowledge touching all Acts, Matters and Things to which he, she or they shall be so examined, shall be, and he, she and they is and are hereby freed, absolved and discharged of, from and against all penal Actions, Forfeitures, Penalties, Disabilities and Incapacities, and all criminal Prosecutions, which he, she or they may have been or may become liable or subject to, or which he, she or they may have incurred or may incur, at the Suit of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, or any other Person or Persons, for or by malice or malice of or in relation to any Act, Matter or Thing done or committed by such Person or Persons in respect of such alleged Bribery and Corruption, respecting or concerning which such Person or Persons shall be so examined as aforesaid, and shall make such true and faithful Discovery and Discoveries as aforesaid.

plicated in Bribery, not being Candidates, ex-
Witnesses and making a faithful Discovery, indemnified.*

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, that this Act or any thing herein contained shall not extend or be deemed or construed to extend to give any Benefit or Advantage to, or to indemnify, free or discharge

Not to extend to Persons giving false Discoveries

Evidence, or suppressing any Matter in Question.

In case of Attornies, Copies of Entries of

twenty, and the said First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty, to pay and deliver to any Person who shall present Notes of the said Governor and Company of the said Bank, such Quantity of Gold of such Fineness as aforesaid, and assayed and stamped as aforesaid, as shall be equal to the Amount of the Notes so presented, at any Rate less than Three Pounds One Shilling and not less than Three Pounds Nineteen Shillings and Sixpence for every Quance of such Gold; and in like manner at any time between the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty, and the First Day of May One thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, to pay and deliver such Gold at any Rate less than Three Pounds Nineteen Shillings and Sixpence, and not less than Three Pounds Seventeen Shillings; and Ten pence Halfpenny for every Quance of such Gold: Provided always, that the Governor and Company of the said Bank of England shall give Three Days' Notice in The London Gazette of their Intention to make such Payments after such Rates, specifying the Rates in which such Payments shall be made; and provided also, that it shall not be lawful for the Governor and Company of the said Bank of England, at any time after making such Payments at the Rates mentioned in any such Notice, to pay or deliver any such Gold at a Rate higher than the Rate mentioned in any such Notice; any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

VI. Provided also, and he it enacted, That the Governor and Company of the Bank of England shall not be required or compelled to pay or deliver any such Gold, unless such, assayed and stamped as aforesaid; any thing heretofore contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

VII. Provided also, and he it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Governor and Company of the said Bank of England to pay any Person less than Forty Shillings of any Sum so demanded above the Value of Sixty Groats, in the lawful Silver Coin of the Realm.

VIII. Provided also, and he it further enacted, That the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, if they shall for Six, or at any time on or after the First Day of May One thousand eight hundred and twenty-two, pay or exchange the lawful Coin of the Realm for any Note or Notes of the said Governor and Company payable on demand; any Provision in the said before recited Acts, or in this Act, to the contrary notwithstanding.

IX. And he it further enacted, That the Governor and Company of the Bank of England shall, from time to time after the passing of this Act, and until the First Day of May One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, cause a true and perfect Account in Writing, to be taken and attested by the proper Officers, of the average Amount of all Promissory Notes and Bills of the said Governor and Company which shall be in Circulation during every Week, from Monday until Saturday both inclusive, distinguishing the respective Denominations and Values of the several Notes and Bills, and the average Amount of the Notes and Bills of each Denomination and Value respectively in a Circulation, and to cause such Account to be transmitted and delivered to one of the Clerks of His Majesty's Privy Council, on the Tuesday in every Week next ensuing the Saturday to which such Account shall be made up; and the said Governor and Company shall also from time to time, in like manner, cause an Account to be taken and attested of the average Amount of all Promissory Notes and Bills of the said Governor and Company which shall be in Circulation during every Quarter of a Year ending on the Fifth Day of July, the Tenth Day of October, the Fifth Day of January, and the Fifth Day of April in every Year after the passing of this Act, and until the First Day of May One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, distinguishing the respective Denominations and Values of the several Notes and Bills, and the average Amount of the Notes and Bills of each Denomination and Value respectively, and to cause such Quarterly Account to be published in The London Gazette within One Week next after the End of each Quarter respectively.

X. And Whereas the Laws now in force against trafficking exporting the Gold and Silver Coin of the Realm have been found ineffectual, and it is expedient therefore Traffic in Gold and Silver Bullion should be restrained: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons to export the Gold or Silver Coin of the Realm to Parts beyond the Seas, and also to melt the Gold and Silver Coin of the Realm, and to manufacture or export or otherwise dispose of the Gold or Silver Bullion produced thereby; and no Person who shall export or melt such Gold or Silver Coin, or who shall manufacture, export or dispose of such Bullion, shall be subject to any Restriction, Forfeiture, Fine, Penalty, Incapacity or Disability whatever, for or in respect of such export, manufacturing or exporting the same respectively; any thing in any Act or Acts in force in Great Britain or Ireland to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

XI. And for the removing all Doubts and Uncertainties with respect to various Provisions in divers ancient Statutes against making and exporting of Gold and Silver, be it further enacted, That inasmuch as a Statute made in the Ninth Year of the Kings of King Edward the Third shall be repealed, whereby it is provided, that no religious Man nor either shall carry any Sterling out of the Realm of England, nor Silver or Plate, nor Vessel of Gold, nor of Silver, upon pain of Forfeiture of the Money, Plate or Vessel that he shall so carry without The King's Special Licence; and also that no French of the said Statute shall be repealed, whereby it is provided that no Sterling Halfpenny nor Farthing be taken for to make Vessel or any other thing by Goldsmiths nor other, upon Forfeiture of the Money so taken, and that the Goldsmith or other which shall have so taken such Money shall be committed to Prison, and there shall remain till he shall have yielded unto The King the One Half of that he hath so taken; and that also inasmuch as a Statute made in the fourteenth Year of the Reign of the said King Edward the Third shall be repealed, whereby it is secured and affirmed, that good and lawful Money shall be assayed in the Parts of the Sea and elsewhere, where need shall be, to make Search that no Silver be carried out of the Realm, neither in Money nor otherwise, and that the said Searchers shall have the Third Part of the good Money which they shall find upon the Sea, passing out of the Realm; and also that so much of the Statute of the Staple, or Ordinance of the Staple, made in the Twenty seventh Year of the said King Edward the Third, shall be repealed, whereby it is enacted, that none carry out of The King's Realm and Lands the old Sterling; and also that so much of the Statute made in the Thirty eighth Year of the Reign of the said King Edward the Third shall be repealed, whereby it is enacted, that none carry out of the Realm Gold or Silver, in Piece nor in Mass; and also that so much of the Statute made in the Fifth Year of the Reign of King Richard the Second shall be repealed, whereby it is enacted and accorded, and The King enjoineth all manner of People, Merchants, Clerks and others, as well Strangers as Denizens, of what Estate or Condition they be, upon pain of as much as they may forfeit, that none of them upon the said Part, privily nor openly, do send nor carry, nor make to be sent or carried out of the Realm, any Gold or Silver in Money, Bullion, Plate or Vessel, neither by Exchange to be made nor in any other manner whatsoever, except the Wages of Colour and of other The King's Foresters beyond the Sea, and especially excepted the Prefates, Lords and others of the same Realm to whom fortunes is behooven necessarily to make Payments beyond the Sea, that of such Payments only they may make Exchange in England by good and sufficient Merchants to pay beyond the Sea, Special Leave and Licence being thereto first had of our Lord The King, as well for the Exchange as for the Person which ought to make the Payments, containing expressly the Sum which shall be so exchanged; and whereby it is enacted that the Merchants who so shall make the said Exchange shall be diligently examined and sworn, in their proper Person, as often as they shall have the said Licence, that they will not send beyond the Sea any manner of Gold or Silver under the Colour of the same Exchange; and that if, after Proclamation of the said Ordinance, any Person be taken therefor duly convicted that he had caused to be sent or carried beyond the Sea any Gold or Silver, against the said Statute and Ordinance, he should forfeit to The King the same Sum so carried or sent; and also that so much of the Statute made in the Seventeenth Year of the Reign of the said King Richard the Second shall be repealed, whereby it is ordained and enacted, that no Great or Half Great shall be made by any Man, as make any Vessel or other thing thereof, and that no Man shall send English Money into Ireland, to charge the same in Money or for Money of Ireland; and also that so much of the Statute made in the Second Year of the Reign of King Henry the Fourth shall be repealed, whereby it is ordained and established, that if any Stranger of the King may find Gold or Silver in Clay, or in Mine, in the keeping of any that is about passing or upon his Passage in any Ship or Vessel to go out of any Port, Haven or Creek of the Realm, without The King's Special Licence, all that Gold or Silver shall be forfeit to The King; and also that so much of a Statute made in the Second Year of the Reign of King Henry the Sixth shall be repealed, whereby it is ordained and established, that no Gold or Silver shall be carried out of the Realm, upon pain of Forfeiture of the Value of the Sum of Money which shall be carried out of the Realm, to be levied of him that shall bring, carry or send it out; and that he which offendeth the same, and thereof giveth Knowledge to the Council, or to the Treasurer of England, shall have the Fourth Part of the Forfeiture due to The King; and also that so much of an Act made in the Fourth Year of the Reign of King Henry the Seventh, entitled An Act against carrying away of Cash, Plate, Jewels or Jewels out of this Realm, shall be repealed, whereby it is enacted, that no Person dwelling or inhabiting within this Realm pay or deliver willingly by way of Exchange or otherwise, to any Merchant or other Person, Stranger, born out of The King's Obedience, for any Merchandise or Wares, or to any otherwise, any manner Precious Gold valued in this Realm, or in any other Realm, or any Plate, Vessel, Mass Bullion nor Jewels of Gold wrought or unwrought, upon pain to forfeit and lose the double Sum or double Value of all such Money of Gold coined, Plate, Vessel, Mass Bullion or Jewels of Gold or Silver, paid, delivered or exchanged contrary to the said Act; and also that an Act made in the Thirtieth and Fourteenth Years of the Reign of King Charles the Second, entitled An Act to prevent the Inconvenience arising by melting the Silver Coin of this Realm, shall be repealed, whereby it is enacted, that no Person or Persons shall wilfully melt or cause to be melted, any of the current Silver Money of this Realm, under the Pain, Penalties and Disabilities in the said Act contained; and the several several Provisions of the said several Statutes and Acts, and the said recited Act of the Thirtieth and Fourteenth Years of the Reign of King Charles the Second, and all and every other Law and Laws, Act and Acts in force immediately before the passing of the said last recited Act, whereby the Melting or Exportation of Gold and Silver Coin, or the Exportation of Molten Gold or Silver, or Bullion of Gold or Silver, was prohibited or restrained, shall be and the same are and is hereby repealed, except only so far as relates to any Suit, Action or Information which at the time of the passing of this Act shall or may be depending, with relation to any Offence against the said Statutes or Acts respectively or any of them.

XII. And he it is further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, so much of an Act made in the Sixth and Seventh Years of His late Majesty King William the Third, entitled An Act to prevent counterfeiting and clipping the Coin of this Kingdom, shall be repealed, as requires the taking, administering, or Concoction of any Oath, that no Part of any Molten Silver intended for Exportation, was before the same was within the current Coin of this Realm, nor Plate wrought within the Kingdom; and also that so much of the said Act shall be repealed, whereby it is enacted, that if any Broker or Brokers, not being a Trading Goldsmith or Refiner of Silver, shall buy or sell any Bullion or Molten Silver, every such Person shall suffer for every such Offence Imprisonment for Six Months, without Bail or Mainprize; and also that so much of the said Act shall be repealed, as authorizes the Warden or Assistants of the Company of Goldsmiths of London, or any Two Justices of the Peace, to seize as unlawful Bullion any Molten Silver, which before the making thereof was the current Coin of this Realm, or as requires any Offender in whose Possession unlawful Bullion shall be found, to prove on Oath that such Bullion was not the current Coin of the Realm; and also that so much of an Act made in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Third, entitled An Act to encourage the bringing Silver into the Mint to be coined, and for the remedying the ill

State of the Coin of the Kingdom, shall be repealed, as respects the taking, administering, or Corrupting of any Oath, that no Part of any Molten Silver or Bullion whatsoever to be shipped for Exportation, was before the same was made the Coin of the Realm, nor Piece wrought within the Kingdom; and also that so much of the said last mentioned Act shall be repealed, as respects any Penalty or Forfeiture or Incapacity on the Captain or Master of any Ship or Vessel, who shall knowingly permit or suffer Molten Silver or Bullion to be put on board his Ship or Vessel; and all the said revised Provisions of the said several Acts are hereby repealed accordingly.

— XIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to repeal or alter any Act or Acts, or any Part of any Act or Acts in force in Great Britain or Ireland, so far as the same relate to the Prevention, Detection or Punishment of the Offences of clipping, washing, rounding, filing, impairing, breaking, falsifying, loading or lightening of the lawful Coin of the Realm; or to the inflicting any Pain, Penalty or Forfeiture on any Person guilty of such Offences, or guilty of buying or selling, or knowingly having in their Custody any Clippings or Filings of such Coin; and that from and after the passing of this Act, before a Ship or Vessel shall transport or carry to be transported any Molten Silver whatever, Oath shall be made before the Witnesses of the Company of Goldsmiths in London, or one of them, by the Owner or Owners of such Molten Silver, and likewise by one credible Witness that the same is lawful Silver, and that no Part thereof was, before the same was melted, Clippings of the current Coin of the Realm, which Oath the said Witnesses, or any One of them, are and is hereby required and authorised to administer, instead of the Oath required by the said revised Act of the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of King William the Third; and that from and after the passing of this Act, before any Person or Persons shall ship or carry to be shipped or put on board any Ship or Vessel whatsoever, any Molten Silver or Bullion whatsoever, Oath shall be made before the Court of the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London, by the Owner or Owners of such Molten Silver or Bullion, and likewise by Two or more credible Witnesses, that no Part of such Molten Silver or Bullion was, before the same was melted, Clippings of the Coin of the Realm; which Oath the said Court of the said Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the said City of London are hereby required and authorised to administer, instead of the Oath required by the said revised Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of King William the Third; and that all the Powers, Authorities, Rules, Regulations and Provisions in the said several Acts contained, shall continue and be in force with relation to the Clippings of the Coin of the Realm, and with relation to the Exportation of any Molten Silver or Bullion whatsoever, which before the making thereof was Clippings of the Coin of the Realm, and in all other respects whatever, except only so far as the same are expressly repealed or altered by this Act; any thing in this Act before contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Nothing herein shall extend to repeal any Act for Prevention of clipping, in the Coin of this Kingdom.

Corporal Oaths to be taken on the Exportation of Molten Silver or Bullion.

 which such Composition shall have been made, and also to keep and sit, five of Duty, any additional Article or Articles of the same Description, and chargeable under the same Schedule of the said Acts, (although the same may be therein charged with different and progressive Rates of Duty, according to the Number thereof,) as they, he or she were or was charged in respect of in the Assessment on which the Composition shall have been made; and shall be exempt from any further Compliance with any of the Provisions contained in the said Acts relating to the Assessed Taxes, and from all Assessments thereon, during the said Term of Three Years, except where the Persons or Persons entering into such Composition, shall be or become chargeable with the said Duties in respect of a Dwelling House or Dwelling Houses not comprised in the said Composition; or in respect of any Article or Articles of a different Description, or chargeable with Duty under some other Schedule or Schedules of the said Acts, then they, he or she were or was charged in respect of in the Assessment on which the Composition shall have been made: in which excepted Cases, and on another, further or increased Charges shall be made, and the Taxes, Penalties and Forfeitures inflicted according to the Provisions of the several Acts, in relation to the said Taxes in force at and immediately before the passing of this Act, as fully and effectually as if no such Composition had been made under this Act.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Composition shall be entered into under this Act with any Persons or Persons who shall have become chargeable in the present Year, by reason of any different or additional Establishment for or within the Year ending on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, to a greater Amount of Duty than hath been charged on them, then or her in the last last Year's Assessment, without including as well the Amount of Duty so charged in the last Assessment, as the increased Amount of Duty so becoming chargeable by reason of such different or additional Establishment, nor in any such Case where a hundredth Part of such different or increased Establishment shall not be made before the Full Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen.

V. Provided always, That no Person shall be chargeable under the Acts in force at the time of passing this Act, after the Expiration of the said Term of Three Years, for any Part of the increased Establishment not included in the Composition entered into under this Act, who shall give Six Months previous Notice of his Intention to discontinue the same, and who shall actually have ceased to keep the same One Calendar Month prior to the Expiration of the said Period of Three Years.

VI. Provided nevertheless, That when an Establishment shall have established in part of Articles wherein a Debt Duty hath been made payable by any Act in the present Session of Parliament, it shall be lawful to enter into Compositions under this Act, as the Amount of Duty charged on other Articles on the said last Assize, together with the Amount of Duty to be made chargeable by the said Act of the present Session of Parliament.

VII. And be it further enacted, That every Composition entered into under this Act, in respect of the Duties charged on a Dwelling House from which the Person or Persons entering into the same shall remove during the Term herein limited, shall create and determine on the Fifth Day of April next after such Removal; and every Composition entered into under this Act, in respect of any other of the Duties granted by the said Act, with any Person or Persons who within the said Term herein limited shall die, or become bankrupt or insolvent, or shall assign them, his or her Goods, Chattle or Effects, shall also create and determine on the Fifth Day of April next after such Death, Bankruptcy, Insolvency or Assignment.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That every Composition entered into in pursuance of this Act, subject to the Determination thereof as aforesaid, shall bind the Person or Persons entering into the same, their, his and her Executors, Goods and Effects, at the due and punctual Payment and Satisfaction, at the times and in the Proportions herein specified, of the full Amount of the Sums made payable upon the said Composition, or by virtue thereof, during the Continuance of the same, according to and under the Provisions of this Act.

IX. And be it further enacted, That all and every Person or Persons to having compounded, and quitting or removing from the Dwelling Houses or Dwelling House in respect of which such Composition shall be made, and his Executors, Administrators or Assigns of such Person or Persons dying or becoming bankrupt or insolvent, and the Assigns of any such Person or Persons assigning them, his or her Estate, Chattle, Goods or Effects, shall be bound to the due and punctual Payment of all Sums accruing, due or to become due the respective times of such Removal, Death, Bankruptcy, Insolvency or Assignment, or which shall be payable upon such Composition for the Year ending on the Fifth Day of April next after such Removal, Death, Bankruptcy, Insolvency or Assignment; and on Goods or Chattels whatever, belonging to any Person or Persons to having compounded, and quitting or removing from them, his or her Dwelling Houses or Dwelling House, or dying or becoming bankrupt or insolvent, or assigning them, his or her Estate, Chattle, Goods or Effects, shall be removed, nor shall any Goods or Chattels belonging to any Person or Persons to having compounded, be liable to be taken by virtue of any Execution or other Process, Warrant or Authority, unless the Person or Persons to having compounded, or their, his or her Executors, Administrators or Assigns, or the Party to whom any such Assignment shall be made, or by whom such Process, Warrant, Authority or Seizure shall be sent out or made, shall, before the Removal of such Goods or Chattels, pay or cause to be paid to the proper Collector or Collectors of the said Composition Money, (the same not having been paid to the Governor and Directors of the Bank of England, or the Receiver General or his Deputy, pursuant to the Directions of this Act,) all Arrears of the said Money which shall be then due, or which shall be payable for the Year ending on the Fifth Day of April next after such Removal, Death, Bankruptcy, Insolvency, Assignment or Seizure; and in case of Refusal to pay the said Composition Money then due or to grow due as aforesaid, the said Collector or Collectors are or is hereby authorized and required to distress such Goods or Chattels, and proceed to the Sale thereof, in such manner as they may sell any Goods or Chattels distrained under the said Act, until they or he shall have obtained Payment of the said Composition Money, together with the reasonable Costs and Charges attending such Distress and Sale; and every such Collector shall be indemnified for so doing by virtue of this Act.

X. And be it further enacted, That the Money so arise or become payable by virtue of the Compositions entered into under this Act, shall be payable without demand, and paid Quarterly, at the three times and in the same Proportions, and to the same Persons respectively, as the Duties of Assessed Taxes are now payable by virtue of any Act or Acts in force at and immediately before the passing of this Act: Provided always, that all and every the Person or Persons to compounding as aforesaid, the Amount of whose annual Compositions or Composition shall not be less than Twenty Pounds, may contract and agree with the respective Commissioners charged for the Payment of their, his or her Composition Money into the Bank of England, or to the Receiver General, or his lawful Deputy, for the County or District where their, his or her Composition Money shall be payable by Half yearly Instalments at the times and in the manner herein prescribed in this Act; and all such Half yearly Payments shall be made on equal Portions at or before the Fifth Day of October, and the Fifth Day of April each Year, and with respect to Payments to be made to the Receiver General or his Deputy, to require a Receipt or Receipts acknowledging such Payments, at the Cost and Charge of the Person or Persons making such Payments, in such Form as the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes shall direct and direct; and in every such Case the said Receiver General or his Deputy as aforesaid, shall give the said Person or Persons by whom such Payments shall be made, a Receipt or Receipts as aforesaid, specifying therein the Names or Name of the Person or Persons compounding as aforesaid, and the Parish or Parishes wherein the Certificate of Composition; which Receipts shall be delivered over to the Collector, or one of them, of the Parish or Parishes where the Assignment referred to by the Certificate of Composition shall have been made, by Indorsement under the Hand or Hand of the Person or Persons so compounding and paying, and shall be received by such Collector or Collector as Cash, and allowed as such by every Receiver General or his Deputy in his Accounts with such Collector.

XI. And be it further enacted, That the Governor and Directors of the Bank of England shall open an Account in their Books with the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the time being, for each Year, during the Term herein limited, under the Title of "The Commissioners of the Treasury on account of Compositions of Assessed Taxes;" and shall carry to the Credit of the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for the like Amount of Assize Taxes paid by them respectively; and that for the careful preparing, writing and transcribing all and every the Certificates of Compositions, Duplicates, Warrants and Returns in due time, and for the due, speedy and effectually executing all Matters and Things directed to be done or performed by or under the Commissioners acting in the Execution of this Act, the Clerk of the said respective Commissaries who shall perform the same within the times limited by this Act, or by the said Acts in force at and immediately before the passing of this Act, shall have and receive from the Receiver General at the same times, and under the same Conditions and Retentions, the like Foundage on the Amount compounded by under this Act, as he would have been entitled to have and receive under the said Act of the Forty eighth Year aforesaid, for the like Amount of Assize Taxes.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Date of any Certificate of Composition made under this Act, and during the Continuance of the same in force, all Assize taxes under the said Acts shall only with respect to the Petition or Petition in composition, except as hereinafter is excepted; and Three Abstracts of all and every Certificate and Certificate of Composition, shall, within Ten Days after the First Day of October in the present Year, and in each subsequent Year during the Continuance of any Composition under this Act, within One Calendar Month after the Fifth Day of July in each Year, be prepared by the Clerk to the Commissaries who have executed the said Certificate, in such Form as shall be devised and directed by the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes; and the said Commissaries, or any Two or more of them, shall yearly set their Hands to the said Abstracts, and deliver or cause to be delivered One of the said Abstracts of each Certificate, together with Warrants under the Hands and Seals of Two or more of the said Commissaries for collecting the same, unto the Petition respectively who shall be appointed to collect the Assize Taxes for that Year, and One other of the said Abstracts to the Surveyor of the Duties for the three being, and the Third of the said Abstracts to be kept by such Clerk for the Use of the said Commissaries; and in case the respective Collectors shall not receive the Same payable on the Certificates of Composition with which they are respectively entrusted, according to the said Abstracts delivered to them respectively, or the Receipts of the Receiver General or his Deputy, or the Certificate of the Cashier of the Bank of England, acknowledging the Payment thereof, at or before the times mentioned in their Warrants, it shall be lawful to and for such Collector and Collectors, or any of them, and they are hereby required forthwith to distress for the same, together with One Shilling for every Twenty Shillings of the Amount in arrears, to their or his own Use, and all reasonable Costs and Charges attending the same, in such Manner and Form as they might distress for the Duties of Assize Taxes owing by virtue of the said Acts, and to levy and raise the same, under the like Powers and Authorities as Collectors are authorised to use in and for the Recovery of the said Duties.

XX. And be it further enacted, That the respective Commissaries aforesaid, shall cause the Amounts of the Same to be raised by such Compositions in each Parish, Ward or Place, within their respective Divisions, to be entered in their annual Duplicates of Assize taxes of Assize Taxes on Parliament, in a Column to be prepared thereon for that Purpose, under the Head of "Taxes compounded for," in like manner as if the same Amounts had been severally charged by Assize taxes under One Schedule of the said Acts, in the same Parish, Ward or Place; and shall place the respective Amounts payable in each Parish, Ward or Place, opposite the Names of the Collectors of the same Parish, Ward or Place, that the several Collectors, and each Parish, Ward or Place, may be answerable for the same Amounts, as if the same had been to be raised by Assize taxes under the said Acts.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That the Monies arising by the Compositions entered into under this Act (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted), shall from time to time be paid into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer at Westminster, to the Account of Assize Taxes, and shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be varied, altered or amended, by any Act or Acts to be made in the present Session of Parliament.

C A P. LII.

An Act to repeal the several Duties of Customs chargeable in Great Britain, and to grant other Duties in lieu thereof. [24 July 1819.]

43 G. 3. c. 98.

54 G. 3. c. 12.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Beign, intimated As As for repealing the several Duties of Customs chargeable in Great Britain, and for granting other Duties in lieu thereof, certain Duties of Customs and certain Drawbacks in respect thereof were granted and made payable in Great Britain, in lieu of former Duties and Drawbacks payable there: And Whereas by an Act made in the Fifty fourth Year of His present Majesty's Beign, certain Duties of Customs were repealed on Goods, Wares and Merchandise imported into Great Britain from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies: And Whereas several new and additional Duties of Customs have from time to time been granted and made payable in Great Britain by several Acts made since the making of the said second Act: And Whereas it is expedient that the several Duties of Customs now payable in Great Britain should be consolidated, and that for that Purpose all Duties of Customs now payable in Great Britain (except as hereinafter excepted) should cease and determine, and that other Duties of Customs should be granted and made payable in lieu of the Duties which shall so cease and determine: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, all and singular the Subsidies, Customs, Impositions or Duties whatever respecting the Revenue of Customs payable to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force in Great Britain on or immediately before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, upon the Importation or Exportation respectively of any Goods, Wares or Merchandise into or from Great Britain, or upon any Goods, Wares or Merchandise being brought or carried Coastwise from one Port or Place in Great Britain to any other Port or Place in the same, or upon any Ship or Vessel, according to the Tonnage thereof, entering or clearing outwardly or inwardly at any Port within Great Britain, and also all additional Imposts or Duties charged upon the Produce or Amount of the said several Duties of Customs or any of them, and the several and respective Drawbacks allowed upon the Exportation of any Goods, Wares or Merchandise from Great Britain, shall cease and determine, save and

Customs and

and except in such Cases only as are excepted or provided for by any Exception or Provision contained in this Act; and then and except in all Cases and in so far as shall relate to the recovering, allowing, or paying any Arrears of the said Duties and Drawbacks respectively, which may remain unpaid or not allowed on the fifth Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, or to any Taxes, Fines, or Forfeitures relating thereto respectively, which shall have been incurred at any time on or before the said fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend or be construed to extend to repeal or in anywise alter the Duties of Package, Stowage, Ballage or Portage, or any other Duties payable to the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, or to the Lord Mayor of the said City for the time being, or to any other City or Town Corporate within Great Britain, or any other special Privilege or Exemption to which any Person or Persons, or Body or Bodies Public or Corporate, within Great Britain, is or are entitled by Law, but the same shall continue as heretofore.

III. Provided also, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to alter or repeal or in anywise to affect any of the Duties on Ships or Vessels according to the Tonnage thereof, granted and imposed by an Act passed in the Thirty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for rendering more commodious and for better regulating the Port of London, or any Act or Acts for amending the same, or any of the Duties granted and imposed by an Act passed in the Forty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for making further Provision for the more effectual Performance of Quarantine, or any Act or Acts for amending the same.

IV. Provided also, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to alter or repeal any of the Duties on Goods, Wares and Merchandise imported, or any of the Duties on Ships or Vessels according to the Tonnage thereof, granted and imposed by an Act passed in the Fifty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to repeal the Provisions of former Acts granting exclusive Privileges of Trade in the South Sea Company, and to indemnify the said Company for the Loss of such Privileges, or to alter or repeal any of the Provisions of the said recited Act, or of any Act or Acts for amending the same.

V. Provided also, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to repeal or alter any of the Provisions contained in Two Acts for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, the one made in the Parliament of Great Britain, in the Twenty sixth and Fortieth Years of His present Majesty's Reign, and the other made in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Fortieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, or in any other Act or Acts in force on or immediately before the said fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, by which any Goods, Wares or Merchandise, the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of Ireland, imported into Great Britain from Ireland, or any Goods, Wares or Merchandise, the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of Great Britain, exported from Great Britain to Ireland, are respectively made liable to or are charged with or exempted from any Duties of Customs, whether Countervailing or others, or by which any Drawbacks are allowed or given on the Exports of such Goods, Wares or Merchandise.

VI. And Whereas it is necessary that other Duties of Customs should be granted to Your Majesty in lieu of the Duties repealed by this Act; we, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Parliament assembled, have therefore given and granted to Your Majesty the several Duties of Customs hereinafter mentioned, and do humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it therefore enacted, That from and after the fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, in lieu and instead of the Subsidies and Duties of Customs heretofore made to coin and determine, there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid unto His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in ready Money, (except as hereinafter is provided) without any Discount, drawback, upon Goods, Wares and Merchandise imported or brought into Great Britain, the several Duties of Customs as the same are respectively intitled, defined and set forth in Figures in the Tables to this Act annexed, marked A. and B., and upon Goods, Wares and Merchandise exported from Great Britain, the several Duties of Customs as the same are respectively intitled, defined and set forth in Figures in the Table to this Act annexed marked C., and upon Goods, Wares and Merchandise brought or carried Coastwise from one Port or Place in Great Britain, to any other Port or Place within Great Britain, the several Duties of Customs as the same are respectively intitled, defined and set forth in Figures in the Table to this Act annexed marked D.; and upon Ships or Vessels, according to the Tonnage thereof, entering Inwards or Outwards in any Port of Great Britain from or to Foreign Parts, the several Duties of Customs as the same are respectively intitled, defined and set forth in Figures in the Table hereto annexed marked E.; and that there shall also be paid or allowed the several Drawbacks of the several Duties of Customs as the same are respectively intitled, defined and set forth in Figures in the said Tables A. B. and D.; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

VII. And be it further enacted, That such of the Duties and Drawbacks of Customs by this Act imposed, as shall arise in England, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs in England for the time being; and such thereof as shall arise in Ireland, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs in Ireland for the time being.

VIII. And Whereas by the heretofore recited Acts for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, it was among other things provided and enacted, that all Duty charged on the Import of Foreign or Colonial Goods into other Country, should on their Export to the other be drawn back, or the Amount, if any were retained, should be placed to the Credit of the Country to which they should be exported, in except Amount Paid, &c.

Proviso for Tonnage Duties of 25 G. 3. c. 11, and 45 G. 3. c. 14.

Proviso for Duties of 51 G. 3. c. 13.

Proviso for 29 G. 3. c. 2. s. 3. c. 5, and 40 G. 3. c. 11, in respect to the Importation or Exportation of Goods.

The Duties specified in the Tables annexed to be levied, and the Drawbacks therein inserted allowed, in lieu of those repealed.

Duties to be under the Commissioners of Customs.

And in the Expenditure of the United Kingdom should be delivered by proportional Contributions: And Whereas by an Act made in the Fifth Sixth Year of His present Majesty's Kings, entitled An Act to amend and consolidate into One Fund all the Public Revenues of Great Britain and Ireland, and to provide for the Application thereof to the general Service of the United Kingdom, it is enacted, that from and after the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, all Rates, Duties, Taxes, Receipts, Sums of Money and Revenues, of what Nature or Kindsoever, which shall or may constitute or form Part of or be directed to be carried to the several Funds called the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain, and the Consolidated Fund of Ireland respectively, shall be carried to, and shall be paid into, and shall form and constitute One General Fund, to be called The Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and that the said Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, after Payment and Satisfaction of certain Charges in the said last recited Act mentioned, shall be indifferently applied to the Service of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or any Part thereof, as shall be directed by Parliament: And Whereas it is expedient to continue the Payment of Drawbacks on the Export of Foreign and Colonial Goods from Great Britain to Ireland; It is therefore enacted, That from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, all Duties of Customs and Excise charged and paid on the Importations into Great Britain of any Foreign or Colonial Goods, Wares or Merchandise, shall, on the Exportation from Great Britain to Ireland of such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, be drawn back, and paid and allowed to the Exporters of such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, under and subject to all such Rules, Regulations and Restrictions, as are required by any Act or Acts in force in Great Britain immediately before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen.

IX. And Whereas Duties of Customs are by this Act imposed on certain Foreign Goods, Wares and Merchandise imported into Great Britain, directly from the Place of their Growth or Produce, and higher Duties of Customs are imposed on the like Goods, Wares and Merchandise if imported not directly from the Place of their Growth or Produce; and it is expedient that the like Duties should be paid on all such Foreign Goods imported into Great Britain from Ireland, as if such Foreign Goods had been imported from Foreign Parts: Be it therefore enacted, That on the Importation of any such Foreign Goods, Wares or Merchandise into Great Britain from Ireland, such Import Duty of Customs shall be paid and payable as if such Foreign Goods, Wares or Merchandise had been imported from Foreign Parts, either directly from the Place of their Growth or Produce, or not directly from such Place, according as they were in fact at first imported from Foreign Parts into Ireland; and that for the purpose of ascertaining whether any such Goods, Wares or Merchandise were first imported into Ireland directly from the Place of their Growth or Produce, or not directly from such Place, it shall be specified and set forth in every Cochet or Clearance of any such Foreign Goods, Wares or Merchandise reported from Ireland to Great Britain, whether such Goods, Wares or Merchandise were first imported directly from the Place of their Growth or Produce, or not directly from such Place, and the Import Duty of Customs on such Goods, Wares or Merchandise shall be payable accordingly on such Goods when imported into Great Britain from Ireland, and if it shall not be exported and set forth in such Cochet or Clearance of such Goods, Wares or Merchandise, whether the same were in fact imported into Ireland directly from the Place of their Growth or Produce, or not directly from such Place, then and in such Case such Goods, Wares and Merchandise shall be and be deemed liable to such Duties of Customs on their Importation into Great Britain from Ireland, as if the same had been imported from Foreign Parts, not directly from the Place of their Growth or Produce; any thing to any Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

X. And be it further enacted, That the Duties imposed by this Act upon the Importation of Sugar, inferior, described and set forth in the Tables hereto annexed, marked A. and B., shall continue and be in force until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty, and no longer; and that the said Duties shall be ascertained, applied and accounted for, according to the Provisions of an Act made in the seventh Session of Parliament, entitled An Act for improving the Sugary duties Duties on Irish, Sugar, Tobacco and Beef in Great Britain, and on Potatoes, Coffee and Peppermint, in England; for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and nineteen; and that a separate Account of such Duties shall be kept at the Customs Houses in Great Britain, Ireland and upon from all other Duties of Customs, and the same shall be paid into the Receipts of the Exchequer in Great Britain, pursuant to the Provisions of the said last recited Act with relation to the Duties on Sugar is contained by the said Act.

XI. And be it further enacted, That the Duties imposed by this Act upon the Importation of Beek Wheat, inferior, described and set forth in the Table marked A. to the Act annexed, shall continue and be in force until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, and no longer.

XII. And be it further enacted, That the Duty of Six Shillings and Three pence, specified in the Table marked A. in this Act annexed, on every One hundred Pounds Weight of Cotton Wool, not being the Produce of and directly imported from any British Colony or Plantation in America, shall continue and be in force until and upon the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, and no longer; and that all Cotton Wool, and Waste of Cotton Wool, being the Produce of, but not imported directly from any British Colony or Plantation in America, and all Cotton Wool and Waste of Cotton Wool, the Produce of any other Country or Place which shall be so imported on or before the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty, shall be subject and liable to the Duties upon every One hundred Pounds Weight thereof mentioned, specified and set forth in the Tables marked A. and B. to this Act annexed; and that all such Cotton Wool, and Waste of Cotton Wool, which shall be so imported from and after the said Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty, shall be subject to the Duties in respect of the Value thereof, mentioned, specified and set forth in the said Tables marked A. and B.: Provided always, that upon all Cotton Wool, or Waste of Cotton Wool, which shall have been or shall be secured in Warehouses without Payment of Duty at any time previous to the said Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty, the Duty of Eight Shillings and Seven pence for every One hundred Pounds Weight thereof shall be charged and paid at any time, as well after as before the said Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty, when such Cotton Wool shall be taken out of Warehouses for Home Consumption.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the Duties imposed by this Act, and specified, mentioned, and set forth in Table D. to the Act annexed, upon Coals or Cokes brought or carried Coastwise to any Port or Place within the Principality of Wales, shall continue in force until the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty, and no longer; and that from and after the said First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty, Coals or Cokes brought or carried Coastwise to any Port or Place within the said Principality, shall be subject and liable to such and the like Duties as Coals or Cokes brought or carried Coastwise into any Port or Place in England, except the Port of London, are subject and liable to under this Act, and the said Table D. therein annexed, or shall or may be subject or liable to under any Act or Acts in force immediately before the said First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That whenever it shall appear by Notice in the London Gazette, in manner directed by Law, that the Average Price of Brown or Malabar Sugar of the British Plantations, (ascertained and taken in manner prescribed by Law in Great Britain,) for any Period required by Law, shall be below Forty nine Shillings the Hundred Weight, then and in such Case it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or the Comptroller of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three of them for the time being, and they are hereby authorized to suspend, until a new Average shall be published in the said Gazette according to Law, the Payment of One Shilling in the Hundred Weight, Part of the Duty on Brown or Malabar Sugar of the British Plantations granted by this Act, and the Table marked A. therein annexed; and the like Sum of One Shilling in the Hundred Weight, Part of the Duty of Two Pounds per Hundred Weight on Sugar of the Growth or Produce of any Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, granted by this Act, and the Table marked B. therein annexed; and if such Average Price shall be below Forty eight Shillings, then Two Shillings of the said Duties respectively; and if such Average Price shall be below Forty seven Shillings, then Three Shillings of such Duties respectively; and so continue such Suspension from time to time, if the Case shall so require, according to the Averages published as aforesaid.

XV. And be it further enacted, That whenever it shall appear by Notice published in the London Gazette in manner directed by Law, that the Average Price of Brown or Malabar Sugar of the British Plantations (ascertained and taken in manner prescribed by Law in Great Britain,) for any Period required by Law, shall exceed Sixty Shillings the Hundred Weight, then and in such Case, One Shilling in the Hundred Weight, Part of the Duty of Two Pounds per Hundred Weight on East India Sugar imposed by Table B. annexed to this Act, shall be suspended until a Notice of a new Average Price of such Brown or Malabar Sugar shall be published in manner aforesaid; and if such Average Price shall exceed the Sum of Sixty one Shillings the Hundred Weight, then Two Shillings in the Hundred Weight, Part of the said Duty on East India Sugar, shall be so suspended; and in like manner if such Average Price of such Brown or Malabar Sugar shall exceed Sixty two Shillings the Hundred Weight, then Three Shillings in the Hundred Weight of the said Duty on East India Sugar shall be so suspended; if such Average Price of such Brown or Malabar Sugar shall exceed Sixty three Shillings the Hundred Weight, then Four Shillings in the Hundred Weight of the said Duty on East India Sugar shall be so suspended; if such Average Price of such Brown or Malabar Sugar shall exceed Sixty four Shillings the Hundred Weight, then Five Shillings in the Hundred Weight of the said Duty on East India Sugar shall be so suspended; if such Average Price of such Brown or Malabar Sugar shall exceed Sixty five Shillings the Hundred Weight, then Six Shillings in the Hundred Weight of the said Duty on East India Sugar shall be so suspended; if such Average Price of such Brown or Malabar Sugar shall exceed Sixty six Shillings the Hundred Weight, then Seven Shillings in the Hundred Weight of the said Duty on East India Sugar shall be so suspended; if such Average Price of such Brown or Malabar Sugar shall exceed Sixty seven Shillings the Hundred Weight, then Eight Shillings in the Hundred Weight of the said Duty on East India Sugar shall be so suspended; if such Average Price of such Brown or Malabar Sugar shall exceed Sixty eight Shillings the Hundred Weight, then Nine Shillings in the Hundred Weight of the said Duty on East India Sugar shall be so suspended; and if such Average Price of such Brown or Malabar Sugar shall exceed Sixty nine Shillings the Hundred Weight, then Ten Shillings in the Hundred Weight, Part of the said Duty on East India Sugar, shall be so suspended.

XVI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act, or any of the Tables therein annexed, mentioned, specified or contained, shall extend, or be construed to extend, to permit or allow any Goods, Wares or Merchandise whatever, to be imported into or exported from Great Britain in any Way or Manner contrary to any Act or Acts in force in Great Britain on or immediately before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, except only so far as any such Act or Acts are expressly altered by this Act, or in Cases expressly provided for by this Act; any Duty, Clerk, Manner or Thing in this Act, or any of the Tables therein annexed, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

XVII. And Whereas by the said Act heretofore recited Act of the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, it is among other things enacted, that from and after the Termination of the War by the Cotton Wool secured in Warehouses previous to Jan. 5. 1820, to pay a Duty of 18. 1d. per Cwt.

Regulations as to Duties on Coals or Cokes specified in Table D.

Temporary suspension of certain Parts of Duty on Sugar, according to the Averages Prices published in Gazette.

Regulations as to the suspension of the Payment of certain Parts of Duty on East India Sugar.

Act does not allow Goods to be imported or exported contrary to any Act in force, unless provided by this Act.

as C. 52. s. 6.

• Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, it shall and may be lawful for the United Company of Mer.
 • chants of England trading to the East Indies to export to Sale, either for the purpose of being worn or
 • used in Great Britain, or for Exportation, any Silk Handkerchiefs of the Manufacture of Perfia, China or
 • the East Indies, that shall have been or may hereafter be secured in the Warehouses of the said United Com• pany, subject nevertheless to the Duties by the said A. Act imposed, or which might thereafter be imposed
 • thereon; and that all such Silk Handkerchiefs on which such Duties shall have been duly paid, shall and may
 • be worn or used in Great Britain, or sold or exported to Sale therein, and shall not be subject to Seizure or
 • Forfeiture, nor shall the Perfian or Perfian who shall wear or use the same, or who shall sell or export to Sale
 • the same, or have the same in his, her or their Custody or Possession, be liable to any Penalty or Forfeiture,
 • or Fine or Fines whatever, on account thereof; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding;
 • And Whereas by an A. Act made in the Fifth fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled As. Act to amend
 • the Duties payable on, and the Privileges to take for Great Britain and Handkerchiefs imported into Great Britain
 • by the East India Company, the Duties payable on such Handkerchiefs are repealed; but the said Handkerchiefs
 • excepted Provision, in the said second A. Act of the Forty sixth Year thereof is not repealed in the said recited
 • A. Act of the Fifty fifth Year, and it is expedient that the said Provision should be extended, so far as relates to the
 • exporting such Silk Handkerchiefs to Sale for the purpose of being used or worn in Great Britain, or to the ship• ping or wearing the same in Great Britain.' Be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this A. Act, it shall
 • not be lawful for the said Company, or for any Perfian or Perfian, to export any such Silk Handkerchiefs
 • to Sale for the purpose of being used or worn in Great Britain, and it shall not be lawful for the same to be • used or worn in Great Britain, or to be sold or exported to Sale therein, but the same shall be subject to Seizure
 • and Forfeiture, and the Perfian or Perfian who shall wear or use the same, or who shall sell or export the same
 • to Sale, or shall have the same in his, her or their Custody or Possession, shall be liable to such Penalties and
 • Fines as of the said Provision in the said recited A. Act of the Forty sixth Year had been been made; any • thing in the said second A. Act or in any other A. Act or A. Acts to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, until the Twenty fifth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty, no Duty of Customs shall be charged or payable upon Siam Merle Wood in for Naval Purposes, imported into Great Britain from the Bay of Shanghai in British built Vessels, owned, equipped and employed according to Law; any thing in the A. Act, or any of the Tables therein contained, to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided that such Wood shall be regularly entered and landed under the Care of the proper Officers of the Customs.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, and until the Twenty fifth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty, no Duty of Customs shall be charged or payable upon the Importation into Great Britain of any Teak Wood in for Naval Purposes, of the Growth or Production of any British Colony, Plantation, Territory or Possession in Africa; provided that due Entry be made thereof, and that such Wood be landed in the Presence of the proper Officers at the Port of Importation.

XX. And Whereas Duties have arisen whether Foreign Goods, Wares and Merchandise, which have been regularly imported into Great Britain, and afterwards exported from thence, are, upon Re-importation, subject to the Duties of Customs? Be it therefore declared and enacted, That all such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, so re-imported into Great Britain, shall be subject and liable to all such Duties of Customs as are by this A. Act granted upon Importation of such Goods, Wares and Merchandise.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That nothing in the A. Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to exempt the Proprietor or Proprietors of Goods, Wares or Merchandise, to pay the Duties upon the Importation or Landing thereof in Great Britain, in any Case where such Goods, Wares or Merchandise might or immediately before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, have been warehoused or otherwise secured without Payment of Duty; or in any Case where the Whole or any Part of the Duties on such Goods, Wares or Merchandise, are permitted to be secured by Bond or otherwise, under or by virtue of any A. Act or A. Acts of Parliament in force in Great Britain on and immediately before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen; but that in all such Cases the Duties specified in the Tables to the A. Act annexed, marked A. and B., may be secured by Bond or otherwise, in such Manner and under such Rules, Regulations, Restrictions and Conditions, as are contained in any such A. Act or A. Acts, except where it is otherwise provided by this A. Act: Provided always, that in case the Importer or Proprietor of any Goods, Wares or Merchandise, which shall have been lodged in Warehouses or otherwise secured by virtue of any A. Act or A. Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, and on which the Duties due on the Importation thereof shall not have been paid, shall be deficient of taking any such Goods out of such Warehouses, or from any Place wherein the same shall be secured, for the purpose of being used or consumed in Great Britain; then and in such Case the Duties imposed by this A. Act shall be payable thereon, notwithstanding such Goods may have been imported and warehoused before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, except where it is otherwise provided by this A. Act.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That in case the Importer or Proprietor of any Cotton Wool, or Waste of Cotton Wool, the Product of any British Colony or Plantation in America, not being imported directly from thence, or of any Cotton Wool or Waste of Cotton Wool, the Product of any other Country or Place, which shall have been secured in Warehouses at any time on or before the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty, and on which the Duties shall not have been fully paid on or before the said
 Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty, shall be deficient of taking any such Cotton

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of the Customs in England and Scotland respectively, by and with the Consent and Approbation of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three of them, upon Proof to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners of the Customs, that Orders were given for the Purchase of any Sheep's Wool or Lamb's Wool at any time before the passing of this Act, and that such Sheep's Wool or Lamb's Wool shall be imported into Great Britain at any time after the passing of this Act, to admit such Sheep's Wool or Lamb's Wool to Entry upon Payment of the Duty of One Penny per Pound only; and such Sheep's Wool or Lamb's Wool so imported in pursuance of any such Orders, shall be subject and liable to the said Duty of One Penny per Pound, and no more, on Importation into Great Britain; any thing in this Act, or the Tables therein annexed, to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXIV. Provided also, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to alter or repeal any of the Rules, Regulations or Provisions contained in an Act made in the Forty third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for permitting certain Goods imported into Great Britain to be stored in Warehouses without Payment of Duty; or in an Act made in the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to authorise the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury to permit certain Articles to be warehoused in different Ports in Great Britain, upon giving Security for the Payment of the Duties upon the Articles therein mentioned; or in any other Act or Acts relating to the warehousing, securing or removal of any such Goods, Wares or Merchandise, in Force in Great Britain immediately before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen; but that all such Rules, Regulations and Provisions shall be applied and put in execution for the warehousing and securing of Goods, Wares and Merchandise specified in the Table marked F. to this Act annexed, and subject to any Duties under this Act, in fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if the same were repeated and re-enacted in this Act, inasmuch as far as the same are altered by this Act: Provided nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to permit any Goods, Wares or Merchandise to be delivered from any Warehouse or Place for the purpose of being used or consumed in Great Britain, unless such Goods could have been lawfully so delivered, to be used or consumed in Great Britain, before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, it shall and may be lawful to import into Great Britain from the Islands of Jersey, Guernsey or Alderney, and also from Ireland, any Wine whatever in Bottles or Flasks, as well for Sale as for private Use, in Packages each of which shall contain at the least Six Dozens repeated Quart Bottles or Flasks, on Payment of the several and respective Duties, as well of Customs as Excise, due and payable on the Importation of such Wines into Great Britain; provided that such Wines shall be imported in Single or Joint built Ships or Vessels, owned, navigated and registered according to Law, and in such manner, and under the like Rules, Regulations, Conditions and Restrictions, and shall be subject and liable to the like Penalties and Forfeitures, as are provided and in Force in relation to the Importation of French Wines in Bottles or Flasks imported into Great Britain.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, it shall and may be lawful to import into Great Britain from any Ports within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, any Wine whatever in Bottles, on Payment of the several and respective Duties, as well of Customs as Excise, due and payable on the Importation of such Wines into Great Britain: Provided always, that the Importer of such Wine, or his known Agent or Factor, shall make a Declaration before the Officer of the Customs at the Port of Importation, stating the Nature and Quantity of such Wine, and that the same is for private Use and not intended to be sold, and that such Wine shall be regularly entered and landed under the Care of the proper Officer of the Customs.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of the Customs in England, or any Four or more of them, and for the Commissioners of Customs in Ireland, or any Three or more of them for the time being respectively, to repay or allow to the Importers, Owners, Proprietors or Consignees of any Foreign Spirits, Wine or other Liquors which shall be lost by accidental Stowing or Shipboard, or in the transhipping thereof before the landing thereof, the Duties of Customs which shall have become payable or shall have been paid for or in respect of such Spirits, Wine or other Liquors, and to issue the Duties of Customs, and to cancel and vacate the Customs Bond for or in respect of all such Spirits, Wine and other Liquors for which no such Duties shall have been paid, but for which Security shall have been given by Bond taken for or in respect of the warehousing thereof, before Payment of the Duties, under or by virtue of any Act or Acts in Force in Great Britain for permitting Goods imported to be warehoused or secured without Payment of Duty, and which shall be so lost by such accidental Stowing: Provided always nevertheless, that no such Allowance or Repayment shall be made, nor any such Duty be remitted, nor any such Bond or any Part thereof shall be cancelled or created, unless Proof shall be made to the Satisfaction of the said respective Comptroller General, that such Spirits, Wine or other Liquors were lost by such accidental Storing, and not from any Want of due Care or Precaution on the Part of the Importer, Owner, Proprietor or Consignor thereof, or his, her or their Agent: Provided also, that every such Bond shall be and remain in full Force and Effect as to all the Spirits, Wine or other Liquors to which the same shall relate, and which shall not be in proof to have been lost by such accidental Storing, and for or in respect whereof the Duties of Customs shall not be so created: any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Duties granted and imposed by this Act, and made payable according to the Weight, Tale, Gauge, Measure or Value of any Goods, Wares or Merchandise charged with such Duties, shall be charged and payable upon any greater or less Weight, Number, Quantity or Value thereof than the Weight, Number, Quantity or Value particularly ascertained, defined and set forth in any of the Tables hereunto annexed, in proportion to the actual Weight, Number, Quantity or Value of such Goods, Wares or Merchandise.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where by the Tables marked A. and C. to this Act annexed, the Duties of Customs imposed upon the Importation or Exportation of Goods, Wares and Merchandise are charged, not according to the Weight, Tale, Gauge or Measure, but according to the Value thereof, such Value shall be taken and considered as the true Value at the Port of Importation or Exportation in Great Britain, without any Abatement or Deductions whatever, except of so much as the Duties payable on the Importation or Exportation thereof shall amount to; and that such Value shall be ascertained by the Declaration of the Importer, Exporter or Proprietor of such Goods, Wares or Merchandise as imported or exported, or of his known Agent or Factor, in such Manner and Form, and under all such Rules, Regulations and Provisions with respect to such Declarations, and subject to all such Forfeitures and Penalties, as are prescribed, directed and imposed for ascertaining and collecting Duties to be paid according to the Value thereof, by any Act or Acts in force in Great Britain immediately before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen; and in case such Goods, Wares or Merchandise shall not be valued according to the true and real Value thereof, and according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, and of the several Acts in force in Great Britain, then it shall be lawful for the proper Officers or Officers of the Customs to make the same to be determined, and the said Goods, Wares or Merchandise shall be dealt with, and the proper Officers of the Customs shall proceed in every respect in the manner prescribed in each Case by the said several Acts respectively.

XXX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in the Case of Cotton Wool and the Wools of Cotton Wool, the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of any Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, the Duties whereon are payable according to the Value thereof, and which hath been or shall be imposed by Persons other than the East India Company, and which shall be sold at any Sale made by the said Company, such Value shall be ascertained in the Manner and Form, and under all such Rules, Regulations and Provisions, as are prescribed, directed and imposed for the ascertaining the Value of any other Goods, Wares or Merchandise sold at such Sale; and in the Case of any such Cotton Wool or Wools of Cotton Wool not sold at any Sale made by the said Company, the Value thereof shall be ascertained in such Manner and Form, and under all such Rules, Regulations and Provisions, and subject to such Forfeitures and Penalties, as are prescribed, directed and imposed for the ascertaining the Value of any Goods, Wares and Merchandise contained in Schedules A. and C. to this Act annexed, under any Act or Acts in force for the ascertaining of such Value respectively.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where by the Table marked B. to this Act annexed, the Duties of Customs imposed on the Importation of any Goods, Wares and Merchandise enumerated in the said Table, are charged according to the gross Price at which such Goods shall be sold at the Sales of the East India Company, or according to the Value thereof, such Price or Value respectively shall be ascertained in such Manner and Form, and under all such Rules, Regulations and Provisions, and subject to such Forfeitures and Penalties, as are prescribed, directed and imposed for ascertaining the Price or Value of such Goods by any Act or Acts in force immediately before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, as if the same were repeated and re-enacted in this Act.

XXXII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in ascertaining the Value of British made Salt exported from Great Britain, it shall and may be lawful for the Exporter or Proprietor, or his known Agent or Factor, to deduct so much Money from the Value of such Salt as shall be equal to the Amount of the Duty of Excise paid thereon at the time of the Entry of such Salt for the purpose of being exported, and the Value so ascertained shall be deemed and taken to be the true and real Value of such Salt at the Port of Exportation; any thing in this Act, or any other Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That all Rules, Regulations, Customs and Restrictions, made, established or directed for the settling or allowing of any Deductions on account of Damage or otherwise, or for the better securing the Revenue of Customs in Great Britain, or for regulating the Importation or Exportation of any Goods, Wares or Merchandise into or from Great Britain, or the bringing or carrying any Goods, Wares or Merchandise Contraband, or from Port to Port within Great Britain, and all Provisions, Clauses, Matters and Things relating thereto, contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament in force in Great Britain immediately before the passing of this Act, shall be and the same are hereby declared to be and remain in full Force and Effect, and shall be applied to the Subject of this Act, and for carrying the same into execution, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes, as if all such Rules, Regulations, Customs, skins, Ruffs, Pinnions, Claws, Mattens and Things were repaired and re-crafted in this perfect Act, except only in so far as the same are repealed or altered, or otherwise provided for by this Act.

XXXIV. And he it further enacted, That no Allowance or Abatement shall at any time be made out of or from the Duties by this Act, and the Tables thereto annexed, imposed upon any Currents, Figs or Ruffs, for or on account or in respect of any Damage which such Currents, Figs or Ruffs may have sustained in any Voyage or otherwise, by any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

XXXV. And Whereas it is expedient to prohibit the Importation of all Broken Glass, if only for being re-manufactured; Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, if any Broken Glass, if only to be re-manufactured, shall be imported or brought into Great Britain, all such Broken Glass, together with the Packages or Packings in which the same shall be found, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Customs or Excise; and that the Person or Persons importing the same, or aiding or assisting therein, or in the loading, removing or unloading of any such Broken Glass, or receiving the same, knowing it to have been so imported or brought, shall forfeit and lose the Sum of One Hundred Pounds, to be prosecuted, recovered and applied as any other Penalty or Penalties by any Law or Laws relating to His Majesty's Duties of Customs and Excise.

XXXVI. And he it further enacted, That no China Ware or Porcelain Ware, nor any Articles, Goods or Wares enumerated with or manufactured wholly or partly of Or Marble, shall be imported or brought into any Port in Great Britain, except at the Ports of London, Plymouth, Bristol, Liverpool, Hull, Newcastle, Lark and Greenwich, upon pain of Forfeiture of all such China Ware, Porcelain Ware, or other Articles, Goods or Wares so imported respectively, as shall be imported or brought into any Port in Great Britain other than some or one of the Ports hereinbefore enumerated, together with the Chefts, Cases and other Packages respectively containing such Wares respectively; and all such China Wares and other Wares respectively, and the Chefts, Cases and other Packages respectively containing the same, shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise.

XXXVII. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That Fish of every Kind or Sort whatsoever of British taking and curing, caught or taken in any Part of the Ocean by the Crews of any Ships or Vessels built in Great Britain or Ireland, or the Islands of Jersey, Guernsey or Man, or in any of the Colonies, Plantations, Islands or Territories which now or at the time of building such Ships or Vessels did belong, or which may hereafter belong to or be in the Possession of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, and wholly belonging to and owned by His Majesty's Subjects, and unexported and registered according to Law, shall and may be imported into Great Britain in Ships built, owned, navigated and registered as aforesaid, without Payment of any Duty of Customs whatever; any thing in this Act or any other Act or Acts to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding: Provided always, that before such Fish shall be admitted to Entry, the Master or other Person having the Command of the Ship or Vessel in which such Fish shall be imported, shall make Oath before the Collector or other Chief Officer of the Customs at the Port of Importation (who is hereby authorized and required to administer such Oath), that such Fish was actually caught, taken and cured wholly by His Majesty's Subjects.

XXXVIII. And he it further enacted, That from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, before any Blubber, Train Oil, Spermaceti Oil, Head Matter or Whale Fin, the Produce of Fish or Creatures living in the Sea, imported into Great Britain as being caught and caught on the Banks and Shoars of the Island of Newfoundland, and Parts adjacent, wholly by His Majesty's Subjects carrying on such Fishery from that Island, or as being taken and caught wholly by His Majesty's Subjects usually residing in any of the Colonies or Bermuda Islands, or as being taken and caught in the Gulph of Saint Lawrence, or on the Shoars of any British Colony or Plantation in North America, or the Parts adjacent, wholly by His Majesty's Subjects usually residing in any of the said Colonies or Plantations, and carrying on such Fishery from thence, shall be admitted to Entry on payment of the Duty imposed on such Blubber, Train Oil, Spermaceti Oil, Head Matter or Whale Fin by this Act and the Table marked A. thereto annexed, the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of the Ship or Vessel in which the same shall be imported, shall produce and deliver to the Collector or other Chief Officer of the Customs at the Port of Importation, a Certificate under the Hand and Seal of the Governor or Deputy Governor of Newfoundland, or of such other British Colony or Plantation, or of the Collector or other Chief Officer of the Customs of the Port or Place in Newfoundland, or in such other British Colony or Plantation where such Train Oil, Blubber, Spermaceti Oil, Head Matter or Whale Fin shall have been taken on board, and so such Governor or Deputy Governor, or Collector or other Chief Officer of the Customs shall be residing there, then a Certificate shall be produced under the Hand and Seal of the Naval Officer or other Personnal Officer of such Port or Place, or of One of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the District, certifying that Oath had been made before him (who is hereby authorized and required to administer such Oath, and to grant such Certificate), by the Skipper of such Blubber, Train Oil, Spermaceti Oil, Head Matter or Whale Fin, that the same was actually and lawfully the Produce of Fish or Creatures living in the Sea, actually caught and taken wholly by His Majesty's Subjects carrying on such Fishery, and usually residing in the said Island of Newfoundland, or in His Majesty's European Dominions, or by His Majesty's Subjects usually residing in such other British Colony or Plantation, and carrying on such Fishery from thence; and the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of the Ship or Vessel in which the Blubber or Train Oil shall be imported into Great Britain, shall make oath before the Collector or other Chief Officer at the Port of Importation (who is hereby authorized and required to administer the same), that the Blubber, Train Oil, Spermaceti Oil, Head Matter or Whale Fin so imported, is the same as mentioned and referred to in the

Tonnage Duty not to be charged for certain Vessels.

And Certificate, and the Importer or Importers, Consignor or Consignees of such Blubber, Train Oil, Spermaceti Oil, Head Matter or Whale Fin, shall also make oath before the Collector or Comptroller, or other proper Officer of the Customs (who is hereby authorized and required to administer such Oath), at the time of Entry, that to the best of his or their Knowledge and Belief the Blubber, Train Oil, Spermaceti Oil, Head Matter or Whale Fin is imported was actually caught and taken by British Subjects actually residing in the Island of Newfoundland, or in His Majesty's European Dominions, or by His Majesty's Subjects actually residing in such other British Colony or Plantation, and conveying on such Fishery from thence; and on Failure of such Certificate being produced, and Proof on Oath as aforesaid being made, such Blubber, Train Oil, Spermaceti Oil, Head Matter or Whale Fin shall be deemed and taken to be of Foreign Fishing, and shall be charged with the Duty imposed by this Act, and the Table marked A. therein annexed, on such Articles of Foreign Fishery.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That the Payment of the several Duties of Customs by this Act imposed on the Importations of Train Oil, Spermaceti Oil, Head Matter and Whale Fin, the Products of Fish or Crabfishes being in the Sea taken and caught on the Banks and Shoars of the Island of Newfoundland and Parts adjacent, wholly by His Majesty's Subjects conveying on such Fishery from that Island, and also the Duties payable on Crabfishes, Fox Skins, Otter Skins, Seal Skins, Wolf Skins, Bear Skins, Cat Skins, Beaver Skins, and on Timber, being the Products of Newfoundland, and imported directly from thence, at the time are respectively described and set forth in Figures in the Table marked A. annexed to this Act, shall be and the time are hereby suspended, and the said Duties shall not be charged or payable on any such Articles so imported, until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty four, inclusive; and also, that the Duty by this Act imposed on Goods, Wares and Merchandise exported from Great Britain to the said Island of Newfoundland, as described and set forth in the Table hereto annexed marked C., and also the Tonnage Duties payable on Ships or Vessels entering Inwards or Outwards from or to the said Island of Newfoundland, in any Port of Great Britain, as set forth in the Table hereto annexed marked E., shall be and the time are hereby in like manner suspended, and shall not respectively be charged or payable until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty four, inclusive; any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that such Goods, Wares and Merchandise be duly entered and landed, and shall be subject in every respect to all the Regulations required by Law; and that the several Duties hereby suspended shall revive and become payable then and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty four, in full and in the like manner as if the said Suspension of Duty had not taken place.

XI. And be it further enacted, That the several Duties of Tonnage imposed by this Act, as described in the Table hereto annexed marked E., on Ships and Vessels entering Outwards or Inwards to or from Foreign Ports, shall be paid to the proper Officer of the Customs; and that no Officer of the Customs whatsoever, or any Deputy or Clerk of such Office, shall permit or suffer any Ship or Vessel to break Bulk, or any Part of her Cargo to be discharged; nor shall she or any Order nor grant any Document for the unshipping or landing any Goods, Wares or Merchandise brought or imported by any Ship or Vessel, subject and liable to the Payment of the Duties of Tonnage, until the said Duties have been fully paid to the proper Officer of the Customs; or in case any Doubt or Dispute shall arise as to the true Tonnage thereof, so that a perfect Entry cannot be made, then in every such Case a sufficient Deposit shall be made of the said Duties with such Officer as aforesaid, previous to any Document being issued or granted for the unshipping or landing any Part of the Cargo of such Ship or Vessel so entering Inwards as aforesaid; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding; and that the said Duties shall be paid on every Report Inwards, and on every Entry Outwards of each and every Ship and Vessel, for each and every Voyage which any such Ship or Vessel shall be report Inwards or enter Outwards at any Port within Great Britain; and that the Tonnage of every such Ship or Vessel, being British built or British owned, shall be computed and taken according to the Register thereof in Great Britain under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, in the Twenty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for the further Enactment and Enforcement of Shipping and Navigation; and that the Tonnage of every other Ship or Vessel, in case of any Doubt or Dispute relative thereto, shall be ascertained in Great Britain by Admeasurement, in the Mode and Manner prescribed and directed by the said Act: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to alter or repeal any of the Regulations contained in an Act passed in the Fifty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for charging certain Duties on Foreign Packets or Passage Vessels entering or departing in any of the Ports of Great Britain; but that all such Regulations shall be applied to the Duties on such Packets or Passage Vessels mentioned, specified and set forth in the Table to the Act annexed, marked E.

XII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in the Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to charge with the Duty of Tonnage imposed by this Act, and the Table marked E. therein annexed, any Ship or Vessel employed in the Fisheries as any Part of the Coast of Great Britain, and not entering Outwards for Foreign Ports, or any Ship or Vessel employed in bringing Offshore from Jersey or Guernsey into any Port in Great Britain, or to charge the said Tonnage Duty on any British or Irish built Ship or Vessel owned by British Subjects, which is not required to be registered by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force in Great Britain or Ireland respectively, on or immediately before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty four, or on any Ship or Vessel whatsoever that shall enter Outwards or Inwards in Bulk only; any thing in the Act, or in the Table marked E. herein contained, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

XIII. And

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That the Drawbacks granted, allowed and made payable upon Goods, Wares and Merchandise exported from Great Britain under or by virtue of any Act or Acts in force in Great Britain immediately before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and eleven, shall remain and continue payable with respect to such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, which, having paid the Duties imposed on the Importation thereof by any Act or Acts in force immediately before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and eleven, shall, after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and eleven, be exported from Great Britain; and that the several and respective Drawbacks therein specified and set forth in the Tables so this Act annexed, marked A. B. and C., shall be paid and allowed only on the Exportation of such Articles as shall have paid the Duties imposed thereby by this Act and the said Tables therein enacted.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and eleven, such Drawback as is mentioned, specified and set forth in the Table or Schedule marked B. to this Act annexed, shall be allowed in respect of Thrown Silk exported from Great Britain, which shall be thrown in Great Britain from a larger Quantity of Raw Silk imported into Great Britain from any Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies: Provided always, that such be first made before the Collector of the Customs at the Port of Exportation by the Thrower of such Thrown Silk, that the said Thrown Silk was produced solely from Raw Silk which had been so imported into Great Britain, and for which His Majesty's Customs and Duties had been duly paid, and that the same was duly exported; His Majesty's Secretary also certifying the Shipping thereof, and all such other Requisites being duly performed as are necessary to be done and performed with regard to Raw Silk exported from Great Britain.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That no Drawback of the Duties of Customs or Excise shall be allowed on any Wine whatever which shall be exported or shipped for Exportation from Great Britain after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and eleven, other than on Wine in Bottles which shall be shipped in Packages each containing Six Dozen square Quart Bottles at the least.

XLVI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to repeal or discontinue any Drawback of the Duties of Customs on any Sort of Wine intended for the Use of Admirals, Captains, and other Commissioned Officers Krving in any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or for the Use of Commissioned Officers of the Royal Marine, or of Persons serving as such, for their Consumption on board of such of His Majesty's Ships as they shall leave in, by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force in Great Britain on or immediately before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and eleven: Provided nevertheless, that all the Conditions, Regulations and Restrictions contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament in force in Great Britain immediately before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and eleven, relating to any such Drawbacks of the Duties of Customs on such Wine, shall be duly observed and enforced in relation thereto.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and eleven, such Drawback as is mentioned, specified and set forth in the Table or Schedule marked A. to this Act annexed, shall be allowed in respect of any Brandy which shall be refined in Great Britain from a larger Quantity imported rough, and shall be exported from thence upon such being first made by the Refiner or Refiners thereof, before the Collector of the Customs at the Port of Exportation, that the said refined Brandy was produced solely from Brandy which had been imported into Great Britain unrefined, and for which His Majesty's Customs and Duties had been duly paid, and that the same was duly exported; His Majesty's Secretary also certifying the Shipping thereof, and all such other Requisites being duly performed as are necessary to be done and performed with regard to Brandy unrefined exported from Great Britain.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and eleven, a Drawback of Nine Pence, and no more, of all such Duties on Importation as shall have been paid on any Foreign Brandy, shall be allowed in respect of all such Foreign Brandy as at any time after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and eleven, shall be sold and consumed in Great Britain in making and preparing Oil of Vitriol; any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament in force immediately before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and eleven, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding; and that the Amount of such Drawback shall be ascertained, paid and allowed to the Manufacturer of such Oil of Vitriol, under the Regulations and Restrictions contained in an Act passed in the Fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for diminishing the Burden on Exportation of Oil of Vitriol, and allowing a Drawback of a Proportion of the Duties paid on the Importation of Foreign Brandy used in making Oil of Vitriol, and under and subject to the like Provisions upon any Manufacture of such Oil for delivering any such Provisions in respect of Foreign Brandy sold and consumed in the Manufacture, with intent to defraud His Majesty, as are contained in the said Act of the Fifth Year, and as if the same were repeated and re-enacted in this Act.

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and eleven, for all Casks used for any Purpose relating to the carrying on the Works for the manufacturing of Tin Plates at Penryn in the County of Penbroke, called the Penryn Works, for which the Duties granted by this Act shall have been duly paid, a Drawback shall be allowed of all such Duties, and exceeding the Sum of One thousand Pounds in any One Year: Provided always, that the said Drawback shall be paid upon the Proofs and under the Conditions required by an Act passed in the Thirty fifth Year of the Drawbacks in respect for Goods exported before the passing of this Act.

L. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and sixtieth, for all Coals which shall be used in carrying or fueling Copper or Lead Ores within the Isle of Anglesey, or which shall be used in Fire Engines for drawing Water out of the Mines of Copper and Lead within the said Isle, for which the Duties granted by this Act shall have been duly paid, a Drawback shall be allowed of all such Duties: Provided always, that the said Drawback shall be paid upon the Proofs required by an Act passed in the Twenty fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for allowing a Drawback of the Duties upon Coal-wood in fueling Copper or Lead Ores, and in Fire Engines for drawing Water out of the Copper and Lead Mines, within the Isle of Anglesey.

L. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and sixtieth, a Drawback of the whole Duty specified in Table D. to this Act annexed, on Stone the Production of Great Britain, brought Coastwise from any Port or Place in Great Britain to any other Port or Place therein, shall be allowed in respect of such Stone as at any time after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and sixtieth, shall be used and employed in Great Britain in making Burn Tiles; and that the Amount of such Drawback shall be allowed to the Person by whom such Stone was used and employed, upon Proof to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of the Customs that such Duty was paid, and that such Stone was so used and employed for such Purpose as aforesaid.

L. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and sixtieth, a Drawback of the Duty specified in Table D. to this Act annexed, on Stone the Production of Great Britain brought Coastwise from any Port or Place in Great Britain to any other Port or Place therein, shall be repaid in respect of such Stone as at any time after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and sixtieth, shall be used and employed in Great Britain in paving Streets and Public Ways upon Proof of the actual Payment of such Duty, and under such Conditions and Rules, Regulations and Restrictions, as shall from time to time be directed and made by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or any Three of them, for that Purpose.

L. II. And Whereas by the Constitution of the public Revenue, and of the several Duties payable on the Importation or Exportation of Goods, Wares and Merchandise, and the Appropriation thereof as directed by the several Acts in Force in England, the Hereditary and temporary Revenues of the Crown, of Subsidies of Tonnage and Poundage, and of other Duties upon Goods, Wares and Merchandise arising in England, are not now kept distinct and separate at the several Offices, but have become blended with other Duties of Customs and Tonnage, both in the Collection and Appropriation thereof: And Whereas it is expedient that Provision should be made for ascertaining the several Amount of what such Hereditary Revenues would have produced in case the same had not been consolidated, and that an Account should hereafter be kept of such several Amount: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and sixtieth, the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the time being, or any Three or more of them, shall cause to be prepared and kept an Account of what such Hereditary Revenue arising in England would have amounted to in case the same had not been, and was not consolidated and collected with other Duties of Customs and Tonnage in the Collection and Appropriation thereof, in such Manner and Form as shall appear to the said Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, best adapted to ascertain such Amount; which Account the said Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners for the time being, are hereby required to make out and send to be made out and laid before Parliament, together with the Public Accounts directed to be laid before Parliament, pursuant to the Provisions of the several Acts for directing Public Accounts to be laid annually before Parliament.

L. III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to affect or alter the Hereditary Revenue of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors in Ireland, or other Revenues there granted to His late Majesty King George the Second during his Life, and reserved to His present Majesty during his Life, by an Act made in the First Year of His present Majesty's Reign, but the same, and the Civil Establishment payable out of the same, shall continue to be paid in like manner as heretofore: any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

L. IV. And be it further enacted, That all the Moneys arising by the Duties imposed by this Act (the necessary Charges of calling and accounting for the same excepted) shall from time to time be paid into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer in Great Britain, and shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, except only as by this Act is specially provided, and shall be appropriated in like manner, and to the same Services as the Duties by this Act imposed would have been if this Act had not been passed.

L. V. And Whereas in the Constitution of the Duties of Customs on Goods, Wares and Merchandise under the Act, such Duties are in various instances imposed: Be it therefore enacted, That of the Moneys arising, or to arise out of such several of the Duties hereby granted, the Sum of Five hundred thousand Pounds, being the estimated Product of such Imports, shall be deemed an Addition made to the Revenue for the purpose of defraying the increased Charges occasioned by any Loans to be made, or any Taxes to be raised or applied by virtue of any Act or Acts past or to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

L. VI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Customs in England for the time being, or any Two or more of them, and the Commissioners of Customs in Scotland for the time being, or any Three or more of them, fully to settle and close the Accounts of any Collectors or Receivers of any Part of the Revenue of Customs, or other Duties under their Management, notwithstanding any previous Application of any Duties of Customs required by such Collectors or Receivers; and the said Commissioners are hereby respectively empowered to correct such Applications, in order to prevent the Accounts of any such Collector or Receiver from being kept open, unsettled and undischarged; and all such Corrections shall and lawfully directed to be allowed by the Commissioners for settling the Public Accounts in Great Britain, in the settling the general Accounts of Customs, Subsidies or Impositions.

LXVII. And be it further enacted, That all Moneys arising from any Duties of Customs, or any Accrues thereof, which shall be raised, levied, collected, paid or recovered from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, for or on account of any Goods, Wares or Merchandise whatsoever imported or brought into Great Britain or exported from Great Britain, or brought or carried Coastwise, or from Port to Port within Great Britain, although the Amount of the said Duties may have been computed and ascertained as such Duties have been usually computed and ascertained before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, and although the Goods, Wares or Merchandise whereon any such Duties of Customs may have been charged, or may be charged, may have been imported into or exported from Great Britain, or brought or carried Coastwise, or from Port to Port within Great Britain, before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, and although any Duties of Customs due and payable or charged or chargeable thereon, may have been focused by Bond or otherwise on or before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, shall, from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, be appropriated and applied in like manner and to the same Purposes as the Duties of Customs by this Act granted are directed to be appropriated and applied, except as in this Act provided: any Act or Acts of Parliament, Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding; and that all Moneys arising by way of the Revenue of Customs hereafter to be paid or allowed, either upon Bond or otherwise, either by way of Drawback, Bounty, Certificate, Premium or Allowance, or by any other legal Document whatsoever, from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, although the Amount of the same shall have been computed and ascertained in like manner in which they have heretofore been usually computed and ascertained, or shall have become due before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, shall and may be paid or allowed in like manner by the proper Officer or Officers of the Customs, out of any Moneys in their Hands arising from the Duties of Customs respectively.

LXVIII. And be it further enacted, That the several Sums of Mo are respectively inserted, defined and set forth in Paragraphs in the several Tables to this Act inserted, as the Duties of Customs upon, for or in respect of the several Goods, Wares or Merchandise specified in the said Tables or any of them, or as the Duties of Customs on Ships or Vessels according to the Tonnage thereof, may and shall respectively be managed, ascertained, raised, levied, collected, ascertained, paid, recovered and allowed (except where any Alteration is expressed, made by this Act,) in like and in the like manner and by the same Means, Ways and Methods as former Duties of Customs and Drawbacks of Duties of Customs upon Goods, Wares or Merchandise in general; and also by any such special Means, Ways or Methods respectively, as former Duties of Customs and Drawbacks of Duties of Customs upon Goods, Wares or Merchandise of the same Sorts or Kinds, or Duties on Ships or Vessels according to the Tonnage thereof respectively, were or might be managed, ascertained, raised, levied, collected, ascertained, paid, recovered and allowed, under or by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament in Force in Great Britain immediately before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen; and that the Goods, Wares or Merchandise whereon Duties of Customs are by this Act charged, and Drawbacks of Duties of Customs allowed, as the same are respectively inserted, defined and set forth in the said Tables to this Act inserted, upon the Importation thereof into or Exportation thereof from Great Britain, or on any other Account whatever, and all Ships and Vessels whereon any Duties are charged or payable according to the Tonnage thereof, shall be and the same are hereby made subject and liable to all and every the Conditions, Rules, Regulations, Licences and Forfeitures, to which Goods, Wares or Merchandise in general, and also all and every the special Conditions, Rules, Regulations, Regulations, Licences and Forfeitures respectively, to which the like Goods, Wares or Merchandise, or Ships or Vessels whereon any Duties are chargeable or payable according to the Tonnage thereof respectively, were subject and liable by any Act or Acts of Parliament in Force in Great Britain immediately before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, relating to the Revenue of Customs, or such Tonnage Duties as stand (except where any Alteration is expressly made by this Act,) and all Ports, Passages, Passes and Forfeitures, of what soever Nature or Kind the same may be, as well Pains of Death as others, for any Offence whatever committed against or in breach of any Act or Acts of Parliament in Force in Great Britain immediately before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, made for securing the Revenue of Customs, or such Tonnage Duties as aforesaid, or for the Regulation or Improvement thereof, and the several Clauses, Powers, Provisions and Declarations contained in any such Act or Acts, shall (save where expressly altered by this Act,) and the same are hereby directed and declared to extend to, and shall be respectively applied, practised and put in execution for and in respect of the several Duties of Customs and Tonnage, and Drawbacks of Duties of Customs, hereby charged and allowed, in as full and ample Manner in all Intercourse and Passages wherever, as if all and every the said Acts, Clauses, Provisions, Powers, Declarations, Passes, Pains, Penalties or Forfeitures were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act, and made Part thereof.

Accounts of Collectors or Receivers, notwithstanding any previous Application of any Duties of Customs required by such Collectors or Receivers; and the said Commissioners are hereby respectively empowered to correct such Applications, in order to prevent the Accounts of any such Collector or Receiver from being kept open, unsettled and undischarged; and all such Corrections shall and lawfully directed to be allowed by the Commissioners for settling the Public Accounts in Great Britain, in the settling the general Accounts of Customs, Subsidies or Impositions.

Duties levied after July 5, 1819, on Goods imported or exported or carried Coastwise before that Day, &c. shall be applied on like manner as the Duties by this Act granted, except otherwise in this Act provided.

Duties to be levied and paid on former Duties and Drawbacks, unless hereby altered.

And the Goods in which Duties are to be paid, or Drawbacks allowed, subject to Conditions, &c. of former Acts.

Actions.*

LIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit shall be brought or commenced against any Person or Persons for any thing done in pursuance of this Act, such Action or Suit shall be commenced within Three Calendar Months next after the Fact committed, and not afterwards; and shall be laid in the County or Place where the Cause of Complaint did arise, and not elsewhere; and the Defendant in every such Action or Suit may plead the General Issue, and give the Act and the Special Matter in Evidence, at any Trial to be had thereupon; and if the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants in any such Action or Suit, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall be acquitted, or discharge him, her or their Action or Suit after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared, or if, upon Demurrer, Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall have Treble Costs, and have the like Remedy for the same as any Defendant had in other Cases to recover Costs by Law.

Treble Costs.

*Act altered, &c.
His Session.*

LX. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be amended, altered or repealed by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament.

| Corn, viz. | | | | | | | |

All Corn, Meal, or Flour, the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of any Foreign Country, which may by Law be imported into Great Britain, may at all Times be brought into, and warehoused therein, without Payment of any Duty whatever, and such Corn, Meal, or Flour having been so warehoused, may at all Times be taken out of such Warehouse, and exported according to Law, without Payment of any Duty whatever; and any such Corn, Meal, or Flour, may be taken out of such Warehouse and entered for Home Consumption in Great Britain, under the Regulations and Provisions required by Law, without Payment of any Duty whatever, whenever Foreign Corn, Meal, or Flour of the same Sort may by Law be admissible into Great Britain for Home Consumption. See 55 Geo. 3. cap. 20.

Foreign Corn, Meal, or Flour may be imported into Great Britain for Home Consumption, under and subject to the Provisions and Regulations in force, without Payment of any Duty whatever, whenever the Average Prices of the several Sorts of British Corn, made up and published as required by Law, shall be at or above the Prices hereunder mentioned, viz. Whenever Wheat shall be at or above the Price of Eighty Shillings per Quarter; whenever Rye, Pease, and Beans shall be at or above the Price of Fifty-three Shillings per Quarter; whenever Barley, Beer, or Bigg shall be at or above the Price of Forty Shillings per Quarter; and whenever Oats shall be at or above the Price of Twenty-seven Shillings per Quarter. See 55 Geo. 3. cap. 26.

| | Duty. | D drawback. |
|--|---------|-------------|
| Corn, enumerated. | £ s. d. | £ s. d. |
| Whenever the Average Prices of British Corn as made up and published, shall respectively be below the Prices before stated, no Foreign Corn, or Meal or Flour made from any of the respective Sorts of Foreign Corn before enumerated, shall be allowed to be imported into Great Britain for the Purpose of Home Consumption, or taken out of Warehouse for that Purpose. See 38 Geo. 3. cap. 26. | | |
| The Average Price of the several Sorts of British Corn by which the Importation of Foreign Corn, Meal, or Flour into Great Britain shall be regulated and governed, shall continue to be made up and published in the Manner required by Law, (See 31 Geo. 3. cap. 30. 33 Geo. 3. cap. 63. 44 Geo. 3. cap. 103. 45 Geo. 3. cap. 86.); but if at any Time after the Importation of Foreign Corn, Meal, or Flour, shall be permitted under the Provisions required by Law, it shall appear that the Average Prices of the different Sorts of British Corn respectively, in the Six Weeks immediately succeeding the Fifteenth Day of February, the Fifteenth Day of May, the Fifteenth Day of August, and the Fifteenth Day of November in each Year, have fallen below the Prices at which Foreign Corn, Meal, or Flour may be by Law allowed to be imported for Home Consumption, no such Foreign Corn, Meal, or Flour shall be allowed to be imported into Great Britain for Home Consumption from any Place between the Rivers Eider and Bismson, both inclusive, until a New Average shall be made up and published in the London Gazette for regulating the Importation into Great Britain for the succeeding Quarter. See 33 Geo. 3. cap. 26. | | |
| Any Corn, Meal, or Flour, being the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of any British Colony or Plantation in North America, which may by Law be imported into Great Britain, may respectively be imported for Home Consumption without Payment of any Duty, whenever the Average Prices of British Corn, made up and published as by Law required, shall respectively be at or above the Prices hereafter specified, viz. Whenever the Price of Wheat shall be at or above Sixty-seven Shillings per Quarter; whenever the Price of Rye, Pease, and Beans, shall be at or above Forty-four Shillings per Quarter; whenever the Price of Barley, Bear, or Bogg shall be at or above Thirty-three Shillings per Quarter; and whenever the Price of Oats shall be at or above Twenty-two Shillings per Quarter. See 33 Geo. 3. cap. 26. | | |
| Whenever the Prices of British Corn respectively shall be below the Prices before specified, Corn, or Meal or Flour made from any of the respective Sorts of Corn herein-before enumerated, being of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of any British Colony or Plantation in North America, shall no longer be allowed to be imported into Great Britain for Home Consumption. See 33 Geo. 3. cap. 26. | | |

CAP. LIII.

An Act for granting to His Majesty certain additional Duties of Excise on Tea, Coffee and Cocoa Nuts, Tobacco and Snuff, Pepper, Malt and Brandy Spirits, and consolidating the same with the former Duties thereon; and for amending certain Laws of Excise relating thereto.

[24 July 1819.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Parliament assembled, towards making the Supplies necessary to defray the Expenses of Your Majesty's Government, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and grant unto Your Majesty the several Rates and Duties of Excise herein respectively annexed; and do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted: And be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That there shall be levied, collected, and paid, as and for the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, upon the several Goods, Wares, Merchandise and Commodities mentioned and described in the Schedules A. and B. respectively hereto annexed, the several Rates of Money and Duties of Excise as they are respectively inserted, defined and set forth in the said Schedules, over and above all Duties that have been contained or paid, or that shall have been or may be granted, had or imposed thereon, or in respect thereof, by any Act or Acts of the present Session of Parliament; and that there shall be allowed and paid to the several Persons entitled to the same, the several Drawbacks of Excise respectively inserted, defined and set forth in the Schedule C. hereto annexed; and that the said several Duties and Drawbacks respectively, and the several Provisions of this Act, shall respectively commence and take effect on and from the respective Days hereinafter in that behalf mentioned, in every Case in which a particular Day is hereinafter specified; and in all Cases where no other particular Day is specified, from the Fifth Day of July in the Year One thousand eight hundred and nineteen.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Days respectively on which the Duties hereby imposed shall respectively commence and take effect, all and singular the Duties on Tea, Tobacco and Snuff, Coffee and Cocoa Nuts, and on Pepper (not being Cayenne, Long Pepper or Guinea Pepper), and on Malt respectively, and on Beer exported or brought from Ireland into Great Britain, and on Wort or Malt brewed or made for extracting Spirits in England for Home Consumption, and on Spirits extracted in England for Home Consumption, or extracted in England and imported or brought into Scotland, or extracted in Scotland and imported or brought into England or Scotland respectively, or into England through Scotland, and the Drawbacks payable in Great Britain on Tea, Tobacco and Snuff, Chocolate, Malt and Beer exported, shall cease and determine, and be no longer paid or payable in law and except in all Cases relating to the recovering, allowing or paying any Arrear thereof respectively, which may at that time remain unpaid, or to any Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture, Taxes, Penalties or Forfeitures relating thereto respectively, which shall have been incurred at any time before or on the said Days respectively; and save and except the Duties of Customs payable on Tobacco and Snuff, which shall not cease or determine until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to repeal or in anywise alter the Duties upon Malt, Tobacco and Snuff, continued by as Act made in the present Session of Parliament, intitled An Act for continuing to His Majesty certain Duties on Malt, Sugar, Tobacco and Snuff in Great Britain, and on Potatoes, Liqueur and Foreign Spirits in England, for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and nineteen; and the Duties payable on Excise Licences.

III. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where Duties are imposed or Drawbacks allowed by this Act on any specific Quantity of Goods, Wares, Merchandise or Commodities, the same shall in every Case, be understood and deemed and taken to apply in the same Proportions, and after the same Rate, to any greater or less Quantity than such specific Quantity.

IV. And

The Duties specified in the annexed Schedules A. and B. and the Drawbacks specified in Schedule C. shall not be levied.

IV. And be it further enacted, That such of the Duties by this Act imposed as shall arise in that Part of Great Britain called England, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise in England for the time being; and such thereof as shall arise in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise in Scotland for the time being.

V. And be it further enacted, That all the Moneys arising by the Duties hereby imposed (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted), shall from time to time be paid into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer at Westminster, and shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

VI. And Whereas an Act was passed in the last Session of Parliament, intitled An Act for raising the Sum of Three Millions by the Transfer of certain Three Pounds per Centum Annuities into other Annuities, at the Rate of Three Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum; and for granting Annuities to different certain Exchequer Bills: And Whereas no Provision has been made by Parliament for the Payment of the Charges occasioned by the said Act: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, out of the Moneys to be paid into the said Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer as aforesaid, there shall be set apart the yearly Sum of One million one hundred and three thousand three hundred and twenty seven Pounds, being the aggregate Amount of the Duties of Excise on Malt heretofore equalled, upon an Average of Two Years ending on the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and nineteen; and which yearly Sum shall be set apart by Four equal Portions Quarterly, on the Fifth Day of January, the Fifth Day of April, the Fifth Day of July, and the Tenth Day of October in every Year; and after setting apart the said Sum of One million one hundred and three thousand three hundred and twenty seven Pounds, the Remainder of the Moneys to be paid into the Exchequer as aforesaid shall be deemed an Addition made to the Public Revenue of Great Britain, for the purpose of defraying the increased annual Charge occasioned by the Loan made, or Stock created, by virtue of the said Act of the last Session of Parliament.

VII. And be it further enacted, That out of the Moneys to be paid into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer as aforesaid, there shall be set apart the yearly Sum of Seven millions four hundred and forty thousand and seventy four Pounds Fifteen Shillings, being the aggregate Amount of the Duties of Excise on Tea, Tobacco and Sugar, Coffee, Cocoa Nuts and Pepper, on Beer imported from Ireland, and on Wort or Malt made for distilling Spirits in England for Home Consumption, and on Spirits extracted in England for Home Consumption, or imported into Scotland, or extracted in Scotland and imported into England, or extracted in Ireland and exported into England or Scotland, or into England through Scotland, heretofore equalled, upon an Average of Two Years ending on the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and nineteen; and which yearly Sum shall be set apart by Four equal Portions Quarterly, on the Fifth Day of January, the Fifth Day of April, the Fifth Day of July, and the Tenth Day of October, in every Year; and after setting apart the said Sum of Seven millions four hundred and forty thousand and seventy four Pounds Fifteen Shillings, the Remainder of the Moneys to be paid into the Exchequer as aforesaid shall (except the Sum of Sixty six thousand six hundred and ninety nine Pounds, being a Moiety of the estimated annual Amount of the increased Duty on Tea heretofore granted), shall be deemed an Addition made to the Public Revenue of Great Britain, for the purpose of defraying the increased annual Charge occasioned by the Loan made, or Stock created, by any Act passed or to be passed in the present Session of Parliament.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the Sum of Sixty six thousand six hundred and ninety nine Pounds, being the other Moiety of the estimated annual Amount of the increased Duty on Tea heretofore granted, shall be set apart by Four equal Portions Quarterly, on the Fifth Day of January, the Fifth Day of April, the Fifth Day of July, and the Tenth Day of October in every Year, and shall be issued and applied in such and the like Manner, and to and for the same Uses and Purposes as the Moneys arising by an Act made in the Fifty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to amend, and the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, certain additional Duties of Excise in Great Britain, are or shall be from time to time by any Act or Acts of Parliament directed to be issued and applied.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the said several Sums of Money respectively intitled, defined and set forth in the said respective Schedules A. and B. heretofore annexed, as the Duties and Countervailing Duties of Excise hereby imposed, and the Drawbacks set forth in the said Schedule C., upon the several Goods, Wares, Merchandise or Commodities respectively mentioned therein, shall and may be respectively raised, levied, collected, assessed, paid, recovered, adjudged, assigned and allowed, in such and the like Manner, and in or by any or either of the general or special Means, Ways or Methods (except in far as the same are hereby altered,) by which the former Duties and Drawbacks of Excise respectively, upon Goods, Wares, Merchandise or Commodities of the same Sorts or Kinds respectively, were or might be raised, levied, collected, assessed, paid, recovered, adjudged, assigned and allowed; and that the Duties respectively hereby imposed upon Tobacco and Sugar, Coffee and Cocoa, and upon Pepper respectively, shall be paid by and levied and recovered from the same Persons and Persons by whom such Goods respectively shall have been or shall be taken out of the Warehouse, on Payment of the former Duties thereon, on or after the Sixth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and nineteen; and that the Goods, Wares, Merchandise or Commodities to be thus Act respectively made liable to the Payment of, or chargeable with Duties of Excise, or entitled to Drawbacks of Excise, as respectively intitled, defined and set forth in the said Schedules respectively heretofore annexed, shall be and the same are hereby made subject to all and every the Conditions, Regulations, Rules, Restrictions and Provisions not hereby altered, to which any Goods, Wares, Merchandise or Commodities were generally or specially subject or liable by any Act or Acts of Parliament to force immediately before the passing of this Act, respecting the Duties of Excise; and all and every Pair, Punt, or other Vessel of any Nature, or Kind whatever, for every Offence whatever, committed against or in breach of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force immediately before the passing of this Act, made for Securing the Revenue of Excise, or for the Regulation or Improvement thereof, and the several Clauses, Powers, and Directions therein contained (not hereby altered), shall and are hereby directed and declared to extend to and shall be respectively applied, profited, and put in execution for and in respect of the several Duties and Drawbacks of Excise hereby charged and allowed, in as full and ample a Manner, to all Intents and Purposes whatever, as if all and every the said Acts, Clauses, Provisions, Powers, Directions, Fees, Fines, Penalties or Forfeitures were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act.

X. And be it further enacted, That all Masters or Makers of Malt, Sellers and Retailers of Malt, Brewers, Distillers, Inskippers, Vintners and Vinegar Makers, and all and every other Persons or Persons whatsoever, who is or are entrusted for them, or any or either of them, or for the Use, Benefit or Account of them, or any or either of them, shall have in his, her or their Custody or Possession, or in his, her or their Houses, Outshouses, Barns, Granaries, or in any other Place or Places whatsoever, upon the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, any Parcel or Quantity of Malt whatsoever, ground or unground, shall on that Day, or within Ten Days next ensuing, give a true and particular Account thereof in Writing at the Office of Excise within the Limits of which he, she or they shall then respectively inhabit; and that every Master and Maker of Malt shall in like manner give such Account of the Disposal of all the Malt which he, she or they shall have made, or had in his, her or their Possession within One Calendar Month preceding the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, specifying the Quantity of Malt, and the Date of each and every Delivery thereof, and the Name and Residence of the Person to whom the same respectively was sold or delivered, and the Place at which the same respectively was delivered, upon pain of forfeiting the Sum of One hundred Pounds, or Forty Shillings for every Bushel of such Malt, at the Election of the Attorney General, or the Person who shall sue or prosecute for the same, for every Neglect therein; and the Malt of which no such Account as aforesaid, or of which a false Account shall be given, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise; and the Duties by this Act imposed on Malt Stock in hand shall be payable and paid in manner following: (that is to say), Three pence, Part thereof, for every Bushel of such Malt, on the Tenth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and nineteen; Three pence, other Part thereof, for every Bushel of such Malt, on the Tenth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty; Four pence, other Part thereof, for every Bushel of such Malt, on the Tenth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and twenty; and Four pence, the Remainder thereof, for every Bushel of such Malt thereof, on the Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty; and all such Masters or Makers of Malt, Sellers or Retailers of Malt, Brewers, Distillers, Inskippers, Vintners and Vinegar Makers, who shall refuse to make such Payments, or any or either of them, for his, her or their Stock of Malt, at such times or times respectively, shall forfeit double the Amount of all the Duties charged or chargeable for or in respect of such Stock of Malt, or One hundred Pounds, at the Election of His Majesty's Attorney General, or the Person who shall sue or prosecute for the same.

XI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Officers of Excise respectively to take a true and particular Account and Admeasurement of all such Malt as any Master or Maker of Malt, Seller or Retailer of Malt, Brewer, Distiller, Inskipper, Vintner or Vinegar Maker, or any Person or Persons in trust, or for the Use, Benefit or Account of them, or for any or either of them, shall, on the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, have or be possessed of or interested in, and for that Purpose to enter into any Dwelling House, Outshouse, Barn, Granary or other Place whatsoever belonging to every or any such Master or Maker of Malt, Seller or Retailer of Malt, Brewer, Distiller, Inskipper, Vintner or Vinegar Maker, and each of them; and every such Person is hereby required to permit and suffer such Officers or Officers, on the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, or afterwards, at any time before the Duty upon such Malt shall be paid, at his or their Request, to enter and take such Account and Admeasurement thereof as aforesaid, and for that Purpose to call such Malt into a regular Form for the better ascertaining the Quantity thereof; and if they, or any or either of them, shall refuse to permit or suffer any Officer or Officers of Excise to do so, or if any Person or Persons shall obstruct, oppose, molest or hinder any Officer or Officers of Excise in the due Execution of such Powers hereby given, or shall use, or permit or suffer to be used, any Means, Art or Contrivance, by which any Officer or Officers may be deceived, hindered or obstructed in ascertaining or taking a true Account of the actual Quantity of all such Malt, he, she or they shall respectively forfeit One hundred Pounds, or Forty Shillings for every Bushel of such Malt, at the Election of His Majesty's Attorney General, or the Person who shall sue or prosecute for the same, for every such Offence; and if any Master or Maker of Malt, Seller or Retailer of Malt, Brewer, Distiller, Inskipper, Vintner or Vinegar Maker, or any other Person or Persons having in his, her or their Custody or Possession any Quantity of Malt chargeable by this Act with the said Duty or Duties, or any Part thereof, for Stock in hand as aforesaid, shall clandestinely remove or carry away, or take or suffer to be removed or carried away, the same, or any Part thereof, before the Duties thereupon shall be charged, or shall fraudulently conceal or hide, or cause or suffer to be concealed or hid, or shall not produce to the Inspection of the Officer of Excise or Gaugers such Malt, and every Part thereof, that then and in every such Case, every Person is offending, for every such Offence, shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds, or Forty Shillings for every Bushel of such Malt, at the Election of His Majesty's Attorney General, or the Person who shall sue or prosecute for the same; and the Malt which shall be so clandestinely removed or carried away, or fraudulently concealed or hid, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise; and the Person or Persons in whose Custody or Possession such Malt shall

XII. And be it further enacted, That on all Malt which shall on the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, be in the Possession of any Master or Maker of Malt, Seller or Receiver of Malt, Brewer, Distiller, Importer, Wholesaler or Vinegar Maker, or any Person or Persons in trade, or for the Use, Benefit or Account of him, her or them, or any of them, and which shall be taken account of by any Officers of Excise, and charged with the Duty on Malt Stock in hand hereby imposed, there shall be allowed and deducted from such Account, previous to such Charge of Duty, Twelve per Centum on all Beers or Porter unground Malt, and Five per Centum on all other unground Malt, for the Sweil or Sweale thereof, over the Quantity of such Malt charged with Duty when made.

XIII. And Whereas Contracts or Agreements may have been made for the Sale or Delivery of some of the Articles or Commodities on which the said additional Duties of Excise are by this Act granted, which Contracts or Agreements may have been made with no Reference to such additional Duties, and thereby the several Contracts may be materially affected: For Remedy thereof, be it further enacted, That all and every Person or Persons who shall or may have made or entered into any such Contract or Agreement shall, and he and they are hereby respectively authorized and empowered, in the Case of any such Contract or Agreement, to add in such Money as will be equivalent to the additional Duty hereby granted on any such Article or Commodity respectively to the Price thereof, and shall be entitled by virtue of this Act to be paid for the same accordingly.

XIV. And Whereas Spirits extracted in Scotland before the Ninth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, for Exportation to England, are by this Act made chargeable, on the Importation thereof into England, with the Duty of Nine Shillings and Five pence Halfpenny per Gallon, and Spirits extracted in Scotland, for Exportation to England, after the Ninth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, are made chargeable on the Importation thereof into England, with the Duty of Ten Shillings and Sixpence per Gallon: And Whereas it is expedient that the Officers of Excise in Scotland should certify, on every such Shipment of Spirits for exportation to England, whether the same was extracted before the Ninth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, until the whole of the Stock of every such Distiller extracted before that Day shall be wholly exported and brought into England: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the Ninth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, every such Distiller so aforesaid shall, in his or their Request Note for a Permit to accompany the Removal of any such Spirits as aforesaid, specify and declare therein whether such Spirits were extracted before the said Ninth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, and that in every such Permit the proper Officer and Officers of Excise in Scotland shall specify whether the Spirits therein mentioned are Part of the Stock of such Distiller extracted before that Day, until the whole of the Stock of Spirits of such and every such Distiller in Scotland extracted before that Day, shall be exported and brought into England; and in default thereof, any Quantity of such Spirits to be imported, without such Specification as aforesaid, shall be deemed to be spirits extracted after the Ninth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, and shall be charged with and pay the Duty of Ten Shillings and Sixpence for every Gallon thereof.

XV. And be it further enacted, That on every Shipment of Beer for Exportation on Drawback made after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, the Shipper or Exporter thereof, together with the Brewer thereof, or his Foreman or Manager, shall make oath (which Oath the Officers of Excise are hereby empowered to administer), according to the oath of his and their Knowledge and Belief, that the same has been brewed wholly from Malt which has been charged with and paid the Duty of Three Shillings and Sixpence for every Bushel thereof; and in his and their Affidavit thereof specify the time when, and the Place where, and the Brewer by whom such Beer was brewed, and that the Quantity of Malt employed in the brewing of such Beer was in the Proportion of not less than Two Bushels for every Barrel thereof; and that every Manufacturer of Tobacco who shall after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, ship for Exportation on Drawback any manufactured Plug or Roll Tobacco, shall, in his Affidavit of the Duties thereon having been duly paid, specify that the Duty of Four Shillings per Pound has been paid upon the whole of such Tobacco, and the time when, and the Place where such Duty was paid, and that if any Person or Persons shall ship any Beer or any manufactured Tobacco for Exportation on the Drawback hereby granted on Beer and manufactured Plug or Roll Tobacco respectively, or shall claim any such Drawback thereon respectively, without making such Affidavit respectively as aforesaid, no such Drawback shall be payable or paid; and if such Duties respectively shall be so taken to have been paid, and shall not have been paid, or if any such shall be in any other respect false and untrue, every such Person shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of Two hundred Pounds; and all such Beer and Tobacco respectively shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise.

XVI. And Whereas the respective Duties payable in Great Britain, for and upon Tea, Coffee and Cocoa Nuts, Tobacco and Snuff, and upon Pepper, not being Cayenne, Long Pepper or Guinea Pepper, are by this Act made wholly Exempt Duties: Be it therefore enacted, That all and singular the Powers and Authorities, Rules and Regulations, contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament in anywise relating to Tea, Coffee and Cocoa Nuts, Tobacco and Snuff, or such Pepper respectively, or to the Importation, storing, loading, warehousing, weighing, gathering, Removal, Delivery, Exportation or bonding thereof, contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament in force at or immediately before the passing of this Act, and granted to and heretofore exercised by the Commissioners and Officers of Customs, shall be, from and after the passing of this Act,

And, whereas, recorded and put in force by the Commissioners and Officers of Excise, for securing and collecting the Duties on Tea, Coffee and Cocoa Nuts, Tobacco and Snuff, and each Pepper respectively, hereby imposed; and that all Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by any such Act or Acts of Parliament, for any Act or Acts which may happen to be done, or related or neglected to be done, by any Person or Persons in anywise relating to Tea, Coffee and Cocoa Nuts, Tobacco and Snuff, or each Pepper respectively, or to the Importation, entering, landing, warehousing, weighing, packing, removal, Delivery, Exportation or landing thereof, without the Warrant, Order, Approbation or Permission of the Commissioners or Officers of Customs respectively, shall be incurred, lost and forfeited, upon the like Act or Acts being done or related or neglected to be done, without the Warrant, Order, Approbation or Permission of the Commissioners or Officers of Excise, in like manner, and to all Intents and Purposes, and shall be held for, enforced, levied, originated and applied, as if all and singular such Powers and Authorities had been originally given and granted to such Commissioners and Officers of Excise respectively, and such Rules, Regulations, Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures were so inserted and contained in this present Act; any thing in any other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any Three or more of them, and they are hereby authorised and empowered, by any Writing under their Hands, to make and offer such Orders, Directions and Regulations, as they from time to time shall think necessary or expedient for facilitating the official Business to be transacted in respect to the Importation, warehousing or Exportation of Tea, Coffee, Cocoa Nuts, Tobacco, Snuff and Pepper respectively; and for more effectually and conveniently transacting, in pursuance of this Act, the Collection of the whole of the Duties on such Goods and Merchandise respectively from the Commissioners of Customs to the Commissioners of Excise; any thing in this Act, or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament, to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

XVIII. And Whereas the Duties upon Tea are by Law to be computed on the Price at which the same shall be sold: And Whereas Tea has been unlawfully landed, and has been taken out of the Warehouse or Storehouse in which the same has been put, and fraudulently carried into Consumption, without being publicly sold, and without Payment of Duty, and by reason of such Tea not being publicly sold, no Rate or Amount of Duty therein could be fixed or computed: Be it therefore enacted, That whenever any Tea imported into Great Britain shall be unlawfully landed, or shall be fraudulently taken or carried away out of any Ship or Vessel, or any Warehouse, Storehouse or Place in which the same has been lodged or put without Payment of Duty, or shall be allowed or ordered to be sold as bled, or as forfeited and condemned Goods, the Amount of Duty which attached on the Importation thereof shall be computed, and where such Duty is by Law payable, shall be paid at the same Rate or Price at which Tea of the best Quality of the like Kind was sold at the last preceding Sale of Tea by the East India Company.

XIX. And Whereas by an Act made in the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, it was, amongst other Things enacted, that a Deduction or Allowance of One Sixteenth Part shall be made from and upon every One hundred Pounds Weight of all Coffee in the Bulk, of the Growth and Produce of the Island of Sumatra, or of any other Single Colony or Plantation in America, imported into Great Britain, for which Quantity is deducted as allowed no Customs or Duty of Excise shall be paid by the Importer or Proprietor thereof: And Whereas an Allowance is by another Act, made in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, granted to the Importers, Proprietors or Consignees of any Coffee or Cocoa Nuts, at and after the Rate of Two Pounds for every One hundred Pounds Weight of such Coffee or Cocoa Nuts, as a full Compensation for all Loss, Waste or Damage whatever, whether occasioned by galling or otherwise: but Doubts have arisen whether the Allowance specified by the last former Act of the Thirtieth Year aforesaid, was thereby repealed, and it is expedient to remove such Doubts, and to expressly repeal the said Allowance forth abovesaid: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, in pursuance of the said Act of the Thirtieth Year aforesaid as is heretofore acted, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

XX. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, all and every Person and Persons duly licensed to deal in, retail and sell Coffee, shall be thereby licensed and authorised to deal in, retail and sell Pepper; and that if any Person or Persons shall have or reserve for Sale, or deal in, retail or sell Pepper, not being Pepper called Cayenne, Long Pepper or Guinea Pepper, without being duly licensed to deal in, retail and sell Tea and Coffee, he, she and they shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, Pepper, not being Pepper called Cayenne, Long Pepper or Guinea Pepper, shall be and the same is hereby made subject in all things in respect of the Importation, warehousing, Removal, Sale or Exportation thereof, to all and every the Conditions, Regulations, Rules, Restrictions and Forfeitures to which East India Coffee is generally or specially subject or liable by this or by any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to His Majesty's Revenue of Excise, not hereby altered, in force immediately before the passing of this Act, save and except in the Size or Weight of the Packages in which the same shall or may be imported or exported; and that all and every Dealer in, Retailer or Seller of such Pepper, shall be and is hereby made subject, with respect to such Pepper, and the Receipt, Carriage, Sale, Delivery and Removal thereof, to all and every Fine, Penalty, Fine or Forfeiture of any Nature or Kind whatever, imposed on Dealers in, Retailers or Sellers of Coffee by this or by any such Act or Acts of Parliament not hereby altered, made for securing the Revenue of Excise on Coffee, or for the Regulation or Improvement thereof; and the several Clauses, Powers and Directions therein contained, with respect to Coffee, shall and are hereby directed and declared to be executed by Officers of Excise and all Persons, who are imposed by such Acts extended to the Act.

Treasury may issue such Orders as they think expedient for facilitating the Transact of the Duties from Commissioners of Customs to Commissioners of Excise.

The unlawfully landed or fraudulently taken from Warehouse, &c. to be charged with Duty at the Rate of the preceding Sale of Tea by the East India Company.

to extend to, and shall be respectively applied, practised and put in execution for and in respect of such Pepper, and of the Duty hereby imposed thereon, first and except as aforesaid, in as full and ample a Manner, to all Events and Purposes whatsoever, as if all and every the said Acts, Statutes, Provisions, Powers, Decisions, Cases, Points, Penalties and Forfeitures were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act as to such Pepper, and to all Dealers in, Venders or Sellers thereof.

XXII. And Whereas Combinations made in relation to Pepper have of late been said and found to be the Cause and Protection of various Disorders in Pepper, and other Pericles in Great Britain: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, if any Commodity or Commodities, Substance or Substances, shall be prepared or manufactured by any Person or Persons in relation to Pepper, shall be mixed with Pepper, or sold or delivered as such, or as a Substance for Pepper, or if any such Commodity or Commodities, Substance or Substances, shall be stored as aforesaid, shall be kept for Sale, sold or delivered, or shall be offered or exposed to Sale, or shall be in the Custody or Possession of any Dealer or Dealers in, or Seller or Sellers of Pepper, the same, together with all Pepper with which the same shall be mixed, shall be forfeited, together with the Package or Packages containing the same, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise; and the Person or Persons preparing, manufacturing, mixing as aforesaid, selling, exposing to Sale or being near the same, or having the same in his, her or their Custody or Possession as aforesaid, shall forfeit and lose the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, every Distiller for Exports to England or Scotland respectively shall, in each and every Year ending the Tenth Day of October, produce and shall duly report to and send and pay Duty for, in England or Scotland respectively, as the case may be, Nineteen Gallons of the least of Spirits at the Strength of Seven per Centum above Hygrometer Proof, for every One hundred Gallons of Wort or Wash which shall be brewed or made by such Distiller in such Year, except so much of such Spirits as shall be lost by Shipwreck; and if any such Distiller shall in any such Year fail, neglect or refuse so to produce, and duly report to and send, or pay Duty for, in England or Scotland respectively, as the case may be, Nineteen Gallons at the least of such Spirits, at the Strength aforesaid, for every One hundred Gallons of Wort or Wash which shall be brewed or made in such Year by such Distiller, and shall not, within One Month after the Expiration of such Year, pay Duty in England or Scotland, as the case may be, at and after the Rate of Duty chargeable by Law for and in respect of such Spirits as imported, for every Gallon of such Spirits below or short of such Proportion as aforesaid, which any such Distiller shall fail to send and pay Duty for as aforesaid, every such Distiller shall, for every such default as aforesaid, forfeit and lose the Sum of Twenty Shillings for every Gallon of such Spirits not landed and paid Duty for, except as aforesaid, in such Year.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That if any entered or licensed Distiller or Distillers in Great Britain shall at any time after the passing of this Act conceal, remove or carry away, or cause or suffer to be concealed, removed or carried away, any Wash brewed or made for extracting Spirits, or any Spirits extracted in Great Britain, for or upon which the Duty payable by Law has not been duly charged, or which shall not have been duly taken account of by the proper Officers of Excise, every such Distiller shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose Five hundred Pounds, or Twenty Shillings for every Gallon of such Wash or Spirits as concealed, removed or carried away, at the Election of the Attorney General, or the Person who shall sue or prosecute for the same; and the License of every such Distiller who shall be twice convicted of the Offence aforesaid, shall, upon such Second Conviction, be deemed void to all Intents and Purposes, and such Distiller shall not be entitled to any further or renewed License as a Distiller for the Period of Three Years from the Date of such Second Conviction.

XXV. And Whereas, by an Act made in the Forty second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for granting to His Majesty additional Duties on Beer and Ale brewed in or imported into Great Britain, as Ale made in Great Britain, as Ale grown in or imported into Great Britain, and as Spirits distilled in Ireland, and imported into Great Britain; for repealing certain Allowances to Brewers of Beer and Ale, and for preventing Frauds and Abuses in the Revenue of Excise on Beer, Ale and Wash; it was amongst other things enacted, that all Beer or Ale above the Price of Sixteen Shillings the Barrel (exclusive of the Duties), should be denominated and deemed to be Strong Beer or Ale, and all Beer of the Price of Sixteen Shillings the Barrel or under (exclusive of the Duty), should be denominated and deemed to be Table Beer, within the Meaning of the said Act, and all other Acts relating to Beer or Ale: And Whereas it is expedient, during the Continuance of the Duties now imposed upon Wash, to permit Brewers of Table Beer to increase the Price thereof, so hereinafter mentioned: Be it therefore enacted, That all Beer and Ale above the Price of Eighteen Shillings the Barrel (exclusive of the Duties), shall be denominated, deemed and taken to be Strong Beer or Ale; and all Beer of the Price of Eighteen Shillings the Barrel or under (exclusive of Duties), shall be denominated, deemed and taken to be Table Beer, within the Meaning of this Act, and of all other Acts of Parliament in force relating to Beer or Ale.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons whatsoever shall neglect, default, hinder, oppose or impede any Officer or Officers of Excise in the due Execution of the Powers and Authorities by this Act granted, or any or either of them, except in such Cases for which other Penalties are by this Act provided, every Person so offending shall forfeit and lose the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That all Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures imposed or referred to by this Act, shall be due and paid, recovered, levied or satisfied by such Ways, Means or Methods, as any Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture may be paid for, recovered, levied or satisfied by any Law or Laws of Excise, or by Addition of Debt, Bill, Plea or Information in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland respectively; and that One Shilling of every such Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture shall be

C. A. P. LIV.

An Act to carry into effect a Convention of Commerce concluded between His Majesty and the United States of America, and a Treaty with the Prince Regent of Portugal. [2d July 1819.]

WHEREAS a Convention of Commerce and Navigation was concluded between His Majesty and the United States of America, bearing date the Third Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, the Four Years from the last Date: And Whereas an Act was passed in the Fifty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to carry into effect a Convention of Commerce concluded between His Majesty and the United States of America: And Whereas another Act was passed in the same Year of the Reign of His said Majesty, intitled An Act to carry into effect a Convention of Commerce concluded between His Majesty and the United States of America: And Whereas another Act was passed in the Fifty seventh Year of His Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to allow British Goods to be re-exported direct from this Country to the United States of America, upon the same Terms as when re-exported to any Foreign Country: And Whereas a further Convention of Commerce and Navigation has been concluded between His Majesty and the United States of America, dated the Twentieth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and eighteen, whereby in the Fourth Article all the Provisions of the aforesaid Convention, concluded on the Third Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, except as therein excepted, are extended and continued in force for the Term of Two Years from the Date of the Signature of the said further Convention: And Whereas it is expedient to give effect to each Part of the said Conventions as regards the Duties of Parliament, and to make further Provisions than are contained in the said aforesaid Acts passed in the Fifty sixth and Fifty seventh Years of His said Majesty's Reign: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Acts passed in the Fifty sixth and Fifty seventh Years of His present Majesty's Reign, shall be and the same are hereby repealed.

II. And be it further enacted, That upon the Importation into any Part of the United Kingdom, of any Goods, Wares or Merchandise, being the Growth, Production or Manufacture, of any of the Territories of the United States of America, imported direct from the said Territories in any Ship or Vessel built in the Countries belonging to the said States, or any of them, or taken by any of the Ships or Vessels of War belonging to the Government, or any of the Lieutenants of the said States, having Commissions or Letters of Marque and Reprisal, from the Government of the said States, and condemned as lawful Prize in any Court of Admiralty there, such Ship or Vessel being owned by the Subjects of the said States, or any of them, and whereof the Master and Three fourths of the Mariners are also Subjects of the said States, no higher or other Duties shall be charged or paid, than such as are charged and payable upon Goods, Wares and Merchandise, of the like Description or Disposition, being the Growth, Production or Manufacture, of any of the Territories of the United States of America, and being imported in British built Ships or Vessels registered and registered according to Law: any thing contained in an Act passed in the Forty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for regulating the several Duties of Customs chargeable in Great Britain, and for granting other Duties in lieu thereof, or any other Act to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

III. And be it further enacted, That all Goods, Wares, Merchandise and Effects imported in any Ship or Vessel built in the said United States of America, or condemned as Prize there, and being owned and navigated as heretofore mentioned, shall and may be sold by Auction free of the Duty imposed by Law on Goods and Effects sold by Auction: Provided nevertheless, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be deemed or construed to extend, to authorize the Sale of any such Goods or Effects free of the said Duty, unless on the First Sale of such Goods or Effects by or for the Agent of the original Importer thereof, by whom the same were entered at the Custom House at the Port of Importation, nor unless such Sale shall be made within Twelve Months next after the time when such Goods or Effects shall have been imported.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the same Duties shall be paid or payable on the Exportation of all Goods, Wares and Merchandise of the Growth, Production or Manufacture of Great Britain, re-exported direct from thence to any Port or Place within the Territories of the United States of America in British built Ships owned, registered and navigated according to Law, or in Ships built in the United States of America, or condemned as Prize there, and being owned and navigated as heretofore mentioned, as are or shall be payable on the Exportation of the like Articles to Europe.

V. And be it further enacted, That upon the Exportation from the United Kingdom to the United States of America of any Goods, Wares or Merchandise, the Growth, Production or Manufacture of the said United Kingdom or any of His Majesty's Territories in Europe, in any Ship or Vessel built in the said United States of America, or condemned as Prize there, and being owned and navigated as heretofore mentioned, the same Bounty or Allowance shall be paid as at the time of such Exportation may be allowed upon the Exportation thereof to the said States in any British built Ship or Vessel registered and registered according to Law.

VI. And Whereas it is expedient that Vessels built in the Countries belonging to the United States of America, or any of them, or condemned as Prize there, and being owned and navigated as heretofore mentioned, should be allowed to clear out from any Port of the United Kingdom for the principal Settlements of the British Possessions in the East Indies, Malacca, Ceylon, Madras, Bombay and Prince of Wales's Island, with any Articles which may legally be re-exported from the United Kingdom to the said Settlements in British built Ships: Be it therefore further enacted, That all Vessels built in the said United States of America, of Act.

America, or any of them, or condemned as Prize ships, and being owned and assigned to heretofore mentioned, shall be allowed to clear out from any Port of the United Kingdom for the following principal Settlements of the British Dominions in the East Indies, to-wit, Calcutta, Madras, Bombay and Pondicherry of India's Island, with any Goods, Wares or Merchandise which may be legally exported from the United Kingdom to the said Settlements in British built Vessels, subject to the like Rules and Regulations, Restrictions, Privileges and Exemptions as are now by Law imposed upon the Exportation of such Goods to the said Settlements in British built Ships, any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Will And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to repeal or in anywise alter the Duties of Package, Scavage, Ballage or Portage, or any other Duties payable to the Mayor and Commonalty, and Citizens of the City of London, or to the Lord Mayor of the said City for the time being, or to any other City or Town Corporate within Great Britain, or any other special Privilege or Exemption to which any Barren or Fertile, Bodied Politic or Corporate, is or are now entitled by Law in respect of Goods imported and exported, but the same shall be continued as heretofore.

• VIII. And Whereas by the aforesaid Convention it is provided, that no higher or other Duties or Charges shall be imposed in any of the Ports in any of His Majesty's Territories in Europe, on the Vessels of the United States of America, than shall be payable in the same Ports on British Vessels: And Whereas a similar Provision was made in a Treaty of Amity, Commerce and Navigation, concluded between His Majesty and His Royal Highness The Prince Regent of Portugal, dated the Nineteenth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and ten: And Whereas certain Rates and Duties, under the Denomination of Lights Duties, Pilotsage, Ballast, Bargeage and Boatage, Rates, Harbour Duties and other Duties, are now payable by Law, Charter, special Privilege or Grant, to the Corporation of Trinity House of Doyford Strand, to the Trustees of Rangoon Harbour, to other Bodied Politic and Corporate, and to sundry Persons in whom such Rates and Duties may be vested respectively on Foreign Ships and Vessels, over and above the Rates and Duties payable on British Ships: And Whereas it is expedient that the Object of the said Treaty should be effectually carried into execution: Be it therefore enacted, That no higher or other Rates or Duties shall be levied on Ships or Vessels of the United States of America, or on Portuguese Ships or Vessels entering or touching at any of the Ports of the United Kingdom, or of His Majesty's Territories in Europe, than are now or which may become hereafter payable on British Ships.

• IX. And Whereas it is expedient that the said Corporation, Trustees of Rangoon Harbour, other Bodied Politic and Corporate, and sundry other Persons, in whom such Rates and Duties are vested respectively, should be indemnified for the Loss sustained by means of this Act: Be it further enacted, That the Difference in such Cases between the Rates and Duties due and payable on British Ships, and those payable on Foreign Ships, shall be paid out of the Consolidated Duties of Customs: and for the more effectual Security of the Public Revenue in respect of any Claims which in virtue of this Act may be made, all and every such Claim or Claims shall be transmitted by the aforesaid Trustees, Bodied Politic or Corporate, or Person interested, or their Agent or Agents, to the Corporation of Trinity House of Doyford Strand, who are hereby required to examine the same, and being satisfied as to the Correctness thereof, are to certify the same accordingly, under the Hand of their Secretary or other proper Officer, together with such Claim as the said Corporation may have, to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in London Quarterly, for their Order for the Payment thereof; and the said Commissioners are hereby required to direct Payment of such Claims out of the Consolidated Duties of Customs to the said Corporation of Trinity House of Doyford Strand; and the said Corporation are hereby required, after retaining what may be due as their Right, to pay over to the Trustees of Rangoon Harbour, to other Bodied Politic and Corporate, and to the sundry Persons in whom such Rates and Duties may be vested respectively, the Amount of their respective Claims, subject only to such incidental or other Charges as have previously been made in the Collection of such Rates and Duties.

• X. And in order that the Object of the said Treaty may be more fully effected, be it further enacted, That so much of the said Duties of Package, Scavage, Ballage or Portage, or any other Duties payable to the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, or to the Lord Mayor of the said City for the time being, as have been heretofore paid for or on account of American or Portuguese Ships, or American or Portuguese Shipwrecks respectively, shall, after the passing of this Act, be paid out of the Consolidated Duties of Customs to the Collector appointed to receive such Duties; and the said Collector for the time being is hereby required to transmit to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, Quarterly, an Account or Certificate of such Duties payable on Foreign Ships, and by American or Portuguese Shipwrecks, for or on account of Merchandise imported or exported by them; the Amount of which Quarterly Accounts or Certificates, after due Examination, and being satisfied as to the Correctness thereof, the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs are hereby required from time to time to order to be paid to the said Collector for the time being out of the Consolidated Duties of Customs accordingly.

• XI. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

• XII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue in force so long as the aforesaid British Convention between His Majesty and the United States of America, and the aforesaid Treaty between His Majesty and His Royal Highness The Prince Regent of Portugal, and so long as any Treaty or any Convention with any Foreign Power with the similar Provision heretofore recited, shall respectively continue in force.

CAP. LV.

An Act to extend the Provisions of Three Acts of the Fifty second, Fifty third, and Fifty seventh Years of His present Majesty, for allowing British Plantation Sugar and Coffee, and other Articles imported into Bermuda in British Ships to be exported to America in Foreign Vessels, and to permit Articles, the Produce of America, to be imported into Bermuda in Foreign Ships, to certain other Articles.

[2d July 1819.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Fifty second Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to allow British Plantation Sugar and Coffee, imported into Bermuda in British Ships, to be exported to the Territories of the United States of America, in Foreign Ships or Vessels; and to permit Articles, the Produce of the said United States, to be imported into the said Island in Foreign Ships or Vessels: And Whereas an Act was passed in the Fifty third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for further allowing the Importation and Exportation of certain Articles of the Island of Bermuda: And Whereas an Act was passed in the Fifty seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to extend the Powers of Two Acts, for allowing British Plantation Sugar and Coffee, and other Articles imported into Bermuda in British Ships, to be exported to America in Foreign Vessels and to permit Articles, the Produce of America, to be imported into the said Island in Foreign Ships, to certain other Articles: And Whereas it is expedient that the said Acts should be extended, in far as regards the Articles to be allowed to be imported and exported: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in addition to the Articles enumerated in the said Acts, it shall be lawful to import from the United States into the Poss. mentioned in the said Acts above recited, in Vessels of the Description therein stated, and under the like Authority, Restrictions, Rules, Regulations, Penalties and Forfeitures provided in the said recited Acts, the Article of Rials, being the Produce or Manufacture of the said States; and in addition to the Articles permitted to be exported by the said above recited Acts, to export from the said Island of Bermuda to the said United States, in such Vessels and under such Regulations as aforesaid, all Articles, the Produce or Manufacture of the said Island, and all Articles whatever which shall have been legally imported into the same in any British Ship or Vessel.

11 G. 3. c. 79.

11 G. 3. c. 70.

17 G. 3. c. 21.

American Goods may be imported.

Articles, Produce of Bermuda, may be exported to United States.

Persons receiving Names and Character of persons entitled to Prize Money, by the foregoing Letters of Appointment, are to receive Wages, due, unless they shall so advise Prizes, &c.

XVI. And be it enacted, in order to enable the said Clerk of the Cheque to examine and certify such Orders as hereinafter directed, That no Agent or Agents appointed for the Sale and Distribution of any Prize or Prizes, Bounty Money, Grant or other Allowance of Money in the Nature thereof, shall commence Distribution until the Expiration of Thirty Days from the Intimation in the Gazette of the said Notification, that the Account of Sales is about to be brought into the High Court of Admiralty; and every Agent appointed for the Purposes aforesaid shall, and he is hereby required, on or before the Intimation of the said Notification in the London Gazette, to deliver to the Clerk of the Cheque of the said Royal Hospital, a true and perfect Copy of the Distribution List of the respective Prizes to which the said Notification refers; which List, or a Copy thereof, shall be returned by the Clerk of the Cheque to the Agent furnishing the same, at the Expiration of the time allowed by Law for Distribution by the said Prize Agent; and every Prize Agent who shall refuse or neglect to furnish such List as aforesaid shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds; all which Orders, to certify and paid upon as aforesaid, shall be delivered to the Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital as Vouchers at the time directed by Law for rendering Accounts, and paying over the Balances of the respective Disbursements of any Prize or Prizes.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons really entitled to Prize or Bounty Money, Pension Money, Grant or other Allowance of Money on account of Services on board of any Ship or Vessel, shall, by the Possession of any false Certificate, or by making any false Representation, obtain or endeavour to obtain from the said Royal Hospital, or from any licensed Agent, the said Prize or Bounty Money, Pension Money, or other Allowance of Money so due to him as aforesaid, such Person or Persons shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanour, and shall forfeit all Prize or Bounty Money, Pension Money, Grant or other Allowance of Money due to him on account of his said Services.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall wilfully or knowingly perjure, or falsely affirm, or make, procure, and or still any Person to perjure or falsely affirm, the Name or Character of any Commissioned Officer, Warrant or Private Officer, or Surgeon, or any Commissioned or Non Commissioned Officer of Marines, or Marine, Supernumerary or Boy, or any other Person entitled or supposed to be entitled to any Wages, Pay, Prize Money, Bounty Money, Pension Money or other Allowance of Money, for or in respect of Services performed or supposed to have been performed on board of any Ship or Vessel of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors; or shall perjure or falsely affirm the Name or Character, or shall still in perjurings or falsely affirming the Name or Character of the Wife, Widow, Executor or Administrators, Relation or Creditor of any such Officer, Seaman, or other Person, in order to receive any Wages, Pay, Prize Money, Bounty Money, Pension Money or other Allowance of Money due or supposed to be due for or in respect of the Services of any such Officer, Seaman, Marine or other Person as aforesaid, performed or supposed to have been performed on board of any Ship or Vessel of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors; or shall wilfully make, forge, counterfeit, or alter any certificate or process to be falsely made, forged, counterfeited or altered, or wilfully sell or still in the false making, forging, counterfeiting or altering any Letter of Attorney, Order, Bill, Ticket, Certificate of Service, or other Certificate whatsoever, Assignment, last Will, or other Power or Authority whatsoever, in order to receive or to enable any other Person to receive any Wages, Pay, Prize Money, Bounty Money, Pension Money or other Allowance of Money due or supposed to be due for or in respect of the Services of any such Officer, Seaman, Marine, Supernumerary or Boy, or other Person as aforesaid, performed or supposed to have been performed on board of any Ship or Vessel of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, with intention to defraud any Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Public or Corporate whatsoever; or shall either or possibly as true, or shall sell or still in attesting or publishing as true, any false, forged, counterfeited or altered Letter of Attorney, Order, Bill, Ticket, Certificate of Service, or other Certificate whatsoever, Assignment, last Will, or other Power or Authority whatsoever, knowing the same to be false, forged, counterfeited or altered, in order to receive any Wages, Pay, Prize Money, Bounty Money, Pension Money or other Allowance of Money due or supposed to be due for or in respect of the Services of any such Officer, Seaman, Marine, Supernumerary or Boy, or other Person as aforesaid, performed or supposed to have been performed on board of any Ship or Vessel of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, or shall intend to defraud any Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Public or Corporate whatsoever; or shall wilfully and knowingly take a false Oath to obtain the Prizes of any Will or Wife, or to obtain Letters of Administration, in order to receive or to enable any other Person to receive any Wages, Pay, Prize Money, Bounty Money, Pension Money or other Allowance of Money due or supposed to be due for or in respect of the Services of any such Officer, Seaman, Marine, Supernumerary or Boy, or other Person as aforesaid, performed or supposed to have been performed on board of any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, His Heirs or Successors, or shall demand or receive any Wages, Pay, Prize Money, Bounty Money, Pension Money or other Allowance of Money due or supposed to be due for or in respect of the Services of any such Officer, Seaman, Marine or other Person as aforesaid, performed or supposed to have been performed on board of any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels upon or by virtue of any Power or Letters of Administration, knowing the Will on which such Prizes shall have been obtained to be false, forged and counterfeited, or knowing the Prizes of such Will, or such Letters of Administration, as last aforesaid, to have been obtained by means of any such false Oath as aforesaid, with intention to defraud any Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Public or Corporate whatsoever, that every such Person or Persons so offending, and being thereof convicted according to due Course of Law, shall be deemed guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as a Felony without Benefit of Clergy.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That every Agent or other Person authorized and empowered to receive any Prize or Bounty Money or other Monies as aforesaid, shall, within Ten Days after he shall have rendered to the

WHEREAS it is expedient to alter and amend certain Laws of Excise, with respect to Salt and Rock Salt: And Whereas by an Act made in the Thirty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, entitled An Act for transferring the Management of the Salt Duties to the Commissioners of Excise, and for regulating the Duties on Salt, and the Drawbacks, Allowances and Bounties paid thereon, and for granting other Duties, Drawbacks, Allowances and Bounties thereon; it is amongst other things enacted, that in all Cases where any Officer or Officers of Excise is or are authorized, empowered or required to ascertain the Quantity of Salt or Rock Salt by Weight, no less Quantity of such Salt or Rock Salt shall be weighed at one Draught than Two Bushels, less and except in any Case where the whole Quantity of Salt or Rock Salt, as so delivered at any one time shall be less than Two Bushels; and every such Officer or Officers, on weighing any Salt or Rock Salt, shall give the Turn of the Scale in favour of the Crown, and in lieu thereof shall make an Allowance as and after the Rate of Half a Pound Weight in every Two Bushels of such Salt or Rock Salt: And Whereas it is expedient to make such Alterations in the said Law as hereinafter mentioned: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, he and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, no Salt or Rock Salt shall be weighed by any Officer or Officers with such Turns of the Scale as aforesaid, nor shall any Allowance as aforesaid be made on the weighing of any Salt or Rock Salt; and except when and at the time that any Salt or Rock Salt is delivered from the Salt Works, Pit or Mine, where the same has been made or mined, or any Warehouse belonging thereto, and in which such Salt or Rock Salt has been deposited without Payment of Duty; and that in every Port where such Salt is granted, and in every Bond which shall be given or entered into for the Removal of any Salt or Rock Salt, the Net Quantity only of the Salt or Rock Salt to be removed shall be specified; and that any Officer or Officers who shall at any time thereafter receive any such Salt or Rock Salt, shall weigh and take in or their Account thereof in net Bushels and Pounds only, and without giving any such Turn of the Scale, or making any such Allowance as aforesaid, any thing in the said Act, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. And Whereas all Salt and Rock Salt, being removed or removing without a true and lawful Permit accompanying the same, or under a false Declaration, as by Law forfeited and liable to be seized: Be it therefore enacted, That no Salt or Rock Salt which shall have been delivered free of Duty, shall be forfeited or liable to Seizure for or on account of any Excess in the Weight or Quantity, thereof, over and above the Weight and Quantity specified in the Permit granted for the Removal of and accompanying the same, which Salt or may be found by any Officer or Officers of Excise on his or their weighing or taking, as aforesaid, when such Excess shall appear to have been occasioned by Accident and without Fraud; and such Excess shall be thereupon contained with the Bulk of such Salt or Rock Salt, and such Excess shall be indorsed upon the Back of the Permit accompanying such Salt, or if necessary a new Permit shall be granted for the Removal of the whole: Provided always, notwithstanding, that whenever any such Excess shall be found to exceed the Quantity specified in the Permit granted for the Removal of and accompanying such Salt or Rock Salt, in a greater Proportion than at and after the Rate or Proportion of Five Pounds Weight for every One hundred Pounds Weight of such Salt, or Stone dried Salt, or Two Pounds Weight for every One hundred Pounds Weight of all other Salt or Rock Salt respectively mentioned in such Permit, such greater Excess shall be deemed and taken to be express Fraud and conclusive Evidence of Fraud; and all the Salt or Rock Salt respectively so found removed or removing shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise; any thing heretofore contained to the contrary in any Act notwithstanding.

III. And Whereas by an Act made in the Fifty fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, entitled An Act for altering and amending the Laws of Excise with respect to Salt and Rock Salt, it is amongst other things enacted, that if there shall be delivered out of any Ship, Vessel, Boat, Barge or other Vessel, sold or employed for carrying or removing Salt or Rock Salt delivered Duty free, as far as belongeth to the Place of her Destination, a less Quantity of Salt or Rock Salt than was respectively landed on board thereof for any such Removal as aforesaid, the Master or other Person commanding such Ship, Vessel, Boat, Barge, or other Vessel shall forthwith pay to the several Collectors of Excise, the full Amount of the Duty of Fifteen Shillings for every Bushel of the Salt or Rock Salt respectively so delivered, and be in proportion for any less Quantity; and such Ship, Vessel, Boat, Barge or other Vessel shall and may be seized and detained by any Officer or Officers of Customs or Excise in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, until the same shall be paid, and all the Expenses attending or occasioned by such seizure and Detention, except as aforesaid: And Whereas it is expedient to make a further Exception

“ in this respect? Be it therefore enacted, That no such Duty shall be demanded or paid, at any such Detention as is last aforesaid be made, for or in respect of any Salt or crushed Rock Salt in Bond deficient in any Quantity of Salt or crushed Rock Salt respectively, which shall have been shipped without Payment of Duty and on Bond, to be removed and carried Coastwards for the purpose of curing and preserving Fish, or for making Caramels, Acids, orany variety of Lanes, unless the Quantity so found deficient as aforesaid shall exceed the Rate or Proportion of One Pound Weight in or upon every One hundred Pounds Weight of such Salt or crushed Rock Salt respectively be shipped and received as last aforesaid, and for and upon such Excise only, which upon Proof to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Excise, that such Deficiency was provided for by Bond, in which Case such Duty as aforesaid shall be payable and paid, and such Detention shall be made for and in respect of the Whole thereof; and every Officer and Officers of Excise finding or detaining any Salt or Rock Salt, or any Ship or other Vessel, for any Cause of Forfeiture or Detention mentioned in this or any other Act or Acts of Parliament relating to Salt or Rock Salt, shall and they are hereby required forthwith to report such Seizure or Detention, with all the Circumstances attending the same, to the Commissioners of Excise.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in all such Cases as last aforesaid, in which such Deficiency shall not exceed the Rate or Proportion last aforesaid, the Commissioners of Excise in England or Ireland respectively shall, unless they shall be furnished that such Deficiency was occasioned by Fraud, forbear to put in suit any Bond given or entered into for the Removal of any such Salt or crushed Rock Salt as last aforesaid, and order the same to be cancelled and discharged; any thing in the said Act made in the Fifty seventh Year aforesaid to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

V. And Whereas it is by the said Act, made in the Fifty seventh Year aforesaid, enacted, that in case any Salt or Rock Salt removing from One Part of the Kingdom of Great Britain to any other Part thereof, or shipped for Exportation to Ireland, shall be lost or destroyed by a Leak or Leaks accidentally or unavoidably arising by any Fire, Barge, Boat or other Vessel, during such Carriage or Conveyance of such Salt or Rock Salt, and insufficiently shown to the Officer of Excise at the Port or Place of Discharge, before or at the time of the Delivery of such Salt or Rock Salt respectively, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Owner, Proprietor or Shipper of such Salt or Rock Salt, or Captain, Consignor or Agent, to make such Application, and for such Proceedings to be had thereon, and for the Commissioners of Excise to grant such Relief, as are authorized, directed or required by the said Act, upon and under the Terms, Conditions and Restrictions therein mentioned; And Whereas it may happen that such Salt or Rock Salt may be lost or destroyed by Water accidentally and unavoidably, and by the Perils of the Sea, being received and taken into the Hold of such Ship or other Vessel, during such Voyage as aforesaid, without the Master or Commander being able to show to such Officer as aforesaid the Leak or Leaks by which such Water is entered, but the Fall of such Entrance of Water, and the consequent Loss and Destruction of the Salt or Rock Salt, may be shown to such Officer as aforesaid at the time of the Delivery of such Salt or Rock Salt, by the State and Condition of the Salt or Rock Salt remaining in the Hold of such Ship or other Vessel, and may thereby with other Evidence be satisfactorily proved: And Whereas it is expedient that such Relief as is provided and given as aforesaid by the said Act shall be granted and extended to every such Case? Be it therefore further enacted, That whenever by the Perils of the Sea, and not from the Want of Seaworthiness of the Ship or other Vessel at the time of the Loading thereof, or of reasonable or proper Care, any Salt or Rock Salt shall or may be lost or destroyed during any such Voyage as aforesaid, by Water accidentally and unavoidably, and by the Perils aforesaid, taken or received into the Hold of any such Ship or other Vessel; and the Master or Mate of such Ship or other Vessel shall at the time enter a faithful, true and regular Account in the Log Book of such Ship or other Vessel, of such Event, or of his or their Reasons for believing or apprehending the same to have taken place; and such Master or Commander and Mate, if both are living, or if both are not living, if the Survivor or One other Seaman, or if neither Master or Mate are living, if Two of the Seamen of and belonging to such Ship or other Vessel, shall, within Twenty four Hours after the Arrival of such Ship or other Vessel at his Port or Place of Discharge, and before any Part of the Salt or Rock Salt on board thereof shall be unloaded or discharged, produce such Log Book, with such Tally as aforesaid, unaltered or defaced, together with a true Copy thereof, to the Collector, Supervisor, or other proper Officer of Excise in the said Port or Place, and verify the same and such Entry as aforesaid by and upon their Oath or Oaths (which Oath the Collector, Supervisor and Officers of Excise respectively, are hereby authorized to administer); and shall then leave such Copy as aforesaid with such Collector, Supervisor or Officer of Excise as aforesaid, and such Loss or Destruction shall afterwards, from the State and Condition of such Salt or Rock Salt, on the Delivery thereof from on board such Ship or Vessel, and by other satisfactory Evidence, be proved to have taken place from such Cause as aforesaid, then and in every such Case it shall and may be lawful to and for the Owner, Proprietor or Shipper of such Salt or Rock Salt, or Captain, Consignor or Agent as aforesaid, to make such Application, and for such Proceedings to be had thereon, and for such Commissioners, if satisfied with such Facts as aforesaid, to grant the like Relief, as are mentioned, authorized, directed or required in and by the said Act, as if such Salt or Rock Salt had been lost or destroyed by a Leak or Leaks satisfactorily shown to the Officer of Excise in the manner mentioned and required by the said Act.

VI. And Whereas by the said Act, made in the Fifty seventh Year aforesaid, if the Commissioners of Excise shall be dissatisfied with any such Examination or Certificate as are in the said Act mentioned, touching or relating to any Loss of Salt or Rock Salt as therein mentioned, they are hereby authorized and required, within Fourteen Days, to signify the same to the Party or Parties making the Application; and which such Examination has been taken, and given to such Party or Parties a Notice of Appeal to the Justices of the said County, or of the County from which such Salt or Rock Salt shall have been shipped,

• as witness and expenditure: Be it therefore enacted, That so much of the said Act as authorises or requires
• such Appeal by the said Commissioners, shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and that if such Commis• sioners respectively shall, on the Receipt of any such Certificate as aforesaid, refuse to grant such Relief as is • provided by the said Act, by allowing to the Maker or Proprietor of the Salt or Rock Salt therein men-
• tioned, out of the Duties on Salt which shall next become due and payable from such Maker or Proprietor,
• the full Amount of the Duties proved to have been paid for such Salt or Rock Salt as shall, in the Examina-
• tions thereby certified, be supposed to have been lost or destroyed, or by cancelling or waiving the Bond
• given for the Delivery of such Salt or Rock Salt, as the case may happen to be, then and in every such Case
• respectively, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Party or Parties who shall have made such Application,
• or for the Proprietor or Shipper of such Salt or Rock Salt, within Fourteen Days next after such Refusal
• shall have been communicated in Writing to him or them, together with Grounds and Reasons for such Refusal,
• to give notice of Appeal, and to appeal against such Refusal, to the Justices at the next Quarter Sessions after
• the Expiration of such Fourteen Days, to be holden in and for the County aforesaid to whom the Salt shall
• have happened, or to the Place where such Salt or Rock Salt shall have been shipped, or shall have been
• respectively discharged, at the Option of such Party or Parties, Proprietor or Shipper as aforesaid; and for • such Proceedings to be had thereon, and in like manner, as if such Certificate had been that the Facts
• required by the Act to be proved upon Oath had not been proved; and also, that every Decision by the said
• Commissioners upon any such Certificate shall be communicated to the Party or Parties making the Applica• tion in Writing, and with all due Diligence and Dispatch after the Receipt by such Commissioners of such • Certificate, and that the Grounds and Reasons of their Refusal to grant Relief thereon as aforesaid shall be
• filed and communicated in Writing therewith; and that it shall and may be lawful for the Party or Parties
• making such Application as aforesaid to make, in like manner as is mentioned in the said Act, further Proof
• in support thereof, in answer to or Satisfaction of the Objections made by such Commissioners to the granting
• of such Relief as aforesaid: Provided always, that no further Proof shall be made as aforesaid, or received by
• such Commissioners respectively, after the Expiration of Twenty eight Days from the time of such Refusal
• of the said Commissioners respectively being communicated as aforesaid.

VII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases mentioned in the said Act or in this Act, where Salt
• or Rock Salt exported from Great Britain to and delivered at any Port or Place in Ireland, shall be taken
• account of at such Port or Place by the Officers of Customs there, and not by any Officer of Excise, the • Oath and Oaths directed by this Act, or by any other Act of Parliament, to be made touching or relating
• to the Conveyance, Loss or Delivery of Salt or Rock Salt, shall be made before such Officer or Officers of
• the Customs (which Oath and Oaths respectively be and they are hereby respectively authorised to administer);
• and such Officer or Officers of the Customs respectively in Ireland shall weigh and take account of such
• Salt and Rock Salt, and shall and are lawfully required to execute and perform all the Powers, Authorities
• and Duties touching or relating to the Conveyance, Loss or Delivery of such Salt or Rock Salt, as are
• directed, imposed, given or granted by the said Acts or the Act to any Officer or Officers of Excise in Great • Britain in respect of Salt or Rock Salt removed Coastwise.

VIII. And Whereas all Fish Curers, before they are allowed or permitted to remove into their Custody
• or Possession any Salt or Rock Salt Duty free, for the purpose of curing or preserving Fish, are bound by • Law to give Bond or Security, to be approved of by the Commissioners of Excise, or the Port or Ports
• appointed by them for the due Application of and accounting for all such Salt: And Whereas it is usual
• for Fish Curers to enter into such Bonds as aforesaid together with Two other Persons as their Sureties;
• and it is deemed expedient to make other Regulations to the Case of Fish Curers receiving such Quantities
• only of such Salt or Rock Salt: Be it therefore enacted, That every Fish Curer who shall give notice in • Writing to the proper Officer of Excise of the Division or District in which the Warehouse or Storehouse
• by him or her intended to be made use of for the keeping of Duty free Salt or Rock Salt shall be license, of
• him or her Intendence to remove in any One Year, ending on the First Day of May, no more than Four Barrels

IX. And Whereas if on weighing, taking account of and balancing the Stock of Salt in the Custody or
• Possession of any curried Fish Curer or Fish Curers in the Month of May, there shall appear to be any Salt
• deficient in Quantity, which such Fish Curer or Fish Curers shall have received or had in his, her or their
• Custody or Possession free of Duty in the Year last preceding, making an Allowance for the whole Quantity of
• Salt which such Fish Curer or Fish Curers shall have legally and truly delivered into the Custody or Possession of any other Fish Curers in the Course of each half preceding Year, and also making an Allowance to and after the Rates and Proportions by Law granted for the Salt employed and consumed by each Fish Curer and Fish Curers, in each half preceding Year, in curing and preserving the Fish cured, preserved and produced within each Year to the proper Officers, then and in each Case all the Salt so deficient is deemed and taken to be Salt legally disposed of, or misapplied by each Fish Curer or Fish Curers; and each Fish Curer and Fish Curers, for every Bushel of Salt so found deficient as aforesaid, forfeits and loses the Sum of Seventeen Shillings: And Whereas the Penalty of the Bond entered into and given by every Fish Curer, before he, she or they shall be allowed or permitted to receive into his, her or their Custody or Possession, any Salt or Rock Salt free of Duty, for the purpose of curing and preserving Fish, may become forfeited by the Sale or Misapplication of any Part of such Salt or Rock Salt, or by any other Breach of the Condition of the said Bond, to the great Prejudice of the Service of such Fish Curer or Fish Curers, who will thereupon become liable to a Penalty exceeding the immediate Injury which His Majesty may have sustained by such Offence: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and thirteenth, no Person or Persons being the Surety or Sureties of or in the Bond given by any Fish Curer or Fish Curers as aforesaid, shall pay, under the Penalty of any such Bond so forfeited as aforesaid, any greater Sum than what would have been the Amount of the Duties upon the Salt or Rock Salt so found deficient, or sold, delivered or misapplied as aforesaid, if such Quantity of Salt or Rock Salt had been legally taken out of any Warehouse for Home Consumption upon Payment of Duty, together with the Costs and Expenses incurred or paid by His Majesty for and in the Recovery thereof, and that upon Payment thereof, all Proceedings on any such Bond against any such Surety or Sureties as aforesaid shall cease: Provided always, that if it shall appear to the Commissioners of Excise, that any such Person or Persons as aforesaid shall have been a Party or Parties, Parties or Partners to any Fish Deficiency, Sale, Delivery or Misapplication of any Part of such Salt or Rock Salt as aforesaid, he, she and they shall be subject and liable to pay the whole Penalty of any such Bond so forfeited as aforesaid; and a final and may be awarded for the said Commissioners, in the Name of His Majesty's Attorney General, to sue for and recover the same to and for His Majesty's Use.

Sureties of Fish Curers shall not be liable under their Bonds to more than the Amount of Duties and Costs, which they in the Penal by which the Bond is forfeited.

X. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said Fifth Day of July, no Bond given or entered into for the Exportation or for the Removal of Salt or Rock Salt, shall be put in force or prosecuted for any Forfeiture of the Penalty thereof, unless Notice shall, within Twelve Calendar Months from the Date thereof, be given by the Commissioners or some Officer of Excise to the Obligors or some Obligor of and in such Bond, of the Defect in the Performance of the Condition thereof.

Bond as aforesaid, do not put in force within Twelve Months.

XI. And be it further enacted, That no Bond given or entered into by any Fish Curer or Fish Curers shall be put in force or prosecuted for any Forfeiture of the Penalty thereof, unless Notice shall, within Twelve Months from the Expiration of the time for performing the Condition thereof, be given by the Commissioners or some Officer of Excise to such Fish Curer or Fish Curers, of his, her or their Defect in the Performance thereof.

No to be Bond entered into by Fish Curers.

XII. And be it further enacted, That in all Bonds given, entered into or required under any Law or Laws of Excise, for securing the Duties upon Salt or Rock Salt for the Exportation or Removal of Salt or Rock Salt, or the due Delivery, Employment or Application thereof, the Penalty of every such Bond shall be a Sum not less than One hundred Pounds added to the Amount of the Duties now payable upon Salt made in England and taken out for Home Consumption, calculated on the Quantity of Salt or Rock Salt mentioned in the Condition of such Bond, if such Duties do not exceed the Sum of One hundred Pounds, nor more than Double the Amount of such Duties on such Quantity of Salt or Rock Salt, where such Duties exceed One hundred Pounds, and are less than One thousand Pounds; and that in all Cases where such Duties for calculated are One thousand Pounds or upwards, the Penalty of such Bond shall be a Sum equal to the Amount of such Duties calculated as aforesaid, and of One thousand Pounds, together with Twenty five Pounds per Centum on such Duties; any thing in this or any other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

Bond limited to Penalty herein mentioned.

XIII. And Whereas it was provided by the said Act, made in the Fifth seventh Year aforesaid, that as crashed Rock Salt, or crashed, fused or field Salt, or coloured or dyed Salt, delivered Duty free for the Use of the Fisheries, should, after the Month of April One thousand eight hundred and sixteenth, be removed in any Flat, Barge, Boat or other Vessel, or in any Wagon, Cart or other Carriage, in which any Salt of any other Description, or uncrashed Rock Salt, should be put or laid; and that no crashed Rock Salt, crashed, fused or field Salt, or coloured or dyed Salt, should be delivered to any Fish Curer after the Month of April One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, who should not make Entry to the coloured or dyed Salt, and crashed, fused or field Salt, and crashed Rock Salt only, for curing and preserving Fish, or should after the time last aforesaid have any Duty free White Salt in his, her or their Custody or Possession for that Purpose; and that no Fish Curer or Fish Curers who should at any time after the Month of April One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, have or take into his, her or their Custody or Possession any White Salt delivered Duty free for curing or preserving Fish, or any other Person or Persons, not making Entry and giving Bond as theretofore mentioned, or not being a Fish Curer or Fish Curers, and making Entry and giving Bond as theretofore mentioned for any such Warehouse theretofore mentioned; or not being a Fish Curer or Fish Curers, and making Entry and giving Bond as theretofore mentioned, for the Receipt and Use of coloured or dyed Salt, or crashed, fused or field Salt, or crashed Rock Salt, for curing and preserving Fish; or not being a Glass Maker, or Maker of Chymical Maniac Acid, or Oxymuriatic or Lime, should have, receive or take into his, her or their Custody or Possession any Rough coloured or dyed Salt, or any crashed, fused or field Salt, or any crashed Rock Salt (not being delivered and shipped for and in the Course of Exportation) under the Penalty and Forfeitures therein mentioned: And Whereas for the • purpose of affording an Opportunity of making further Trial of the Use of crushed Rock Salt in the Cure of Fish, it is expedient to extend the respective Dates and Times aforesaid, at which the respective Possessions heretofore vested shall commence and take effect, from the Month of April aforesaid, to the Month of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty one: Be it therefore enacted, That the several Provisions heretofore enacted, shall not nor shall any of them commence or take effect, until from and after the Month of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty one, any thing in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that in the Month of May One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, One thousand eight hundred and twenty, and One thousand eight hundred and twenty one respectively, all and every Fish Curer and Fish Curers, who shall have in the Year and before the Month of April aforesaid, received or used both coloured or dyed, or crushed, filed or Rock Salt, and also White Salt, shall account for all dyed or coloured Salt, and all crushed, filed or Rock Salt, received in the preceding Year, under the said Rules, Restrictions, Regulations and Allowances as are provided by Law with respect to White Salt delivered Duty free for the Fisheries.

• XIV. And Whereas by an Act made in the Thirty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for transferring the Management of the Salt Duties to the Commissioners of Excise, if any Foreign Salt or other Salt imported into Great Britain, shall not be entered and landed, and the Duty payable thereon be fully paid within Twenty Days after each Report, as is therein directed, has or ought to have been made, or all such Salt shall be forfeited, provided that any such Foreign Salt duly imported may, upon due Entry thereof, be forthwith, and before Payment of the Duty, landed, weighed and put into such Warehouse, Storehouse or Cellar, and under such Bond or Security for Payment of the Duties as is and are in that behalf therein directed: And Whereas by an Act made in the Thirty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for, among other things, amending the said Act made in the Thirty eighth Year aforesaid, any Person within Twelve Months after the Importation and landing of any such Foreign Salt, may take free of Duty, for the purpose of immediately exporting the same in any Ship or Vessel, not of less Burthen than Forty Tons, to Newfoundland, for curing Cod Fish, Ling or Hake, to be there caught, any Quantity exceeding Fifty Butts in a cove, of Foreign Salt, from and out of any Import Warehouse, Storehouse or Cellar, at either of the Ports of Park, Dartmouth, Falmouth or Glasgow, into which the Cove has been put, according to the Regulations of the said Act made in the Thirty eighth Year aforesaid, upon such Person or Persons first giving such Bond or Security as by the said Act made in the Thirty sixth Year aforesaid is in that behalf directed; and by another Act made in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, the like Permission is granted in respect to Foreign Salt lodged in any Import Warehouse, Storehouse or Cellar, at the Port of Ayr; and by the said Act made in the Fifty seventh Year aforesaid, the like Permission is granted in respect to Foreign Salt lodged in any Import Warehouse, Storehouse or Cellar, at Plymouth: And Whereas it would be convenient to permit any Crops of such Foreign Salt as may be duly brought or imported as aforesaid into any of the aforesaid Ports, to be within such Twenty Days as aforesaid landed in any of such Ports from the Ship or Vessel in which the same may be so imported, into any other such Ship or Vessel as aforesaid, as may then be lying in such Port, ready and about to sail and depart for Newfoundland, for the purpose of curing Cod Fish, Ling or Hake, to be there caught, without the same being first landed and warehoused in such Port: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons, by and with the Consent and Approbation of the Commissioners of Excise, and in the Presence of the proper Officer of Excise, to weigh, deliver and tranship within each Twenty Days as aforesaid, in any of the aforesaid Ports, any Crops of Foreign Salt, from and out of the Ship or Vessel in which the same shall or may have been duly imported into such Port, into any other Ship or Ships, or Vessel or Vessels, not being of less Burthen than Forty Tons, then lying in such Port ready and about to sail and depart from thence for Newfoundland, for the purpose of curing Cod Fish, Ling or Hake, to be there caught, on such Person or Persons first giving such Bond or Security as is in that behalf directed by the said Act, made in the Thirty sixth Year aforesaid, and without such Salt being first landed and warehoused in such Port; any thing in the said recited Acts or any of them to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding: Provided always, that if any Ship or Vessel into which any Salt shall be so transhipped as aforesaid, shall on proceed upon her Voyage within Twenty Days after such Transshipment, Wind and Weather permitting, all such Salt shall be reweighed and warehoused under the Provisions of the aforesaid Act of the Thirty eighth Year of His present Majesty, and on default thereof shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise.

• XV. And Whereas by the said Act made in the Fifty seventh Year aforesaid, it was amongst other things enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for any Maker or Makers, or Refiner or Refiners of, or Dealer or Dealers in Salt under such Licence and Permission as is therein mentioned, to provide or send One or more Export Warehouses or Warehouse or within the Port of London, or Black Greenwich, Leith and Plymouth, for the purpose of laying, storing or keeping therein Salt delivered Duty free, and intended for Exportation under the Regulations and upon the Conditions therein mentioned: And Whereas it is expedient to extend such Provision to the Port of Dartmouth: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful to and for any Maker or Makers, or Refiner or Refiners of, or Dealer or Dealers in Salt, having the Licence and Permission in that behalf of the Commissioners of Excise or the major Part of them for the time being, to provide or send One or more Export Warehouses or Warehouse or within the Port of Dartmouth for the purpose of laying, storing or keeping therein Salt delivered Duty free and intended for Exportation, such Places and Persons giving the like Security, and being subject to all and singular the like Rules, Regulations, Conditions, Restrictions, Provisions, Forfeitures and Penalties by the said Act prescribed, directed, contained or implied with respect to such Warehouse or Warehouses at

London, or Hull, Greenwich, Leith and Plymouth, or to the Port or Ports providing, crediting or using the same.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That when any Salt or Rock Salt delivered Duty free for the purpose of being carried Coastwise to and stored or kept in any of such Export Warehouses provided as aforesaid, for the purpose of laying, storing or keeping thereas Salt delivered Duty free for Exportation, shall be so carried or conveyed in or on board of any Ship or Vessel from any Port or Place in Great Britain to aforesaid wharfs, for the purpose of being so warehoused, and shall arrive within the Port of aforesaid wharf, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Port or Ports to transship the same therein for the time Purpose, and under and subject to all and every the Rules, Regulations and Conditions, Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures provided and imposed by this Act, for or in respect of the Transshipment of Foreign Salt directly from the said Ship or Vessel in which the same shall have been so removed without first landing or warehousing the same; Provided always, that the Person or Persons accompanying the whole of such Salt or Rock Salt shall be first duly delivered to the proper Officer of Excise in that behalf; and that the Master or Commander of the said Ship or Vessel shall first make oath, as by Law is required, as the Removal of such Salt directly from the said Ship or Vessel, and that all such Salt or Rock Salt shall be first duly weighed on board the said Ship or Vessel, and delivered into the Ship or Vessel, Ships or Vessels, into which the same is or shall be so transhipped, by and in the Presence of the proper Officer or Officers of Excise in that behalf; And provided also, that the whole of such Salt or Rock Salt mentioned and expressed in such Permit or Permits, and so removed Coastwise in such Ship or Vessel, shall be duly entered as Part of the Stock, and deemed and taken to be received by the Port or Ports to whom the same shall be so permitted into his or their Custody and Possession, and shall be accounted for and accompanied with such Permit or Certificate, Permits or Certificates, as is or are required by Law on the Removal of any Salt or Rock Salt from any such Export Warehouse; and that such Entries shall be made in respect thereof by such Port or Ports as are by Law directed and required to be made in case the whole of such Salt or Rock Salt expressed and mentioned in the Permit or Permits, Certificate or Certificates, accompanying the same had been actually landed and received into the entered Warehouse of the Port or Ports to whom it was first sent, consigned and permitted, and the Salt or Rock Salt transhipped as aforesaid had been afterwards received into and as Part of his or their Stock of Salt or Rock Salt in such Export Warehouse as aforesaid.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That when any Salt or Rock Salt shall be delivered Duty free, for the purpose of curing and preserving Fish, and shall be carried or conveyed in or on board of any Ship or Vessel, from one Port or Place in Great Britain to another, and shall arrive at the Port or Place where the entered Permits of the Fish Curer or Fish Curers to whom the same shall be first and permitted, shall be situated, it shall and may be lawful for the said Fish Curer or Fish Curers to land, transfer and deliver any Part of such Salt or Rock Salt, or to any other licensed and entered Fish Curer or Fish Curers directly from the said Ship or Vessel, without first landing or warehousing the same: Provided always, that the Person accompanying the whole of the said Salt or Rock Salt be first duly delivered to the proper Officer of Excise in that behalf, and that the Master of the Vessel do first make oath as by Law is so that behalf required, and that all such Salt or Rock Salt (as well such Part thereof as shall be intended to be taken into the entered Permits of the said Fish Curer or Fish Curers to whom he shall be so permitted, as such Part as shall be intended to be first, transferred as delivered to any other Fish Curer or Fish Curers as aforesaid), shall be first duly weighed on board the said Ship or Vessel, by and to the Satisfaction of the proper Officer or Officers of Excise in that behalf; and provided also, that the whole of such Salt or Rock Salt shall be duly entered as Part of the Stock, and deemed and taken to be received by the Fish Curer or Fish Curers to whom the same shall be so permitted, into his, her or their Custody and Possession, and that all such Salt or Rock Salt as shall be so first, transferred or delivered as aforesaid, to any other Fish Curer or Fish Curers, shall be accounted for and shall be accompanied with such Certificate and Certificates, and that such respective Entries shall be made in respect thereof (as well by the said Fish Curer or Fish Curers to whom such Salt or Rock Salt shall be permitted, as by the Fish Curer or Fish Curers to whom the same shall be so first and delivered), as are by Law directed and required to be made, in case the whole of such Salt or Rock Salt respectively had been actually landed and received into the entered Warehouse, Cellar or Storehouse of the Fish Curer or Fish Curers to whom it was first sent and permitted, and received from him, her or them, and from his, her or their Stock of Duty free Salt, by the said other Fish Curer or Fish Curers to whom the same shall be so transferred or delivered.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Fish Curer or Fish Curers to ship from his, her or their entered Cellar or Storehouse, any Quantity of his, her or their Stock of Salt or Rock Salt delivered Duty free, for curing or preserving Fish, and to land the same to Sea, to be employed in and on board of any Ship, Boat or other Vessel for that Purpose, provided that his, her or they shall give previous Notice thereof in Writing to the proper Officer of Excise; and that such Salt so shipped for the Purpose aforesaid, be accompanied with a Certificate from such Fish Curer or Fish Curers, and countersigned by the proper Officer of Excise, containing and certifying therein that such Salt or Rock Salt has been taken from his, her or their entered Cellar or Storehouse for that Purpose, and the Fishery where the same is intended to be used as aforesaid; and provided that no such Shipping or Employment as aforesaid shall in any respect alter, lessen or affect the Account to be rendered by every such Fish Curer or Fish Curers, in the Month of May in every Year, according to the Terms and Conditions of his, her or their Bond, and as required by Law, before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, any thing in this or any other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Fish Curer or Fish Curers shall bring or make to be brought any Fish cured as aforesaid at Sea, into any Port or Place for Sale, not being the Port or Place at which he,

for, or they is or are an entered Fish Curer or Fish Curers, the proper Officer of Excise at the Port or Place to which such entered Fish shall be so brought, as aforesaid shall, upon receiving Twenty four Hours Notice thereof in Writing from such Fish Curer or Fish Curers, or his, her or their Agent or Agents, Consignee or Consignees, attend and take an account of such Fish on board of the Ship or Vessel in which the same shall arrive; and if satisfied that the same are well and perfectly cured, shall then and there bound the Casks in which they are cured and packed, or mark such Fish in the same manner as is required by Law with respect to such Fish when cured, upon the entered Provinces of any Fish Curer or Fish Curers, and shall examine the Certificate aforesaid for the Salt or Rock Salt shipped on board such Vessel for the Purpose aforesaid, and endorse thereon the Date of such his branding, and the Quantity and Kind of Fish in by him found cured, and so then branded or marked as aforesaid, and the estimated Quantity of such Salt or Rock Salt then remaining on board of such Ship or Vessel, and shall thereupon transmit a Certificate thereof to the Officer of Excise under whose Survey such Fish Curer or Fish Curers entered Provinces and Stock of Duty free Fishery Salt shall then be, and such Fish Curer and Fish Curers shall be entitled to Credit in his Account for such cured Fish, in the same manner as if such Fish had been cured in and upon his and their entered Provinces, and had been then produced to and branded or marked by the proper Officer surveying such Provinces, as by Law is required in that behalf: Provided always, that no such Fish Curer or Fish Curers shall be entitled to any Credit in his, her or their Account for any such Fish as aforesaid, unless he or they shall first produce to and leave with such Surveying Officer the Certificate aforesaid granted, when the Salt or Rock Salt employed in the Cure of such Fish was shipped for that Purpose as aforesaid, and endorsed as aforesaid, or unless such Endorsements, when so produced and left, shall agree in Date, Quantity and Quality of Fish with the Certificate of the Account thereof taken, and the branding or marking thereof transmitted by the Officer at the Port or Place where such Fish were so branded or marked, to the Surveying Officer aforesaid, nor unless such Fish Curer or Fish Curers shall have entered the Sale of such Fish in his Account of Sales, and specified therein the Date and Particulars of such Sales, in the same manner as if such Fish had been sold and delivered from his, her or their entered Provinces.

* XX. And Whereas, if any Fish cured or shipped for Exportation, for the Purpose or to the intent to obtain any Bounty by Law granted, shall be unpacked, unloaded or laid on Land, or put into any other Ship or Vessel in Great Britain: all the Fish which shall be so unpacked, unloaded or laid on Land, or put into any other Ship or Vessel in Great Britain, or the Value thereof, shall be forfeited, together with the Packages containing the same, and also the Ship or Vessel from or out of which, and the Ship or Vessel into which such Fish shall be taken or put, and the same respectively may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise: And Whereas the Exporters of such Fish are by Law required to give Bond and Security, that all and every Part of such Fish shall be duly reported to such beyond the Seas, and shall not be unpacked or laid on Land, or put on board any other Ship or Vessel in Great Britain: And Whereas it is expedient to relax the above Regulations in certain Cases, where Herrings or other Fish duly packed, repacked and sent for Sale to any particular Port or Place beyond the Seas, shall be returned and brought back from thence for want of Purchasers at that Port or Place: Be it therefore enacted, That neither shall the said Forfeiture extend or be deemed or construed to extend to any Herrings or other Fish which shall have been duly reported and sent for Sale to any Port or Place beyond the Seas, and shall be returned or brought back direct from that Port or Place in Great Britain, for want of Purchasers at that Port or Place, nor to the Ship or Vessel in which the same shall be so reimported and brought back; nor shall any such Bond or Security, as heretofore in that behalf mentioned, become forfeited by or by reason of any such Reimportation of the said Herrings or other Fish, or such landing of the same; nor shall the Carvers of such Herrings or other Fish thereupon lose Credit for the Salt or Rock Salt employed and allowed for the repacking of such Herrings or other Fish for Exportation to such Port or Place aforesaid; provided the Master or Person having the Command of the said last mentioned Ship or Vessel, on the Arrival of the said last mentioned Ship or Vessel, and before the unpacking or reloading of any of the said returned Herrings or other Fish, give a Notice in Writing signed by him, to the Chief Officer of Excise at the Port or Place of Great Britain in which the said last mentioned Ship or Vessel shall arrive, specifying the exact and true Quantity of such returned Herrings or other Fish, the Name of the Vessel in which returned and reimported, and of the Place from whence the same have been returned and reimported, the Christmas and Newyears of the Period or Periods by whom the same were returned for Exportation, the Name of the Ship or Vessel in which they were exported, the Month and Year when exported, and the Port from whence, and the Place to which the same were exported: Provided also, that all such returned Herrings or other Fish shall, before the same or any Part thereof shall be delivered or put out of the Ship or Vessel in which the same shall be returned and reimported as aforesaid, or be reloaded in Great Britain, be duly taken an account of, and examined by the proper Officer of Excise in that behalf; and that the Barrels or Casks containing the same shall be first duly branded and marked by such Officer with the Letter R, to denote that the same have been returned from Exportation; and provided also, that the same are re-reported to some other Port or Place in Parts beyond the Seas, without any further Bounty being claimed, paid or allowed thereon, and shall not be sold, delivered, re-packed or opened for House Consumption.

* XXI. And Whereas by the said Act, made in the Fifty seventh Year aforesaid, the proper Officer of Excise is required to brand on all Casks or Barrels of White Herrings, or Pickled, declared by the Fish Curer or Fish Curers to be repacked for Exportation to the East or West Indies, South America, Madeira or the Mediterranean, the Letter W; and on all Casks or Barrels of White Herrings or Pickled to be delivered to be repacked for Exportation as aforesaid to the Baltic the Letter B; and the Fish Curer or Fish Curers producing the same, it is and are required forthwith to remove all and every such Barrels or Casks, or Barrel or Cask, and at all times keep the same wholly separate and apart from all other Fish not so branded and the Casks under such particular Mark, Separate and apart from all Casks branded with a different Mark, and under the Penalty of Fifty Pounds and the Forfeiture of all such Fish; and the like Penalty and Forfeiture thereby imposed for any Casks or Barrels marked or branded with the Letter W, being found in the Custody or Possession of any Person or Persons open for Home Consumption: And Whereas every Cask of Salmon cured and packed or repacked for Exportation, is by the said Act required to be branded with the Letters B & F: Be it further enacted, That if any Fish Curer or Fish Curers, or other Person or Persons, shall fail or deliver any Cask or Barrel of White Herrings, or Pickleds branded with the Letter W, or with the Letter B, respectively, or any Cask of Salmon branded with the Letters B & F, for Home Consumption, or without communicating or making known to the Purchaser thereof respectively, that every such Cask or Barrel of White Herrings or Pickleds, or Salmon respectively, has been packed or repacked for Exportation only according to the branding thereof as aforesaid; or if any such Cask or Barrel of White Herrings or Pickleds, or Salmon, or Pickleds, or Salmon, or Pickleds, or Salmon, which are or were packed or contained therein for Home Consumption, or shall be shipped for Exportation to any other Place than according to the branding thereof as aforesaid, every such Cask or Barrel, together with the Herrings, Pickleds or Salmon therein, or which had been therein packed or contained, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise; and the Fish Curer and Fish Curers repacking such Herrings, Pickleds or Salmon, shall, over and above the Loss of all Credit for the Salt or Rock Salt used or employed in the repacking thereof, and Person and Persons so offending as aforesaid, or a whole Possession such Fish is or shall be found as aforesaid, shall respectively forfeit and lose for every such Offence the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

XXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Fish Curer who shall have repacked any White Herrings or Pickleds for Exportation to any such Place or Places as aforesaid, the Casks whereof are branded respectively as aforesaid, but which cannot be exported to the Place or Places for which such Herrings or Pickleds were repacked and branded respectively as aforesaid, by reason of a Failure of the Market for such Herrings or Pickleds at such Place or Places, after such Herrings or Pickleds were so repacked and branded respectively as aforesaid to be exported thence (the Proof of such Herrings and Pickleds having been so repacked and branded with the exports and actual Intimation of such Fish Curer at the time such Herrings or Pickleds were so repacked,) to export the same to such Place or Places, and of his or her being unexpectedly and unaccountably prevented from making such intended Exportation by reason of such Failure of Market as aforesaid, being made upon the Oath of such Fish Curer, which Oath the Collector and Officers of Excise are hereby empowered to administer, or otherwise to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Excise of England or Ireland respectively, (as the case may be,) to give the proper Officer Notice thereof in Writing, and with the Permission of such Commissioners of Excise respectively as aforesaid, to produce such Casks to the proper Officer of Excise, to efface and obliterate the former Brand Mark of W or B respectively, and to rebrand such Casks respectively with the Letter R, and to export such Casks of Herrings or Pickleds respectively to any other Place beyond the Salt, without incurring any Penalty for not reporting the same to the Place or Places for which such Casks were originally branded, and without losing the Credit to which he or she was entitled for the Salt employed in repacking such Herrings or Pickleds respectively for Exportation, to the Place or Places for which they were repacked and so first branded as aforesaid.

XXIII. And Whereas by an Act made in the Forty-fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for, amongst other things, allowing until the Fifteenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and one, the Use of Salt Duty free, in the preserving of Fish in Salt or in Barrels; and which Act was by another Act, made in the Fifty-fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, revised and continued until the Fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, any Person or Persons whatever who shall catch or take, or purchase, cure or preserve any Herrings, Pickleds, Mackerel or any Kind or Species of whatfish Fish, or who shall fit out any Vessel for such Purpose, is authorized to take and ship on board his or their Vessel, from his or their own Stock of Salt, or from the Stock of Salt of any other Fish Curer or other such Person or Persons shall purchase, or with whom he or they shall contract for Salt, any Quantity of Salt Duty free, that shall be deemed necessary for curing or preserving the Fish which may be expected to be taken or purchased in the Trip or Voyage to or upon which he or they shall intend to immediately dispatch or employ his or their Vessel, provided that no Person shall be allowed to ship or have on board any Vessel at any time, any greater Quantity of Salt than is the Proportion of Ten Bushels for every Ten Barrels by Advertisement of the Vessel, is or on board of which such Salt shall be taken or shipped: And Whereas it is expedient to make the said Act perpetual, except in far as the same is altered by Provisions and Regulations in respect thereof: Be it therefore enacted, That the said Act of the Forty-fifth Year aforesaid shall be, and the same is hereby made perpetual, except in far as the same is hereby altered; and it shall not be lawful for any such Person or Persons as aforesaid, to ship any Salt Duty free, to be employed for the Purpose mentioned in the said Act made in the Forty-fifth Year aforesaid, until he, she or they shall have made such Entry in Writing, as by the said Act is required in that behalf, or until such Person or Persons shall otherwise have given Bond or Security, to be approved by the Commissioners of Excise, or the Person or Persons who shall be appointed or employed by them for that Purpose, in the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, that he, she or they will duly account with the proper Officer or Officers of Excise, according to the Direction and Regulations of the said Act of Parliament and of this Act, for all the Salt which he, she or they shall at any time take, ship, receive or have on board his, her or their Vessel or V. Vessel, or have or receive in any Warehouse or Warehouses duly entered for that Purpose during the Continuance of such Entry; and XXIV. And be it further enacted, That whenever any such Vessel shall be about to sail and depart upon any such Trip or Voyage as aforesaid, the proper Officer of Excise who shall have taken such Bond as aforesaid, and with whom the same shall be deposited, shall, on the Request of any such Person or Persons as aforesaid, deliver, without Fee or Reward, a Certificate of such Bond having been given as aforesaid by the Person or Persons employing the same, and of such Bond being then in force, and specifying therein the Name and Tonnage of such Vessel, and to what Port such Vessel belongs, and the Name or Names of the Owner or Owners, or Employer or Employers thereof, who have given such Bond as aforesaid, and shall endorse upon such Certificate the Quantity of Salt then on board thereof, Duty free, for such Purpose as aforesaid, for such Trip or Voyage, and the Date of such Endeavour; and that before any Master, Owner or Employer of any such Vessel shall ship as aforesaid any further Quantity of Salt as aforesaid, for such Purpose as aforesaid, upon or for such Trip or Voyage, from the Stock of any other Fish Curer or Fish Curers, he shall first produce and show to the proper Officer who surveys the Stock of such Fish Curer or Fish Curers, or from whose Stock the same is to be removed, such Certificate of Bond as aforesaid; and such Officer shall thereupon endorse the Quantity of Salt then intended to be removed and shipped from the Stock of such Fish Curer or Fish Curers on board of such Vessel, together with the Date of such Shipment; and shall forthwith, at the Request of such Master or Owner, transmit by Post a Copy of such Certificate with such Endorsement, and all other Endorsements thereon, to the Officer taking such Bond, and giving such Certificate as aforesaid; and the Master of every such Vessel shall, at the time of making, on the Completion of such Trip or Voyage, such Entry or Writing with the Officer of Excise of his cured Fish as is required by the said Act, deliver to such Officer such Certificate, with every such Endorsement thereon, made as aforesaid, for every separate Quantity of Salt had or received on board of any such Vessel for or upon every such Trip or Voyage, and shall account for the whole of such Salt, and for all the Fish cured therewith, or upon or during such Trip or Voyage as directed by the said Act or by this Act, and shall, on such Officer taking an Account thereof as aforesaid, land and deposit all the Salt remaining on board of such Ship or Vessel, unless in the Warehouse or Warehouses entered for that Purpose, of such Person or Persons as aforesaid, or shall at the Option of such Person or Persons keep and take the same on board of such Vessel for curing or preserving Fish on the next succeeding Trip or Voyage thereof, as directed by the said Act: Provided always, that the Fish Curer and Fish Curers, from whose Stock any such Salt shall be so shipped as aforesaid, shall be wholly discharged from all further Account or Responsibility for such Salt, and Credit shall be given to him, her or them by the proper Officer for the same, as far as Salt transferred to another Fish Curer; and if any such Master, Owner or Employer of any such Vessel shall depart or sail upon any such Trip or Voyage as aforesaid, without such Certificate as aforesaid, or shall receive or ship any Salt on board thereof, from him, her or their own Stock, or from the Stock of any other Fish Curer or Fish Curers, without first producing such Certificate as aforesaid, and without such Certificate being so endorsed as aforesaid, he, she or they shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

XXV. And Whereas the Credit or Allowance granted by the said Act, made in the Forty first Year as aforesaid, for Salt used in the salting, curing or preserving Fish, under the Direction or Authority of the said Act, other than Herrings, Pickleds or Mackerels, is Twenty two Pounds Weight of Salt: And Whereas it is expedient to increase the said Allowance; Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, there shall be allowed for every One hundred Weight of all good and wholesome Fish, called, cured, preserved and produced, as required by the said Act, other than Herrings, Pickleds or Mackerels, a Credit or Allowance not exceeding Thirty Pounds of Salt, for every One hundred Weight of such other Fish so cured, preserved and produced as aforesaid: Provided always, nevertheless, that nothing hereinbefore contained, shall extend, or be deemed or construed to extend to Cod Fish, dry salted in Bulk, or to authorize the making or giving of any Credit or Allowance for Salt used in the salting, curing or preserving any such other Fish, beyond the Quantity of Salt actually and lawfully employed and spent in the curing and preserving thereof as aforesaid; any thing hereinbefore contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That all and every Fish Curer and Fish Curers, to whom any White Salt shall, under the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions and Directions of the said Acts of the Thirty eighth and Fifty seventh Years of His present Majesty's Kings, be delivered Duty free, for the purpose of curing and preserving Fish, shall be allowed a Credit not exceeding Fifty six Pounds Weight of such Salt for every Barrel of Thirty two Gallons of Fish, called Brown, Conger or Pickled, wet salted and perfectly cured, and is in proportion for any greater or less Quantity; such Credit to be allowed under the same Rules, Regulations,

Regulations,

Restrictions and Provisions, Fees, Penalties and Forfeitures, which by the said Act, or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament in force at the time of passing this Act, are contained, provided, settled or established, for or in respect of allowing Salt Duty free, for the purpose of curing and preserving Fish therein mentioned, or for or in respect of allowing Fish Carriage Credit for Salt delivered to them for that Purpose.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That when any Officer or Officers of Excise shall bring any Salt or Rock Salt, or any Fish, as aforesaid or liable to be found under or by virtue of the Act or any other Act or Acts of Parliament in force at that behalf, such Officer or Officers respectively shall, upon request in Writing being first made by the said Owner or Owners of such Salt, Rock Salt or Fish respectively, or by or their Foreman or Managers, and signed by him or them, deliver to such Owner or Owners, Foreman or Manager requesting the same as aforesaid, or at his or their usual Place of Residence, or if he, she or they be a Trader or Traders under the Survey of the Officers of Excise, at his, her or their usual Premises within Twenty-four Hours after such Request made, a Statement in Writing of the Cause or Causes for which such Officer or Officers shall receive such Salt, Rock Salt or Fish respectively to be delivered and liable to be found; and every such Officer and Officers shall forthwith report such Statement, with the Circumstances attending the same, to the Commissioners of Excise: Provided always, that no written Statement, by any such Officer or Officers as last aforesaid, shall in any way prejudice or affect, or be deemed or taken to prejudice or affect, the Legality of such Sentence, or to prejudice or affect any Bill, Plein or Information which shall or may be preferred, filed or exhibited, either for the Conviction of any such Salt or Rock Salt or Fish, or for any Penalties incurred in respect of or with regard to the same, or any or either of them, or to prejudice or affect any Action which may or shall be commenced against the Officer or Officers who shall have found such Salt or Rock Salt or Fish, or for or with respect to any such Sentence.

XXVIII. And Whereas the Bond or Security given by Makers of Oxygenated Marine Acid, or Oxygenate of Lime, for or on the Receipt of Salt or Rock Salt Duty free for that Purpose, is by an Act made in the Fifth Year of His present Majesty, for allowing Makers of Oxygenated Marine Acid to take Salt Duty free for making such Acid or Oxygenate of Lime, for Bleaching Lanes and Cotton, required to be made, with Condition that all such Salt or Rock Salt shall, within Six Months next ending the Date of such Bond, be really and truly employed, spent and consumed by such Maker or Makers, at his or their Work or Works thence specified, in the making of Oxygenated Marine Acid or Oxygenate of Lime: And Whereas such Period of Six Months is found too short for such Purpose as aforesaid: Be it therefore enacted, That in lieu of Six Months, every such Bond shall be made with Condition that the Salt or Rock Salt mentioned in any such Bond, shall, within Twelve Months next ending the Date of such Bond, be really and truly employed, spent and consumed by such Maker or Makers as aforesaid, going or entering into such Bond, at his or their Work or Works thence specified, in the making of Oxygenated Marine Acid or Oxygenate of Lime, for the sole Purpose of Bleaching the several Goods respectively for which the same are now by Law allowed.

XXIX. And Whereas by the said Act, made in the Fifth Year aforesaid, it is enacted, that no Maker or Makers of Oxygenated Marine Acid or Oxygenate of Lime, shall receive or have any Salt Duty free for that Purpose, in any less Quantity than Fifty Bushels, or be at liberty to mix with Vitriolic Acid, Manganese and Water, or any or either of them, at any one time, any less Quantity than Two Bushels of Salt: And Whereas it is inconvenient to assay such Makers as aforesaid, to receive for the Purpose aforesaid, so large a Quantity of Salt at one time as Fifty Bushels of Salt, or to mix, as aforesaid, so large a Quantity as Two Bushels at one time: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, so much of the said Act as is heretofore enacted, shall be, and the same is hereby repealed; and that from thenceforth it shall and may be lawful for any such Maker or Makers as aforesaid, to choose, receive and have Salt or Rock Salt Duty free for the Purpose aforesaid, in any Quantity not being less than Twenty Bushels at one time, under the several Regulations now by Law established, and is mix with Vitriolic Acid and Manganese, or with Vitriolic Acid, Manganese and Water, under the several Regulations and Restrictions contained in the said Act, at any one time, any Quantity of Salt or Rock Salt specified in his, her or their Notice to be thereof given, as required by the said Act, in as much Quantity is not less than Twenty eight Pounds of Salt or Rock Salt respectively; and that the proper Officer shall thenceforth grant his Certificate of such mixing in the manner required by the said Act.

XXX. And Whereas Makers of Oxygenated Marine Acid, or Oxygenate of Lime, from Salt or Rock Salt, or by Law allowed to receive Salt and Rock Salt Duty free for that Purpose: (a) And Whereas after such Salt or Rock Salt has been so made use of, the Residue, being, by such Makers as aforesaid, been employed in making, or sold and disposed of to be employed in making Mineral Alkali called Soda, which Produce is in- jurious to the Production of Trade in Kelp, and the Duties granted and imposed by Law on Basilla: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, no such Maker or Makers as aforesaid, or any Person or Persons whatsoever, shall sell, transfer or deliver over, or cause, permit or suffer to be sold, transferred or delivered over, any of the Residue, R-tails or Residue of Salt or Rock Salt, or other Mineral Materials which have been used or employed in making or extracting Oxygenated Marine Acid, or Oxygenate of Lime, upon pain of forfeiting for any such Offence the Sum of One hundred Pounds; or shall sell or employ any such Residue, R-tails or Residue as aforesaid in the making or Manufacture of Mineral Alkali or Soda for his, her or their own Use, unless he, she or they shall have first made a proper and legal Entry at the proper Office of Excise as a Mineral Alkali Maker, and shall pay to the proper Collector of Excise and be duly licensed, the Duty which is granted and imposed upon and in Officers allowing Salt or Fish to clear the Cause of Forfeiture, on request of the said Owner of the Salt or Fish, and forthwith report thence to the Commissioners.

Such Statement not to affect the Legality of Sentence.

have given and entered into a Bond or Obligation to His Majesty in the Penalty of a Sum equal to the Amount of the House Consumption Duties on Salt made in England, for all the Rock Salt to be next received into any such Warehouse or Storehouse as aforesaid, and of Fifty per Centum thereon, with sufficient Securities to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Excise respectively, or such Person as they shall deem to require the same, that all such Rock Salt shall, on the First Day of June next ensuing, be duly accounted for by him or them, as directed by the said Act, and shall be sold and delivered in manner hereinafter provided for the Purposes aforesaid only, and that on the Delivery of any Part of such Rock Salt, the same shall be accompanied with such Permit as is required by the said Act, made in the Fifty eighth Year aforesaid, and to such Persons only as are authorized by such Commissioners as aforesaid, to receive the same, and who shall produce and deliver to the Officer making out and granting the Permit for the Removal thereof, such Certificate as aforesaid, and in such Quantity only as shall be expressed in such Certificate, being in no Case less than One Ton of such Rock Salt, if any Part thereof be unground, at any one time; and provided that such Person or Persons to making Entry as aforesaid, shall not receive or deposit any such Rock Salt in any such Warehouse, without giving Twenty four Hours' previous Notice thereof in Writing to the proper Officer of Excise of the Division or Rate in which such Warehouse shall be situate, and delivering to him the Permit accompanying the same, and shall in all respects be subject to the like Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures as in this or any other Act or Acts, not herein expressly stated, as are contained and directed, for and in respect of Persons receiving Rock Salt for the Purposes aforesaid; and if any such Rock Salt delivered for any of the Purposes aforesaid, to be laid, stored or kept in any such Warehouse or Warehouses, Storehouse or Storehouses as aforesaid, shall be lodged and deposited for Sale as aforesaid in any of the Places aforesaid, in any such Warehouse or Warehouses, Storehouse or Storehouses, otherwise than as aforesaid, or of which Warehouse or Storehouse such Entry shall not have been previously made as aforesaid, or which shall not have been previously approved of in Writing by and under the Hand of the Supervisor of Excise of the District in which the same shall be situate as aforesaid, and not afterwards disapproved of by such Supervisor or the Commissioners of Excise, or without the Occupier or Occupiers thereof having first given such Bond as aforesaid, and Notice, and delivered such Permit as aforesaid, or if such entered Occupier or Occupiers of any such Warehouse or Warehouses, Storehouse or Storehouses, or any other Person or Persons, shall sell, exchange, transfer, deliver, consume or employ any Part of such Rock Salt sent to be lodged in any such Warehouse or Warehouses, Storehouse or Storehouses, or lodged or deposited therein for such Purposes as aforesaid, for or in any other or different Purpose or Manner than as aforesaid, or shall not duly and truly account for the same as aforesaid, all such Rock Salt thus lodged in any such Warehouse or Storehouse as aforesaid shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise; and the Person or Persons so offending therein shall for every such Offence, over and above the Penalty of him and their Bond, severally forfeit and lose the Sum of Five hundred Pounds.

XXXIV. And Whereas by the said Act, made in the Fifty eighth Year aforesaid, it is provided, that no such Rock Salt shall be delivered for the Purposes aforesaid, except in Lumps of Twenty Pounds each, and it is expedient to alter such Regulation: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons who has or have made Entry and given such Bond as aforesaid, to deliver from any such Warehouse as aforesaid, for the Purposes in the said Act intimated, to any Person or Persons authorized by such Certificate as aforesaid to receive the same, such Rock Salt in Lumps, not being of less Weight than Ten Pounds; and that in all Cases where such Certificate shall express that any Quantity of such Rock Salt shall be delivered and received, crushed or powdered, it shall be lawful for any such Person or Persons to making Entry and giving such Bond as aforesaid, to deliver the same from any such Warehouse as aforesaid crushed and powdered; provided that such crushed and powdered Rock Salt shall, before the Delivery thereof from any such Warehouse, be mixed throughout with Coal Tar in the Proportion of not less than Half a Pound of Coal Tar for every Bushel of such crushed and powdered Rock Salt, any thing in this or the said Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That when any such Rock Salt shall be delivered from any Rock Salt Pit or Mine, or any Warehouse belonging thereto, for the purpose of being employed in feeding or dressing with the Food of Sheep and Cattle, or stopping Seed or preserving Hay, or for manuring Land, and shall be carried or conveyed in or on board of any Ship or Vessel, from one Port or Place in Great Britain, to any or either of the Ports or Places where the same is permitted to be warehoused under the Regulations and Conditions of that Act, and for the purpose of being so warehoused as aforesaid, and shall arrive at the Port or Place where the Warehouse or Storehouse of the Person or Persons to whom the same shall be first and permitted shall be stored, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Person or Persons to sell and deliver any Part of such Rock Salt, being in no Case less than one Ton, to any Person or Persons who shall be authorized to receive the same by such Certificate as aforesaid, first granted to such Person or Persons directly from the said Ship or Vessel in which the same shall have been so removed, without first landing or warehousing the same: Provided always, that the Permit or Permits accompanying the whole of such Rock Salt shall be first duly delivered to the proper Officer of Excise in that behalf, and that the Master or Commander of the said Ship or Vessel shall first make oath, as by Law is required on the Removal of Twenty five Tons, and that all such Rock Salt (as well such Part thereof as shall be intended to be taken into the named Warehouse or Storehouse of the Person or Persons to whom the same shall be so permitted, as such Part as shall be intended to be sold or delivered from such Ship or Vessel to such other Person or Persons as aforesaid) shall be first duly weighed on board the said Ship or Vessel, by or in the Presence of the proper Officer or Officers of Excise in that behalf: And provided also, that the whole of such Rock Salt measured and expressed in such Permit or

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Officer or Officers of Excise, upon his or their Request, at any time or times, to enter into and survey every such Warehouse as aforesaid, and the Rock Salt therein; and for any Supervisor or other Officer or Officers of Excise, of equal or superior Rank to a Supervisor, as any such Survey to weigh the Rock Salt therein; and if any Owner or Proprietor of any such Warehouse, or other Person or Persons, shall neglect or refuse, upon such Request as aforesaid, to open and unlock such Warehouse, and permit such Officer or Officers to enter and survey the same and the Rock Salt therein, or shall prevent, hinder or obstruct such Officer or Officers from so doing, or any Supervisor or other Officer or Officers of Excise of such Rank as aforesaid, from weighing all the Rock Salt therein, or shall take or cause any such Rock Salt, or neglect or refuse, upon the Demand of such Supervisor or other Officer or Officers, to furnish him or them with true and lawful Scales and Weights sufficient for the weighing of such Rock Salt, or to give him or them all lawful and necessary Aid and Assistance in the weighing thereof, or shall aid or cause, permit or suffer to be aided, any Art, Means or Contrivance by which such Supervisor or other Officer or Officers, shall or may be prevented, obstructed or hindered from taking a true and accurate Account of the Weight and Quantity of such Rock Salt, all such Rock Salt and such Scales and Weights shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise; and every Person so offending shall for every such Offence severally forfeit and lose the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That upon any Application being made to the Commissioners of Excise for Swindler or Exploit respectively, by any Fish Carrier or Fish Carriers, praying that his, her or their Stock of Salt or Rock Salt, received by him, her or them Duty free for curing Fish, shall not be weighed by the Officer or Officers of Excise, in pursuance of the Powers and Regulations in that behalf, it shall be lawful for such Commissioners respectively, if they shall see fit, and upon such Conditions as they shall think proper to impose, to order any such Stock of Salt or Rock Salt not to be weighed, and for the Quantity of Salt or Rock Salt respectively, which shall appear by the Book or Books of the Surveying Officer of such Stock to have been received by such Fish Carrier or Fish Carriers, and to be then in his, her or their Stock, to be transferred to the next succeeding Year's Account as if weighed, and thereby ascertained by such Officer, and the Allowance to be made of such Quantity by such Fish Carrier or Fish Carriers, and Bond to be given for such Quantity for such succeeding Year's Account, in all respects as if such Quantity of Salt or Rock Salt respectively had been ascertained by having been actually weighed by the proper Officer or Officers in that behalf: Provided always, that as such Application shall be granted, or Order made as aforesaid, in any Case in which any of the Salt or Rock Salt received Duty free by any such Fish Carrier or Fish Carriers shall have been delivered or transferred by him, her or them to, or received by him, her or them from the Stock of any other Fish Carrier or Fish Carriers, or shall have been employed in the curing or preserving of any Fish, or the Bills of which Salt or Rock Salt received in the Year in or in respect of which any such Application is made, and such Stock of Salt or Rock Salt is or ought to be weighed, shall have been in any respect broken; any thing to the contrary in any other Act or Acts of Parliament, to the contrary thereof as aforesaid notwithstanding.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Powers, Directions, Rules, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters and Things which in and by an Act, made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, for taking away the Court of Wards and Latroes and Tenures in Capite, and by Knights Service and Purveyance, and for seeking a Revenue upon His Majesty's line thereof, or by any other Law now in force relating to His Majesty's Revenue of Excise, are granted and established, shall be prohibited, used and put in execution, as and for the Purposes of this Act, as fully and effectually to all intents and Purposes as if all and every the said Powers, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters and Things, were particularly repeated and mentioned in this present Act.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That all Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by this Act, shall be paid for, recovered, levied or satisfied, by such Ways, Means or Methods as any Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture may be paid for, recovered, levied or satisfied by any Law or Laws of Excise, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plea, or Information in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Courts of Exchequer in Scotland respectively; and that (save and except in such Case or Cases where it is otherwise expressly directed by this Act) One Moiety of every such Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture shall be to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them who shall discover, inform or sue for the same.

XL. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

C A P. LVIII.

An Act for facilitating the Recovery of the Wages of Seamen in the Merchant Service.

[2d July 1819.]

• WHEREAS the Seamen and Mariners employed in the Merchant Service, and in the Coasting Trade of this Kingdom, are exposed to great Difficulties, Expenses and Inconvenience in suing for or obtaining Payment of their Wages, in Case of Dispute with the Masters or Owners of Vessels in which they may have served; and it is expedient that greater Facility should be given for Recovery of such Wages; May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the First Day of August in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, it shall be lawful for any Seaman, Mariner or other Person (except Master or Apparent), who shall have served on board any Ship or Vessel trading from any Port or Place, or Ports or Places in that Part of the United Kingdom called England, to Ports beyond the Seas, or to any other Port or Place in Great Britain, by virtue or in pursuance of any Contract or Engagement, in Writing or not in Writing, and whether the same be by Peril, or by Bond under Seal, or otherwise, in and to the Master or Commander, or other Person having or taking the Charge of any such Ship or Vessel, after the Expiration of Two Days from the time of Entry of such Ship or Vessel at the Custom House, or from the Delivery of her Cargo, or from the time when such Seaman or Mariner, or other Person (except as aforesaid), shall be discharged, which shall first happen (unless an Agreement shall have been made and entered into to the contrary, and in that Case, after the Expiration of the time so stipulated or agreed for the Payment of such Wages as aforesaid), neglect or refuse to pay to any such Seaman, Mariner or other Person (except as aforesaid), his or their Wages, or any Part thereof, to complain to any Justice or Justices of the Peace residing in or near to the Place where such Ship or Vessel shall have entered her Voyage, or been cleared at the Custom House, or delivered her Cargo, or to any Justice or Justices of the Peace residing in or near to the Place where such Master or Commander, or other Person having or taking the Charge of any such Ship or Vessel, or (in case of them being so Master or Commander, or other Person in charge of any such Ship or Vessel) where any Owner or Owners thereof shall then happen to be, and thereupon it shall be lawful for any such Justice or Justices of the Peace respectively, and they are hereby required, upon such Complaint made to them upon Oath or Affirmation, to issue Warrants to such Master or Commander, or other Person having or taking the Charge of any such Ship or Vessel, or (in case of them being so Master or Commander or other Person in charge of any such Ship or Vessel) to such Owner or Owners thereof, to appear before them at such Time and Place to be in such Statutes specified; and upon the Party or Parties appearing in pursuance of such Warrants, or not appearing after having been so summoned, the said Justice or Justices shall, and they are hereby empowered to examine upon Oath each such Seaman, Mariner or other Person (except as aforesaid), or any other Witness or Witnesses, touching any such Complaint, or any Difference or Dispute respecting such Wages, and to make such Order for Payment of so much Wages to such Seaman, Mariner or other Person as aforesaid, as to such Justice or Justices shall seem reasonable and just: provided that the Sum in question do not exceed Twenty Pounds to be due to any One Seaman, Mariner or other Person as aforesaid; and in case of Refusal to pay, or Nonpayment of any Sum or Sums of Money so ordered, by the Space of Two Days next after such Order and Determination, such Justice or Justices shall and may issue forth their Warrant to levy the same by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of such Master or Commander or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of any such Ship or Vessel, or (in case of them being so Master or Commander, or other Person in charge of any such Ship or Vessel) of any such Owner or Owners as aforesaid, rendering the Overplus (if any there be), after deducting all the Costs, Charges and Expenses of any Summons, Informations, Complaints, Hearings, Warrants, and of such Distress, and the keeping, Appraisalment or Sale thereof, or otherwise relating thereto, unto the Person or Persons whose Goods and Chattels shall be so distrained and sold; and in case sufficient Distress shall not be found for Payment and Satisfaction of the Amount of Wages so ordered to be paid by such Justice or Justices, and the same, with such Costs, Charges and Expenses as aforesaid, shall not be paid within the said Period of Two Days, it shall and may be lawful for such Justice or Justices of the Peace, and they are hereby authorized and required, by Warrant or Warrants under their Hands and Seals, to levy the Amount of the Wages so ordered to be paid, together with such Costs, Charges and Expenses as aforesaid, on the Ship or Vessel for the Service on board which such Wages shall be so ordered to be paid, or any of the Tackle, Furniture or Apparel thereof, rendering the Overplus thereof (if any), after Payment of such Expenses as aforesaid, to the Master or Commander or Owner thereof; and the Decision of such Justice as aforesaid shall be final and conclusive as well on such Seaman, Mariner or other Person, as upon such Master or Commander, or other Person taking the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel, and the Owner or Owners thereof; and except in such Cases as where an Appeal shall be interposed by either Party to the High Court of Admiralty, such Appeal to be interposed within the Space of Seven Days after the Order of the said Justice or Justices is to be made as aforesaid.

II. And be it further enacted, That in case the Seaman or Mariner, or other Person is claiming to be entitled to such Wages as aforesaid, or the Party or Parties who is or are ordered to pay the same, or these Agents respectively, shall be dissatisfied with such Order and Decision of the Justice or Justices touching such Wages as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for either of them respectively, within Forty eight Hours after the making such Order as aforesaid, but not afterwards, to give Notice in Writing, to the Justice or Justices so

On Refusal to comply with Justice's Determination, how Wages to be recovered.

Justice's Decision must not stand, unless Appeal is Admiralty within Seven Days.

Notice of Appeal.

making such Order, of his, her or their Desire of obtaining the Judgment of the High Court of Admiralty respecting the said Wages and the Order to make thereon as aforesaid, by delivering the same to such Justice or Justices, or leaving the same at their last or most usual Place of Abode; and thereupon the Party so residing or departing the Claim to such Wages, or the Order to be made by such Justice or Justices thereon, shall be compelled to proceed within Thirty Days from the Date of such Order, by taking out a Writ or Writs against the adverse Party, and shall, on the Service of such Notice, give good and sufficient Bail to double the Amount of the Wages so ordered to be paid as aforesaid, and which Bail shall be taken by a Commissioner for taking Examinations in Prize Causes, if there shall be One in the Port or Place where such Difference shall arise or Order be made, but if there shall be no such Commissioner there, then the said Justice or Justices who shall pronounce such Order, or any other of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, are hereby authorised to take the same; and the Commissioner, Justice or Justices, who shall take such Bail, shall certify the same according to the Form contained in the Schedule hereto annexed, and transmit the same without Delay to the High Court of Admiralty, and also a Copy of the Order so made by such Justice or Justices, on unclipped Paper, certified under the Hand or Hands of such Commissioner, Justice or Justices taking the Bail as aforesaid, and the same shall be admitted by such Court of Admiralty as Evidence in the Cause.

III. And be it further enacted, That no Seaman or Mariner or other Person, by entering into or signing any Contract or Agreement as required by the several Statutes now in force for that Purpose, or into any Covenant, Stipulation or Agreement to be comprised in any such Contract or Agreement, which shall have the Effect, or be designed or intended to have the Effect, of depriving such Seaman, Mariner or other Person of the Remedies by this Act given for Recovery of Wages due to him, or them as aforesaid, shall be deprived of or hindered from using any Method or Means for Recovery of Wages, against any Ship, or the Master or Owners thereof, which immediately before the passing of this Act he might, and which after the said First Day of August he may make use of; and that in all Cases where it shall or may be necessary, in referring to the Remedies by this Act given for Recovery of such Wages as aforesaid, that the Agreement or Agreements in Writing aforesaid should be produced before such Justice or Justices as aforesaid, and such Obligation shall be on any Seaman, Mariner or other Person as aforesaid, to produce the same, but such Obligation shall be on the Master or Commander, or other Person having the Charge or Command, or the Owner or Owners of the Ship or Vessel for which the Wages shall be demanded; and no Seaman or Mariner shall fail in any Complaint or Proceeding before any Justice or Justices for the Recovery of Wages for want of such Agreement or Agreements being produced, but shall and may proceed therein as if no such Agreement in Writing had been made.

IV. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to deprive any Seaman, Mariner or other Person aforesaid, of any Remedy, Means or Process which may now be resorted to or used against any Ship or Vessel, or the Master or Commander or Person having the Charge of such Ship or Vessel, or the Owner or Owners thereof, for the Recovery of Wages due for serving on board of any such Ship or Vessel.

V. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to that Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Scotland.

VI. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken Notice of as such by all Judges, Justices and others whatsoever, without being specially pleaded.

VII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue in force for Seven Years from the passing hereof.

The SCHEDULE referred to by this Act.

On the _____ Day of _____ in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and _____ at _____ in the County of _____ A. B. and C. D. appeared personally, and produced themselves as the Master of the Ship _____ and for the Owners thereof, and for the Master and Owners of the said Ship, in the Sum of _____ such lawful Money of Great Britain, unto E. F. a Seaman having served on board the said Ship, to answer the Amount of such Wages as shall be lawfully decreed by the said Court to be due to the said E. F., according to the Tenor of the Act in this Act made and provided; and while they shall so do, they hereby consent that Execution shall after forth upon them, their Heirs, Executors and Administrators, Goods and Chattels, whereas the same shall be found, to the Value of the Sum above mentioned.

This Bail was duly taken, acknowledged and received at the time hereinbefore above written, before me the undersigned Commissioner, (or, as the undersigned Justice or Justices of the Peace) and I [or, we] do believe and consider the Parties above mentioned sufficient Security for the Sum above mentioned.

CAP. LIX.

An Act to extend the Provisions of an Act made in the Fifty fifth Year of His present Majesty, for the Payment of Wages due to deceased Seamen and Marines, to Wages due to Insensible Barbadoes.

[1st July 1819.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to extend several Acts relating to the Execution of Letters of Attorney and Wills of Petty Officers, Seamen and Marines, in His Majesty's Navy, and to make new Provisions respecting the same, it was enacted, that where any Sum not exceeding the Sum of Twenty Pounds should be due for the Services of an Insensible Barbadoes, as mentioned in any Petty Officer or Seaman, Non Commissioned Officers of Marines, or Marine, deceased, it should and might be lawful for the Inspector of Seamen's Wills to issue or cause to be issued a Certificate in the Form or to the Effect and for the Purpose in the said Act mentioned: And Whereas it is expedient that the said Provisions should be extended to the Petty Officers and Seamen, Non Commissioned Officers of Marines, and Marines, who being born Barbadoes shall have died or shall die hereafter: Be it therefore enacted by His King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That where any Sum not exceeding the Sum of Twenty Pounds shall be due for the Services of an Insensible Barbadoes mentioned in any Petty Officer or Seaman, Non Commissioned Officers of Marines, or Marine, who being born a Barbadoes, shall have died or shall die hereafter, in order that the Person or Persons who shall be entitled to the Effects, or any Part thereof, by Grant or Grants from the Crown, may not be put to great Expence, it shall and may be lawful for the Inspector of Seamen's Wills, upon Inspection and Examination of such Grant or Grants, to issue or cause to be issued a Certificate in the Form or to the Effect provided by the said Act in the case of any Sum not exceeding the Sum of Twenty Pounds being due for the Services of any Petty Officer or Seaman, Non Commissioned Officers of Marines, or Marine, deceased, and that all and every other the Provisions, Enactments, Clauses, Powers, Privileges and Authorities provided by the said Act in their Cases, shall from and after the passing of this Act be applied and extended to all Cases of Certificates issued or caused to be issued by the Inspector of Seamen's Wills upon Grants from the Crown of any Sum or Sums not exceeding the Sum of Twenty Pounds, due for or in respect of the Services of any Petty Officer or Seaman, Non Commissioned Officer of Marines, or Marine, who being born a Barbadoes shall have died or shall die hereafter.

VI. Provided always, That nothing in this Act enacted shall be construed to affect or to repeal any of the Provisions of any Act passed in the Twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, entitled An Act to empower the Archbishop of Canterbury, or the Archbishop of York for the time being, in conference in the Office of a Bishop, Persons being Subjects or Citizens of Countries out of His Majesty's Dominions.

C. A. P. LXI.

An Act to enable Counties and Stewartries in Scotland to give aid to Royal Burghs situated therein, for the purpose of improving, enlarging or rebuilding their Gaols; or to improve, enlarge or rebuild Common Gaols of Counties and Stewartries which are not the Gaols of Royal Burghs.

[2d July 1819.]

WHEREAS the Gaols in the different Royal Burghs in Scotland are in general inferior and unwholesome; And Whereas although by the Law of Scotland Burghs are bound to provide and maintain proper Gaols, yet the Means of many of such Burghs are insufficient for the necessary improvement thereof; And whereas it is expedient that Counties and Stewartries in Scotland should be enabled to contribute towards the Expense that may be required for improving, enlarging or rebuilding the Gaols of the Royal Burghs of Scotland, within the time: And Whereas it is expedient that when Common Gaols of Counties and Stewartries in Scotland, are not the Gaols of Royal Burghs, such Counties and Stewartries should be enabled to improve, enlarge or rebuild such Common Gaols: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be so enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if the Magistrates and Council of any Royal Burgh shall deem it expedient to solicit Aid and Assistance from the County or Stewartry in which the same shall be situated, towards improving, enlarging or rebuilding the Gaol of any such Royal Burgh, they shall transmit to the Clerk of Supply of such County or Stewartry, a Proposal in Writing for the Consideration of the Commissioners of Supply of such County or Stewartry.

II. And be it enacted, That the said Clerk of Supply, upon receiving such Proposal, shall transmit it without Delay to the Convenor, who shall call a Meeting of the Commissioners of Supply of such County or Stewartry, for the Consideration of the said Proposal, by public Advertisement in one or more Newspapers published in said County or Stewartry, or if no Newspaper is published therein, by Advertisement in such Newspaper or Newspapers as the Convenor shall estimate public County Meetings in for the said County or Stewartry, of which Meeting Six Weeks previous Notice at the least shall be given.

III. And be it further enacted, That no Person shall be entitled to vote at any Meeting to be held under this Act, who shall not be a Commissioner of Supply, possessed of the Dominion and of Lands valued at One hundred Pounds Scots, or the Father of an eldest Commissioner of Supply so qualified, duly authorized to attend and vote for his Constituent at such Meeting.

IV. And be it enacted, That in and may be lawful for such Commissioners of Supply, or a Majority of them at any such Meeting, if they shall think fit, before coming to a final Resolution upon any such Proposal, to appoint a Committee of their Number to confer with the Magistrates and Town Council making such Proposal, and for the purpose of arranging with them all the Details that may be necessary to enable the Commissioners of Supply to satisfy themselves as to the Propriety of affording Aid towards the Purpose solicited, and for finding the Plan or Plans necessary for the Execution of the Work, and for ascertaining the Expense thereof.

V. And be it enacted, That after being consulted as to the Propriety of affording such Aid, and after as to all such Details as may be necessary for setting the Plan of the Work, and the Expense thereof, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of Supply, at any Meeting (especially called for that Purpose, or a Majority of them then assembled, to resolve to give such Aid as they may think fit towards improving, enlarging or rebuilding any such Gaol.

VI. And

VI. And be it enacted, That a Copy of the Resolutions of each Meeting, signed by the Clerk of Supply of such County or Stewartry, shall thereupon be transmitted to the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh by whom such Pursepail shall have been made; and if within Fourteen Days after such Resolutions shall have been received by such Magistrates and Town Council, they shall signify their Willingness to such Clerk of Supply to proceed to improve, enlarge, or rebuild their Good, in the manner that shall have been expressed in such Resolutions, then the Commissioners of Supply of such County or Stewartry shall be and become bound to raise the Money they shall have agreed to contribute for the Pursepail specified in such Resolutions to be transmitted as aforesaid, by an Affidavit, which they are hereby authorized to make in the manner directed by this Act.

VII. And be it enacted, That such Affidavit shall be made as follows; namely, upon all Lands and Heritages contained in the Valuation Books of such County or Stewartry, according to the valued Rent of such Lands and Heritages, and upon all inhabited Houses within such County or Stewartry, of the annual Value of Five Pounds Sterling or upwards, according to such annual Value; that is to say, for every Five Pounds Rent that shall be affixed on every One hundred Pounds Rent of the valued Rent of Lands and Heritages, there shall be affixed the Sum of One Penny Sterling on every Pound Sterling of the annual Value according to which such inhabited Houses shall be affixed for the House Tax; but it is hereby expressly provided and declared, that inhabited Houses, though of the annual Value of Five Pounds Sterling or upwards, erected or to be erected on Lands valued in the Valuation Books of the said County or Stewartry, and chargeable with Affidavit imposed by this Act on Lands and Heritages so valued to a greater Amount than the Sum for which the said inhabited Houses would be chargeable under this Act, shall not also be liable to the Affidavit hereby imposed on inhabited Houses of the aforesaid Value.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That such Affidavit shall be made in the Proportions aforesaid, by such Commissioners of Supply, at a Meeting to be held for that Purpose, and shall be directed to be levied at such times as shall be specified in the Order making the Affidavit, so that the Sums assigned to be levied may be collected within the Period requisite for accomplishing the Purpose for which such Aid or Affidavit shall have been ordered to be given.

IX. And be it enacted, That such Affidavit upon Lands and Heritages shall be collected by the Collector of the Cots in such County or Stewartry, and such Affidavit upon inhabited Houses shall be collected by the Collector of the Assessed Taxes levied upon such Houses; and all the Powers and Authorities granted by any Act or Acts of Parliament to such Collector of the Land Tax, and to such Collector of the Assessed Taxes, for the levying and recovering thereof respectively, are hereby given and granted for the levying and recovering of such Affidavit.

X. And be it enacted, That all Sums of Money levied by any such Collector of the Land Tax, or Collector of the Assessed Taxes respectively, for or in respect of such Affidavit, shall, after retaining an Allowance for their Trouble, not exceeding the Allowance made to them for collecting the Land Tax and Assessed Taxes respectively, be paid over and accounted for by every such Collector, to such Person or Persons, and at such time or times, as shall be directed by the said Commissioners of Supply; and if any such Collector shall not so pay and account for the same accordingly, every such Collector in making default shall forfeit Double the Sum he is required to be paid, to be recovered with Interest thereon by the Clerk of the Commissioners of Supply, who shall sue for the same before the Judge Ordinary of the Shewards, with Costs and Expenses of Proceed; and such Forfeiture shall be applied to the Purposes for which such Affidavit was imposed and levied.

XI. And be it enacted, That the Amount of every such Affidavit shall be wholly paid by the Owners of Lands as well as Houses: Provided nevertheless, that the whole of such Affidavit upon Houses shall be paid by the Occupiers thereof in the first Instance, but they shall be entitled, and they are hereby authorized, to retain from their Landlords, out of the first Year's Rent, the whole Amount of such Affidavit, which such Landlords are hereby required and obliged to allow as Part of the Rent due for such inhabited Houses, on Production and Delivery of the Collector's Receipt for the same.

XII. And be it enacted, That in all Cases where any Common Good of any County or Stewartry is provided is not the Good of a Royal Burgh, it shall and may be lawful from time to time for any Five or more of the Commissioners of Supply of any such County or Stewartry, by a Writing under their Hands addressed to the Governor of such County, to require him within Six Weeks from the Date of such Requisition being made, to call a Meeting of the Commissioners of Supply of such County or Stewartry, to take into consideration the State of such Common Good; and such Governor shall thereupon call such Meeting of the Commissioners of Supply of such County or Stewartry, to be held within Six Weeks from the Date of the Receipt of such Requisition, by Public Advertisement in One or more Newspapers published in such County or Stewartry; or if no Newspaper is published therein, by Advertisement in such Newspaper or Newspapers as the Governor shall nominate Public County Meetings in for such County or Stewartry.

XIII. And be it enacted, That at such Meeting, or at some Adjournment thereof, such Commissioners of Supply shall deliberate and determine whether any and what Improvement or Enlargement of such Common Good is necessary, or if it is necessary to rebuild the same; and before coming to a final Resolution as to the Plan proper to be adopted, shall and may, if they think fit, appoint a Committee of their Number to prepare Plans and Estimates, and to arrange all necessary Details to enable the said Commissioners to come to a final Determination as to the Mode of Proceeding to be adopted: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall empower or authorize the rebuilding of such Common Good of any County or Stewartry in any Burgh or Town, other than the Burgh or Town in which such Common Good is at present situated.

XVII. And be it enacted, That the same Rules of Relief among succeeding Heirs of Estate, and their Heirs and their Successors, of the Claims for Debt, and of Preference in Competition of Rents, and in respecting Debtors to the Payment of Cashes, shall take place with regard to Monies expended by the Proprietors of Entailed Estates in Payment of Assessments under this Act, as are enacted by the said Act, passed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, with respect to Monies expended by Proprietors of Entailed Estates, in making Improvements upon their Estates, for increasing the Rents and Value thereof.

Commissioners of Supply may borrow Money.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That such Commissioners of Supply shall have Power, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to borrow and take up at Interest, on the Security of the Assessments hereby provided to be levied, such Sums or Sums of Money as they shall judge requisite for defraying the Share or Proportion of the Expence of improving, enlarging or rebuilding any Gaol, towards the Expence of which they may think fit to contribute; or for improving, enlarging or rebuilding such Common Gaol of the County or Stewartry, as the case may be; provided that the whole Amount of the Money so borrowed shall not exceed such Sum as they shall have to refer to disburse; and it shall be lawful for such Commissioners of Supply, and they are hereby empowered, to assign or make over the Whole or any Part of the Assessments hereby authorized to be made, in any Portion or Portions willing to lend Money on the Security thereof, at a Rate not exceeding Five Pounds Sterling per Centum per Annum; and every such Allignment shall be made and executed by the Clerk of Supply, being specially authorized to do so at a General Meeting of the Commissioners of Supply, and shall be entered in a Book or Books to be kept by him for that Purpose, which Book or Books may be seen and perused by any Portion or Portions interested therein without Fee or Reward; and all such Allgments so executed shall be transferable by Indentures, duly subscribed by the Party transferring, in the Presence of One or more subscribing Witnesses or Witnesses.

Interest at 5l.
per Cent. per Annum.

Committee of Superintendence may be appointed.

XIX. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for such Commissioners of Supply to appoint a Committee of their Number to superintend the Execution of any Work to which they may be contributed, or which they may be resolved to execute (as the case may be), and the proper Application of the Money contributed for that Purpose.

Power and Responsibility of Magistrates in relation to Gaols.

XX. And be it enacted, That when the Gaol of any Royal Burgh, to the improving, enlarging or rebuilding of which, Aid shall have been allotted under this Act, shall have been completed, and with any Yards, Courts, Out Offices or Concomitances thereof, shall be used for confining Debtors, Felons, Vagrants and other Delinquents, the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh wherein the same shall be situated, and the Keeper or Keepers, Guardians or Keepers of such Gaol shall be respectively answerable, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, for the safe Custody of all such Persons as shall from time to time be committed to his or their Custody in such Gaol, in the like manner as any Magistrates and Town Council and the Keepers employed by them now are by Law liable; and such Magistrates and Council shall have the same Power over such Gaol and the Gaolers and Keepers thereof, and the Debtors, Felons, Vagrants and other Delinquents who shall be confined therein, as they had in the Gaol before the same shall have been approved, enlarged or rebuilt; and such Magistrates and Town Council, in fact as any such Gaol, is improved, enlarged or rebuilt shall be delivered over to them, shall be bound and obliged to keep and maintain the same in good and sufficient Repair, from the Funds of the Burgh, in all time coming.

Prisoners may
while Gaol is
rebuilding.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That if it shall be found necessary, for the purpose of improving, enlarging or rebuilding any Gaol of any Royal Burgh now existing, that the Prisoners therein should be removed during the Period of such Improvement, Enlargement or rebuilding, it shall be lawful for the Magistrates of the Burgh within which such Gaol is situated, to remove such Prisoners or Prisoners to any secure Place of Confinement within the said Burgh, or to any other Gaol within the said County or Stewartry, until such Improvement, Enlargement or rebuilding shall be completed; and it shall be lawful for all Persons legally authorized to commit other Debtors, Felons and Delinquents, to commit them to the same; and when any such improved, enlarged or new Goal shall be fit for the Reception of Prisoners, it shall be lawful for the Magistrates and Town Council of the Borough in which such improved, enlarged or new Goal shall be situated, and the Keeper or Keepers of such Goal, to remove thence all such Debtors, Felons and other Prisoners as shall then be confined in such other former Place of Confinement; and such Removal or Removals, and the Arrangings or Encroachings of the Prisoners who shall be confined in the improved, enlarged or new Goal, in any Yards, Courts, Out Offices or Conveniences thereto belonging, shall not be deemed as taken to be an Escape or Evasion: Provided always, That the Magistrates of such Borough shall continue to be responsible for the safe Custody of all such Debtors, Felons and other Prisoners, during their Removal to or Confinement in such other former Place of Confinement.

Responsibility of Magistrates to continue.

XXII. And be it enacted, That if it shall be found necessary for the improving, enlarging or rebuilding any Common Goal, within any County or Stewary, not being the Goal of a Royal Borough, that the Prisoners therein should be removed during the Period of such Improvement, Enlargement or rebuilding, it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace for such County or the Removal of such Prisoners, and for all Persons legally authorized to commit other Debtors, Felons and Delinquents, to any secure Place of Confinement within such County or Stewary, until such Improvement, Enlargement or rebuilding shall be completed; and when any such improved, enlarged or new Goal shall be fit for the Reception of Prisoners, it shall be lawful for such Justices, as aforesaid, to direct the Removal thence of all such Debtors, Felons or other Prisoners as shall then be confined in such former Place of Confinement, and should by Law be confined in such Common Goal of the County or Stewary; and such Removal and Removals, and the Arrangings and Encroachings of the Prisoners who shall be confined in such improved, enlarged or new Goal, in any Yards, Courts, Out Offices or Conveniences thereto belonging, shall not be deemed as taken to be an Escape or Evasion; and the legal Responsibility for the safe Custody of all Persons committed to such Goal, and the Burden and Obligation to keep and maintain the same in good Condition, shall, after such Improvement, Enlargement or rebuilding, be no ways altered thereby, or by any thing in this Act contained.

Prisoners may be removed while Goals are repairing, or rebuilding, in Cases where the same are not in Royal Boroughs.

Responsibility of Magistrates to continue.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall think himself, herself or themselves aggrieved by any Adversity imposed by virtue of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for such Person or Persons, within Three Months after any such Adversity shall have been demanded, but not afterwards, to appeal against the same to the Justices of the Peace at the Quarter Sessions of the County or Stewary wherein the subject Matter of the Complaint shall have arisen, giving Fourteen Days' Notice of such Appeal to the Collector of the Assessment, and lodging with such Appeal a Bond, with sufficient Surety or Sureties for fulfilling and implementing the Sentence to be pronounced, and for paying such Expenses as shall be awarded by the said Justices of the Peace, who are hereby authorized to determine the Matter in Dispute, and their Judgment shall be conclusive of all other Jurisdiction, and shall be final and conclusive without being subject to Review in any Court whatsoever.

Appeal against Assessment.

Notice.

Final.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That an Action or Suit shall be commenced against any Person or Persons, for any thing done in pursuance or by virtue of this Act, after Six Calendar Months from the time the Fact was committed or the Cause of Action had occurred for which such Action or Suit shall be brought; and the Defendant or Defendants in any such Action or Suit may produce this Act, and plead that the same was done by Authority and in virtue thereof; and if it shall appear to be so done, or if any such Action or Suit shall be brought after the time hereby limited for bringing the same, then and in such Case the Defendant or Defendants shall be absolved from such Action or Suit, and the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs therein shall be bound to pay the whole Expenses of Process incurred by the Defendant or Defendants.

Limitation of Action.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act, and shall be judiciously taken Notice of as such by all Judges, Justices and others, without being specially pleaded.

Public Act.

CAP. LXII.

An Act for the Protection of Banks for Savings in Scotland.

[2d July 1819.]

WHEREAS certain Institutions called Parish Banks, or Banks for Savings, have been established in Scotland, for the safe Custody and Increase of small Savings, belonging to the indolentious Classes of His Majesty's Subjects: And Whereas it is expedient to give Protection to such Institutions as may be deemed of the same, and to the Funds thereby established, and to afford Encouragement to the Formation of like Institutions: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, if any Number of Persons shall be desirous of having the Benefit of the Provisions of this Act, and shall have formed or shall form any Institution in any Part of Scotland, for the purpose of receiving Deposits of Money for the Benefit of the Persons depositing the same, and of returning the Whole or any Part of such Deposits, and the Produce thereof, to the Depositors themselves, or to their Heirs, Executors, Assignees or other Persons entitled thereto under the Provisions of this Act, deducting only out of such Produce in such as shall be requisite for the Payment and Discharge of the necessary Expenses attending the Management of such Institution, according to such Rules, Orders and Regulations as shall or may be established for that Purpose; such Persons shall, under the Rules, Orders and Regulations, established or to be established for the Management of such Institution, to be entered, recorded and deposited in manner hereinafter directed, and thereupon shall be deemed to be entitled to and shall have the Benefit of the Provisions contained in this Act.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That as each Institution as aforesaid shall have the Benefit of this Act, which a written or printed Copy of the Rules, Orders and Regulations for the Management thereof, signed by Two of the Managers of such Institution, shall be exhibited to the Judges of the Peace assembled at the Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the Shire or County within which such Institution shall be situated; which Rules, Orders and Regulations shall be subject to the Review of such Judges, who shall and may, after due Examination thereof, amend and make said Copy of the same as shall be requisite to this Act, and shall allow and confirm the same, or such Part thereof as shall be conformable to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; and after the Confirmation as aforesaid of the Rules, Orders and Regulations of such Institution, the same shall be signed by the Clerk of the said Judges, attesting their Approbation thereof; for which Attribution, and all the Expense and Labour attending the same, the said Clerk shall be entitled to charge the Sum of Ten Shillings and Sixpence, and no more; and such Rules, Orders and Regulations as attested, shall be deposited with the Clerk of the said Judges, who is hereby specially required to receive and preserve the same among other the Records in his Custody, and to grant an attested Copy of the same to the Petitioner or Persons by whom the same shall have been exhibited, without any Fee or Reward to be paid in respect thereof; which Rules, Orders and Regulations as attested, shall be entered in a Book or Books to be kept for that Purpose by such Institution; provided that nothing herein contained shall extend to prevent any Alteration in or Amendment of any such Rules, Orders and Regulations, deposited as aforesaid, or to the repealing or amending of the same, or of any of them, in whole or in part, or to the making of any new Rules, Orders or Regulations for the Management of any such Institution, in such manner as shall be directed by the Rules, Orders and Regulations thereof; provided such new Rules, Orders and Regulations, or such Alterations or Amendments shall be entered in the Book or Books of the said Institution kept as aforesaid; and a written or printed Copy thereof shall be exhibited, approved of, attested and deposited as aforesaid, before the same shall be put in force.

III. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That the Persons depositing Money with any Institution taking the Benefit of this Act, or their Heirs, Executors or other Persons entitled thereto under the Provisions of this Act, shall have the sole Benefit of such Deposits and the Produce thereof, in the manner provided by the said Rules, Orders and Regulations; first only and except such Salaries and Allowances, or other necessary Expenses, as shall, according to such Rules, Orders and Regulations, be specified for conducting such Institution, and for Remuneration to Clerks and Secretaries employed in the Management thereof, and also of the Trustees or Trustees and other Persons having Control and Direction in the Management of such Institution, who shall not directly or indirectly have any Salary, Allowance, Profit or Benefit whatsoever therefrom, on account of such Control and Direction, beyond the actual Expenses for the Purpose of such Institution.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all Rules, Orders and Regulations, from time to time made and in force for the Management of any Institution taking the Benefit of this Act, and duly exhibited, returned, approved of, attested and deposited as aforesaid, shall be binding on the several Members and Trustees of such Institution, and the several Depositors therein, and their Representatives and Persons entitled as aforesaid, under the Provisions of this Act, all of whom shall be deemed and taken to have full Notice thereof by the Entry and Deposit aforesaid; and all such Rules, Orders and Regulations as aforesaid, or a certified Copy thereof, under the Hands of the Clerk of the said Judges, shall be received as Evidence in all Cases; and such Clerk shall be bound to furnish such Copies to all concerned, without Fee or Reward, except the actual Expense of making such Copy at the Rate of Sixpence for each and every Sheet thereof containing or less Two hundred Words; and neither such Copy, nor any Receipt or Acknowledgment granted to any Depositor or Depositors, at the time of making any Deposit in any Institution taking the Benefit of this Act, or granted by any such Depositor or Depositors, or their Heirs, Executors or other Persons entitled as aforesaid under the Provisions of this Act, at the time of drawing out the same, or their Share or Shares in the Funds of the Institution, or any Part thereof, shall be subject to or chargeable with any Stamp Duty whatever.

V. And be it further enacted, That all Money, Goods and Effects whatever, and all Securities for Money or other obligatory Instruments, and all Rights or Claims belonging to any Institution taking the Benefit of this Act, shall be vested in such Person or Persons as shall be appointed by the Rules, Orders and Regulations of the Institution, Trustee or Trustees for the time being, for the Use and Benefit of such Institution and the respective Depositors therein, and the Heirs, Executors or Persons entitled under the Provisions of this Act, according to their respective Claims and Interests; and after the Death, Resignation or Removal of any such Trustee or Trustees, the same shall vest in their Successors in Office by virtue of their Appointment as such, and for the same Uses and Purposes, and subject to the same Trusts, without any Assignment or Conveyance whatever; and such Trustee or Trustees shall and may, in all Cases concerning the Property, Rights or Claims aforesaid of such Institution, sue and be sued in their proper Name or Names, as Trustee or Trustees of such Institution, without any other Description; and no such Action or Cause shall be discontinued by the Death of such Person or Persons, or by his or their Removal from the Office of Trustee or Trustees, or against the succeeding Trustee or Trustees as aforesaid, but the same shall and may be proceeded in by the succeeding Trustee or Trustees as aforesaid, any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding; declaring always, that no Securities for Money or other obligatory Instruments belonging to or granted for or in respect of any such Institution, and no Proceedings in any Action or Cause touching or concerning the Property, Rights or Claims of any such Institution, shall be subject to or chargeable with any Stamp Duty whatever; and

An Act for granting to His Majesty a Sum of Money to be raised by Lotteries. [2d July 1819.]

[This Act is the same as 58 G. 3. c. 71. except as in Title and the Scheme that are here inserted.]

III. AND be it further enacted, That such Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole Fifteen Pounds for every Ticket to be contained in the said Lottery or Lotteries, or shall be paid upon for the Purposes by the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, shall be distributed in Prizes or Benefits to be drawn in the said Lottery or Lotteries, or allotted to the Owner or Owners of any First

A Sum not exceeding 15 lb. for every Ticket, shall be divided into Prizes, and

First or Last drawn Ticket or Tickets, or of any Ticket or Tickets to be drawn between the First and Last as a fixed Price or fixed Prize, on any particular Day or Days, in such Proportions and in such Manner as the said Commissioners or any Three or more of them shall direct; and the same shall be charged upon and be paid and payable out of all or any of the Aids or Supplies granted in this present Session of Parliament for Great Britain; and the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, are hereby required and authorized, by Warrant or Warrants under their Hands, to cause such Sum or Sums of Money to be issued and paid out of the said Aids or Supplies to the Chief Cashier of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, to be by him distributed and paid to and amongst the respective Proprietors of the several Forfeiture or Benefit Tickets, within Two Months after the Conclusion of the Drawing of such Lottery or Lotteries respectively, or as soon as Certificates can be made out for the Sums due in respect of the same, in the manner hereafter directed.

• IV. And Whereas it may be expedient for the Public Service that Annuities in favor of the Public Funds may be given as Prizes in the Place of Money; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, to authorize and empower the Commissioners for the Redemption of the National Debt to appropriate such a Sum, or Annuities, in any of the Public Funds standing in their Names in the Books of the Bank of England as will be equal to the whole or such Part of the Sum not exceeding Fifteen Pounds per Ticket to be distributed in Prizes as hereinafter mentioned, as the Contractor or Contractors for any Lottery or Lotteries shall request to be given in Stock in the place of Money, which Stock shall be obtained in the same Prior the said Funds or Annuities shall have been sold at the Bank of England on the last Day of selling the same previous to the time or times of making such Contract or Contracts, or of the Day of Approval by the said Commissioners of the Treasury of the Scheme of any Lottery, and shall be transferred to the Holders of the Tickets entitled thereto by the said last mentioned Commissioners, at such times and by authority of such Certificates as are heretofore mentioned and directed; and the said Commissioners of the Treasury shall account for the Money retained in lieu of the Stock with the other Money raised for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, or shall order such a Sum of Money to be paid to the said Commissioners for Redemption of the National Debt, out of the Sums raised by Sale of Lottery Tickets, or out of any of the Aids or Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, as will be sufficient to pay the same Amount in Stock as shall have been appropriated for the Prizes before mentioned, or shall cause an Amount of Annuities equal to the Annuities so appropriated to be purchased for or transferred to the said Commissioners for the Redemption of the National Debt, within One Month after such Appropriation.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That all and every Person and Persons to whom such last mentioned License or Licenses shall be granted in Great Britain or Ireland respectively, pursuant to this Act, shall, before the Drawing begins, deposit at the Office or Place to be appointed in manner hereinafter mentioned by the Commissioners of Stamp Duties in England and Ireland respectively, and divide into Shares, One hundred and twenty whole and entire Tickets in each of the Lotteries established as aforesaid, for such License granted to him, her or them, if only One such License be granted, and if Two or more such Licenses be granted to the same Person or Persons, then and in that Case he, she or they shall, before the Drawing begins, deposit at the Office aforesaid, and divide into Shares, One hundred Tickets for each such License, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, in England, for One hundred such Tickets in Ireland, when the Lottery shall consist of Twenty thousand Tickets or upwards, and to be proportion for any smaller Number; and every such License, for which as such respective Deposit shall be made, shall be void and of no Effect; and every Person acting under any such License, in any of the Matters therein contained, after such Deposit made, shall be adjudged and considered in every respect as an unlawful Person; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Stamp Duties in England and Ireland respectively, and they are hereby required upon every such Default, to cause to be published the Names and Places of Abode, and the Description of the Office of such Person or Persons making such Default as aforesaid, in the London or Dublin Gazette respectively, and declare therein the time when such Default was made, and such Persons shall take place from the time of such Publication.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That every Person to whom any such License shall be granted, shall personally appear before the said Commissioners of Stamps in England or Ireland respectively, or such Person or Persons as they shall respectively appoint, and shall give and there, at the time of granting such License or Licenses, with One other respectable Person to be approved by the said Commissioners before mentioned respectively, give Security by Bond to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in the Sum of One thousand Pounds; and that the Condition of every such Bond shall be, that if the Person or Persons to be licensed shall during the Term of such License well and truly conform to and observe all the Regulations and Provisions of this Act, and shall not offend against the same, and shall have duly paid and discharged the proportionable Amount of all such Shares of Forfeiture Tickets divided and shared by such Person or Persons to be licensed as aforesaid, as shall have been performed for Payment, and demanded at the Head or Place named in the said License, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners of Stamps, then such Bond shall be void, or otherwise to be and remain in full Force and Effect; and the said Commissioners of Stamps, or any Three or more of them, are hereby authorized and required to take such Bond; and if at the End of Twelve Calendar Months after the Expiration of the time for which such License shall be granted, it shall appear to the Satisfaction of the said respective Commissioners of Stamps, that such Person or Persons to be licensed hath or have, during the Term of such License, well and truly kept, fulfilled and performed the Condition of such Bond, such Commissioners may deliver up such Bond to be cancelled, or otherwise, at their Discretion, cause

XXXV. And Whereas many evil disposed Persons, to evade the Provisions of the Acts made to punish Persons guilty of inferring for or against the Drawing of Tickets, more particularly defined in this Act, have engaged and authorised, and do engage and authorise Agents for them to take Money for such illegal Contracts, and have in their Custody or Possession, Account or Accounts, Statements or Statements, Memorandum or Memorandums in Writing of such illegal Contracts entered into &c. Be it therefore enacted, That upon Information upon Oath made before any Magistrate or Justice of the Peace, naming any Person or Persons a reported Lottery Inferrer, and in the Opinion of the Informer to be in possession of Books, Papers or Memorandums of illegal Contracts entered into relating to Lottery Inferences, it shall be lawful for, and such Magistrate or Justice of the Peace is hereby required to issue his Warrant, directed to a Constable or Officer of Police, to empower him with proper Assistance to search the Person or the said reported Lottery Inferrer, to enter the Dwelling Place and Premises of such Person, and search for and seize all such Papers, Accounts or Memorandums; and if any such be found either upon such or any other Person or Persons in the said Dwelling Place, or in or about the same Dwelling Place or Premises, or if any Memorandums of Inference in the Lottery or Little Goo should be found in the time of such Search, written in Chalk or otherwise upon or about the Dwelling Place or Premises, then to apprehend and bring the said Person or Persons against whom such Warrant shall have been issued, with such Person or Persons upon whom such Lottery or Little Goo Inference Papers, Accounts or Memorandums were found, before Two Magistrates or Justices of the Peace, and upon Proof before them by Two credible Witnesses upon Oath that such Papers, Accounts or Memorandums do appear to be the best of their Knowledge and Belief to relate to the Little Goo, or to Inference in the Lottery or in the Little Goo, or upon Proof in like manner that such Memorandums were written in Chalk or otherwise on or about the Premises of the Person against whom such Warrant shall have been issued, which could not be brought away without injuring the Premises, such Person or Persons are to be deemed Rogues and Vagabonds, and punished as such.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That upon the Hearing of any Case before any Magistrate, where it shall be proved that any Person or Persons is or are become Rogues and Vagabonds, or Rogues and Vagabonds, by the committing of any Offence described in this Act, it shall not be permitted to produce any Information upon Oath, whether the same shall have been filed or not.

LVI. And be it further enacted, That upon Complaint or Information made upon Oath, before any Justice or Justices of the Peace, of any Offence committed against this Act in any House or Place within the Jurisdiction of any Justice or Justices, whereby any of the Offenders may be liable to Punishment as Rogues and Vagabonds, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Justice or Justices before whom such Oath shall be taken, if he or they shall judge it reasonable, by special Warrant under his or their respective Hands and Seals, to authorise and empower any Person or Persons, by Day or by Night, but if in the Night Time then in the Presence of a Constable or other lawful Officer of the Peace, who are hereby required to be aiding or assisting therein, to break open the Doors or any Part of such House or Place where such Offender or Offenders shall have been committed, and to enter into such House or Place, and to seize and apprehend all such Offenders, and all other Persons who shall be discovered in such House or Place, and who shall have knowingly aided or abetted, or been in anywise concerned with any such Offender or Offenders, as committing any such Offence, and to convey them before any Justice or Justices of the Peace of the County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty or Place wherein such Person shall be so apprehended, to be dealt with according to Law as aforesaid; and all Persons who shall be discovered in such House or Place, knowingly aiding, abetting or in anywise concerned with such Offender or Offenders, in carrying on any Transference respecting the said Lotteries or either of them, contrary to the express Provisions of the Act, shall be deemed Rogues and Vagabonds, and punishable as such in the Manner directed by this Act, as the Case may require; and it shall and may be lawful for the Officer or Officers having the Execution of such Warrant, and all other Persons acting in his or their Aid or Assistance, to seize, arrest and detain all and every the Person and Persons so discovered in such House or Place, and to convey the said Person or Persons before such Justice or Justices of the Peace as aforesaid; and if any Person or Persons shall forcibly obstruct, oppose, molest or hinder any such Officer or Officers, or others acting in his or their Aid or Assistance, in the due Execution of their Duty, or in the due entering into such House or Place, or in the seizing, detaining or conveying before such Justice or Justices any such Offender or Offenders, or other Person or Persons as aforesaid, every such Person so obstructing, opposing, molesting or hindering as aforesaid, shall be deemed an Offender against Law and the public Peace, and the Court before whom any such Offender shall be tried and convicted shall and may order such Offender to be bound, imprisoned and publicly whipped, as in their Discretion shall be thought fit.

CAP. LIX.

An Act to prevent the enlisting or Engagement of His Majesty's Subjects to serve in Foreign Service, and the fitting out or equipping, in His Majesty's Dominions, Vessels for Warlike Purposes, without His Majesty's Licence.

[3d July 1819.]

WHEREAS the Enlistment or Engagement of His Majesty's Subjects to serve in War in Foreign Service, without His Majesty's Licence, and the fitting out and equipping and arming of Vessels by His Majesty's Subjects, without His Majesty's Licence, for Warlike Operations in or against the Dominions or Territories of any Foreign Prince, State, Potentate or Person exercising or assuming to exercise the Powers of Government in or over any Foreign Country, Colony, Province or Part of any Province, or against the Ships, Goods or Merchandise of any Foreign Prince, State, Potentate or Person as aforesaid, or their Subjects, may be prejudicial to and tend to endanger the Peace and Welfare of this Kingdom: And Whereas the Laws in force are not sufficiently effectual for preventing the same: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intitled An Act to prevent the taking His Majesty's Subjects to serve as Soldiers without His Majesty's Licence; and also an Act passed in the Twenty sixth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Second, intitled An Act to prevent His Majesty's Subjects from serving as Officers under the French King; and for better improving an Act passed in the Ninth Year of His present Majesty's Reign to prevent the enlisting His Majesty's Subjects to serve as Soldiers without His Majesty's Licence; and for adding such of His Majesty's Subjects as shall accept Commission in the British Brigade in the Service of the States General of the United Provinces, to take the Oaths of Allegiance and Abjuration; and also an Act passed in Ireland in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Second, intitled An Act for the more effectual preventing the enlisting of His Majesty's Subjects to serve as Soldiers in Foreign Service without His Majesty's Licence; and also an Act passed in Ireland in the Nineteenth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Second, intitled An Act for the more effectual preventing His Majesty's Subjects from entering into Foreign Service, and for publishing an Act of the Seventh Year of King William the Third, intitled 'An Act to prevent Foreign Enlistment'; and all and every the Clauses and Provisions in the said former Acts contained, shall be and the same are hereby repealed.

II. And be it further declared and enacted, That if any natural born Subject of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, without the Leave or Licence of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, for that Purpose first had and obtained, under the Sign Manual of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, or signified by Order in Council, or by Proclamation of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, shall take or accept, or shall agree to take or accept, any Military Commission, or shall otherwise enter into the Military Service as a Commissioned or Non Commissioned Officer, or shall enlist or enter himself to enlist, or shall agree to enlist or to enter himself to serve as a Soldier, or to be employed or shall serve in any Warlike or Military Operation, in the Service of or for or under or in aid of any Foreign Prince, State, Potentate, Colony, Province or Part of any Province or People, or of any Person or Persons exercising or assuming to exercise the Powers of Government in or over any Foreign Country, Colony, Province or Part of any Province or People, either as an Officer or Soldier, or in any other Military Capacity; or if any natural born Subject of His Majesty shall, without such Leave or Licence as aforesaid, accept, or agree to take or accept, any Commission, Warrant or Appointment as an Officer, or shall enlist or enter himself, or shall agree to enlist or enter himself, to serve as a Soldier or Marine, or to be employed or engaged, or shall serve in and on board any Ship or Vessel of War, or in and on board any Ship or Vessel armed or fitted out, or equipped or intended to be used for any Warlike Purpose, in the Service of or for or under or in aid of any Foreign Prince, State, Potentate, Colony, Province or Part of any Province or People, or of any Person or Persons exercising or assuming to exercise the Powers of Government in or over any Foreign Country, Colony, Province or Part of any Province or People; or if any natural born Subject of His Majesty shall, without such Leave or Licence as aforesaid, engage, consent or agree to go, or shall go to any Foreign State, Country, Colony, Province or Part of any Province, or to any Place beyond the Seas, with an intent or in order to enlist or enter himself to serve, or with intent to serve in any Warlike or Military Operation whatsoever, whether by Land or by Sea, in the Service of or for or under or in aid of any Foreign Prince, State, Potentate, Colony, Province or Part of any Province or People, or in the Service of or for or under or in aid of any Person or Persons exercising or assuming to exercise the Powers of Government in or over any Foreign Country, Colony, Province or Part of any Province or People, either as an Officer or a Soldier, or in any other Military Capacity, or as an Officer or Subaltern, or Marine, in any such Ship or Vessel as aforesaid, although no money or Pay or Reward shall have been or shall be in any or either of the Cases aforesaid actually paid to or received by him, or by any Person to or for his Use or Benefit; or if any Person whatsoever, within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or in any Part of His Majesty's Dominions elsewhere, or in any Country, Colony, Settlement, Island or Place belonging to or subject to His Majesty, shall hire, retain, engage or procure, or shall attempt or endeavour to hire, retain, engage or procure, any Person or Persons who shall or shall attempt or endeavour to enlist, or to enter or engage to enlist, or to serve in or to be employed in any such Service or Employment as aforesaid, as an Officer, Soldier, Subaltern or Marine, either in Land or Sea Service, for or under or in aid of any Foreign Prince, State, Potentate, Colony, Province or Part of any Province or People, or for or under or in aid of any Person or Persons exercising or assuming to exercise any Powers of Government as aforesaid, or to go or to agree to go or to embark from any Part of His Majesty's Dominions, for the purpose or with

VIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person in any Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or in any Part of His Majesty's Dominions beyond the Seas, without the Leave and Licence of His Majesty for that Purpose first had and obtained as aforesaid, shall, by adding to the Number of the Guns of such Vessel, or by changing those on board for other Guns, or by the Addition of any Equipment for War, increase or augment, or procure to be increased or augmented, or shall be knowingly concerned in increasing or augmenting the Warlike Force of any Ship or Vessel of War or Cruiser, or other armed Vessel, which at the time of her Arrival in any Part of the United Kingdom, or any of His Majesty's Dominions, was a Ship of War, Cruiser or Armed Vessel in the Service of any Foreign Prince, State or Potentate, or of any Person or Persons exercising or attempting to exercise any Powers of Government in or over any Colony, Province, or Part of any Province or People belonging to the Subjects of any such Prince, State or Potentate, or to the Inhabitants of any Colony, Province or Part of any Province or Country under the Control of any Person or Persons in exercising or attempting to exercise the Powers of Government, every such Person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanour, and shall, upon being convicted thereof, upon any Information or Indictment, be punished by Fine and Imprisonment, or either of them, at the Discretion of the Court before which such Offender shall be convicted.

IX. And be it further enacted, That Offences made punishable by the Provisions of this Act, committed out of the United Kingdom, may be prosecuted and tried in His Majesty's Court of King's Bench at Westminster, and the Venue in such Case laid at Westminster, in the County of Middlesex.

X. And be it further enacted, That any Fines or Penalties inflicted by this Act, may be prosecuted, paid for and recovered, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plein or Information, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster or Dublin, or in the Court of Exchequer, or in the Court of Session in Scotland, in the Name of His Majesty's Attorney General for England or Ireland, or His Majesty's Advocate for Scotland respectively, or in the Name of any Person or Persons whatsoever; whereas an Effray, Protection, Privilege, Wager of Law, nor more than One Imprehence shall be allowed; and in every Action or Suit the Person against whom Judgment shall be given for any Penalty or Forfeiture under this Act shall pay Double Costs of Suit; and every such Action or Suit shall and may be brought at any time within Twelve Months after the Offence committed, and not afterwards; and One Moiety of every Penalty to be recovered by virtue of this Act shall go and be applied to His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, and the other Moiety to the Use of such Person or Persons as shall first sue for the same, after deducting the Charges of Prosecution from the whole.

XI. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit shall be commenced, either in Great Britain or elsewhere, against any Person or Persons for any thing done in pursuance of this Act, all Rights and Regulations, Privileges and Protection, as to maintaining or defending any Suit or Action, and pleading therein, or any Costs thereof, in relation to any Act, Matter or Things done, or that may be done by any Officer of Customs or Excise, or by any Officer of His Majesty's Navy, under any Act of Parliament in force on or immediately before the passing of this Act, for the Protection of the Revenue of Customs and Excise, or Prevention of Smuggling, shall apply and be in full Force in any such Action or Suit as shall be brought for any thing done in pursuance of this Act, in as full and ample a manner to all Intents and Purposes as if the same Privileges and Protections were repeated and re-enacted in this Act.

XII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to subject to any Penalty any Person who shall enter into the Military Service of any Prince, State or Potentate in offa, with Leave or Licence, signified in the usual manner, from the Governor General in Council, or Vice President in Council, of Fort William in Bengal, or in conformity with any Orders or Regulations issued or sanctioned by such Governor General or Vice President in Council.

CAP. LXX.

An Act for raising a Loan of Twelve Millions from the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt.

[6th July 1819.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WHEREAS an Act passed in the Twenty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, entitled An Act for raising certain Sums in Commissioners at the End of every Quarter of a Year, to be by them applied to the Reduction of the National Debt: And Whereas the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies, have resolved, that the Sum of Twelve Millions be raised by Annuities in manner hereinafter mentioned: And Whereas the Commissioners under the said recited Act of the Twenty sixth Year should have agreed to subscribe the said Sum of Twelve Millions: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by Your Majesty's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all the Monies which have heretofore been issued, or are required or directed by any Act or Acts of Parliament to be issued to the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, shall continue to be issued and placed to the Account of the said Commissioners as heretofore.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall and they are hereby required, out of the Monies which shall be issued and earned to their Account after the passing of this Act, to order and direct their Agents or Agents, or proper Officers, to pay into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer on account of the said Loan of Twelve Millions, to be agreed to be subscribed and advanced by the said Commissioners, the Sum of Two millions four hundred thousand Pounds in each of the respective Quarters of the Year ending on the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, and the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty respectively, and the Sum of Three millions three hundred thousand Pounds in each of the respective Quarters of the Year ending on the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty, and the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty, in such Proportions, and in such parts in each of such respective Quarters as the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them for the time being, shall order and direct: Provided always, that no larger Sum in each Quarter than is before specified, and no further Sum in the whole than Twelve Millions shall be so paid and advanced by the said Commissioners.

III. And be it further enacted, That for every One hundred Pounds of the said Sum of Twelve Millions so paid, advanced and contributed by the said Commissioners as aforesaid, the Principal Sum of Sixty two Pounds Eighteen Shillings and Eight pence in Annuities after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum, to commence from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, and to be added to and made One Joint Stock with certain Annuities after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum, which were reduced from Four Pounds to Three Pounds per Centum by an Act made in the Twenty third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, and to be payable and transferable at the Bank of England in the same time and in the same manner, and subject to the like Redemption, as the said Three Pounds per Centum Reduced Annuities: and the further Principal Sum of Eighty Pounds in Annuities after the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum, to commence from the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, and to be added to and made One Joint Stock with the Three Pounds per Centum Annuities consolidated by the Acts of the Twenty fifth, Twenty eighth, Twenty ninth, Thirty first, and Thirty third Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, and by several subsequent Acts, and to be payable and transferable at the Bank of England in the same time and in the same manner, and subject to the like Redemption, as the said Three Pounds per Centum Consolidated Annuities: which said respective Annuities shall be made capital Stock in the Names of the said Commissioners; and the Dividends payable thereon shall be charged and stoppable upon, and payable out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or any other Duties and Revenues which shall be appropriated for that Purpose by any Act or Acts of this present Session of Parliament: and such Capital Stock and the Annuities arising therefrom shall be deemed Part of the Stock and Annuities applicable by the said Commissioners to the Purposes of the Sinking Fund, and Annual Sums shall be directed for the Redemption thereof, as a Sinking Fund, according to the Provisions of an Act, passed in the Thirty second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for raising certain Sums in Commissioners at the End of every Quarter of a Year, to be by them applied to the Reduction of the National Debt, and to direct the Application of an additional Sum in the Reduction of the said Debt in respect of future Loans; and of another Act, passed in the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to alter and amend several Acts passed in His present Majesty's Reign, relating to the Redemption of the National Debt, and for making further Provision in respect thereof.

IV. And be it further enacted, That upon each of the said Quarterly Payments heretofore directed being made into the Exchequer, by or on behalf of the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, the proper Officer of the Exchequer shall give a Receipt for the same, acknowledging the Sum therein mentioned to be received of the said Commissioners on account of their Contribution to the said Loan of Twelve Millions under and in pursuance of this Act: and when and so far as the Whole of the said Sum of Twelve Millions shall have been paid by or on behalf of the said Commissioners into the Receipt of the Exchequer, and such Receipts from time to time given for the same as aforesaid, all the said Receipts shall be taken to and deposited with the Accountant General of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, who thereupon shall enter and place to the Account of the said Commissioners in the Books of the said Governor and Company.

C A P. LXXII.

An Act to grant to His Majesty an additional Duty of Excise on Tobacco in Ireland.

[6th July 1819.]

• Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Parliament assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and grant unto Your Majesty the Duty of Excise on Tobacco hereafter mentioned, and do most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That within and through that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, there shall be raised, levied, collected, paid and substituted, unto and for the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, the Duty of Excise following: (that it may so be.)

In parts of Tobacco delivered out of Warehouses for Manufacture.

For and upon every Pound Weight of Tobacco which at any time or times, after the Fifteenth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and eleven, shall have been or shall be delivered out of any of His Majesty's Warehouses, or out of the Custody of any Officer or Officers of the Customs, for manufacture in Ireland, an Excise Duty of Three Shillings British Currency, and in proportion for any greater or lesser Quantity; and to be charged on and paid by the Dealer or Dealers to whom the same shall have been or shall be delivered for Manufacture;

In the case of former Duties.

Which said Excise Duty shall be in lieu and in full Satisfaction of all Duties of Excise granted on such Tobacco by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force in Ireland immediately before the said Fifteenth Day of June.

Countervailing Duties having been assessed on the paid on Tobacco and half of Manufacture of G. B. imported into Ireland.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said Fifteenth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and eleven, there shall be charged on all Tobacco and Snuff, the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of Great Britain, imported from thence into Ireland, the countervailing Duties following, in lieu and full Satisfaction of all countervailing Duties whatsoever payable upon such Tobacco or Snuff, under or by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force in Ireland, immediately before the said Fifteenth Day of June; (that it may so be.)

For and upon every Pound Weight Avordupois of unmanufactured Tobacco, the Growth or Produce of Great Britain, and of all British manufactured Tobacco, imported or brought into Ireland, the Sum of Four Shillings British Currency:

For and upon every Pound Weight Avordupois of British manufactured Rappes Snuff, the Sum of Three Shillings and Sixpence British Currency:

For and upon every Pound Weight Avordupois of British manufactured Snuff called Scotch Snuff, the Sum of Four Shillings and Nine pence British Currency:

For and upon every Pound Weight Avordupois of British manufactured Snuff called Brown Scotch Snuff, the Sum of Three Shillings and Four pence British Currency:

For and upon every Pound Weight of every other Sort or Kind of British manufactured Snuff, or Snuff Work, not hereinbefore enumerated or described, the Sum of Four Shillings and Nine pence British Currency.

Drawback on Exportation of Tobacco or
Snuff in G. B.

And that upon the Exportation from Ireland to Great Britain of any Tobacco or Snuff, the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of Ireland, there shall be allowed and given a Drawback equal in Amount to the countervailing Duty hereby granted on Tobacco and Snuff, the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of Great Britain respectively, and imported from thence into Ireland.

Duties of Revenue Drawbacks on Exportation to other Places
than G. B.
To and the every lb. of manufactured Tobacco.

III. And be it further enacted, That in lieu and instead of all former Drawbacks on Tobacco or Snuff manufactured in Ireland, and exported to any other Place than Great Britain, there shall be allowed on all Tobacco manufactured in Ireland which shall be so exported, as an increased Drawback or Compensation for the Duty by Law charged and paid on Import of the said Tobacco whereof it hath been manufactured, and for the Excise Duty charged thereon by Law, the Sum of Three Shillings and Two pence British Currency for every Pound Weight of such manufactured Tobacco; and which said Drawback or Allowance shall be paid by the Collector of inland Excise and Taxes of the District from which such Tobacco or Snuff shall be exported, out of any Money in his Hands, on such Conditions as the Collector, Comptroller, or other Chief Officer of the Port from whence the same shall be exported as is required by an Act made in the Twenty-fourth Year of His present Majesty's reign, intitled An Act to grant to His Majesty, and the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and eight, certain Duties on the Importation, and to allow certain Drawbacks on the Exportation, of certain Goods, Wares and Merchandises and from Ireland, in case of Drawbacks on the Exportation of Goods in respect of any internal Duty of Excise paid thereon.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the several Drawbacks in respect of Tobacco money, suffered in Ireland, and exported from thence to Great Britain or elsewhere, allowed or made payable under or by virtue of any Act or Acts in force in Ireland before the last Fifteenth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, shall remain and continue payable with respect to such Tobacco which shall have paid the Duties imposed on Tobacco imported into Ireland, or on Tobacco delivered for Manufacture in Ireland, by any Act or Acts in force in Ireland immediately before the last Fifteenth Day of June, and with respect to such manufactured from such Tobacco, and which Tobacco or Snuff shall after the said Fifteenth Day of June be exported from Ireland; and that the several and respective Drawbacks by this Act allowed and made payable, shall be paid and allowed only on the Exportation of such Tobacco, or Snuff manufactured therefrom, on which all Duties of Excise and Customs shall have been paid which shall be chargeable thereon by this Act, and by any Act for imposing Duties of Customs on Tobacco imported into Ireland, in force at the time of the passing of this Act: Provided always, that the several Drawback and Allowance by this Act made payable, shall not be paid or allowed on any Tobacco or Snuff to be exported, unless the Person who shall export such Tobacco or Snuff respectively shall make oath, that the additional or increased Duty on account of which such Drawback shall be required has been fully paid and satisfied, and that ails perform all such Requisites, and comply with such Regulations and Restrictions, as are or shall be required to be performed and observed by Persons exporting any Article whereon any Drawback or Bounty is payable for obtaining the same.

V. And be it further enacted, That every Excise Permit Officer who at any time after the said Tenth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, shall have granted any Excise Permit or Permits for the Removal of any Tobacco delivered out of any of His Majesty's Warehouses, or out of the Custody of any Officer or Officers of the Customs into the Stock of any Manufacturer or other Person, upon which Tobacco the Duty of Two Shillings and Two pence per Pound chargeable thereon by the several Acts in force immediately before the said Tenth Day of June shall have been paid, and on which the several Duties chargeable by this Act shall not have been paid, shall, on demand by any Surveyor or Gauger or other Officer requiring the same, grant a Certificate in Writing under the Hand of such Excise Permit Officer, specifying the Quantity of such Tobacco is removed into the Stock of such Manufacturer or other Person after the said Fifteenth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, under or by virtue of such Permit or Permits; and such Certificate of such Excise Permit Officer shall be conclusive Evidence against the Manufacturer or other Person, into whose Stock such Tobacco shall have been delivered under such Permit, whereby to charge such Manufacturer or Person with an additional Sum of Ten pence per Pound on such unmanufactured Tobacco, so that the Duty of Three Shillings on every Pound Weight of such Tobacco shall be fully paid according to the Intent and Meaning of this Act.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the said additional Sum of Ten pence per Pound Weight shall be payable on all unmanufactured Tobacco, for the Removal of which any such Permit shall have been obtained, and shall be a Charge on such Manufacturer or Manufacturers, or on the Person or Persons into the Stock of whom such Tobacco shall have been or ought to have been removed by virtue of such Permit; and the proper Officers of the Revenue shall, within One Calendar Month after the passing of this Act, make Returns in Writing to the Collectors or other Officers in charge of the Collection in their respective Districts, of the Amount of such additional Sum of Ten pence per Pound as shall have then become due and payable by virtue of this Act, and of the Persons chargeable therewith in such District respectively; and every such Return shall be a Charge on all such Manufacturers and other Persons; and such Sum shall be paid by such Manufacturers or other Persons to the Collector of Excise of the District within One Calendar Month after any such Return, or in default thereof all such Tobacco shall be forfeited, and may be seized; and every Manufacturer or Person who shall make default in the Payment of such Duty, shall for every such Default forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds, and Double the Amount of Duty with which such Person shall be charged as aforesaid.

VII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where the Amount of the said additional Sum of Ten pence per Pound Weight, or any Part thereof, shall be unpaid at the time when such Amount is by this Act made due and payable, it shall and may be lawful for the Collector of Excise of the District, or other Officer in charge of the Collection of the District, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to empower any Person or Persons to take and distress any Tobacco or any other Goods or Chattels in the Life, Custody or Possession of the Persons chargeable with such Amount, and to cause the same to be sold by public Auction; and if, after Payment of the whole of such Amount, together with the Costs and Expenses of such taking, distraining and Sale, there shall be any Surplus arising from the Sale thereof, such Surplus shall forthwith be tendered and paid to such Person, or his or her respective Representatives.

VIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Person who shall be charged with and liable to the Whole of the Duties of Excise on Tobacco imported by this Act, shall at any time after the said Fifteenth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, have sold or consigned to sell any such Tobacco, without charging the Buyer thereof with the Whole of such imported Duty, then and in every such Case the Seller of such Tobacco shall be allowed to add, and shall be entitled to recover from the Buyer thereof, and the Buyer of such Tobacco shall pay to the Seller thereof, so much Money as will be equivalent to such Duty on such Tobacco which have been charged with and liable to for such Tobacco, over and above the Duty of Customs and Excise payable on such Tobacco before the last Fifteenth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and nineteen.

Drawbacks on Tobacco and Snuff exported before June 15, 1819, to continue, the new Drawbacks being payable on such as shall have paid the Duties formerly imposed.

Regulations for obtaining Drawbacks.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the several Duties and Drawbacks by this Act granted, allowed and made payable, and all Penalties under this Act, shall be paid and payable according to the Amount thereof in British Currency; and that the said Duties, the necessary Charges of paying and collecting the same being deducted, shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and that the said Duties and Drawbacks, and all Penalties and Forfeitures under this Act, shall be raised, levied, collected, paid, allowed, used for, recovered and applied, in such Manner and under such Powers and Authorities, and by such Ways and Methods, and according to such Rules and Directions, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, as are appointed, directed and expressed for the raising, collecting, paying, levying, allowing and managing any Duties and Drawbacks, or for the recovering of any Penalties or Forfeitures, as by an Act made in Ireland in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of His late Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled An Act for settling the Right or true Import upon His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, according to the Best of Rates therein expressed, or as and by an Act made in the Forty-sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to provide for the better Execution of the several Acts relating to the Revenue, Manners and Things under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties, and of the Commissioners of Island Right and Taxes in Ireland, or in and by any other Act or Acts in force in Ireland relating to the Revenue of Customs and Excise, or either of them, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same were herein expressed and enacted, with the like Remedy of Appeal to and for the Party or Parties aggrieved as in and by the said recited Act of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of His late Majesty King Charles the Second, or any other Act or Acts as aforesaid, is provided; and that all and every Act and Acts in force in Ireland relating to the Duties of Excise on Tobacco, and all Powers, Rules and Regulations, Penalties, Clauses, Matters and Things therein contained, shall extend and be continued to extend to the raising, levying and collecting the Duty by this Act granted on Tobacco, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if the same were repeated and re-enacted in this Act.

X. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be amended, altered or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

C A P. LXXIII.

An Act to repeal several Acts, requiring the Masters of Vessels carrying Certificate Goods to Ireland to take Duplicates of the Consens; prohibiting the Importation of certain wrought Goods, and the Exportation of Gunpowder when the Price shall exceed a certain Sum.

[6th July 1819.]

8 Edw. 6. 13.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Eighth Year of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Anne, intituled An Act for continuing several Impositions, additional Impositions and Duties upon Goods imported, to raise Money by way of Loan, for the Service of the Year One thousand seven hundred and ten; and for raising of the One-penny Duty on Casks exported to British Bottoms; and for better preventing Frauds in Drivendials upon Certificate Goods; and for ascertaining the Duties of Customs imported in Vessels Ships; and to give further time to Foreign Merchants for Exportation of certain Foreign Goods imported; and to limit a time for Prosecutions upon certain Bonds given by Merchants; and for continuing certain Fees of the Officers of the Customs; and to prevent Intermixtures by such Officers; and for appropriating the Moneys granted in Her Majesty's and for replacing Money paid or to be paid for making good any Deficiencies in the Auxiliary Acts; and for Encouragement in re-issuing Naval Stores in Her Majesty's Plantations; and to give further time for registering Debentures as is therein mentioned; it is enacted, that the Master of every Ship carrying such Certificate Goods to Ireland shall demand and take from the Collector of every respective Port of Great Britain, a Duplicate of his Consent in Writing, certified under the Hand and Seal of the Collector and Comptroller of such Port (which said Duplicate the Collector and Comptroller of such Port in Great Britain are hereby required to deliver to every Master without Fee or Reward), and such Master shall be obliged to deliver such Duplicate to the Officers of the Customs in Ireland on his Arrival, before he is permitted to land such Goods there: And Whereas, in all Cases of Exportation of Certificate Goods from one Country to the other, Certificates of the due landing of such Goods in England and Ireland respectively are now required by Law, and the Duplicate Consent required by the above recited Act is become obsolete, and operates as an Inconvenience to the Trade between England and Ireland, and it is therefore expedient no longer to require such Duplicate Consent; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said recited Act as requires the Master of every Ship carrying Certificate Goods to Ireland to demand and take from the Collector of every respective Port in Great Britain a Duplicate of his Consent in Writing, certified under the Hand and Seal of the Collector and Comptroller of such Port in Great Britain, to deliver such Duplicate to the Officers of the Customs in Ireland on his Arrival, before he is permitted to land such Goods there, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

15 C. 1. c. 10.

II. And Whereas it appears no longer necessary or proper to continue the Prohibition on the Importation of certain Articles contained in an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, intituled An Act touching diverse foreign Wares made by Handicraftsmen beyond the Seas (which Act was to continue and endure to the End of the then next Parliament, and by several subsequent Acts was continued, and by an Act passed in the Sixteenth Year of the Reign of King Charles the First, intituled An Act for the further Relief of His Majesty's Army, and the Northern Parts of the Kingdom, was further continued) and for other Acts of Parliament should be made touching the Continuance or Discontinuance thereof: And Whereas

It is expedient that the said Act should be repealed; Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, the said first recited Act, and every thing therein contained, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

III. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King Charles the Second, intitled An Act, granted to the King, of Tonnage and Pinnage, and other Sums of Money payable upon Merchandise exported and imported; it is enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons to ship, carry out and transport, by way of Merchandise, Gunpowder, when the same shall not exceed the Price of Five Pounds per Barrel, paying a certain Rate appointed by the said Act: And Whereas it is expedient to allow the Shipping, carrying out and transporting Gunpowder, although the Price may exceed Five Pounds per Barrel: Be it therefore enacted, That so much of the said recited Act as prohibits the Shipping, carrying out and transporting Gunpowder, when the Price of the same shall exceed Five Pounds per Barrel, shall be and the same is hereby repealed: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend or repeal, or in anywise abridge so much of the said recited Act as authorizes His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force relating to the Exportation of Gunpowder.

CAP. LXXIV.

An Act to allow the Importation of Tobacco from the East India and other Places; and for continuing the Exportation of Tobacco from Great Britain, and the Importation thereof into Ireland, to the Value of Seventy Tons British and upwards.

[6th July 1819.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Twentieth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for extending the Duties on Tobacco and Snuff, and for granting new Duties in lieu thereof; it is enacted, that no Tobacco whenever shall be imported or brought into Great Britain from any Port or Place whatever, either from some Port or Place within His Majesty's Colonies, Plantations, Islands or Towns in America, or from some Port or Place within the United States of America, (although the same shall have been legally imported into and exported from Great Britain, and returned for want of Sale or otherwise), upon pain of Forfeiture thereof, together with the Hogsheads, Casks, Chests, Cases and Packages respectively containing the same, and also the Ship or Vessel in or on board which the same shall be imported or brought, together with her Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle and Apparel; and such Tobacco, Hogsheads, Casks, Chests, Cases and Packages respectively, and also such Ship or Vessel, with her Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle and Apparel, shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise: And Whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to repeal the Duties of Customs payable on Goods, Wares and Merchandise imported into Great Britain from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to The United Company of Merchants trading to The East India; and in grant other Duties in lieu thereof; and in giving further Regulation for the better Security of the Revenue on Goods so imported; and in alter the Periods of making up and paying, by certain Accounts of the said Company to Parliament; in certain in force until the Tenth Day of April the next ensuing right hundred and nineteen; and by Table (B) annexed to the said Act, a Duty of Customs is payable on Tobacco imported into Great Britain from some Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East India, either by the said United Company or by Persons authorized by it to trade: And Whereas it is provided by the said Act, that nothing in that Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to permit or allow any Goods, Wares or Merchandise whatever to be imported into or exported from Great Britain, in any Way or Manner contrary to any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the Tenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, except in any Case where Provision is expressly made for that Purpose by that Act; or by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intitled An Act for continuing to the East India Company for a further Term the Privileges of the British Territories in India, together with certain exclusive Privileges; for establishing further Regulations for the Government of the said Territories, and the better Administration of Justice within the same; and for regulating the Trade to and from the Place within the Limits of the said Company's Charter: And Whereas it is expedient to allow the Importation of unmanufactured Tobacco from Places within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East India: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That Tobacco may be imported from any Port or Place within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East India, in any Ship's Ship or Vessel wrecked, registered and originated according to Law, any thing in the aforesaid Act passed in the Twentieth Year of His Majesty's Reign to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that such Tobacco shall not be imported or brought into Great Britain in any Cask, Chest, Case or other Package which shall not contain at the least One hundred Pounds Weight Net of Tobacco, not packed in Bags or Packages within any such Cask, Chest, Case or other Package, nor separated or divided within any such Cask, Chest or Case, or in any manner whatever, or part of, including all such Tobacco, with the Casks, Chests, Cases and other Packages containing the same, and also the Ship, Vessel or Boat in which the same shall be so imported or brought, with her Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle and Apparel; and such Tobacco, Casks, Chests, Cases and other Packages, and also such Ship, Vessel or Boat, Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle and Apparel, shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise: Provided always, that such Tobacco shall be subject and liable to all the Provisions of the Acts now in force regulating the Recovery and Application of Penalties.

111. And Whereas it is expedient to permit the Importation of Tobacco from the Place of its Growth, wherever that may be: Be it therefore further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons to import unmanufactured Tobacco from any Place whatsoever, being the Place of its Growth, in any British Ship or Vessel owned, registered and assigned according to Law, or in any Ship or Vessel of the Tonnage of the Country or Place of which such Tobacco is the Growth, and whereof the Master and Three Fourths of the Mariners at least are of the said Country or Place, or in Vessels which shall have been lawfully condemned as Prizes in such Country or Place, and which shall be assigned as aforesaid, any thing in the aforesaid Act passed in the Twenty sixth Year of His said Majesty's Reign to the contrary notwithstanding; but his Majesty's orders in Council to all the Rules, Regulations, Provisions, Penalties and Forfeitures of the said Act, in so far as the same are applicable thereto, and not repugnant to the before mentioned Provision with respect to Tobacco imported from Ports or Places within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies.

112. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Twenty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for regulating the Duties on Tobacco and Snuff, and for granting new Duties on tea thereof, it is enacted that no Tobacco, either manufactured or unmanufactured, shall be entered or shipped for Exportation to any Parts beyond the Seas, Ireland excepted, in any Ship or Vessel whatever, unless such Ship or Vessel shall be of the Burthen of Seventy Tons or upwards: And Whereas it is expedient to limit the Exportation of Tobacco to Ireland in Vessels of the Burthen of Seventy Tons or upwards in like manner: Be it therefore enacted, That no Tobacco, either manufactured or unmanufactured, shall be entered or shipped for Exportation to that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, in any Ship or Vessel whatever, unless such Ship or Vessel shall be of the Burthen of Seventy Tons or upwards; and if the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of any Ship or Vessel outward bound on that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, having Tobacco on or on board her, shall enter and clear out such Ship or Vessel at the Custom House as of the Burthen of Seventy Tons or upwards, and such Ship or Vessel shall not be of so great Burthen as Seventy Tons, according to the Rule for Admeasurement prescribed by Law, such Master or other Person shall forfeit and lose the Sum of One hundred Pounds for every such Offence.

113. And be it further enacted, That no Tobacco, either manufactured or unmanufactured, shall be imported into that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland from that Part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain in any Ship or Vessel whatever, unless such Ship or Vessel shall be of the Burthen of Seventy Tons or upwards; and if the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of any Ship or Vessel which shall import any Tobacco into that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland from that Part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain shall enter such Ship or Vessel at the Custom House as of the Burthen of Seventy Tons or upwards, and such Ship or Vessel shall not be of so great Burthen as Seventy Tons, according to the Rule for Admeasurement prescribed by Law, such Master or other Person shall forfeit and lose the Sum of One hundred Pounds for every such Offence.

114. And be it further enacted, That such Penalties shall be used for, recovered, levied or assigned by such Ways, Means or Methods as any Penalty may be used for, recovered, levied or assigned by any Law or Laws now in force, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plea or Information in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster or Dublin, or in the Courts of Exchequer in Ireland respectively; and that One Moiety of every such Penalty shall be to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them who shall inform, discover or sue for the same.

And that it shall and may be lawful for Each Commissioners to appoint and employ Such Secretary, Clerks, Messengers and Officers, not exceeding in the whole One Secretary, Five Clerks, Five Messengers and Two other Officers, as they shall think meet, in such manner and under such Regulations as are contained in the said recited A. 2, except as the same is altered by this A. 3, and that no Remuneration shall be given for and in respect of the Execution of the said recited A. 2 and this A. 3, in favour of the Commissioners to be appointed under this A. 3 shall be Members of either House of Parliament, nor to any Member exceeding Ten of the other Commissioners to be appointed under this A. 3; and that it shall and may be lawful for Ten of such last mentioned Commissioners to receive Remuneration, any thing in the said recited A. 2 to the contrary notwithstanding; and that the Commissioners to be appointed under this A. 3, or any Five or more of them, shall, once in each Half Year during the Continuance of their Commission, make such Report and Certificate to His Majesty, of their Proceedings under the said recited A. 2 and this A. 3, as by the said recited A. 2 is required to be made of the Proceedings of the Commissioners under that A. 2, by such Commissioners or any Three of them.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall not be obliged to make any Report or Reports of their Proceedings to the Two Houses of either A. 2 contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

III. And be it further enacted, That in case of the Religion of any such Commissioners, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to be appointed under this A. 3, or any Five or more of them, to nominate and appoint such Person or Persons as he or they may think proper, for the supplying of such Vacancy or Vacancies.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer or for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the time being, or any Three of them, and he or they it and are hereby authorized and required, from time to time to issue and make to be paid out of the Consolidated Fund of the said United Kingdom, any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Ten thousand Pounds in any one Year, for the Payment of Salaries to any Member of the said recited A. 2, not exceeding Ten of the Commissioners appointed to be appointed under the Authority of the said recited A. 2 and this A. 3 respectively, and who shall not be Members of either House of Parliament; and that out of the said Sum not exceeding Ten thousand Pounds to be issued as aforesaid, a Salary at the Rate of One thousand Pounds a Year shall be payable and paid to each of such Ten Commissioners, the same to be payable and paid Half yearly, free and clear from all Taxes and Deductions whatsoever, on the Tenth Day of October and the Fifth Day of April in each Year, by even and equal Portions, and that in case of the Religion or Death of any One or more of the said Commissioners, the Commissioners be resigning, or the Executors or Administrators of such Commissioners be dying, shall be entitled to such proportional Part of such clear Salary as shall have accrued during the time that such Commissioner shall have executed his said Office; and it shall and may be lawful for the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three of them, and he and they it and are hereby authorized and empowered, in like manner to issue and make to be paid out of the said Consolidated Fund any further Sums of Money not exceeding the Sum of Eight thousand Pounds in any one Year, to be employed for the Payment of the travelling Expenses of any of the Commissioners to be appointed under this A. 3, and of the Secretary, Clerks, Messengers and Officers of the said Commissioners, and in the paying other necessary Charges in and about the Execution of the said recited A. 2 and this A. 3, in such manner and under such Regulations as is directed by the said recited A. 2 with respect to the Sum of Four thousand Pounds in the said A. 2 mentioned.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners to be appointed under the Authority of this A. 3, and they are hereby authorized, empowered and required, to examine into and to investigate the Amount, Nature and Application of all Estates and Funds of what Nature or Kind soever, and the Produce thereof, advanced or intended to be applied either to the Purposes in the said recited A. 2 mentioned, or to the Support of any Charity or Charities, or charitable Donations or Bequests, for the Benefit of poor Persons in England and Wales, or held under Trusts created for any charitable Uses or Purposes whatever in England or Wales (except as is hereinafter provided and excepted), and to examine into and to investigate all Branches of Trick, Impropriation, Penury, Abuse, or supposed Abuse or Misconduct, in relation to and in the Management or Appropriation, or Misappropriation or Misapplication of such Estates and Funds, in like manner and with the like Powers, and under the like Regulations and Restrictions in all respects, as are mentioned and contained in the said recited A. 2 with respect to the Charities mentioned in the said recited A. 2, except only in far as the same are expressly repealed or altered, or otherwise provided for by this A. 3.

VI. And be it further enacted, That no Petition or Information preferred, filed or proffered under this A. 3, nor any Answer thereto, nor any Depositions, Interrogatories, Affidavits or Proceedings, nor any Order or Decree upon the same or in relation thereto, nor any Capion of any such Petition, Information, Answer, Depositions, Interrogatories, Affidavits, Order or Decree, nor of any other Proceedings whatsoever under this A. 3, shall be subject or liable to the Payment of any Stamp Duty whatever; and that whenever any Copy of any Will relating to any Charity, or any Extract from any such Will, shall be required for the Purposes of this A. 3, by any Order signed by the said Commissioners under this A. 3, or any Two of them, from the Office of the Prerogative Court of the Archbishop of Canterbury in Diocesan Courts, or from any other Office where such Will shall have been proved; or whenever any Copy or Extract of any Deed or Deeds shall be so required by such Commissioners from any Person or Persons, such Copy or Extract shall not be subject subject or liable to the Payment of any Stamp Duty whatever; any Law, Statute or Usage to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

VII. Provided always, And be it enacted, That this Act or any of the Provisions therein contained shall not extend or be construed to extend to either of the Universities of Oxford or Cambridge, nor to any College or Hall within the same; nor to any Schools or other Endowments of which the said Universities, Colleges or Halls, are Trustees; nor to the Colleges of Windsor, Eton or Windsor; nor to the Chapel Royal; nor to the Schools of Merton or Bailey, or any of them; nor to any Cathedral or Collegiate Church within England or Wales; nor to the Corporation of the Trinity House of Dymond Street; nor to any College, Free School, or other charitable Institution or Foundation or Charity whatever, which has Special Visitors, Governors or Overseers, appointed by the Founders; nor to any Funds applicable to the Benefit of any Persons of the Jewish Persuasion, or of the People called Quakers, or of Persons of the Roman Catholic Persuasion, and which shall become the Superintendence and Control of Persons of such Persuasion respectively: Provided always, that the said Commissioners shall report the Names of all such Charities aforesaid to have Special Visitors, Governors or Overseers appointed, to His Majesty, and both Houses of Parliament.

VIII. Provided also, And be it enacted, That this Act or any of the Provisions therein contained shall not extend or be construed to extend to any Institution, Establishment or Society for Charitable Purposes, wholly or principally maintained by voluntary Contributions, and under the Superintendence and Control of any Committee or Governors, or other Persons or Persons chosen or appointed out of or by voluntary Subscribers thereto; and that the Application of any Donations or Bequests to the general Purposes of any such Institution, Establishment or Society, in and of such voluntary Contributions, shall not be subject to the Examination or Interference of the Commissioners appointed under this Act: Provided always, that the Management and Application of the Revenues and Profits of any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments belonging to such Institution, Establishment or Society, for the Period of Twenty Years or upwards before the passing of this Act, shall in all such Cases be subject to the Examination of the said Commissioners at their Discretion.

IX. Provided also, And be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall alter, annul, infringe or impugn any Act, Matter or Thing whatsoever, which at any time before the passing of this Act, hath been done or performed, or which after the passing of this Act and before the Appointment of Commissioners under the Authority of this Act, shall or may be done or performed by any Commissioners appointed under the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament, or by their Secretary, Clerks, Officers or Servants, or by any Person or Persons under the Orders of the said Commissioners, or any of them, in the Execution of the Powers of the said recited Act; but that all such Acts, Matters and Things shall be as good, valid and effectual, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if this Act had never been passed or made; any thing in this Act to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

X. And be it further enacted, That the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament, in far as the same is not expressly altered or repealed by this Act, shall remain in force; and that the said recited Act and this Act shall be construed together as one Act, in far as the same are compatible and consistent with each other, and as if the Clauses and Provisions in this Act contained had been inserted in the said recited Act of the Fifty eighth Year aforesaid, and had made Part thereof.

XI. And be it further enacted, That any Affidavits or Facts which shall be brought against any Commissioners appointed or to be appointed under the Authority of the said recited Act or this Act, or against any Person or Persons acting under the Authority or by the Order of such Commissioners, or any of them, for any thing done or acted by him or them under the said recited Act or this Act, shall be commenced within Six Calendar Months next after the Fact consisted (in respect of which such Affidavits or Facts shall be brought or commenced) and not afterwards; and the Defendant or Defendants in every such Affidavits or Facts may plead the General Issue, and give the said recited Act and this Act, and the Special Matter in Evidence, at any Trial to be had thereupon; and if such Affidavits or Facts shall be brought or commenced after the time is limited for bringing the same, then the Jury shall find a Verdict for the Defendant or Defendants; and in such Cases, or if the Jury shall find a Verdict for the Defendant or Defendants upon the Merits, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become nonsuit, or discontinue his or their Affidavits after Appearance, or if upon Demurrer Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall have Treble Costs, which he or they shall and may recover in such suit the same manner as any Defendant can by Law in other Cases.

XII. And be it further enacted, That the said recited Act and this Act shall continue in force until the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, and from thence until the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be amended, altered or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

“ may lawfully effectuating the Purposes of the said A.B. : Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties, or any Three of them, and they are hereby authorised and empowered, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, or under the Hands and Seals of any Three of them, to order and direct any Person or Persons whom they shall appoint for that Purpose, to close and stop up any Street, Road, Lane, Court or Alley, or any Part thereof, contained wholly or passing through any Ground or Premises purchased or to be purchased by the said Commissioners, for the Purposes in the said A.B. mentioned; provided always, that the said Commissioners, or any Three of them, shall give Ten Days previous public Notice in the Public Gazette, and in any One of the Newspapers published in Dublin, of their Intention to stop or close up any such Street, Road, Lane, Court or Alley, or any Part thereof; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, or any Three of them, and they are hereby authorised and empowered, to serve such Warrant or Warrants from time to time, as Occasion may require.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or any Three of them, and they are hereby authorised and empowered, from time to time, by and with the Consent and Approbation of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, to contract or agree with the Owner or Owners, Proprietor or Proprietors, of any House or Houses, Building or Buildings, or Parcel or Parcels or Plot or Plots of Grounds and Premises, or with the immediate Lessor or Lessors of any such House, Building or Ground, or with any Body or Bodies Corporate, Sole or Aggregate, or with the Guardian or Guardians, Trustee or Trustees, Committee or Committees of any College, Trade, Infants, Illus unborn, Femes Covert, Minors or Legacies, for Compensation to be made for any Damage or Loss that such Owner or Owners, Proprietor or Proprietors, Lessor or Lessors, Body or Bodies Corporate, Sole or Aggregate, College Trade, Infants, Illus unborn, Femes Covert, Minors or Legacies, shall or may appear, on the Proof, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, or any Three of them, to have sustained, or be likely to sustain, for or by reason of the stopping up, altering or changing any Street or Streets, Road or Roads, Lane or Alleys, within or leading through any Premises purchased or to be purchased by the said Commissioners, for the Purposes in the said A.B. mentioned; and such Agreement shall be sufficient in Law, and binding to all Intents and Purposes; and such Trustee or Trustees, Guardian or Guardians, or Committee or Committees, shall be and are hereby authorised effectually to release the said Commissioners, their Heirs and Successors, from all such Loss and Damages; and that it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or any Three of them, by and with such Consent and Approbation as aforesaid, to pay to such Person or Persons so affected such Sum and Sum of Money as the said Commissioners, or any Three of them, shall think reasonable for such Damages so aforesaid, out of any Money in their Hands arising from the Duties of Customs payable in Ireland.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall the said Commissioners, or any Three of them, contract agree with such Owner or Owners, Proprietor or Proprietors, Lessor or Lessors, Body or Bodies Corporate, Sole or Aggregate, or the Guardian or Guardians, Trustee or Trustees, Committee or Committees of any College Trade, Infants, Illus unborn, Femes Covert, Minors or Legacies or any of them, as to the Amount of such Sum or Sums to be paid as Compensation for such Damage as aforesaid, that then and in every such Case it shall and may be lawful to and for every such Person or Persons who shall think him, her or themselves aggrieved or injured by the stopping any such Street, Road, Lane, Court or Alley so aforesaid, or any Part thereof, to lay their Claim for Compensation or Account of the same by Petition before the said Commissioners; and the said Commissioners, or any Three of them, are hereby authorised and required to make the Amount of such Compensation for such Damage or Injury to be complained of, to be ascertained by a Jury or Juries before the said Commissioners, or any Three of them, in like manner, and with all and every the like Powers to them in that behalf, as by the said recited A.B. they are authorised to use and exercise with respect to the Valuation and Purchase of the Right, Title and Interest of any Person or Persons in and to Grounds, Houses and Buildings, by the said Act directed to be valued and ascertained; and the said Commissioners, or any Three of them, are hereby authorised and required to pay all such Damages as shall be so awarded, and such other Sums and Sums of Money as shall be found necessary for the Purposes of the said A.B. out of any Money in their Hands arising from the Duties of Customs payable in Ireland.

IV. And Whereas the said Commissioners of Customs, in pursuance of the said recited A.B. and for the Purpose of carrying the same into Effect, have heretofore, by themselves or by Persons acting under their Authority, stopped up, altered or changed certain Streets, Ways, Passages or Roads through the said Premises, for the purpose of forwarding and expediting the Public Works, and which was absolutely unavoidable and necessary to the Purposes of the said Act; and therefore the said Commissioners, and those acting by their Authority and under them, ought to be indemnified for having so done, under the Conditions and Provision heretofore mentioned : Be it therefore enacted, That all Actions or Suits, either at Law or in Equity, and all Indemnities, Informations, and all Proceedings and Proceedings whatsoever, which have been or shall be commenced or prosecuted against any Person or Persons (for or by reason of such Person or Persons having heretofore stopped up, altered or changed, or caused to be stopped up, altered or changed, any Street, Road, Lane, Court, Alley or Passage, within or through the said Premises to be purchased or leading through the same or any Part thereof, or for or by reason of any other Act, Matter or Thing commenced, appointed or done in relation to the Premises, shall be and the same are hereby made void and of no effect; and the Courts in which respectively such Actions or Suits, or Suits or Proceedings, have been or shall be commenced, are hereby authorised and required, on Application made to such Courts for the Purpose in a Summary Way, and it appearing to such Courts by Affidavit or the Admission of the Parties, that the said

Actions,

Actions, Suits, Indemnities or Proceedings were commenced or prosecuted for the purposes heretofore mentioned, to order that all such Actions, Suits, Indemnities or Proceedings shall cease and be stayed, and the said Commissioners and all and every such Parties or Persons shall be and they, and he are and is lawfully for ever acquitted, discharged and indemnified, of, from and against all such Actions, Suits, Indemnities and Proceedings accordingly.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons who shall have commenced or proceeded on any such Action, Suit or Indemnity, or taken such Proceedings, to prefer his, her or their Petition to the said Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties, in manner heretofore directed with respect to Persons claiming Compensation for Damages, thereby claiming Compensation for such Damages as he or they may receive themselves entitled to, including such Costs as may have been recovered in any Action, Suit, Indemnity or Proceeding, which may have been taken by him or them as aforesaid, and to have and receive such Compensation for such Damages, Loss and Costs as the said Commissioners shall deem reasonable, and which shall be agreed upon between them and the Party or Parties so claiming Compensation as aforesaid; and in case no such Agreement can be made, then it shall be lawful for such Person or Persons to have and receive such Compensation for such Damages, Loss and Costs, as may be awarded by a Jury, to whom the said Commissioners are hereby authorized and required to refer the same, in like manner and according to the several Powers, Provisions and Regulations in the said recited Act and this Act contained, and which Compensation the said Commissioners are hereby authorized to make and pay as aforesaid.

Persons having commenced such Suits, may apply for Compensation to Commissioners, or in default of agreeing with them, to a Jury.

C A P. LXXXIII.

An Act to grant Duties of Customs and to allow Drawbacks on certain Goods, Wares and Merchandise imported into and exported from Ireland, in lieu of former Duties and Drawbacks on the like Articles; and to make further Regulations for securing the Duties of Customs in Ireland. [7th July 1819.]

“ Most Gracious Sovereign,

W^{HE}, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Parliament assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies granted to Your Majesty, and for the Support of Your Majesty's Government, do most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and eleven, there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid unto and for the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, an ready Money (except as hereinafter is provided), without any Discount whatever, upon the Importation into Ireland of the several Goods, Wares and Merchandise mentioned and set forth in the Schedule to this Act annexed, the several Duties of Customs is referred, described and set forth in Figures in the said Schedule, according to the respective Amounts of the said Duties: and that on the Exportation of the said Goods, Wares and Merchandise from Ireland (except to Great Britain), there shall also be paid and allowed the several Drawbacks in respect of the said Duties of Importation, as the same are also respectively referred, specified and set forth in the said Schedule; and that the said Duties and Drawbacks shall be in full and full Satisfaction of all Duties and Drawbacks payable in Ireland upon the Importation or Exportation of Goods, Wares and Merchandise of the like Sorts, under or by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force in Ireland immediately before the passing of this Act: Provided always, that such of the Duties in the said Schedule mentioned, as are imposed on certain Articles which shall be imported after certain Days mentioned in the said Schedule, shall be payable from and after such Days respectively, and not before.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Duties granted, mentioned and set forth in this Act, and the Schedule thereto annexed, shall be charged and payable on all such Goods, Wares and Merchandise therein mentioned as having been imported into Ireland, shall have been or shall be warehoused, or shall have been secured without the Duties due on the Importation thereof having been fully paid, and as shall remain or shall have remained so warehoused or secured on or after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and eleven, or on or after any Day on which any such Duties shall become payable in pursuance or by Authority of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force for this Purpose, although such Goods, Wares or Merchandise may have been imported before the said Days respectively: Provided always, that such Duties shall not be charged or payable on any such Goods, Wares or Merchandise, until the time when the Duties, which such Goods, Wares or Merchandise shall have been subject to before the said Days respectively, would have been payable by Law.

III. Provided also, and be it enacted, That in all Cases where the Whole or any Part of the Duties on the Importation into Ireland of any of the Goods, Wares and Merchandise specified in the said Schedule to this Act annexed, are or shall be permitted to be secured by Bond or otherwise, by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force in Ireland at the time of such Importation, the Duties by this Act and the said Schedule granted or imposed on such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, may in like manner, and under the same Rules, Regulations, Restrictions and Conditions, be permitted to be secured by Bond or otherwise.

IV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and eleven, and until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, the Sum of Two Millions and Four pence British Currency, Part of the Duty of Eight Shillings and Seven pence British Currency payable at the time of the passing of this Act, on every Hundred Pounds Weight of Cotton Wool, being the Produce of and imported directly from any British Colony or Plantations in America, shall be and the into twelve hundredths; and that from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, until and upon the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-two, the Sum of Six Shillings and Three pence British Currency, and no more, shall be paid on every One hundred Pounds Weight of such Cotton Wool imported into Ireland; and in case the Importer or Proprietor of any Cotton Wool or Waste of Cotton Wool, the Producer of any British Colony or Plantation in America, not being imported directly from thence, or of any Cotton Wool or Waste of Cotton Wool, the Producer of any other Country or Place, which shall have been landed in Warehouses at any time on or before the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty, shall be defrauded of taking any such Cotton Wool or Waste of Cotton Wool out of such Warehouses, after the said Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty, for the purpose of being sold or consumed in Ireland, then and in such Case the Duties imposed by this Act, and the Schedule thereto annexed, on such Cotton Wool or Waste of Cotton Wool imported after the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty, according to the Value thereof, shall be payable and paid on such Cotton Wool or Waste of Cotton Wool to take out of Warehouses, notwithstanding such Cotton Wool or Waste of Cotton Wool may have been imported and warehoused on or before the said Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of the Customs and Port Duties in Ireland, by and with the Consent and Approbation of the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three of them, upon Proof to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners of the Customs and Port Duties that Orders were given for the Purchase of any Sheeps Wool or Lambs Wool at any time before the passing of this Act, and that such Sheeps Wool or Lambs Wool shall be imported into Ireland at any time after the passing of the Act, to admit such Sheeps Wool or Lambs Wool to Entry, upon Payment of the Duty of One Penny per Pound only; and that such Sheeps Wool or Lambs Wool is imported, in pursuance of any such Orders, shall be subject and liable to the said Duty of One Penny per Pound, and no more, on Importation into Ireland; any thing in this Act, or the Tables therein annexed, to the contrary notwithstanding.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the Payment of the several Duties of Customs imposed by any Act or Acts in force in Ireland immediately before the passing of this Act, on the Importation into Ireland of Trade Oil, Spermaceti Oil, Head Matter and Whale Fin, the Produce of Fish or Crustacea living in the Sea, taken and caught on the Banks and Shores of the Island of Newfoundland, and Pores adjacent, wholly by His Majesty's Subjects carrying on such Fishery from that Island; and also the Duties payable under any such Act or Acts on Crabs, Lobsters, Fox Skins, Otter Skins, Wolf Skins, Bear Skins, Car Skins, Beaver Skins, and on Timber being the Produce of Newfoundland, and imported directly from thence, shall be and the same are hereby suspended, and the said Duties shall not be charged or payable on any such Articles from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-four inclusive; and also, that all Duties payable upon Goods, Wares and Merchandise, exported from Ireland to the said Island of Newfoundland, under an Act made in the Fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for granting Duties of Customs on the Exportation of certain Goods, Wares and Merchandise from Ireland, shall be and the same are hereby in like manner suspended, and shall not respectively be charged or payable, until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-four inclusive; any thing in the said Acts, or any of them, or in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that such Goods, Wares and Merchandise shall be duly covered and headed, and shall be subject in every respect to all the Regulations required by Law; and that the several Duties hereby suspended, shall revive and become payable, from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-four, in such and the like manner as if the said Suspension of Duty had not taken place.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the Drawbacks granted, allowed and made payable upon or in respect of any of the Goods, Wares and Merchandise mentioned and specified in the Schedule to this Act annexed, or any of them, shall be and by virtue of any Act or Acts in force immediately before the passing of this Act, shall remain and continue payable with respect to such Goods, Wares and Merchandise as shall have paid the Duties imposed on the Importation thereof under such Acts respectively, and as shall be exported from Ireland at any time after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen; and that the several and respective Drawbacks granted, allowed and made payable by or under this Act, or the Schedule thereto annexed, or any of them, shall be paid and allowed only on the Exportation of such Articles as shall have paid the several and respective Duties imposed thereon by the said Acts, and the Schedule thereto annexed.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all the Duties and Drawbacks in this Act and the Schedule hereto annexed, specified, mentioned and contained, shall be paid and payable, and received and receivable in British Currency; and that all the said Duties shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and that all the said Duties and Drawbacks in the said Schedule specified, mentioned and contained, shall be paid and received upon the several Articles and Things in this Act and the said Schedule hereto annexed, specified, mentioned and contained, according to the Title, Weight, Gauge, Measure or Value of the said Articles respectively specified, and also in proportion upon any greater or less Number, Weight, Quantity, Measure or Value of such Articles, Matters and Things respectively.

IX. And Whereas by the several Acts for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, it was among other things provided and enacted, that all Duty charged on the Import of Foreign or Colonial Goods into either County, should, on their Export to the other, be drawn back, or the Amount, if any were retained, should be placed to the Credit of the County to which they should be exported, in full as the Expenses of the United Kingdom should be defrayed by proportional Contributions: And Whereas, by an Act made in the Fifty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to amend and consolidate into one Fund, all the Public Revenues of Great Britain and Ireland, and to provide for the Application thereof to the general Service of the United Kingdom, it is enacted, that from and after the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, all Rates, Duties, Taxes, Receipts, Sums of Money and Revenues, of what Nature or Kind soever, which shall or may constitute or form Part of, or be directed to be carried to the several Funds called the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain and the Consolidated Fund of Ireland respectively, shall be carried to, and shall be and become, and shall form and constitute One general Fund, to be called The Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and that the said Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, after Payment and Satisfaction of certain Charges in the said last recited Act mentioned, shall be indistinctly applied to the Service of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or any Part thereof, as shall be directed by Parliament: And Whereas it is expedient to continue the Payment of Drawbacks on the Export of Foreign and Colonial Goods from Ireland to Great Britain: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, all Duties of Customs and Excise charged and paid on the Importation into Ireland of any Foreign or Colonial Goods, Wares or Merchandise, Ball, on the Exportation from Ireland to Great Britain of such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, be drawn back, and paid and allowed to the Exporters of such Goods, Wares and Merchandise, and be subject to all such Rates, Regulations and Restrictions as are required by any Act or Acts in force in Ireland immediately before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen.

X. And Whereas, by several Acts in force in Ireland, Duties of Customs are imposed on certain Foreign Goods, Wares and Merchandise imported into Ireland directly from the Place of their Growth or Produce; and higher Duties of Customs are imposed on the like Goods, Wares and Merchandise, if imported not directly from the Place of their Growth or Produce; and it is expedient that the like Duties should be paid on all such Foreign Goods imported into Ireland from Great Britain, as if such Foreign Goods had been imported from Foreign Parts: Be it therefore enacted, That on the Importation of any such Foreign Goods, Wares or Merchandise into Ireland from Great Britain, such Import Duty of Customs shall be paid and payable, as if such Foreign Goods, Wares or Merchandise had been imported into Ireland from Foreign Parts, either directly from the Place of their Growth or Produce, or not directly from such Place, according as they were in fact at first imported from Foreign Parts into Great Britain; and that for the purpose of ascertaining whether any such Goods, Wares or Merchandise were first imported into Great Britain directly from the Place of their Growth or Produce, or not directly from such Place, it shall be specified and set forth in every Cask or Container of any such Foreign Goods, Wares or Merchandise exported from Great Britain to Ireland, whether such Goods, Wares or Merchandise were first imported into Great Britain directly from the Place of their Growth or Produce, or not directly from such Place, and the Import Duty of Customs on such Goods, Wares or Merchandise shall be payable accordingly on such Goods when imported into Ireland from Great Britain; and if it shall not be expresse and set forth in such Cask or Container of such Goods, Wares or Merchandise, whether the same were in fact imported into Great Britain directly from the Place of their Growth or Produce, or not directly from such Place, then and in such Case such Goods, Wares and Merchandise shall be and be deemed liable to such Duties of Customs, on their Importation into Ireland from Great Britain, as if the same had been imported into Ireland from Foreign Parts, not directly from the Place of their Growth or Produce; any thing in any Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

XI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, it shall and may be lawful to export into Ireland from any Parts within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, any Wine whatever as Bottles for private Use, on Payment of the several and separate Duties, as well of Customs as Excise, due and payable on the Importation of such Wine into Ireland: Provided always, that the Importer of such Wine, or his known Agent or Factor, shall make a Declaration before the Officer of the Customs at the Port of Importation, stating the Nature and Quantity of such Wine, and that the same is for private Use, and not intended to be sold; and that such Wine shall be regularly entered and landed under the Care of the proper Officers of the Customs.

XII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of the Customs and Port Duties in Ireland, or any Three or more of them for the time being respectively, to repay or allow to the Importers, Owners, Proprietors or Consignees of Foreign Spirits, Wine or other Liquors which shall be lost by accidental Staving on Shipboard, or in the unshipping thereof before the landing thereof, the Duties of Customs which shall have become payable, or shall have been paid for or in respect of such Spirits, Wine or other Liquors, and to remit the Duties of Customs, and to cancel and rebate the Customs Bond for or in respect of all such Spirits, Wine and other Liquors, for which no such Duties shall have been paid, but for which Security shall have been given by Bond taken for or in respect of the Warehousing thereof, before Payment of the Duties under or by virtue of any Act or Acts in force in Ireland, for permitting Goods imported to be warehoused or bonded without Payment of Duty, and which shall be so lost by such accidental Staving: Provided always nevertheless, that no such Allowance or Repayment shall be made, or any such Duty be remitted, nor any such Bond, or any Part thereof, be cancelled or rebated, unless Proof shall be made to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, that such Spirits, Wine or other Liquors were lost by such accidental Staving, and not from any Want of due Care or Precaution on the Part of the Importer, Owner, Proprietor or Consignor thereof, or his, her or their Agent: Provided also, that every such Bond shall be and remain in shall first and effect, as to all the Spirits, Wine or other Liquors to which the same shall relate, and which shall not be proved to have been lost by such accidental burning, and for or in respect whereof the Duties of Customs shall not be so remitted; any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

XIII. And he it further enacted, That the several Rates and Duties, and Drawbacks and Bounties, by this Act granted or allowed or made payable, shall be raised, levied, collected, paid and applied, in the same manner, and under such Powers and Authorities, and subject to such Provisions and Forfeitures, and by such Ways and Methods, and under such Rules and Directions as are appointed, directed, and expressed for the raising, collecting, levying and paying and managing of Duties, Drawbacks or Bounties payable on Goods, Wares and Merchandise imported into and exported from Ireland, as for the levying and applying any Rents, Penalties or Forfeitures, in and by an Act of Parliament made in Ireland in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King Charles the Second, intitled An Act for fixing the Excise or New Impost upon His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, according to the Book of Rates therein intitled; or by an Act made in the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty's Beign, intitled An Act to provide for the better Execution of the several Acts relating to the Revenue, Manners and Things under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties, and of the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland; or in and by any other Act or Acts in force in Ireland relating to the Revenue of Customs and Excise or either of them, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same Powers and Authorities, Rules and Directions, Penalties and Forfeitures, were herein expressed and enacted, with the like Remedy of Appeal to and for the Party or Parties aggrieved, as in and by the said Act passed in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King Charles the Second, or in and by any other Act or Acts as aforesaid, is provided.

XIV. And Whereas, by the several Acts in force for the granting of Duties of Customs on Goods, Wares and Merchandise imported into Ireland, it is enacted, that whenever it shall happen that any of the Duties, or any Part of the Duties of Customs or Excise, granted or made payable in Great Britain upon any Articles imported into Great Britain, upon which Duties of Customs are imposed in Ireland, shall cease or determine, or be repealed, or be or become no longer payable in Great Britain, Provision shall be made, that in such of the Duties of Customs payable in Ireland, as shall be equal to the Duties which shall be made or determined or be repealed in Great Britain, shall in like manner cease or determine, or be repealed, and shall not be payable in Ireland at any time after the time when such Duties of Customs or Excise shall cease or determine, or be repealed, or be or become no longer payable in Great Britain, and that the Duties of Customs made payable in Ireland shall be reduced accordingly: And the better carrying of the said Provision into effect, be it enacted, That whenever any Act or Acts shall be passed by repealing any Duties and Drawbacks of Customs or Excise on any Goods, Wares or Merchandise imported into or exported from Great Britain, and for granting other Duties and Drawbacks in lieu thereof, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or any Three of them, to cause a Table or Schedule to be prepared under the Direction of the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties in Ireland, enumerating the several Articles imported into or exported from Great Britain, on which the Duties or Drawbacks of Customs (and Excise if any) shall be less than the Duties or Drawbacks of Customs payable or allowable on the like Articles imported into or exported from Ireland, in which Table or Schedule the reduced Amount of Duties or Drawbacks of Customs which shall in consequence become payable on such Articles respectively, imported into or exported from Ireland, shall be stated and set forth in Figures opposite each Article respectively to the amount, which said reduced Duties or Drawbacks of Customs on such Articles imported into or exported from Ireland, shall be equal to the Amount of the Duties or Drawbacks of Customs (and Excise if any) payable on such Articles imported into or exported from Great Britain; and a Copy of such Table or Schedule, when approved by the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, shall be signed by the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Two of them, and shall be transmitted to the said Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties in Ireland, with such Directions respecting the same as the said Commissioners of the Treasury shall think proper and necessary; and the same specified in such Table or Schedule to be approved and signed, shall be deemed and taken to be the proper reduced Duties and Drawbacks of Customs payable or allowable in Ireland, as or in respect of such Articles, and shall be levied and paid, and allowed in like manner in the Duties and Drawbacks of Customs on the like Articles under any Act or Acts in force in Ireland: Provided always, that no such Deductions shall take place upon any Article imported into Ireland, which shall not pay a Duty of Customs equal in Amount to the whole Duty of Customs (and Excise if any) which shall be payable on the like Article imported into Great Britain.

XV. And Whereas it is expedient to alter the Rate of Drawback on the Exportation of Cordage from that Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Ireland, to that which is by Law so payable on the Exportation of the same Article from that Part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain; Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, the same Drawback and Allowance shall be paid and allowed, and payable and allowable, upon the Exportation of Cordage from Ireland to Foreign Parts, which is now by Law payable and allowable on the like Exportation of the same Article from Great Britain; any Act or Acts in force in Ireland to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Duties and Drawbacks, here levied and paid.

An Act to amend the Laws for making, repairing and improving the Roads and other Public Works in Ireland, by Grand Jury Petitioners, and for a more efficient Investigation of such Petitioners, and for further securing a true, full and faithful Account of all Monies levied under the same.

[7th July 1819.]

WHEREAS it is highly expedient that the Laws in force in Ireland, for the making, repairing and improving of Roads, and for the building, repairing and maintaining of Public Works, by the Application of Monies to be raised by Petitioners of Grand Juries should be amended, and that Provision should be made for the more efficient Investigation of all Applications for such Petitioners, and for securing the Expenditure of the Monies raised thereby: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, no Affidavit shall be necessary to empower any Grand Jury in Ireland to make any Petitioner for the making or repairing, or improving any Road or Footpath, or lowering any Hill or filling any Hollow in any existing or intended Road, or for building, repairing or altering, widening or extending any Bridge, Pipe, Sewer or Gullet thereof, or for building or repairing any Wall or Part of a Wall necessary to the Support of any Road, or to prevent any deep Banks of Earth from falling upon it, or for crossing any Fence or Railway, or Wall for the Protection of Threshers from any dangerous Prospect or Hole, or for filling any Ditches, or making any Fence or Ditch, or for building, altering, repairing or enlarging any Court House, Sessions House, Workhouse, House of Correction, Gaol, County Infirmary or Hospital, or for securing any other Public Work, any Act or Acts in force in Ireland to the contrary notwithstanding; but that instead of such Affidavits, Applications made as aforesaid may be in form of the Forms marked A. B. C. D. E. F. G. H. I. K. L. in the Schedule to this Act annexed, accompanied with such Estimates, Specifications, Maps, Plans, Sections or Elevations as are required by such Schedule to be annexed to such Applications respectively, shall, after having been previously taken into Consideration by the Magistrates assembled in Special Sessions in manner directed by this Act, be the only Authority for empowering any Grand Jury to make Petitioners for the Purposes stated in such such Applications respectively.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful the every Magistrate of any County, County of a City, County of a Town, or City and County in Ireland, who shall be seized of a Freehold Estate or Estate, in Fee Simple or in Fee Tail, or for Life, of the annual Value of Three hundred Pounds at the least, situate in any Part of Ireland, or who shall be His Agent to any Person in Ireland, and for every Magistrate who shall be seized or possessed of a Leasehold Estate or Estate for Life, or for a Term of Years whereof not less than Twenty Years shall be unexpired, of the yearly Value of Five hundred Pounds at the least, situate in any Part of Ireland, or who being seized of a Leasehold Estate for Life, or being of such Value, shall be also possessed of a Leasehold Estate or Estate for a Term of Years as aforesaid, which, together with such Estate for Life shall amount to the clear yearly Value of Four hundred Pounds at the least, in any Part of Ireland; and for every Person possessed of the clear Sum of Ten thousand Pounds, over and above all his just Debts, and resident in the County, County of a City, County of a Town, or City and County, wherein he shall be a Magistrate, and for every Magistrate of any City and Liberties, County of a City, County of a Town, or City and County, by virtue of the Charter or Charters incorporating the same; and where in any County of a City, or County of a Town incorporated by Charter, and consisting of a Chief Magistrate, Aldermen and Burgesses, there shall not be more than Three Magistrates, the Aldermen of the said Corporation shall be entitled to act as Magistrates for the Purposes of this Act; and for every Magistrate being a Rector or Vicar of any Rectory or Vicarage of the yearly Value of Three hundred Pounds, within the County, County of a City, County of a Town, or City and County, wherein he shall be a Magistrate; and for every Magistrate in any County, County of a City, or County of a Town, or City and County, really and lawfully residing therein, who shall be Agent to the Owner or Owners of any Estate or Estates therein of the annual Value of Six thousand Pounds for the Estate or Estates therein belonging to such Owner, amounting to the full annual Value, whether such Agent shall or shall not be seized or possessed as his own Right of any Estate, to assemble, and all such Magistrates are hereby required to assemble from time to time, and to hold a Special Session for the Purposes of this Act, in each Place and Places, and at each time and times, and dates and dates for such Sessions, shall Sessions, or other Portions of the County, County of a City, County of a Town, or City and County, for which they shall be Magistrates, as the Grand Jury of such County, County of a City, County of a Town, or City and County, shall from time to time have appointed for that purpose, pursuant to the Direction of this Act, by Petitioners at such Affairs accordingly providing.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the several Grand Juries at the several Summer Assizes next after the passing of this Act, and at every Spring and Summer Assizes following, in every County, County of a City, County of a Town, or City and County in Ireland, and they are hereby required to appoint, by Petitioners, certain Places within the respective Counties, Counties of Cities and Counties of Towns (not more than One or each Barony or Half Barony,) at which and the times when the Magistrates of such Counties, Counties of Cities, Counties of Towns and Cities and Counties, qualified as by this Act is directed, shall assemble in Special Sessions to be held previous to the next ensuing Assizes for such Counties, Counties of Cities, Counties of Towns, and Cities and Counties respectively, for taking into consideration all Applications which shall be made at such Sessions for any of the Purposes aforesaid, and also for examining all Accounts of the

sises, and keep for

for the Satisfaction of the Public, during Four complete Days at least immediately before the Consistory Day of each Affixes. —

XI. And be it further enacted, That the Grand Jury at each Affixes shall cause all Petitioners which they shall make upon the Applications to laid before them, to be numbered agreeable to the Numbers in the said Schedules thereof; and it shall be lawful for each Grand Jury so make a Petitioners to any Application to laid before them, although such Application may have been disapproved of by the Magistrates before whom it was laid; or to refuse to make a Petitioners, or any Application to laid before them, although such Application may have been approved or disapproved of by the Magistrates before whom it was laid; and also to perfect any smaller Sum to be expended, or any less Number of Perches to be made, or at a smaller Rate by the Parish, than may be proposed or required by such Application, or to perfect a Part only of such Sum, at their Discretion.

XII. And be it further enacted, That no Petitioners for the granting of which a previous Application is required by this Act to be made to a Special Sessions, shall be made or taken into consideration by the Grand Jury, nor shall be laid by the Court at any Affixes for any County, County of a City, County of a Town, or City and County, unless the Application for such proposed Petitioners shall be entered in some One of such Schedules, other than and except such Petitioners only as are hereinafter specially provided for.

XIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case any Person who shall have signed any Application, Affidavit, Specification, Map or Plan or Session in pursuance of this Act, shall happen to die before the Special Sessions at which it may have been intended that the same should be taken into consideration, or shall be prevented by Sickness or unavoidable Necessity from appearing at such Sessions, it shall be lawful for the Magistrates aforesaid there to examine upon Oath, in open Court, any other Person or Persons who shall appear before them, for the Purpose relative to the Matters contained in such Application, or in any of the said Papers, satisfactory Proof being left given that the Person or Persons who had signed any of them is dead, or that he has been prevented by Sickness or unavoidable Necessity from appearing before them; and the Grand Jury may make Petitioners on any Application delivered by the Magistrates (after such Examinations) to their Secretary; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XIV. Provided also, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act or any other Act contained, shall prevent any Grand Jury from making any Petitioners for the immediate Repair of such Breaches as may happen in the Winter Season in any Mail Coach Road, or Post Road under the Provisions of an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Thirty fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for improving and keeping in Repair the Post Roads of the Kingdom, nor to prevent any Grand Jury from making any Petitioners for Payment, in pursuance of any Contract entered into for the Repair of Roads, under the Provisions of any Laws in force at the time of such Contract being made, nor to prevent any Grand Jury from making any Petitioners of any Sum to be raised for any Purpose, where no previous Application by Affidavit or otherwise, is required by any Law in force in Ireland, nor from making any Petitioners for Payment of any Money expended by Order of a Justice of the Peace, for repairing any sudden Breach in any Bridge or Road, pursuant to the Provisions of an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Thirty fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for the Amendment of Public Roads, for directing the Power of Grand Jurors respecting Petitioners, and for repealing several Laws heretofore made for that Purpose; but it shall and may be lawful for any Grand Jury to make any such Petitioners in any of the Cases aforesaid, as if this Act had not been had or made; any thing in this Act, or in any other Act or Acts in force in Ireland to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

XV. And Whereas much Inconvenience may arise from Grand Jurors not having the Power to perfect or certain Sums for the Repair of sudden Breaches in Roads, Bridges, Gallies and Walls, which may have occurred previous to the Affixes at which such Grand Jury may be assembled, and subsequent to the last Special Sessions held under the Provisions of this Act; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Grand Jury to perfect such Sums or Sums (not exceeding Ten Pounds) as may appear to them necessary to repair such Breach or Breaches: Provided always, that the Existence of such Breaches, and the Necessity of their immediate Repair, may be satisfactorily proved before such Grand Jury upon Oath, and that such Applications shall be made in One of the Forms of the Schedules annexed to this Act: Provided also, that in all Cases where Money may be thus perfected, it shall be accounted for under the several Provisions of this Act.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That every Person intending to account at any Affixes for the Expence of any Money expended for the making or repairing, or widening or improving any Road or Foot-path, or lowering any Hill, or filling any Hollow as any cutting or inclosed Road, or for building, repairing, altering, widening or extending any Bridge, Pipe, Sewer or Gallie thereon, or for banking or raising any Wall or Part of a Wall necessary to the Support of any Road, or for preventing any Steep Banks of Earth from falling upon it, or for erecting any Fence or Railway or Wall for the Protection of Travellers from any dangerous Precipices or Holes, or for filling any Ditches, or making any Fences or Dams, or for building, altering, repairing or enlarging any Court House, Sessions House, Workhouse, House of Correction, Goal, County Infirmary or Hospital, or for executing any other Public Work, shall cause a Notice of his Intention of so accounting to be posted at the Place appointed aforesaid, within such Parish, in the Place where the Work to be accounted for, or any Part thereof, has been performed to be executed; and if there be no Market House, Church, Chapel or other Place of Public Worship in such Parish, then on any conspicuous or usual Place therein for posting Notices, between the Hours of Nine and Twelve in the Forenoon on the Saturday

ment but One before the Day appointed by the Grand Jury for the holding of the first Special Sessions, preparatory to the Spring or Summer Affices respectively in each Year; and each Person shall also make a Copy of such Notice to be delivered to the Secretary of the Grand Jury, at or before the time when the same shall be so posted; and each Secretary shall make a Copy of every such Notice, and shall make the same to be posted without delay on the Door of the Court House of the County, County of a City, County of a Town, or City and County, at which such Affices are to be holden.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That the Secretary to the Grand Jury shall make a Schedule of all such Notices, and shall annex to each the Number assigned to the Queen Bench to the corresponding Quare which the Person accordingly proposes that his Account shall discharge; and every Person so declaring his Intention to account, shall attend the ensuing Special Sessions, to be holden for the Purposes of the Act, for the Portion of the County, County of a City, County of a Town, or City and County, wherein the Work for which he proposes to account has been executed, with his Account drawn up as near as may be to the Form appropriated thereto in the Schedule annexed to this Act, and signed by himself; and each Person shall be sworn to the Truth of the said Account, by any Magistrate at the said Sessions, in open Court; and each Account shall be examined in open Court by the Magistrates at such Sessions, and on every Account approved by them, the Word "allowed" shall be interlined, attested by the Chairman and One other Magistrate; and on every Account not approved of by them, the Word "disallowed" shall be interlined, and the Reason of such Disallowance, and a Note of or Reference to the Items in the Account which may have needed such Disallowance, shall be interlined thereon or underlined thereon, attested in like manner; and all such Accounts, Affidavits, Papers and Applications, shall be delivered without delay by the sitting Clerk of the Peace to the Secretary of the Grand Jury, to be by him laid before the Grand Jury at the then next Affices, and the same shall be there proceeded on by the Grand Jury, with full Powers and Authorities, and in such manner as may or is provided respecting the same, by any Act or Acts in force in Ireland for that Purpose.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person paying Cds to appear at any Affices or Special Sessions, to be holden within each County in Ireland respectively, and to offer to controvert the Truth of any Accounting Affidavit then produced, on the Ground of the Infallibility of the Execution of the Work, or the undue or Non-Expenditure of the Money to which such Affidavit shall relate; provided that the Person offering to so controvert the Truth of such Affidavit as aforesaid, shall give Notice in Writing of his Intention to do so to the accounting Overseer, before the First Day of such Affices or Sessions, and shall at the same time that he makes the Objection enter into a Recognisance before a Magistrate, in the Amount of the Sum of Five to have been expended, conditioned for his Appearance at the next Affices, or at the next General Sessions of the Peace (as the case may be), for such District in which said Protestment was granted; and it shall be lawful for the Court, at such Affices or General Sessions (as the case may be), and they are hereby required to try the Truth of such Affidavit by a Jury, in the same manner as any Taverie within the Jurisdiction of such Court ought to be tried; and in case the Truth of such Fact or Facts shall be found, the Accounting Affidavit shall be disallowed accordingly; and it shall not be lawful for the Clerks of the Crown or Clerks of the Peace, or any other Person, to take or receive upon such Taverie any Fee for or in respect of any such Taverie; and it shall be lawful for the Court, before such Trial shall be had, to give such Costs either to the Party controverting such Affidavit or to the accounting Overseer, as such Court shall in either Case think fit and reasonable.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for the Treasurer of the County to pay the Amount of any Protestment, the accounting for the Expenditure whereof shall be overruled, until the Taverie shall be withdrawn, or Judgment shall be given for the Defendant on the Trial thereof.

XX. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to amend the Law respecting the accounting for Money professed in Ireland for the making, repairing, rebuilding, or joining of Public Roads, and the building and repairing of Bridges, Pipes or Gallies, it is enacted, that all Expenditure relating to any Protestment not accounted for at the Summer Affices, may be accounted for at such General Sessions of the Peace to be held in October in every Year, as the Grand Jury at the Summer Affices shall fix on; Be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for every Grand Jury, at every Summer Affices, to appoint a Special Sessions to be held in manner prescribed by the Act, by Magistrates qualified according to the Directions of this Act, in the County Court House, on the Month of October subsequent to the General Sessions of the Peace in the said Month; and the Expenditure on such Protestments as shall not have been accounted for at the Summer Affices, may be accounted for at such Special Sessions, before the Magistrates there present, in the Form and Manner under the Provisions and Regulations by the Act prescribed respecting the Mode of accounting at Special Sessions of the Peace for Money professed; and that the Account of any Person may be deposted and reported on Recognisance in like manner as such Special Sessions as is provided by the said recited Act to be done at the General Sessions of the Peace in October; and that it shall be lawful for the Treasurer of the County, and he is hereby required to pay all Money whereof the Account shall be approved of at such Sessions, and the Allowance thereof certified by the Attestations of the Chairman and of One other Magistrate, in like manner as if the Affidavit accounting for the same had been allowed by the Grand Jury and the Court in an Affices, in manner required by this Act; and the Charges on all such Protestments shall be respectively discharged or disallowed, or allowed, in manner required and directed by the said recited Act, according to the Conditions, Restrictions and Provisions contained in the said recited Act.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That whenever and so often as it shall happen that any Sum of Money heretofore professed, or hereafter to be professed, to be raised off any County, County of a City, County of a Town, or City and County, or any Barony or Half Barony, shall not be expended agreeable to such Pro-

presented, and accounted for within the Space of Two Years next after such Parliament shall have been made, it shall and may be lawful for the Grand Jury of such County, County of a City, County of a Town, or City and County, and they are hereby required, agree to present such Sums of Money to be applied to such Purposes, and in like manner to present any Sum which may be made on any Parliament, to be expended upon some other Work within the Barony or Half Barony upon which the former Sum or such Sum was so presented to be raised, or within the County, if raised on the County at large: Provided always, that where such Sums are presented to be raised by Inhabitants for erecting any Public Work, it shall not be representative on the Grand Jury agree to present such Sums for other Purposes in manner aforesaid.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That all Proclamations made, or Money to be levied, accounted for or paid, under or in consequence of any Act or Acts in force as Inclosed at any time before the passing of this Act, shall be levied, accounted for and paid in manner provided by the Acts in force at the time when such Proclamations were made, or subject to the Rules, Regulations and Provisions contained in the said Acts or in the Act respectively.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Grand Jury at any Assizes to present, to be raised off the County at large, any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding the Rate of Five Pounds for each Place wherein Special Sessions shall have been holden previous to such Assizes for the Purposes of this Act, as an Allowance or Remuneration to the Secretary of the Grand Jury for his Attendance at such Sessions, and for his performing and executing the Duties required by this Act to be performed by him.

XXIV. Be it further enacted, That all Affidavits required from Contractors shall be submitted to and sworn before Magistrates at the Special Sessions under this Act; and an Application shall be made for any Proclamation for any Salary or Remuneration to any Person at any Assizes which might have been applied and procured for at any previous Assizes, under the Power making such Application shall make an Affidavit, stating some Reasons satisfactory to the Grand Jury why such Application was not made at such previous Assizes; and if it shall happen that any Application for any Salary or Remuneration shall be refused or refused by any Grand Jury at any Assizes, on account of any Neglect or Misconduct in Office of the Party making such Application, it shall not be lawful for any Grand Jury, at any subsequent Assizes, to make any Proclamation for any such Salary or Remuneration, in respect of any Period previous to the Assizes at which such Application was refused or refused.

XXV. And be it further enacted and declared, That the Oath taken by Grand Jurors in Ireland, in such Manner and Form as hath heretofore been practised according to Law, at the several Assizes in Ireland, shall not at any time after the passing of this Act, extend or relate, or be construed or taken to extend or relate, to any of the Duties of Grand Jurors connected with Proclamations for the Execution of Public Works.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, every Grand Juror, immediately after being sworn before the Judge of Assizes, in such Manner and Form as hath heretofore been practised according to Law, at the several Assizes in Ireland, shall in open Court at such Assizes also take the Oath following: (that is to say),

“YOU shall diligently inquire, on behalf of the County [or, County of the City, County of the Town, or City and County] of _____ and true Proclamations made of all such Matters and Things as shall be lawfully given to you in charge, or as shall come before you in anywise relating to the raising of any Money upon the said County [or, County of City, County of Town, or City and County] of _____ or upon any Barony, Half Barony or Parish therein, or relating to the Expensiture of any such Money; you shall not pretend nor allow nor disallow any Matter or Thing through Fear, Malice or Envy, nor through Fear, Favour or Affection.”

So help you GOD.”

And it shall and may be lawful for any Grand Jury to disclose any Evidence, or other Matter or Thing whatsoever, relative to the making or raising of any such Proclamation, or relative to the Expensiture of any Money raised by Proclamations.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall not be lawful for any Person who shall be Treasurer of the County, or Secretary of the Grand Jury, or Chief Constable, or Collector of any Barony, or Clerk of the Crown, or Clerk of the Peace, to have upon the Grand Jury at any Assizes for the County, County of a City, County of a Town or City and County in Ireland, whereas he shall hold such Office; any Livery, Office or Calicoe to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That every High Constable, or other Collector of Money levied by Grand Jury Proclamations, shall make a Return on the First Day of such Assizes to the Treasurer of the County, containing a Schedule of the Names of the Townlands within the Barony for which he is Collector, and of the Inhabitants within the same, who shall have been affixed towards the Payment of the County Cels of the previous Assizes, and of the Sums respectively affixed on and paid by each Individual, and listing the Amount, if any, which shall be due by each Individual; and that on the Receipt of such Return by the Treasurer, the said Treasurer shall immediately lay the same before the Grand Jury.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That any Person who is any Affidavit, or in any Examination on Oath, required to be made or laid under this Act, shall swear faithfully, shall be subject and liable to all such Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures, as may be inflicted on wilful and corrupt Perjury by the Laws in force in Ireland; and that in all Cases where an Oath or Affidavit is required or authorized to be administered, or made by this Act, the Affirmation of the Party, if such Affirmation be received in a Court of Law in lieu of an Oath, shall be of equal Validity and Effect, and equally subject him to the Provisions of this Act, as if he had taken or sworn an Affidavit under the Provision of this Act.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where upon any Affidavit for supporting any Application for any Profection, or for authenticating any Minutes, or other Matters or Thing relating to such Application, according to the Direction of this Act, or for accounting for Public Money, it shall appear to the Grand Jury that the Perfon or Persons making such Affidavits has or have been guilty of wilful and corrupt Perjury, it shall and may be lawful for the Grand Jury to make such Profection for defraying the Profection of such Delinquent, as to them may seem fitting and expedient.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That every Application or Account which shall be made and delivered under the Direction of this Act, shall be upon Paper stamped with the Stamp required by any Act or Acts in force relating to the Stamp Duties of Ireland, as be imposed upon an Affidavit or Affidavits for the purpose of procuring thereon any Profection of any Grand Jury, or for raising Money for Repair of Roads, or for any other Public Purpose, or for accounting for any Public Money, or discharging Quoties on Protestments, according to the Amount of the Money required to be presented and raised or accounted for, for the Road or Work specified in any such Application, or in any such Account respectively.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for every Grand Jury to add to the Sum they shall prefer to be raised towards the Execution of any Work applied for pursuant to the Provisions of this Act, a Sum equal to the Amount of the Stamp Duty upon such Applications, and also upon the Affidavits which are to account for the same, to be raised in like manner, and paid to the Perfon accounting, for his own Reimbursement and that of the Perfon or Persons who shall have made the Application; and also to prefer such reasonable Sums not exceeding what shall be fixed in the Estimates annexed to any Application respecting a new Road or any Work which shall be preferred to be raised on the County at large, as they shall think proper, to pay the Expenses incurred or to be incurred in procuring the Estimates, Specifications, Maps, Plans, Sections or Elevations required by this Act to be annexed to the Applications, and also for the Expenses of the Persons signing such Maps, Plans, Sections or Elevations, in attending the Special Sessions, such Sums as the Justices at the same shall appoint and certify for such Attendance; all which Sums shall be levied in like manner as other Sums to be raised under Profection shall be levied and paid to the Perfon or Persons accounting for the same, in trust for the Perfon or Persons who shall severally have signed the Applications and such other Papers.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That no Perfon shall be appointed to an Act, nor shall he act as a Supervisor under the Provision of an Act passed in the forty ninth Year of His present Majesty's Regency, entitled An Act for amending the High Road Acts, for any Part of any Road, for the Repair of which any Money shall be granted by Profection, until such Money shall be expended and accounted for.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That no Money which shall be expended after the passing of this Act, shall be paid by the County Treasurer to any such Supervisor, unless it shall be accounted for by the Deputy or Deputies, in the manner that all Money preferred for the Repair of Roads is to be accounted for, except as to the Form of the Affidavit under this Act: Provided always, that such Supervisor shall first make Affidavit before a Magistrate, which any Magistrate is hereby empowered to take, that he has or had at the time of the Expenditure of such Money, a Freehold or Leasehold Estate (as the case may be) of not less than Five hundred Pounds yearly Value, situate where such Estate is situate, and also that he has examined the Work, and that it is properly executed, to the best of his Judgment, and that he believes the Money has been fairly, properly and honestly expended; and that it shall be lawful for every Supervisor to remove any Perfon whom he shall appoint to be a Deputy, and to appoint another Perfon in his stead, from time to time, and as often as he shall think proper.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That in case of the Death of any Supervisor, an Affidavit made to the Purposes and Effect, and in manner prescribed by any Act or Acts in force immediately before the passing of this Act, to be made by such Supervisor, by the Heir or Executor of such Supervisor, together with the Certificate of a Magistrate, that he has viewed the Work, and that it is properly executed, to the best of his Judgment, and that he believes the Money given to be by the Deputy or Deputies has been fairly, honestly and properly expended thereon, shall be of equal Effect for the purpose of such Account under this Act, as the Affidavit of the Supervisor would have been had he been to make it.

XXXVI. And Whereas the said and several Profections for the Repair and Improvement of the Public Roads have not been made in several Counties in Ireland at the late Spring Assizes, and it shall be prejudicial to the Roads, and occasion great additional future Expense to the Counties, if the like Omission should happen at the ensuing Summer Assizes: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Grand Jurors of the several Counties and Cities, Counties of Towns, and Cities and Counties in Ireland, at the Summer Assizes which shall be holden in the previous Year One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, to make, and for the Court to sit Profections for repairing any Road, repairing any Bridge, Gullet or Wall, in such Form and Manner, and under and subject to such Powers, Provisions and Regulations as are contained in the several Acts of Parliament for that Purpose, which were in force in Ireland at the Summer Assizes in the Year One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, in all Cases where Applications for or in respect of any such Profections shall not have been made to the Magistrates, appointed at the Quarter Sessions holden in April One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, or at any other subsequent time previous to such Summer Assizes, or shall not have been considered by them and approved or disapproved of; any thing in this Act or in any other Act to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

XXXVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to limit the Authority of Grand Jurors, in making any Profection or any Affairs for the Repairment of any Monies advanced by Order of the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, pursuant to Powers vested in him by Law.

XXXVIII. And

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to affect or alter any Clauses, Powers or Privileges contained in any Special Act or Acts of Parliament, relating particularly to the Election or Maintenance of any Court House, Sessions House or County House, or to any Gaol or Prison, or to any County, or County of a City, or County of a Town in Ireland.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, entitled An Act to provide for the more deliberate Investigation of Petitioners, to be made by Grand Juries for Roads and Public Works in Ireland; and for accounting for Money raised by such Petitioners, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be and the same is hereby repealed, except in far as relates to any Petitioners to be made at the Sessions of the Assizes One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, upon an Application made pursuant to the said repealed Act; and also except so far as the said Act respects an Act, passed in the Fifty seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, entitled An Act to provide for the more deliberate Investigation of Petitioners, to be made by Grand Juries for Roads and Public Works in Ireland; and for accounting for Money raised by such Petitioners.

XL. And be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to the County of Dublin, or to the County of the City of Dublin, except only in far as is hereinafter expressly enacted and provided by this Act; and that nothing in this Act contained shall alter or repeal, or be construed to alter or repeal, any Special Act relating to the manner of petitioning or accounting in any other County, or County of a City, or County of a Town in Ireland.

XLi. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Twenty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, entitled An Act for making, mending and repairing Public Roads in the County of Dublin, and for repealing Parts of several Acts formerly made for that Purpose; it is enacted, that every Affidavit so granted a Petitioners, or to account for Work done, shall be lodged with the Secretary of the Grand Jury, Four Days at least before the First Sitting Day of each petitioning Term: And Whereas it would be of great Benefit and Advantage to the said County of Dublin, that the said Affidavits should be lodged with the acting Secretary of the Grand Jury of the said County, in many Days previous to the First Sitting Day of each petitioning Term, that Schedules of such Affidavits might be prepared and printed for Delivery to Magistrates and others previous to such Terms: Be it therefore enacted, That all Affidavits for Petitioners for forming, levelling, mending, draining, widening, making, repairing or otherwise improving any Road in the County of Dublin, and for the building, repairing or otherwise improving any Bridge, Sillion House, Gaol or other Public Work in the County, shall be lodged Thirty Days at least before the First Sitting Day of each petitioning Term, with the acting Secretary of the Grand Jury of the said County; and such Secretary is hereby required to keep an Office open for the purpose, and forthwith, after the Receipt of such Affidavits, to cause Schedules of such Affidavits to be prepared and printed, and to be ready for Delivery at his Office Twenty one clear Days before the First Sitting Day of each petitioning Term, to such Magistrates and Landholders in the said County of Dublin as may apply for the same: provided that the Number to be so printed shall not exceed Fifty for each Barony in the said County of Dublin (the Barons of Sanc Ispidreus and Sancur excepted); and that the said Secretary shall, Fifteen Days before the First Sitting Day of each petitioning Term, deliver over the several Affidavits which shall have been so lodged with him previous to each petitioning Term, pursuant to this Act, to the Inspector of the Public Accounts of the County of Dublin for the time being, or in his Absence to such Person as the said Inspector shall depute to receive the Affidavits from the said Secretary, for whom the said Inspector shall be answerable; and the said Inspector shall personally attend at the Court of King's Bench on the First Sitting Day of each petitioning Term, if not prevented by Sickness or unavoidable Accidents, and if so prevented, shall depute and send in his Place a Person for whom he shall be answerable, and shall then and there lay before the said Grand Jury his Report and Observations in Writing upon the several Affidavits and Accounts annexed thereto, which shall have been so delivered over to him previous to such petitioning Term by the said Secretary, or which shall have been delivered over to such Person as he the said Inspector shall have deputed to receive the same pursuant to this Act.

XLii. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Grand Jury of the said County of Dublin, and they are hereby authorized and required, at each petitioning Term for the said County, to print such Sum or Name as shall be necessary for defraying the Expence of preparing and printing the said Schedules: Provided always, that an Affidavit of the Printer, stating his Charge to be asked and reasonable, be first laid before the said Grand Jury at each petitioning Term; and that at each Petitionment for the preparing such Schedules and printing of such Copies shall be made, which such printed Copies were ready for Delivery at the Office of the Secretary Twenty one clear Days before the First Sitting Day of the Term at which such Petitionment shall be applied for.

XLiii. And Whereas the Town and Liberties of Kingsale, in the County of Cork, are neither a Barony, or Half Barony, Part of a Barony, or a County of a Town, and therefore, under the Laws now in Force, no Money can be raised by the Grand Jury of the County of Cork for the making or repairing Roads within such Liberties, to the great Inconvenience of the Inhabitants of said Town and Liberties: Be it enacted, That the said Town and Liberties of Kingsale shall be constituted an additional Barony of the County of Cork, and that it shall be lawful for the Grand Jury of the said County, at every Assize, to grant Petitionments as in the Case of other Barons, and to collect the Amount of the same to be asked and levied upon the Town and Liberties of Kingsale as a Barony: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to interfere with the Police Sessions or Privileges established by Charter as the said Town and Liberties of Kingsale.

An Act to amend and correct an Act of the last Session of Parliament, for the Regulation of Parishes
Volunties in England. [7th July 1819.]

28 G. 3. c. 49.

Persons rated to the Poor, though not Parishioners may vote in Vestry according to the Value of the Premises rated.

Clerk or Agent of Corporation, &c. may vote in Vestry according to the Value of the Premises rated.

28 G. 3. c. 49. s. 2.

Payment of Rates to the quality from being present or voting in Vestry.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the last Session of Parliament, intitled An Act for the Regulation of Parishes Volunties, and it is expedient to amend the same: Be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, any Person who shall be assessed and rated for the Relief of the Poor in respect of any annual Rent, Profit or Value arising from any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments situate in any Parish, in which any Vestry shall be holden under the said recited Act, although such Person shall not reside in or be an Inhabitant of such Parish, shall and may lawfully be present at such Vestry, and such Person shall have and be entitled to give such and in every Vote or Votes at such Vestry, in respect of the Amount of such Rent, Profit or Value, as by the said Act, any Inhabitant of such Parish present at such Vestry might or ought to have and be entitled to give in respect of such Amount, and to all Limits and Purposes, as if such Person were an Inhabitant of such Parish; any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where any Corporation or Body Politic or Corporate or Company shall be charged to the Rate for the Relief of the Poor of such Parish, either in the Name of such Corporation or of any Officer of the said Corporation, it shall and may be lawful for the Clerk, Secretary, Steward or other Agent duly authorized for that Purpose of such Corporation or Body Politic or Corporate or Company, to be present at any Vestry to be holden in the said Parish under the said recited Act; and such Clerk, Secretary, Steward or Agent, shall be entitled to give such and in every Vote or Votes at such Vestry, in respect of the Amount of the Rent, Profit or Value of such Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, as by the said Act any Inhabitant entitled to such Rate present at such Vestry might or ought to have and be entitled to in respect of such Amount; any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

III. And Whereas by the said Act it was intended that no Person should be present at or vote at any Vestry who should have refused to pay any Assessment that had become due and had been demanded of such Person, but the Word 'and' was by Mistake inserted in the said Act, so to make the same in that respect ambiguous: Now, to rectify such Mistake, be it further enacted, That no Person who shall have refused or neglected to pay any Rate for the Relief of the Poor which shall be due from and shall have been demanded of him, shall be entitled to vote or to be present at any Vestry of the Parish for which such Rate shall have been made, until he shall have paid the same; nor shall any such Clerk, Secretary, Steward or Agent, be entitled to be present or to vote, nor shall he present or vote, at any Vestry in such Parish, until all Rates for the Relief of the Poor, which shall have been assessed and charged upon or in respect of the said Person, shall have been paid.

Rent, Profit or Value, in right of which any such Clerk, Secretary, Steward or Agent shall claim to be present and vote, which shall be due, and which shall have been demanded at any time before the Meeting of such Valley, shall have been paid and satisfied.

C A P. LXXXVI.

An Act for regulating the Exercise of the Right of Common of Pasture in the New Forest, in the County of Southampton; for repealing certain Parts of Two Acts passed in the Thirty ninth and Fortieth and the Fifty second Years of His present Majesty; and for the better Collection and Recovery of the Gale Rents in the Forest of Dean, in the County of Gloucester. [7th July 1819.]

WHEREAS considerable Inconvenience and Injury is followed, and much Damage done to the young Timber and to the Harbours in the New Forest, in the County of Southampton, by Persons not having Rights of Common in the said Forest carrying Horses, Cattle, and other Beasts to depasture in the said Forest; and by other Persons having Rights of Common on the said Forest suffering their Horses, Cattle and other Beasts to remain therein during the Winter Season or Hayning time, contrary to Law; and it is expedient that additional Remedies should be provided to prevent such Damage and Injury: And Whereas an Act was passed in the Thirty ninth and Fortieth Year of His Majesty's Range, intitled An Act for the better Preservation of Timber in the New Forest, in the County of Southampton, and for ascertaining the Boundaries of the said Forest and of the Lands of the Crown within the same: And Whereas an Act was passed in the Fifty second Year of His Majesty's Range, intitled An Act for enabling His Majesty to grant Leases under certain Circumstances, and for the better carrying into Effect the Provisions of an Act passed in the Thirty ninth and Fortieth Year of His present Majesty, touching the Formation of a Map of the New Forest, in the County of Southampton, and containing and extending other Provisions of the said Act: for further ascertaining the Boundaries as to arise from the Sale of certain Crown Lands under the Authority of three Acts of Parliament; and for conveying certain Lands within the Forest of Southampton to His Majesty's Manor of King's Office; and for enabling the Commissioners of the Treasury to appropriate small Portions of Land for Ecclesiastical Purposes: And Whereas it is expedient to repeal so much of the said Acts as respects the Regarders, Under Foresters, Under Keepers, or other Officers of the said Forests, to Pasture and Depasture of their Office for the Offences in the said Acts mentioned: And Whereas it is necessary to provide for the better Collection and Recovery of the annual Compositions usually called Gale Rents or Cattle Rents, now due and to be Accrued, or which may hereafter become due to His Majesty, in His Majesty's Forest of Dean, in the County of Gloucester: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful for any Regarder, Green Keeper, Forester, Under Forester, or other Officer of the New Forest, in the County of Southampton, to issue any Horse, Mare or Gelding, or any other Cattle or Beasts belonging to any Person or Persons not having or being entitled to Rights of Common of Pasture on the said Forest, found depasturing therein at any time of the Year; and also to take and seize any Horse, Mare or Gelding, or any other Cattle or Beasts belonging to any Person or Persons having and being entitled to Rights of Common of Pasture on the said Forest, which shall be found depasturing therein during the Winter Season or Hayning time; (that is to say, between the Twenty third Day of November and the Fourth Day of May yearly, and every such Horse, Mare or Gelding, or other Beasts so found, to be impounded in New Park or such other Place within the said Forest as the Verderers thereof or any Two of them shall from time to time appoint, and every such Horse, Mare, Gelding or other Beasts to keep impounded until released by the Owner or Owners thereof, on Payment of the Penalties hereinafter imposed, and of the Expenses (if any) incurred in the Keep of the said Horse, Mare, Gelding or other Beasts.

First Offence.

Second Offence.

Third Offence.

On Persons having Right of Common.

First Offence.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Owners or Owners of every Horse, Mare, Gelding or other Beasts so found and impounded, shall before and pay the several Penalties following: (that is to say),

Every Person not having or being entitled to Rights of Common of Pasture on the said Forest, who shall be convicted before the Verderers of the said Forest, or any Two of them, or in the Court of Attachments of the said Forest, of turning out or suffering to depasture in the said Forest at any time in the Year, any Horse, Mare, Gelding or other Beasts of which such Person shall be the Owner, the Sum of Ten Shillings for each Horse, Mare, Gelding or other Beasts so turned out or found depasturing, and the Sum of Sixpence for each Day such Horse, Mare, Gelding or other Beasts shall be uncorrected by such Person after the same shall be found and impounded; and if such Person shall be convicted a Second time of turning out or suffering to depasture in the said Forest at any time of the Year, the same or any other Horse, Mare, Gelding or other Beasts of which such Person shall be the Owner, the Sum of Twenty Shillings for each Horse, Mare or Gelding, or other Beasts so turned out or suffered to depasture, and the Sum of Sixpence for each Day such Horse, Mare, Gelding or other Beasts shall be uncorrected by such Person after the same shall be found and impounded; and if such Person shall be convicted a Third time, or any subsequent time, of a like Offence, such Person shall forfeit and pay for each Horse, Mare, Gelding or other Beasts so turned out or found depasturing, the Sum of Thirty Shillings, and the further Sum of Sixpence for each Day the same shall be uncorrected.

And every Person having or being entitled to Rights of Common of Pasture in the said Forest, who shall be convicted before the Verderers of the said Forest, or any Two of them, or in the Court of Attachments of the said Forest, of turning out or suffering to depasture in the said Forest, during the Winter Season or Hayning time herebefore specified, any Horse, Mare, Gelding or other Beasts of which such Person shall be the Owner, the Sum of Seven Shillings for each Horse, Mare, Gelding or other Beasts so turned out or found depasturing

in the said Forcell, and the Sum of Sixpence for each Day such Horse, Mare, Gelding or other Beest shall be unrecovered by such Person, after the same shall be seized and impounded; and if such Person shall be convicted a Second time of turning out or suffering to depasture in the said Forcell during the Winter Season or Hayting time, the same or any other Horse, Mare, Gelding or Beest of which such last mentioned Person shall be the Owner, the Sum of Fourteen Shillings for each Horse, Mare or Gelding, or other Beest so turned out or found depasturing, and the Sum of Sixpence for each Day such Horse, Mare or Gelding, or other Beest shall be unrecovered after being seized and impounded; and if such Person shall be convicted a Third time, or any subsequent time, of a like Offence, such Person shall forfeit and pay for each Horse, Mare, Gelding or other Beest so turned out or found depasturing during the Winter Season or Hayting time, the Sum of Twenty one Shillings, and the further Sum of Sixpence for each Day the same shall be unrecovered after being seized and impounded.

Penalties here to be recovered.

III. And be it further enacted, That all the said Penalties heretofore imposed shall and may be recovered before the Justices of the said Forcell, or any Two of them, or in the Court of Attachments of the said Forcell; and in case any Penalty or Penalties so recovered shall not be paid forthwith, it shall be lawful for the Justices of the said Court before whom such Penalty shall be recovered, or any Two of the Justices, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, and directed to the Officers or Officers appointed or to be appointed to execute the Judgments and Orders of the said Court for the said Forcell, to cause the Horse, Mare, Gelding or other Beest in respect of which such Penalty or Penalties shall be recovered, to be publicly sold, and the Amount of such Penalty or Penalties recovered, together with the Costs of Sale, to be retained and paid out of the Proceeds of such Sale, returning the Overplus (if any) to the Owner of the Horse, Mare, Gelding or other Beest so sold; and in case the Sum or Sums of Money obtained from the Sale of any Horse, Mare, Gelding or other Beest, shall not be sufficient to satisfy the Amount of the Penalty or Penalties recovered against the Owner or Owners thereof, it shall and may be lawful for the Justices of the said Forcell, or any Two of them, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, directed as aforesaid, to cause the Remainder of such Penalty or Penalties to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels, together with all Costs and Charges attending such Distress and Sale, returning the Overplus (if any) so demanded, to the Owner of such Goods and Chattels.

If Penalties of Sale of Beest are sufficient, then Distress on Offender's Goods.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if the Owner of any Horse, Mare, Gelding or other Beest so impounded as aforesaid, shall forthwith on Complaing pay the Penalties aforesaid in respect of the same, together with the Costs (if any) of the Keep thereof, then and immediately on such Payment, such Horse, Mare, Gelding or other Beest so impounded shall be returned to the Owner or Owners thereof.

Application of Penalties.

V. And be it further enacted, That all the said Penalties heretofore imposed shall, when recovered, be by the Justices or other Persons or Persons receiving the same, forthwith paid over to the Under Steward of the said Forcell, to be applied in defraying the Expenses attending the Execution of any Laws relating to the said Forcell, as the Justices of the said Forcell, or any Two or more of them, shall at a Court of Attachments of the said Forcell direct: Provided always, and it is hereby declared, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed, deemed or taken to extend, to repeal or annul any of the Laws now existing in regard to the Exercise of the Right of Common of Pasture, or any other Rights of Common in or upon the said Forcell; but that all such Laws shall remain and continue in full Force and Effect, and shall and may be carried into Execution in such and the like manner as if this Act had never been passed.

Proviso for Laws of the Forcell relating to Rights of Common.

VI. And be it further enacted, That in each of the said several Acts of the Thirty sixth and Fortieth and Fifty second Years of His Majesty's Royal, as aforesaid, certain Officers therein mentioned to Forfeiture and Deprivation of their Offices for the Officers in the said Acts mentioned, shall be and the same to be and are hereby repealed and made void: Provided always, and it is hereby declared, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed, deemed or taken to extend, to repeal or annul so much of the said Acts, or either of them, as enacts that it shall be lawful for the Justices of the said Forcell, or any Two of them, to enquire into the Conduct and Behaviour of the Regarders, Under Forcellers, Green Keepers, or other Officers of the said Forcell in the said Offices; and that if the said Justices shall find that any of the said Regarders, Under Forcellers, Green Keepers or other Officers have been guilty of any of the Offences in the said Acts mentioned, that then and in such Case it shall be lawful for the said Justices or any Two of them, (having due Proof made before them on Oath of any such wilful Act, Neglect, Omission or Default in the said Acts mentioned), to (in and impose) a Fine not exceeding the Sum of Ten Pounds on such Regarder, Under Forceller, Green Keeper, or other Officer for every such his wilful Act, Neglect, Omission or Default, to be recovered and applied as therein mentioned, but that all such Powers shall remain and continue in full Force and Effect, and shall and may be carried into Execution in such and the like manner as if this Act had never been passed.

28 H. 40 G. 1. c. 10. s. 25. 38 G. 3 c. 15. s. 14. repealed. That Justices may fine the garden, Under Forcellers, &c. for Misconduct.

VII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Person who now does or who shall be appointed to and hold the Office of Gardener or Keeper of the Goods, called The Goods above the Ward, within the Forcell of Dane, in the County of Gloucester, and the Office of Keeper of the Garden under the Ward, within the said Forcell for the time being, from and after the passing of this Act, to receive and levy any Sum or Sums of Money now due and owing, or which shall hereafter become due and payable to His Majesty, from any Person or Persons, for and in respect of the annual Compulsions usually called Gale Rents or Gale Fees, payable within the said Forcell, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Person or Persons from whom such Compulsions are or shall be due and owing, whosoever the same shall be found, together with the Costs and Charges of such Distress and Sale, as in the Nature of a Distress for Rent; and in case the Goods and Chattels distrained shall be applied by the Owner or Owners thereof, or a Son or Aforesaid in Replevin shall be brought, and prosecuted or commenced against the said Gardener, or the Person or Persons making such Distress, it shall and may be lawful for the Person holding the said Office of Gardener as plead in the said Action, or to answer the taking the said Goods and Chattels, and for the Petitioner or Petitioners making such Default to make compensation as the Bailiff of the said Court for the time being for the making the said Default, alleging in such Answer or Compensation, that the said Default whereby the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs complained, was made by Authority of and according to the Purport of this Act, for so much Gale Rent or Gale Rent due from the Plaintiff to the said Court, as Councillor of the Forest of Dean, without expecting or Recourse of any other Matter; to which Answer or Compensation the Plaintiff shall be admitted to plead that the Defendant did take the said Default of his own wrong, without any such Cause alleged by the Defendant; whereupon the Issue in such Action shall be joined, and upon the Trial of that Issue the whole Matter to be given by both Parties in Evidence according to the very Truth of the same.

Officers herein named may distrain for Gale Rents or Gale Fees, due to His Majesty.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Principal Councillor for the time being of the said Forest of Dean, to sue for and recover any Arrears or Sums now due, or at any time hereafter to grow or become due, from any Person or Persons for and in respect of any such Compensation as aforesaid, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record; and all such Actions shall be brought in the Name of the Principal Councillor for the time being of the said Forest of Dean; and in all such Actions it shall be sufficient for the Plaintiff to declare that the Defendant or Defendants is or are indebted to him the said Plaintiff as Principal Councillor of the Forest of Dean, for so much Money due and owing in Gale Rent or Gale Rent, from the Defendant or Defendants to the Plaintiff as such Principal Councillor, without setting forth any other Special Matter; and no such Action or Suit shall abate or be discontinued by the Death or Removal of the Person in whose Name the same shall be brought or commenced.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all Sums and Sums of Money to be recovered by the Person being Principal Councillor of the said Forest of Dean, either by Default or Action, under the Authority of this Act, for any such Compensation as aforesaid, shall be recovered for the Use of His Majesty, and shall be accounted for and applied by the said Councillor, as he is now bound by Law to account for and apply all Gale Rent or Gale Money received by him.

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to prevent His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, from proceeding by Information in His Court of Exchequer, or any other Court, for the recovering of any such Compensation as aforesaid, or any Arrears thereof, in any Case in which it shall be thought expedient to do so.

XI. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit shall be brought or commenced against any Person or Persons, for any thing by him or them done or executed in pursuance of this Act, either in the New Forest or the said Forest of Dean, such Action or Suit shall be commenced within Three Calendar Months next after the Matter or Thing done, and shall be laid in the proper County; and the Defendant or Defendants in such Action may plead the General Issue, and give the Special Matter in Evidence for his or their Defence; and if upon a Trial a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs become acquitted, or discontinued his, her or their Action or Proceedings, or Judgment shall be given against him, her or them, upon Demurrer or otherwise, then such Defendant or Defendants shall have Treble Costs awarded to him or them against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs.

V. And in order to secure the additional Duty of Four Shillings and Eight pence per Barrel on Malt imposed by this Act, be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Officer or Officers of Excise in Ireland, to take an Account of the Quantity of all Malt, ground or unground, which shall be in the Stock, Custody or Possession of any Person in Ireland, on or after the said Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty, and which shall have been charged or chargeable with the Duty payable thereon under or by virtue of any Act or Acts in force in Ireland immediately before the passing of this Act; and shall also take an Account of the Quantity of all Corn or Grain in Process of being made into Malt, which shall on the said Fifth Day of January be in the Stock, Custody or Possession of any Maltster or Maker of Malt for Sale, or Brewer or Distiller making Malt in Ireland; and every such Officer or Officers shall make a Return in Writing to the Collector of Excise or other Officer in charge of the respective Districts in which such Malt, or Corn or Grain in Process of being made into Malt, shall have been or shall be on the said Fifth Day of January, of the full and true Quantity of all such Malt in the Stock, Custody or Possession of such Person, and of the Quantity of Malt by Law chargeable in respect of all Corn or Grain in Process of being made into Malt, in the Stock, Custody or Possession of any such Maltster or Maker of Malt for Sale, or Brewer or Distiller making Malt, and of the Amount of the additional Duty of Four Shillings and Eight pence per Barrel imposed under and by virtue of this Act, as well for all Dry Malt as for all Malt chargeable with Duty in respect of all Corn or Grain in Process of being made into Malt in the Stock, Custody or Possession of every such Person respectively, on the said Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty; and every such Return shall be a Charge on every such Person respectively; and every such Officer or Officer is hereby required to have a true Copy of such Return in Writing under his Hand, with every such Return respectively, or at the Dwelling House or Stores of such Person respectively: Provided always, that in all such Dry Malt there shall be made an Allowance and Deduction from the Accounts to be taken by the Officer after the Rate of Twelve Barrels in every One hundred Barrels of Brown or Pot Still Malt, and of Five Barrels in every One hundred Barrels of all other Malt.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the proper Officer of Excise in his Return against any Maltster or Maker of Malt, or Brewer or Distiller making Malt, for the Month ending the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty, shall charge such Maltster or Maker of Malt, Brewer or Distiller making Malt, with the Duty of Nine Shillings and Four pence British Currency per Barrel imposed and payable upon Malt under and by virtue of the several Acts in force in Ireland immediately previous to the said Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty; for and in respect of the whole and either Quantity of Malt with which such Malster or Maker of Malt, Brewer or Distiller making Malt, shall by Law be chargeable for the said Month: Provided always, that the Officer or Excise in his Returns against any Malster or Maker of Malt, or Brewer or Distiller making Malt, for the Month ending the Fifth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and twenty, and in like manner for every subsequent Month, shall charge such Malster or Maker of Malt, Brewer or Distiller making Malt, with the full Duty of Fourteen Shillings per Barrel imposed on Malt by this Act, for and in respect of the whole and entire Quantity of Malt with which such Malster or Maker of Malt, Brewer or Distiller making Malt, shall by Law be chargeable for any such Month or Months: any thing herein contained to the contrary in any Act notwithstanding.

VII. And be it further enacted, That all Malt for the Removal of which from any Place in Ireland, to any other Place within the same, either Continental or by Canal or Land Carriage, a Cook Cocker or Pot still shall have been granted before the said Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty, and which shall arrive at the Place of its Destination on or after the said Fifth Day of January, shall on its Arrival become chargeable with the said additional Duty of Four Shillings and Eight pence for and upon every Barrel thereof, and after the same Rate for any greater or less Quantity: and the Officer or Officers of Excise shall make a Return thereof to the Collector of Excise of the District, or other Officer in Charge of the Collection, in like manner as is herein directed with respect to the Return to be made by any Officer or Officers of Malt in the Stock, Cullody or Pollution of any Person on the said Fifth Day of January, and such Return shall be a Charge on the Person into whose Cullody or Pollution such Malt shall come, on or after the said Fifth Day of January, and such Person shall be charged with and shall pay the additional Duty for the same accordingly.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all Persons charged with the additional Duty on Malt of Four Shillings and Eight pence per Barrel imposed by this Act, shall pay the same to the Collector of the District, or other Chief Officer in charge of the Collection of the District, at the times and in manner following: that is to say, One Fourth Part thereof on or before the Fifth Day of February, One other Fourth Part thereof on or before the Fifth Day of March, One other Fourth Part thereof on or before the Fifth Day of April, and the remaining Fourth Part thereof on or before the Fifth Day of May, next after the passing of this Act, unless such Malt shall be sooner removed, in which Case the whole of the said additional Duty shall be paid for all such Malt as shall be so removed before the time shall be removed, and before any Permit for removing or conveying the same shall be granted.

IX. And be it further enacted, That every Person chargeable with the said additional Duty on Malt under this Act, who shall not pay the additional Duty is charged on all such Malt in manner and at the times directed by this Act, or who shall remove any such Malt without having paid or cleared the whole of the said additional Duty payable on the Malt so removed, or in whose Stock Account kept by any Officer of Excise there shall appear to have been any Decrease of such Malt, without having obtained from the proper Officer a Permit authorizing the Removal of such Malt so deficient, shall be liable to and shall pay double the Amount of such additional Duty chargeable on such Malt, and shall also forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds for each Offence.

X. And be it further enacted, That all Moneys arising from the several Duties by this Act granted, the necessary Charges of paying and collecting the same being deducted, shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

XI. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where any of the said additional Duties on Malt payable under this Act by any Person shall be unpaid at the time when such Duties or any Part thereof are by this Act made due and payable, it shall and may be lawful for the Collector of Excise of the District, or other Officer in charge of the Collection of the District, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to empower any Person or Persons to take and detain any Malt, or any other Goods or Chattels in the Uls, Cullody or Pollution of the Person owing such Duties, and to cause the same to be sold by public Auction, and of after Payment of all Duties and Arrears of Duties due from such Person, together with the Costs and Expenses of such taking, detaining and Sale, there shall be any Surplus arising from the Sale thereof, such Surplus shall forthwith be tendered and paid to such Person, or his or her respective Representatives: Provided always, that when any Malt shall be so taken and detained, it shall and may be lawful for such Person, or his or her respective Representatives, at any time or times before the Day appointed for the Sale thereof, to obtain Permits for conveying all or any Part of such Malt, upon his, her or their paying to the Collector or other Chief Officer aforesaid, towards discharging the Duties to and payable, the real Value of such Malt as he, she or they shall desire to remove, and the same may be removed accordingly: and a proper Permit or proper Permits shall on due Application be given for the same, in like manner as if no such Duties had been made.

XII. And be it further enacted, That the several Drawbacks payable under any Act or Acts in force immediately before the passing of this Act upon Malt, or upon Beer or Ale or Spirits respectively exported from Ireland to Great Britain or elsewhere, shall continue to be paid and allowed on all Malt, and on all Beer or Ale or Spirits respectively so exported, upon which the additional or increased Duty, in respect whereof the increased Drawbacks are given and allowed by this Act, shall not have been fully paid and finished: Provided also, that the increased Drawbacks by this Act made payable shall not be paid or allowed on any Malt, or on any Beer or Ale or Spirits respectively so exported, unless the Person respectively who shall export such Malt or Beer or Ale respectively shall make Oath that the additional or increased Duties, on account of which such Drawbacks shall be required respectively, have been fully paid and finished, and shall also perform all such Regulations, and comply with such Regulations and Restrictions, as are or shall be required to be performed and observed by Person exporting any Article wherein any Drawback or Bounty is payable for obtaining the same.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That all the said Drawbacks shall be paid by the Collector of Ireland Excise and Tides of the District from which such Malt or Beer or Ale or Spirits shall be exported, out of any Money in his Hands, or such Certificate from the Collector, Comptroller or other Chief Officer of the Port

VIII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said Thirty first Day of July, every Maker of Tallow, Fat, Grease or Kitchen Stuff, not being an entered Maker of Candles, shall give Notice in Writing at the Office of Excise of every House, Workhouse, Room and Place made use of by him or them for the melting, rendering or keeping of any Tallow, Fat, Grease or Kitchen Stuff, within the Customs or Limits whereof such House, Workhouse, Room or Place respectively shall be situated, before he, she or they shall be made use of any such House, Workhouse, Room or Place; and it shall and may be lawful for any Officer or Officers of Excise to enter every House, Workhouse, Room and Place, entered or made use of by any Maker or Makers of Tallow, Fat or Grease, for the melting, rendering or keeping of Tallow, Fat, Grease and Kitchen Stuff, or any or either of them, and to inspect and take an Account of all Tallow, Fat, Grease and Kitchen Stuff, and other Materials in the Custody or Possession of any Maker or Makers thereof, and to take any Sample thereof respectively for or of any Fat thereof, not exceeding One Pound for each such Sample, paying for the same at the current Value thereof; and if any Maker of Tallow, Fat, Grease or Kitchen Stuff, shall make use of any House, Workhouse, Room or Place, for the melting, rendering or keeping of any Tallow, Fat, Grease or Kitchen Stuff, without having first made Entry of such House, Workhouse, Room and Place respectively, at the Office of Excise within the Customs and Limits whereof the same shall be situated; or if any such Person or Persons, not being an entered Soap Maker or Makers, shall have in his, her or their Custody or Possession any Barilla, Kelp, Black Ash or any Lye, Ley or Lime; or if any such Person or Persons shall at any time abstract or hinder any Officer or Officers of Excise in or from entering any House, Workhouse, Room or Place, entered or made use of by any Maker or Makers of Tallow, Fat, Grease or Kitchen Stuff, for the melting, rendering or keeping of any Tallow, Fat, Grease or Kitchen Stuff, or in or from respecting, receiving or taking an Account or Sample thereof, of any Tallow, Fat, Grease or Kitchen Stuff or other Materials, Barilla, Kelp, Black Ash, Lye, Ley or Lime, in the Custody or Possession of any Maker or Makers thereof, such Maker or Makers and Persons and Persons respectively offending, shall for each and every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of Two hundred Pounds; and all Barilla, Kelp, Black Ash, Lye, Ley or Lime, found in the Possession of any such Person or Persons, not being an entered Soap Maker or Makers, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise.

IX. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said Thirty first Day of July, all and every Maker and Makers of Soap shall, upon demand, receive from the proper Officer of Excise a Book or Books, to be prepared with proper printed Forms and Tables for the Purposes hereinafter mentioned, and to be kept by every such Maker of Soap in some public and open Part of his, her or their entered Premises; and that from and after the said Thirty first Day of July, no Soap exceeding Twenty eight Pounds Weight shall be sold, sent out or delivered by any such Maker of Soap to any Person or Persons whatsoever, without being accompanied by a Certificate filled up and sent out progressively from the printed Forms of such Certificates contained in such Book as aforesaid, signed by such Maker of Soap selling, sending out or delivering the same, or some Person or Persons on his, her or their behalf, certifying the Date thereof, the Quantity, Quality, Sort or Kind of such Soap, to whom sold, from whose Stock delivered, and that the Duty has been paid or secured to be paid thereon; and that the Maker of Soap selling, sending out, or delivering any Soap exceeding Twenty eight Pounds Weight as aforesaid, shall in the same time make a corresponding Entry thereof, containing the same Particulars, in such Book as aforesaid; and that such Book, with such Entries so made therein as aforesaid, shall at all times from the Hour of Six of the Clock in the Morning until the Hour of Seven of the Clock in the Evening, be open and exposed in the entered Premises of such Maker of Soap as aforesaid, to the Perusal of any Officer or Officers of Excise, and shall be delivered and given up by by such Maker of Soap as aforesaid to any Officer or Officers of Excise, upon demand; and if any Maker of Soap shall sell, send out, or deliver any Quantity of Soap exceeding Twenty eight Pounds Weight at any one time, unaccompanied by such Certificate as aforesaid, or without making such Entry in such Book as aforesaid, or shall convey away or conceal any such Book or Books as aforesaid, or conceal, obliterate, destroy or tear out any Label or Labels thereon, or Entry or Entries thereon, or shall make any false Entry or Entries therein, or shall appraise, collect, obstruct or hinder any Officer or Officers of Excise in inspecting any such Book or Books, or any such Entry or Entries therein as aforesaid, or shall at any time neglect or refuse, when required, to deliver or give up to any Officer or Officers of Excise such Book or Books as aforesaid, all and every such Maker of Soap as aforesaid shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of Two hundred Pounds; and all Soap exceeding Twenty eight Pounds Weight removing or removed without being accompanied by a true and lawful Certificate, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise, and the Parties or Persons removing, carrying or conveying the same, or who shall be or shall have been employed or concerned, or aiding or assisting therein, or in whose Custody the same shall be found, shall forfeit and lose the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

IX. And be it further enacted, That all and every Parties and Persons who shall at any time be found removing or attending and directing the Removal of any Soap from one Part of Great Britain to any other Part thereof, or shall have received any Soap for removal for Sale, shall, upon the Demand of any Officer or Officers of Excise, produce the same, and such Certificate as aforesaid, to such Officer or Officers, to be by him or them examined and inspected, and to compare such Quantity and Quality of Soap with such Certificate accompanying or which accompanied the same for such Removal; and if any such Parties or Persons shall refuse or neglect, upon such Demand, to produce any such Soap or Certificate as aforesaid, or to suffer and permit such Inspection, Examination, and compare as aforesaid, or shall hinder or obstruct any Officer or Officers of Excise therein, or in executing any of the Powers of this Act, every such Parties and Persons shall for every such Offence severally forfeit and lose the Sum of Two hundred Pounds; and in every such Case all such Soap shall be forfeited, together with the Boat, Vessel, Cart, Waggon and other Carriage, Horse, Horses and other Cattle conveying or removing the same, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise.

X. And Whereas it is usual for the Officers of Excise to leave to the Proprietors of the Traders and Manufacturers under their Survey, certain Books or Papers commonly called Specimens, for recording therein the Entries in the Books of such Officers of the State of the Manufactory, and the Accounts and Particulars of Survey taken by them from time to time as such Traders or Manufacturers: And Whereas such Practice has been found beneficial to the Revenue, and it is expedient to prevent the Removal, Obliteration or Detraction of such Excise Specimens: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for any Officer or Officers of Excise to leave and deposit in any House, Workhouse, Room or Place, entered or made use of by any Trader or Traders, Manufacturer or Manufacturers, under or subject to the Survey of any Officer or Officers of Excise, a certain Book or Paper commonly called a Specimen, and at all times to have free Access to such Book or Paper as last aforesaid; and if any Parties or Persons, not being an Excise Officer, shall remove, convey away or conceal any Book or Paper commonly called a Specimen, or shall misuse, damage or destroy the same, or deface or obliterate any Entry or Entries therein, or shall appraise, collect, obstruct or hinder any Officer or Officers of Excise in or from having free Access to, or in or from inspecting any such Book or Paper commonly called a Specimen, or in making any Entry or Entries therein, or in removing or taking away any such Book or Paper as last aforesaid, or to such Officer or Officers respectively shall from time to time, the Parties or Persons so offending shall, for each and every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

XI. And Whereas by an Act made in the Tenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty Queen Anne, for amendment of other things, laying several Duties upon Soap and Paper, and upon certain Silks, Calicoes, Linens and Stuffs, printed, painted or stained, it was enacted, that all such every Parties and Persons who shall print, paint, stain or dye as aforesaid any Silks, Calicoes, Linens or such Stuffs as in the said Act mentioned in Great Britain, shall from time to time, within Six Weeks after he, she or they shall make or ought to have made such Entry as in the said Act mentioned, clear off all the said Duties which shall be then due or remain unpaid for all such Silks, Calicoes, Linens and Stuffs as shall have been printed, painted, stained or dyed by him, her or them respectively as aforesaid, upon pain of forfeiting for every Default therein, Double the Sum of the same Duties whereof the Payment shall be so neglected; and that in such Parties, after such Default in Payment made, shall deliver or carry out, or cause to be delivered or carried out, any such printed, painted, stained or dyed Goods, until he hath paid and cleared off his Duty, on pain to forfeit Double the Value of the Goods so delivered or carried out: And Whereas it is expedient that the Duties payable for or in respect of printed, stained, painted or dyed Silks, Mulls, Calicoes, Linens and Stuffs, shall be cleared off and paid by and at the End of every Six Weeks: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the Thirty first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, all and every Parties and Persons who shall print, paint, stain or dye any Silks, Mulls, Calicoes, Linens or Stuffs, in Great Britain, shall by or at the End of every Six Weeks clear off and pay all the Duties which shall during such Six Weeks have been charged upon such Parties or Persons respectively, or shall then remain unpaid, for all such Silks, Mulls, Calicoes, Linens and Stuffs respectively as shall have been printed, painted, stained or dyed by him, her or them respectively, upon pain of forfeiting, for every Default therein, Double the Sum of the said Duties whereof the Payment shall be so neglected; and that no such Parties, after making default of such Payments, shall deliver or carry out, or cause to be delivered
